THE CITY.

A meeting of the Reform Club will be held at Mercantile hall at 7:30 Sunday evening.

Mr. Charles W. Gardner has resigned his office of Deputy Sheriff. His successor has not yet been named.

The fishermen who were out on Friday, and were glad to run into port at an early hour, reported a heavy gale from the southward prevailing outside.

Hon. Frank Jones and wife, with Col. and Mrs. Sinclair, have started for a journey to Montreal, Toronto, and New York State, to be absent for a fortnight.

Dr. Charles Cullis, well known to many in this city for his faith work for many years in Boston, will give by invitation an address at a union meeting in the North church on Sunday at 3 P. M. All are invited.

Lucius M. Hardy, son of Rev. A. C. Hardy, formerly of this city, who has been a teacher in the Penacook Normal academy at Fisherville for three years, has accepted a position in an Episcopal school at Raleigh, South Carolina.

The occasional explosions sounding through the heavy air of late were not as some supposed salutes in honor of greenback victories, but blasts from the ledge in the cellar of Frank Jones' new building on Congress street. A large sidewalk committee is giving gratuitous attention to the work there in progress.

On the docket of the Supreme Court for the county of Rockingham, to commence in this city on the third Tuesday of October, there are three hundred and thirty-four civil actions, sixty-one equity cases, twenty-three State actions and six cases in sessions. Hon. Isaac W. Smith will be the presiding justice. Taxpayers will be glad to notice that the number of cases grows smaller at each term.

Mrs. J. K. Barney, of Providence, R. I., will shortly speak in this city under the auspices of the Reform Club. She lectured in the Free Baptist church in Raymond on a recent Sunday, and a correspondent says "a very full congregegation was deeply interested. She is a ready speaker, evidently possessing a warm, feeling heart; eminently devoted to the great work in which she is engaged. Her voice is fine, her language correct and forcible, her manner graceful and winning. In the evening the town hall was filled almost to overflowing; a praise service was conducted by Rev. J. R. Bartlett of Epping, after which Mrs. Barney lectured on temperance."

A circular letter from Chief Engineer O'Connor of the New Orleans fire department has been received by Chief Engineer Fletcher of this city, which says: "You no doubt have seen by the telegraphic dispatches in the papers that an appeal has been made by the Firemen's Charitable Association of this city, for aid from kindred institutions throughout the country. Any aid extended to our organization in this time of great need will be duly appreciated and ever remembered." We have already announced the contribution of $21 by Sagamore S. F. E. Co., No. 2. Extinguisher Company, No. 5 has also contributed $5; and on Friday evening Kearsarge S. F. E. Co., No. 3, and the Hook & Ladder Co., each contributed $21 for the cause.

THE VICINITY.

The town school of Newington is in charge of Miss Lizzie E. Adams of Kittery, who has had charge of it for two summers previously, with marked success.

Timothy Broderick of Biddeford was drowned in Saco river on the evening of Wednesday, 11th inst., by falling overboard from the excursion steamer Augusta. The unfortunate man was intoxicated, and though the steamer stopped and sent out a boat at once, he sank before he could be reached.

Oscar Ingerbredsen, son of the fisherman who has for many years lived on Appledore island, had a fall some four weeks since. He did not complain of any injuries to his friends until recently, when on being questioned he admitted that he was suffering internally. His father took him to the Massachusetts General Hospital for treatment on the 9th inst., and Thursday evening was notified that his son was dead. His remains were brought to this city Friday afternoon for interment. He was a young man of steady habits, industrious and honest.

A large new barn, sixty feet long and forty wide, belonging to William G. Getchell of Wells, Me., was burned on the morning of the 10th inst., with forty tons of hay which it contained, mowing machine, and other farming utensils. The fire was evidently of incendiary origin, and the person who fired it led out Mr. Getchell's cow and tied her near the barn. Lumber for a shed and stable was also consumed. Mr. Getchell had a set of buildings burned off this place over a year ago, and was living for the present about four miles distant from the fire. The barn was insured $200.

Mr. William Trefethen, who died at Kittery on Thursday, was for many years known as one of the watchmen on the navy yard. He was a soldier in Capt. Hardy's company of the N. H. militia, stationed at Fort Sullivan for the defence of this harbor in the war of 1812, and was placed on the pension list in 1871. He was a man of universally acknowledged uprightness of character, and accumulated by his thrifty habits and careful ways quite a handsome property. His sons are among the best and most respected residents of our neighboring town. Mr. Trefethen never was sick until the day before he died; his long life was one of perfect regularity, and the physician's first call upon the patient was his only visit.

A Joke by Two Tramps.

Flood and Bruce are peripatetic printers, widely known. They have a habit of turning up here and elsewhere when least expected, coming without warning and departing even as the wind. By a rare chance they have just been heard from at Danville, Ill., tramping from St. Louis, and headed in this direction. They came within view of that city last Sunday weary with travel and sorely hungered. The road they came has been overworked. The erstwhile hospitable farmer now sets his dog upon the wayfaring man instead of welcoming him to his family. Through this departure from the customs of the fathers, they walked and ate not.

Thoroughly discouraged at their repeated failures to procure food, they yet concluded to make one more trial on this beautiful Sunday morning, and cautiously entered the yard of a decent farmhouse, peering about them to see that Towser did not come suddenly around a corner. They knocked on the front door; no response. At the side door; no answer. They went in. There was not a soul at home. A table spread, and a most substantial meal was before them. It was like a dream from the Arabian nights. The dinner was, doubtless, awaiting the return of the family from church. The pedestrians fell to, and their knives and forks soon smoked with the friction of execution.

To say that they fared most sumptuously would convey no idea of the amount they ate nor the intense satisfaction with which the viands were received. As they were finishing the feast a knock was heard. Bruce, with his unparallelled cheek, went to the door. There stood two other tramps, who asked for something to eat. Bruce, in a rare spirit of mischief, questioned them closely regarding their trave's, and finally asked if they would chop wood for their dinners. They answered yes. He then took them to a woodpile that he had noticed in the rear of the house, and they went to work. Bruce and Flood, filling their pockets with victuals, stole out of the sideway from the house and went to a neighbouring hill, where they had a full view of the woodpile and the toiling tramps. There they gloated over the picture. To make their measure of enjoyment run over, the owner of the farm-house with several daughters and two stalwart sons arrived on the scene, the devastation of the dinner was discovered, and the two sweating tramps at the woodpile seized as the depredators. All was seen by the two on the hill, from the arrival of the family to the ignominious expulsion of the woodcutters.

Of the deceived and injured tramps the story sayeth nothing. — Indianapolis News.

—A woman is never thoroughly interested in a newspaper article until she reaches the place where the balance is torn off.

—Nothing betrays the innocence of men's natures more than to see one feeling all over his coat-tails to find a pocket which is in his coat at home.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, if he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in removing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor!

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. t oct 4 —"Nothing but leaves," said Eve, pleasantly, when Adam praised the taste shown in her new polonaise.

—"The egg race" is a feature of Nevada picnics. One is thus described: "Each la y was required to carry an uncooked egg in a tablespoon, the one reaching the goal first with the egg unbroken to be judged winner. Enough eggs were broken to make an omelette as big as the wheel of a quartz wagon."

—The other day a Philadelphia grocer's son struck a match and held it over the bunghole of a coal-oil barrel, to see how much it had in. He knows now. Railways in Newfoundland.

There is a mine for railway contractors in Newfoundland, that island having, up to the present time, escaped the railway fever. Its public resources in this respect are, therefore, untouched. The Montreal Star says:

The Legislative Assembly of Newfoundland proposes to grant an annual subsidy of £120,000 to any company which will construct a railway across the island from St. John's to George's Bay. This is undoubtedly the line which was recommended some years ago by Mr. Sanford Fleming in connection with his shortest route to Europe via Shippegan. The line across the island was surveyed several years ago by order of the island government and under the direction of Mr. Light, who also endorsed all that had been said in its favor by Mr. Fleming. If it be all that is contended for it, this line, in connection with the Intercolonial Railway and the required steam service across the Gulf of St. Lawrence, would enable the Atlantic trade—passengers, mails and merchandise—to be landed at and despatched from a point of North America almost 1000 miles nearer to Europe than New York, thus avoiding that part of the voyage between New York and Cape Race. Years ago this shorter route proposal was warmly endorsed by the press in the United States, and it may be that the action of the Newfoundland authorities will have some effect in bringing it to a consummation.

Better Times.

Signs of business revival multiply. Among the more encouraging may be named the increased attendance and variety of goods exhibited at the great agricultural fairs held at the west in the fall. At these exhibitions the farmers bring their choicest products, but the merchants and manufacturers from many States also seize the opportunity to display their goods. The character of these exhibitions has indicated for several years the limited hopes of exhibitors and the diminished interest and enforced economy of possible buyers. An improvement in the attendance and the display marks a better feeling on the part of consumers, and greater hope of profit on the part of producers.

The tone of commercial articles in the journals of the western cities is also more hopeful. The Chicago Times of Friday last says: "The present is the liveliest week for business that has been experienced for a long time in Chicago. In addition to the large packages of all kinds of merchandise purchased by buyers in personal attendance, jobbers are constantly receiving a good many mail orders for goods, and a considerable proportion of these orders are from newly-settled points in Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, Texas and other States and territories."

Even at St. Paul, where some disheartenment and dullness would not be unnatural, if the injury to the wheat crop had been great or general, the Press states that "the wholesale trade for August has been the largest ever known, with about two exceptions, and trade for September promises to be enormous."

In many of the western cities, also, the people are beginning to discover that the approach of specie payments does actually bring greater confidence and activity, and that money is abundant enough when they have anything to give for it for which anybody else can afford to pay cash. There has been no expansion, but contraction, and yet better times are here. The weeding out of bankrupt firms, which the country had been carrying too long, has given much relief. In short, what the West needed was not "more money," but fewer reckless borrowers.—N. Y. Tribune.

—A letter recently produced in a breach of promise suit as evidence, contained the following sentence: "Dearest love—I swallowed the postage stamp on your letter, because I knew your lips had touched it."

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route or through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a broken stone roadbed of a foot in eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbia, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions, and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your tablets have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 182 pounds, and there is a general improvement in her health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, I have reduced my weight from 245 pounds to four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOUGLAS & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city weighing 245 pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis Writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and since I have lost twenty-five pounds altogether." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. "At the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to three pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unerring blood purifier, it promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPS., Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hospital, having treated thousands cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases which it controls, commending its use, singled it out as the climax or culmination of my medical career. On its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and on that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid, that I who used to offer of the elements for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For Conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.

I offer this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.25. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Hosea W. Parker, Reformer.

The president of the recent democratic State convention was Hon. Hosea W. Parker, of Claremont. On taking the chair Mr. Parker "made a ringing speech," in which he said that "extravagance, class legislation and a total disregard of the rights of the common people has been the rule of action of the radical party. Unjust burdens had been placed upon the tax-payers." Mr. Parker also "referred to the streams of corruption flowing from the great central point of the national government, and the results of republican rule, paralyzing the industries of the country, destroying its commerce, and quadrupling the expenses of the government." The ardent reformer was "loudly and repeatedly applauded" for his stinging reprobation of republican misdeeds.

We think the sentiments of Hon. Hosea W. Parker, President of the New Hampshire Democratic State Convention, very fine indeed; and we cannot help regretting that Congressman Hosea W. Parker did not appreciate as fully as Ex-Congressman Parker does, the evils of extravagance, placing unjust burdens upon the tax-payers, and increasing the expenses of the government. If he had, that $5000 of the back-pay steal which Congressman Hosea W. Parker pocketed, and with which he built a fine house in Claremont for Democratic Reformer Hosea W. Parker to live in, would never have been stolen, even though Benjamin F. Butler, who is to be the next democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, did engineer the steal through the House.

The Hon. Hosea's salary-grab performance of course does not militate against his reputation as a democratic reformer. There is no reason why it should, for Samuel J. Randall, who was next to Ben Butler in urging on that shameless robbery of the people, is Speaker of the democratic "reform House," and no other of the democratic salary-grabbers has been punished for his misdeeds, so far as we know. But to honest men it does seem a little queer that a convention of pure, unselfish democratic patriots should be lectured on honesty by a salary-grabber.

—The Nevada Sentinel says that the gentleman who attracted so much attention in church last Sunday, by crying out "Holy Lord!" had not the intention of disturbing the congregation. "He had been putting down carpets, and as he sat down in the pew he suddenly remembered that he had left some tacks in his coat-tail pocket. We make mention of this in justice to his family, who are highly respectable."

—For unmitigated gush the following from a Saratoga paper takes the palm: "What shall we say of Marie Roze? What words can convey any idea of those sweet, pure, rich, delicious tones which seem to gush forth from an inexhaustible fountain of melody? What glorious visions lifted the mind as the great column of music, forced higher and higher, at last broke into spray, and the air seemed full of diamonds and pearls and opals and sapphires, all lighted up by the singer's lustrous beauty. Or it was like the waves of the ocean, driven on the beach by some unseen but irresistible force, which first inspires awe by their power, and then delight by their brilliancy, as the white crests are broken into glittering jewels on the sand."

EASTERN RAILROAD CO.

2d. To see if the Stockholders will approve a new lease of the railroad of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire.

3d. To see if the Stockholders will approve a new lease of the railroad of the Portsmouth, Great Falls and Conway Railroad.

"No Uncertain Sound!"

The Boston Post puts over its report of the doings of the Democratic State Convention of New Hampshire a black head-line, "Resolutions that speak with no uncertain sound;" and says editorially:

The resolutions adopted speak out plainly on all the issues of the day, and are in marked contrast with those adopted by the republicans.

That the democratic resolutions are "in marked contrast" to the fearless and positive resolutions of the republican State convention, must be admitted; but let us see how "plainly" they "speak out on all the issues of the day." The prominent issue just now is the financial one; at least, it was on that issue that the democratic party of Maine was rubbed out of existence. The question of whether the national debt shall be paid in money or in worthless paper; whether specie payments, now in fact virtually accomplished, shall be again and indefinitely postponed; whether we shall have a currency of gold and silver, and paper based on coin and worth as much as coin because interchangeable with it—these are the questions of overshadowing interest at present. And the following is what the democrats of New Hampshire in State convention assembled had to say on the subject:

Resolved, That we are in favor of a stable currency, the just payment of the public debt, and but one currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Resolved, That whatever currency is issued by the government should be issued for the benefit of the whole people, and not for the benefit of capitalists at the expense of the people.

And those resolutions are what the Post refers to as "speaking with no uncertain sound!" That is the democratic idea of "speaking out plainly" on the leading "issue of the day," the currency question.

"Resolved, That we are in favor of a stable currency"—but what kind of a currency? There is not a word in this "plain speaking" democratic platform to show whether the party is in favor of gold or pewter, or room paper, or wampum, or cowries, or muskrat skins, as a "stable currency." Possible Nasby's leather money is what the New Hampshire democrats want; if not, their resolutions give no hint to the contrary.

"Resolved, That we are in favor of "the just payment of the public debt"—but what kind of a payment of the debt will be regarded by the democratic party as a "just" one? Not a word, not a hint even, is given in the resolutions, to guide the honest man or the would-be swindler. The greenbackers, some of them at least, claim that a payment in irredeemable paper would be a "just payment." Others go still further, and say that absolute and immediate repudiation would be a "just" payment, the bondholders having already received far more than they paid for the bonds. The republicans demand that the debt shall be paid according to the letter and spirit of the law—in money, not in irredeemable promises to give other irredeemable promises. Which kind of payment does the democratic party of New Hampshire think would be a "just" one? Nobody can form any idea from the financial planks of the "plain speaking" platform of the party's State convention.

The resolution about the currency—"whatever currency" is issued, being "issued for the benefit of the whole people," etc., was palpably intended as a sop for the national bank haters; the convention that had just nominated a national banker for the highest office in the gift of the people of the State, could not of course be expected to denounce the national bank system in any plain language.

By way of emphasizing the "marked contrast" spoken of by the Post between the democratic and republican resolutions, we reprint the financial planks of the republican platform, as follows:

Resolved, That we will give to the present administration our cordial support in all just measures tending to purify and elevate the public service, to secure and perpetuate interstate amity and confidence, to guard and maintain the political rights of individuals and classes, to preserve the plighted faith and to perpetuate the honor and prosperity of the nation; and we heartily commend that management of the finances under which the last fragment of the premium on gold is disappearing, the borrowing rate steadily diminishing, and the long depression in business and industry vanishing before a sure return of confidence and prosperity.

Resolved, That our good name and welfare as a people demand that our financial pledges, made in the hour of national peril, should be maintained inviolate, and our public debt be paid, principal and interest, according to the spirit and letter of the law.

Resolved, That as repeated efforts and failures have proved it to be beyond the power of governments to impart value to irredeemable paper and maintain its currency as money, and as our legal tender notes were issued under a solemn promise that they should be redeemed dollar for dollar in gold and silver at the earliest practical moment after the restoration of peace, and as the time for the fulfilment of this pledge has now arrived, and specie payment has been reached, we denounce all efforts to delay the day of resumption and to inflate the currency by any additional issue of irredeemable paper as destructive to all business interests, unwise, dishonorable and fraudulent as public measures.

If there can be any plainer declaration for honest money, honest payment of the national debt in such money, and prompt specie resumption, and against the issue of worthless paper, no plainer declaration is needed.

There are now three parties in New Hampshire. The republican party stands pledged to make one dollar as good as another—each dollar, no matter of what material, to be worth one hundred cents in gold. The greenback party stands pledged to furnish an unlimited quantity of dollars which shall be as good for the working man as for the capitalist—being worthless to both. These two parties plainly and fearlessly support the principles which they hold. But the democratic party, having no financial principles whatever, good or bad, is ready to take "whatever currency" the advocacy of will "benefit the party." Of the two parties, the democratic and greenback, the former having no principles and the latter openly advocating bad ones, the latter is the more respectable and the less dangerous.

It Might Have Been.

Had the republicans thought less of partisanship and shown truer devotion to "honest money," they could have made Maine what she once was, the bright and shining star in the east, and a strong bulwark and defence against financial heresies and disasters.—Dem. paper.

As the republican platform of Maine was an unmistakable hard money one, and the republicans fought the campaign squarely on the issues of honest money and honest payment of the national debt, we don't see what more our hard-money democratic contemporary would have had them do, unless it thinks they should have refrained from making any nominations whatever, and supported the democrats who were nominated on a half-and-half greenback platform. Had the democrats of Maine declared boldly in their platform for the old-time financial faith of the party, and during the campaign abstained from truckling to and trading with the inflationists, they would not have made the pitiful showing they did in the election returns.

Then and Now.

At the Democratic State Convention of 1875 Hon. Harry Bingham reported the resolutions, of which the following was one:

Third—Economical administration and an honest currency are the only assurance of national prosperity; no more financial shams in Congressional legislation. Specie payments are the demand of the people.

Nobody could even affect to misunderstand that declaration. "Specie payments are the demand of the people." That is plain and explicit enough.

At the Democratic State Convention of 1878 Hon. Harry Bingham reported the resolutions, of which the following was one:

Resolved, That we are in favor of a stable currency, the just payment of the public debt and but one currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

The democratic convention of 1875 had positive views on the financial question, and announced that "the people" demanded specie payments. The convention of 1878 having no settled views on the question, or not daring to announce them if held, talked beautifully but said nothing. No wonder the greenbackers claim—as they do claim—that there is nothing opposed to "fiat" money and the payment of the bonds in such money, contained in the New Hampshire democratic platform of 1878, and that therefore all who have heretofore been democrats should vote with the greenbackers this year.

News and Notes.

The freight outfit of S. M. Booth, which left Custer City, Dakota Ter., a week ago, was stopped in Red Canon, Thursday afternoon, by a band of road agents, and robbed of horses, provisions, clothing, arms and money. Booth lost $1200 in cash. The telegraph repair team was also stopped and robbed of arms, provisions and camping outfit.

The Neptune Engine, No. 8, of Newburyport, having taken the first prize, $300, at the New England muster at Brattleboro, Vt., on reaching home was received by Company No. 1, with music and banners. After a parade a collation was served. The Neptune's 215 1-2 feet through 300 feet of hose is the best record ever made by a hand engine.

Monroe Wolcott, keeper of the town farm in Berlin, Conn., died of hydrophobia Thursday. He and his wife were bitten by a puppy in February last. The Hartford Post says this is the seventh death from hydrophobia in that part of the State within a year.

The Ocean Mills at Newburyport sold more cotton goods last week than for six weeks before; this may obviate a suspension feared from accumulation.

Senor Mantilla, Spanish Minister, was sued for a livery bill at Saratoga last summer. Justice Barrett would not listen to the minister's counsel, who pleaded diplomatic privilege, and entered judgment against the delinquent for the full amount of the bill and costs. The minister lodged a complaint against the Saratoga justice with Secretary Evarts, who has turned the case over to the law officers, and a United States marshal has interviewed the justice. It is understood that the justice will be prosecuted and punished for violating the privilege of a duly accredited minister to be free from arrest or prosecution in our courts. Justice Barrett ignorantly thought there was no law to prevent a Spanish minister from paying his debts like any other man.

A terrific storm passed over parts of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina and Canada, Thursday night, causing disastrous floods and the destruction of much property, with considerable loss of life. Bridges and houses were carried away in various places, and railroads badly washed. Near Meadville, Pa., nine persons were drowned.

Medical Inspector Gihon, Medical Inspector Leach and Assistant Surgeon Harmon constitute the medical board for the examination of candidates for admission into the Naval Academy of cadet engineers and cadet midshipmen.

Two mail coaches were stopped near Hot Creek, Wy. T., Friday night, and robbed. While the robbers were engaged in sacking the mail taken from the second coach they were fired upon by two messengers, and a fight ensued, the messengers keeping concealed as well as they could. One highwayman was killed, and the messengers think two others were badly wounded.

Isham Lewis, a colored man of Worcester, Mass., on Saturday assaulted a young Irish girl named Hannah Courtney od the street, and attempted to murder her by cutting her throat. It was thought she might recover.

A mean thief, indeed, was he who broke into the house of the Catholic priest at Litchfield, Ill., and stole the $1.77 just collected in his church to send south.

A petition will be presented to the next legislature and a strong effort be made to pass a law restricting railroads to charge passengers only two cents a mile, as in New York, and the petitioners claim that the Boston, Concord & Montreal tariff is outrageously high. The local rates are six and seven cents a mile. For example: the distance from Bath to Woodsville is four and one-half miles, and the fare is thirty cents.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:—

SECT. 1. Whoever paints or puts upon or in any manner affixes to any fence, bridge, or other structure, or to or upon any rock or other natural object, the property of another, any words, device, trade-mark, advertisement, or notice, without first obtaining the consent thereto of the owners of such property, shall, upon complaint of the owner or tenant of such property, or the city or town authorities within whose limits the offense is committed, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each offense; provided, that this act shall not apply to any notice required by law to be posted in a particular place.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

The recently formed boat club of this city last week purchased at Portland three new shells, which are to be added to those previously owned by the club.

The committee from the several engine companies appointed to confer in relation to a firemen's muster, held a meeting Friday evening and voted to indefinitely postpone the subject, because of the lateness of the season and a fear that there was not sufficient time to make arrangements for such a muster as they would want to have.

The largest panes of glass in this city are those just set in the show-windows of the store under the CHRONICLE office, they measuring five and a half feet by eight and a half. Mr. D. H. Montgomery, who expects to occupy the enlarged and improved store about the first of next month, will have excellent accommodations when he gets there.

Van Amburgh & Co.'s great circus and menagerie appears in this city to-day. It is a big show, as the extracts previously published by us from other papers sufficiently attest. Van Amburgh has been a noted name in the show business for almost or quite half a century, and the establishments taken around under that name have improved with each year.

The scow and hoisting engine belonging to C. E. Walker & Co. sank at the navy yard Friday morning, the scow getting caught in such a way that she filled with the rising tide. Not long ago the same scow and engine played the same trick alongside a wharf on this side of the river. The engine was raised on Saturday, by means of the navy yard anchor boy.

Major S. C. Vedders, 19th Infantry Regiment, U. S. A., who is connected with the signal service, was in this city Saturday, on a tour of inspection. He expressed perfect satisfaction with the arrangements made for the display of signals, and will recommend an instrument for measuring the velocity of the wind and other needed improvements on his return to Washington.

Prof. O. S. Fowler, the phrenologist, delivered free lectures in Franklin hall on Friday and Saturday evenings. The audience the first evening was small, though all that could be asked in point of quality; there was a show at Music hall, and an entertainment at the Universalist vestry in aid of the yeltow fever sufferers, on the same evening, which no doubt had something to do with the small number of persons present, the audience on Saturday evening being much larger. Prof. Fowler can be consulted at the Rockingham house until Tuesday noon.

Sunday afternoon about two o'clock, a boat which Montgomery Anderson and Benjamin Seawards of Kittery were in capsized from being struck by a flaw of wind, while sailing on the river. They were seen by Mr. Stephen Yeaton, gate tender at Noble's island bridge, who procured a boat and went to their assistance, succeeding with great difficulty in rescuing them, being aided by Wm. Anderson and another man. Montgomery Anderson was held under water by a turn of the main sheet around his arm, and was completely exhausted when gotten clear.

There was some excitement created at the Eastern depot, Saturday forenoon, by the running against the telegraph wires of a building that was being moved from Cass street to North street. A train was about due, and the oxen were going along lively at the time, the drivers wishing to get clear of the cars, and they were rather astonished when they were brought up all standing, as they had not thought of meeting obstacles in the air. Men went to the top of the house and lifted the wires clear, and the track was unobstructed when the train arrived.

The concert at Music hall Thursday evening was a fine one. Miss Mary W. Caldwell, of Newburyport, maintained her high reputation as a reader; Miss Edith Wendell, already a decided favorite as a singer, showed that she is profiting largely by the instructions of Mrs. Barry of Boston, whose tuition she is under; and Miss Etta Starbird, of Weymouth, Mass., sang a simple song and Donizetti's cavatina "O luce," the latter being most beautifully rendered. Reinwald & Taylor's orchestra performed several selections in their usual style—which means first-rate. The net proceeds of the entertainment, $46.26, has been sent to Algiers, La., by Lafayette S. Butler, Esq., to whom the credit of getting up this entertainment is due.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Sept. 14; Batchelder, J.

Thomas Hoyt, charged with malicious mischief in breaking windows was bound over in $100 for his appearance at the October term of the Supreme Court. It is a pity that whoever gave or sold him the liquor on which he got intoxicated could not be put in his place, for when sober he would not harm anybody or anything.

John Ferrell, for drunkenness, was ordered to pay $9.90, fine and costs. Not having any $9.90, Mr. Ferrell went to Brentwood.

THE VICINITY.

A young French girl named Bernard, an employe in one of the weave rooms of the Pepperell mills at Saco, had her right hand drawn into the machinery and literally ground up, Friday, necessitating amputation.

The Biddeford Times of Saturday says: "This week a tramp has been making himself obnoxious to persons residing on Bacon street and vicinity. He would enter houses and roam about at will if no one obstructed his path. In some cases he would kick at the door when he failed to find it unfastened. People should keep their doors locked." That is just the kind of bummer the New Hampshire tramp law was intended for.

The Controversy Between the Boston & Lowell and the Nashua & Lowell Railroads.

Important Action on the Part of Certain Members of the Nashua Corporation.

Messrs. Gedney K. Richardson and Francis A. Brooks, with Parker and Stackpole of Boston, on Friday filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the District of New Hampshire, a bill in equity against the Nashua & Lowell railroad and several of the directors living at Nashua, including Frank A. McKean. The bill sets forth the chartering of the N. & L. road by the legislature of New Hampshire and the operation of the road in connection with the Boston & Lowell; that the directors ascertained that the B. & L. owed the N. & L. nearly $200,000, and in obedience to a vote of the stockholders passed at the annual meeting in May last began to take measures to enforce the rights of the corporation and to prepare to operate the Nashua & Lowell at the termination of the present business arrangement, October first, but some of the directors from some cause are anxious to accept a proposition from the Boston & Lowell not for the interest of the stockholders of the Nashua & Lowell road to adopt. The bill at no little length sets out the contract and the present condition of things, and prays for injunction to restrain the directors from executing such lease.

Judge Clark, the U. S. District Judge who acts as the Circuit Judge (which office is at present vacant) for this Circuit, granted an injunction which was served upon O. C. Moore, Esq., of Nashua, the clerk of the Nashua & Lowell railroad, and upon Frank A. McKean, Dr. J. G. Graves, Wm. W. Bailey and Jeremiah W. White, all of Nashua, and H. P. Watts of Manchester, directors in the N. & L. R. R. The injunction is returnable at the October term of the Circuit Court on the 8th of October. The questions are of no little consequence to both corporations. The Nashua & Lowell road is a little one fourteen miles in length, and it leases the Stony Brook and the Wilton & Peterborough railroads. The length of these roads is thirty-nine miles. Its capital stock is $800,000, and it has a debt of $480,000. Against this it has its interest in the equipment in the Mystic river wharf and other property, with the claim that the Boston & Lowell railroad owes it about $200,000 for a part of the net income due the Nashua & Lowell corporation as its portion of the profits under the joint contract.

The Boston & Lowell has offered to lease the Nashua & Lowell at 6 1-2 per cent. per year, but some of the larger shareholders of the N. & L. want indemnity for this sum claimed to be due their road, and are determined to try what virtue there is in the law as a remedy against the Boston & Lowell. Ex-Judge A. F. Sawyer of Nashua, and Henry S. Clark, Esq., of Manchester, are counsel for the parties representing the Nashua & Lowell railroad interest.

Political.

If, as seems probable, the only political question is to be that of our currency, the sooner the lines are drawn the better. There are honest-money men enough to make a strong, successful party. We fear there are not enough for two.

Says a democratic exchange: "The defeat of the republican party in Maine is complete and overwhelming." Republican vote in Maine, 58,000; greenback vote in Maine, 38,000; democratic vote in Maine, 29,000.

Col. Henry O. Kent was on Friday nominated for Congress by the democrats of the third district of New Hampshire.

The Democratic National Campaign Committee at Washington has decided to enter upon the contests in the east, as well as in the south and west, upon the inflation platform. It will begin by a general distribution of Thurman's greenback speeches, and these will be supplemented by such candid and more dangerous doctrines as it is thought special sections will bear. In one word, the democratic party, as a party, has gone over to the wild, the illegal, the inevitably ruinous theories of the men who propose to violate the national promises, taint the national honor, and destroy the national credit, to the end that the whole country may be involved in one common and almost irretrievable desolation.

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor!

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. d1w o1t

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. t oct 4

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 40 cents.

—The funeral services of a San Franciscan were delayed by the tardiness of the clergyman. "While we are waiting," said one of the mourners, "our friend Mr. Welters, will perhaps oblige us with a recitation." Mr. Welters obliged, reciting the "Raven."

—The aggregate earnings of the American people now amount to ten billions of dollars annually, about ten per cent. of which, or one billion, is a surplus added to the general capital. The true gold value of the personal and real estate of the country is not less than twenty-five billions of dollars.

—A novel bet on the result of the coming State election is announced at South Abington, Mass. In case Butler is elected a barber is to have the privilege of shaving the hair and beard completely off the head and face of a customer, and if not elected, the customer is to enjoy free shaving for one year at the hands of the barber.

—At Windsor Locks the other day a horse strayed upon the railroad track, and raced with a freight train. His first mishap was being knocked sixteen feet over a cattle guard. He gathered himself up, and continued the race without episode, until he met another freight train, moving in the opposite direction. The two trains confused him, and he lost his head and three legs, besides being ground up generally.

—By thrift he had become a millionaire, and he had a splendid St. Bernard dog which he was very proud of. One day the servant came to him terror-stricken. "Master, master, Cæsar is"—"Is what?" "Mad, I'm afraid. He won't touch water any more than if he was a crude apostle of temperance, and there's as much foam about his mouth as if he was the sea in one of Swinburne's poems." "Great heavens, it is lucky you discovered it in time. We must not lose a minute. Take the animal at once, before he has bitten any one"—"Yes, sir." "And sell him!"—Paris paper.

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the trave ling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, loss of appetite, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and bowels costive, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it controls severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chalk, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate kindly, but thoroughly, according to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Dizziness, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in regions of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets we may say, as a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in clumsy wooden or pasteboard boxes, for all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument that can be used with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche, 50c. by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, barks and herbs in their essential form, free from every virous contamination, and in this respect differs from very other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of rational reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, to considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me inestimable.

HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.

GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.

D. W. GRAY, M. D., MERCANTILE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.

WM. BOWEN, 225 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.

WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 129 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.

S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.

GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. Daily Chronicle.

Experiences of a Vermont Judge in the Far West.

The Washington correspondent of the Graphic thus describes a singular contest which is going on in Wyoming Territory:

The is a curious fight going on in the Attorney General's office between a Judge and a District Attorney in Wyoming Territory. A couple of years ago Judge Peck of Vermont was appointed Judge of Wyoming, but on account of his notions regarding morals and court etiquette he soon became very unpopular in the Territory. He even carried his whim of professional propriety so far as to prohibit swearing in court, and is said to have fined a lawyer who swore at a witness during his cross-examination. Another peculiarity of this Judge is a dislike of seeing attorneys, when arguing a case before him, pass around a bottle of whisky, and he is said to be violently opposed to lawyers treating the jury to "drinks" while a trial is in progress. Judge Peck is also reported to have violated common decency by refusing to proceed with a case until the attorneys engaged in it had extinguished their pipes, and a community once rose in indignation when he ordered a lawyer to remove his feet from the Judge's desk. These whimsical notions are alleged to have made Judge Peck very unpopular in the Territory; but when he instructed a grand jury to indict every man who indulged in gambling or sold liquor without a license, the outraged public demanded his removal. Not being able to secure this, a bill, drawn by District Attorney Johnson, passed the Territorial Legislature, reapportioning the Territory into judicial districts, and assigning Judge Peck to the northern district, which does not contain a town or a court house, and is entirely uninhabited except by military garrisons, Indians and wild beasts. He was deprived, by this bill, of any jurisdiction whatever, and the indignation of the public was satisfied. The Governor of the Territory who approved this remarkable bill was removed by the President last winter, and an act was passed by the Senate disapproving the action of the Territorial Legislature; but through the influence of the delegate in Congress the House of Representatives refused to concur with the Senate and the bill was defeated. Judge Peck, who has now no jurisdiction, has nothing to do but labor for the removal of District Attorney Johnson, who, he claims, is the author of all the mischief. But Johnson is warmly sustained by the citizens, who feel a debt of gratitude to him for his brilliant achievement in shelving such an outrageous Judge; and Johnson, backed by the citizens, is endeavoring to secure Judge Peck's removal, promising, when that is accomplished, to secure the repeal of the redistricting act.

—The Belgians are not a demostrative people; royalty, in the abstract, does not inspire them with enthusiastic admiration or respect; their instincts are democratic, and they incline to the belief that one man is as good as another, and a great deal better, too. They are accustomed, also, to see their King strolling about among them in a straw hat and plain-cut morning dress, to run up against him at street corners, and to only bob semi-apologetically when they happen to tread upon his lame foot.

—Before the recent marriage festival of the daughter of Prince Frederick William of Prussia, it was thought advisable to test the strength of the floor of the great reception room of the new palace at Potsdam. With that view a number of soldiers were ordered to enter it in double file, and to their great surprise, were then ordered to dance the polka. They at first considered the matter as a joke, but as the strains of the band gave them encouragement, they went through both a polka and a galop. The floor was found satisfactory.

The Resolutions of the Democracy.

The platform of the democratic convention always shows the result of one master spirit. Everybody knows, who knows or cares anything about it, that when the General Court adjourns, Harry Bingham retires to the rocks and hills of the Grafton region to ponder, and produce the resolutions of the coming convention of his party. He is and ever will be the committee on resolutions. He draws the indictments against the republicans, reads up in history to find what the democracy did years ago, and without considering that the world moves, denounces the republicans as responsible for all the misfortunes of the hour, and promises wonderful results when his party shall come into power. The long and faithful labor that brings forth such solid political enunciations should have its reward, and indeed it commonly does. The time honored delegates swallow it all as orthodox, and the new comer is told that in matters of this kind, Bingham is the oracle. Ordinarily no one dares to differ from the prescribed regulation diet, much less express a desire for a modification of its tone. Bingham is Bingham and that is enough. There can be no painting the lily, no ornamentation of the work of him of Littleton. That important functionary Mr. Beadle Bumble could not have shown more genuine astonishment or more indignant disgust at the unheard of request of Oliver Twist, than would the Mogul of the democracy at a request for a modification of his resolutions.

In his platform the past week he touched gingerly the finance question. He believed in paying the public debt, as Mr. McKean, the nominee, is a bondholder, and advocated one currency for the laborer and every other man. That was correct, sound, in fact republican and anti-greenback. But the irrepressible Hussey of Rochester dared to criticise the resolutions! He wanted the bonds taxed, the national banking act repealed, payment of the bond in paper promises, and greenbacks without limit. In short Hussey went the entire greenback figure, and seemed rebellious. It remained for Col. George to put down the Rochester rebel who had dared to breathe against the platform. The Col. was just the man. He on all suitable occasions, in convention or out, is the legal representative of the Boston & Lowell railroad, a corporation which some time ago hired a large sum with which to pay for their Boston station. The interest on their bond is payable in gold. Should the democracy of New Hampshire, the reputed management of which always has been the strong point of the Colonel's power and prestige in Massachusetts, be found advocating the greenback theory and endeavoring to advance the price of gold so that the railroads should receive for their earnings a paper currency, and pay their debts in gold? The Col. was equal to the situation. He told Hussey that it was impossible to suit everybody in constructing a platform, but that Mr. Bingham knew his business and he, Hussey, had better subside. By an adroit tactic, Hussey's resolutions were then smothered by being referred to the committee on resolutions, of which George and Bingham were the controlling element, never to be heard from again, and the convention proceeded to go through the remainder of the programme, which had been marked out by the manager the night previously.

News and Notes.

John Riley, a member of a San Francisco engine company, on Saturday fought a duel with an unknown man in a Catholic cemetery in that city. They began shooting at ten paces, and advanced, firing till they closed, when the unknown placed his pistol against Riley's body and fired, inflicting a dangerous wound. Riley was taken to the city for medical treatment. He refuses to divulge the name of his antagonist or the seconds in the affair. The man who took him into town in a carriage disappeared after leaving the wounded man with some friends at the engine-house. The other principal in the duel is believed to have been wounded.

A glycerine magazine, belonging to N. B. Pulver, located two miles south of Bradford, Pa., containing seventy pounds of glycerine and 100 pounds of dynamite, exploded at noon Sunday, killing four men. The men were literally torn to pieces.

Gen. Sheridan has received an official despatch from Gen. Miles, to the effect that in the recent fight with hostile Indians the troops killed eleven and captured thirty-one, also taking 200 horses. Capt. Bennett of the 5th U. S. Infantry, and two friendly Crow Indians, were killed.

Valcour St. Martin, a prominent white politician of Boutelle, La., in a quarrel with a colored man, stabbed and instantly killed him. St. Martin was lodged in jail, but during the night a mob of colored men broke it open, took the murderer out, and riddled him with bullets. The colored men of Louisiana are evidently rapidly learning from the whites, as to a reckless disregard of the law.

The Chinese Embassy now in this country will go to Washington and claim that under the provisions of the Burlingame treaty the Chinese should be as effectually protected as American citizens are in China.

A Mr. McLaughlin, his wife, daughter and two sons, were sailing in New York bay on Saturday when the catamaran they were on capsized. They were rescued by the New York Herald steam yacht, after being some time in the water, clinging to the capsized craft.

John G. Lonsdale, treasurer of the relief committee at Memphis, died of the fever Sunday. The advices show that in some quarters there are hopeful indications that the fever is abating, while in others the disease is spreading with fearful malignancy.

There has been a great increase in the shipments of leather from New York to Europe recently. Since the first of last January the exports have amounted to 785,000 sides. The value of the annual shipments from that port is now over $4,000,000.

The wheat fleet gathered in San Francisco to convey the surplus crop of this season is bigger than ever before. Forty-four vessels cleared last month, carrying an average of about 1200 tons each, and there are now some sixty vessels in port with a carrying capacity of 2,300,000 bushels.

J. S. Grosonbach, a prosperous merchant of Marysville, O., committed suicide, Friday, because of the death of his affianced wife.

Eight children of George Lynch were murdered in Herekly, Texas, Friday night, and their bodies burned in the house. Lynch was shot and left for dead. The murderer is at large.

Contrary to reports in New York papers the mountain hotels will not close until Oct. 1st.

The young people of Hopkinton on Friday evening gave an entertainment for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, which realized $40.

Excursion trains from Laconia, White River Junction, Newport, Montpelier and Groveton Junction, in all thirty-two cars and upwards of 1000 people, arrived at the Fabyan house, Sunday, to attend the Reformed Men's Convention. Religious exercises were held in the forenoon, and in the afternoon a temperance meeting. Speeches were made by Gen. Natt Head, Gov. Van Zandt and Hon. H. W. Blair.

A team stolen from J. S. Winslow of Northfield on the night of August 24th was found on the plains about a mile from the village of Franklin, Sunday. The thief had left the horse tied to a tree, where the poor animal had starved to death. When found it was believed that the horse had been dead only a few hours.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 14th.

Politicians of both parties seem to consider the result of the election in Maine on Monday as indicating great changes in the policies of the whole country, but especially of the north. As to which of the old parties is to be swallowed up, if either, of course republicans and democrats differ radically; but each, probably, has comfortable assurance that his own will be safe. Perhaps they may both survive, and yet administer the affairs of States and of the country. I have often noticed that no matter what the political events are, a really earnest man of either party can figure out enormous losses for "the enemy." But, at any rate, what took place in Maine is surprising enough. Hale, a popular young republican leader, who had 2900 majority two years ago, is defeated, and Powers, not as well known, but of equal ability, loses his former large majority and runs 2000 behind his opponent. For the first time in a quarter of a century the ruling party fails to elect its candidate for governor, and the legislature is in doubt. These things in so conservative a State as Maine are strange enough in themselves, and, as the politicians say, must have an influence in other States. Let us hope that influence will be for good. We pay too much attention to mere party politics, anyway.

Every indication points now to the selection of Mr. Randall by the democrats as Speaker, if they shall control the House, and he be re-elected to Congress, and to Gen. Garfield by the republicans, with the like contingencies. Either of them is amply qualified for the very responsible office.

The President and those of his Cabinet who are now absent will return in a few days. The wanderers will come to a city which is exceedingly beautiful in the autumn months, and which, I doubt not, will yet be the great resort of Americans at that season of the year.

The experiments in making sugar from ordinary corn-stalks which have been carried on by the Chemist of the Agricultural Dep't, this city, for some time past, are being continued with improved facilities. A few days will decide whether or not the manufacture can be made profitable. The material can be so cheaply supplied, and in such unlimited quantities, that success in the experiments may be said to be of the highest general importance.

What they are suffering in the southwest the more fortunate north will never know. The most cruel siege in the most cruel war that ever was fought was not in all respects so terrible in its effects upon dwellers in a city as is the silent scourge that has taken place in New Orleans, Memphis, Vicksburg, Grenada, and other cities, and is slowly finding its way up the Mississippi river, and extending right and left into the country. After the kindly frost shall have killed it —God hasten the day!—will come the hunger, the nakedness, and the never-ending sorrow for those that are gone. The south has had similar experiences, but this promises, in the space it covers, to exceed them all in severity. But there never was a time when relief could be so readily forwarded, in money by telegraph and mail, and provisions and nurses and medicines by rail and steamboat. That which has made the spread of the fever so rapid affords also the means by which the whole country can quickly minister to the suffering, and how nobly it is being done! In the northern cities one can hardly pass a square without finding some depository for the much needed contributions. It is only to be feared that, as the fever abates, a still willing people will forget that the necessities that come after it are yet great.

KNOX.

Political.

The only loan bill passed while Gen. Butler was in Congress was that authorizing the borrowing of 1500 millions in 1870. Butler not only advocated a clause promising the payment of interest in coin, but offered an amendment pledging the United States to the earliest possible return to specie payments.

The Charleston, S. C., News and Courier says: "The foremost democrat of the north to-day is Senator Bayard, of Delaware. Hendricks and Thurman, of whom better things had been expected, have yielded to the clamor of the hour and are now actively lending their ability and influence to encourage the greenback delusion, which has taken so strong a hold upon the popular mind in the west. But Bayard clings to the true democratic creed with the courage and persistence of a statesman who 'would rather be right than be President.'" —Soliloquy by a Tippler:—The public always notices when you have been drinking, and never when you are thirsty.

—A letter from a Canadian watering place says: "Canadian femininity in dripping bathing suits is by no means a repulsive sight, for it is more robust, more healthy, less shapeless, less attenuated than the American article; at least, those specimens of the American article seen at Newport. It sports on the beach here with the utmost freedom."

—"John," said a father to his hopeful son, "you are getting about old enough to choose a trade for yourself. What do you think you should like?" And the young man replied that he had been thinking it over, and had concluded that he would rather be a "friend of the workingman," so he could have a private secretary to do most of his work, and be supported at the public expense.

—A miniature edition of her mother, a little dark-eyed gypsey, always calls Rose Evelinge "Frank's mamma," a bit of delicate, if unconscious, flattery to her big, seven-year-old brother. On one occasion, when she was at the theatre, occupying a box during a representation of "Rose Michel," she surveyed the star with approval, and, sinking back, said to her brother in commendatory tones: "Frank, your mudder is nice."

—Farmer Miles bought a grand piano at auction cheap for his daughter Priscilla. The town agbast wondered where they were going to put so large an instrument in so small a house. Farmer M. cut away the lower partition between the parlor and pantry, ran through the long end of the piano into the pantry, and Priscilla now sits at the key-board and plaintively sings, "Who will care for mother now," while the old woman rolls out doughnuts on the other end in the pantry.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. As old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsep10 79

THE CITY.

A special meeting of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire is to be held in Congress Hall this forenoon at half-past ten o'clock.

The democratic senatorial convention for the 24th district meets at the Rockingham house to-day. Hon. Marcellus Eldredge will probably be renominated.

The September term of the U. S. District Court which is to be begun in this city this morning will be adjourned by the Marshal, as Judge Clark is out of the State.

Lafayette Chesley of Chester, the greenback candidate for congressman in the 1st district, was in this city on Monday, in attendance on the county and senatorial conventions of the party.

Our energetic and efficient City Marshal met with a misfortune Monday evening. While he was assisting to put out the fire at the Athenæum his nice new hat had a hole eighteen inches across burned through it.

Major Vedders, U. S. A., will as a result of his visit to the signal service station in this city recommend the placing here of an aeronometer, operated by electricity, and a barometer; also the establishment of a station at Newcastle for the repetition of the cautionary signals. Major Vedders visited several localities to determine the most suitable place for the erection of a signal-staff.

Van Amburgh & Co's menagerie and circus arrived in this city on Sunday, and the street parade and tent performances took place on Monday as advertised. The street show is a big one, and was seen by large crowds of people, who lined the streets through which it was supposed likely to pass. In the procession was a very large amount of elephant to be inside of one skin, a live lion on top of a cage, and other objects of delight to the small boy and a good many other persons. The tent performances were well patronized, and gave general satisfaction.

FIRES.

There was a moderate alarm of fire Monday evening, consisting of two shouts of "fire" and three strokes on the North church bell. The conflagration was in the Athenæum reading room, where some papers on the files took fire. The fire was out before the hose men who turned out so quick could commence to unreel their hose.

Another alarm was given at a few minutes before ten o'clock, occasioned by the partial burning of Mr. Edward D. Coffin's paint shop on Penhallow street. The fire was soon put out after the department got to work, the loss probably amounting to $500; insurance $1000.

THE VICINITY.

Kennebunk this year has to raise $14,984.32; the rate of taxation on $100 is $1.70, against $1.50 last year. The total number of tax-payers is 968, of whom 270 pay only a poll-tax. Seventy persons pay a tax of $50 or more, the largest tax being that of N. L. Thompson, $874.14.

A greenback club was organized in Dover Friday evening, with officers as follows: G. F. Woods, president; F. A. Lunt, secretary; H. F. Barnard, treasurer; Wm. Jones, Wm. O. Hayes, Isaac K. Merrill, Wm. Merrill, Albert J. York, managing committee. The committee received instructions to engage speakers and make all necessary arrangements for a public meeting to be holden in Dover.

Says the Kennebunk (Me.) Star of last week: "A prominent democrat of this town remarked yesterday that there are only six democrats now living in Kennebunk. He says those six did not go to the polls on Monday for the reason that no democratic ticket was in the field. The captain says another such democratic victory will completely annihilate the party in this State. Right."

We are informed that on Saturday night at about twelve o'clock two pistol shots were fired from a window of the house at Spruce Creek, Kittery, occupied by a Mrs. Banks, who formerly kept a place not of the best reputation in this city. The shots were fired by a man in the house at three young men outside, one of whom received a bullet through his thigh, the wound inflicted being a serious one. What occasioned the shooting we are not informed.

It is announced from Newport, R. I., that a clue has been found which may lead to the identification of the woman found dead in the Back Bay basin at Boston on the 4th inst. Mary Claffy, aged about twelve years, thinks the woman is her mother, Catherine Claffy, the published description answering to her missing parent, even to the loss of a front tooth and the gray hair mixed with black. Her mother, she states, was working in a Boston restaurant in July and boarded on Grove street. Subsequently she went to the Isles of Shoals to work in a hotel, and had written to her daughter that she would meet her in Newport on the 4th of September, after finishing work at the Shoals. This would be on Tuesday, the day she was murdered. She always kept her word, and the grief-stricken girl and her relatives firmly believe that the unknown woman is no other than Catherine Claffy.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Sept. 16; Batchelder, J.

Business was very light to-day, the only customer being Edward Clark, and as he had not $11.04 to pay for a drunk he had used, he went to Brentwood to work it out.

GREENBACK CONVENTIONS.

The Greenback County Convention met in Mercantile hall in this city on Monday. The meeting was called to order by David Urch of this city, and the usual committees were appointed. The committee on credentials reported eighty-six delegates present. Andrew J. Hoyt of Exeter was chosen president, and N. K. Raynes of this city secretary. Nominations of county officers were made as follows: County Solicitor, George E. Hodgdon of Portsmouth; Register of Deeds, True W. Thomson of Newmarket; Treasurer, N. C. Garland of Raymond; Register of Probate, Andrew J. Hoyt of Exeter; Sheriff, Charles H. Joy of Portsmouth; Commissioners, George H. Whitney of Derry, Joseph L. Seavey of Rye, George G. Griffin of Auburn. The following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, the government of the United States has contracted a debt of over two hundred millions of dollars, a large part of which was originally issued to the people, as a legal tender, in full payment of its obligations to them; and

Whereas, prominent men with a design against our free institutions have induced our government to convert the said legal tenders into bonds with interest and principle payable in coin; and

Whereas, public bonds are incomputible with a republican form of government, inevitably creating a bonded aristocracy; and

Whereas, both the democratic and republican parties are fully committed to the perpetuation of that system of finances, thereby disastrously affecting the industries of the country; and

Whereas, the government has the exclusive power to create money and to regulate its value, and believing the best interests of the American people can be promoted by reconverting these bonds into a full legal tender fiat money without interest, protected by supreme law at its face value and receivable by government for every form of taxation, money for which we will exchange the productions of our labors; and

Whereas, the question of finances is of more importance than all other issues now before the people and upon which most of them hinge: Therefore

Resolved, That we will waive all other issues by which we have been heretofore divided, and unite our energies in the one grand purpose of restoring the government to the control of the people and ultimately reinvesting its bonds into full legal tender money and stopping the interest.

Resolved, That the result of the recent election in Maine inspires us with the utmost confidence in our ultimate success, and the hold our cause has in the hearts of the people.

Resolved, That we avoid entangling alliances with all other parties.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the action of the State convention and the nominations made this day and will use all honorable means to secure their election.

The County Convention then adjourned, and the Senatorial Convention for the 24th (Portsmouth) district, organized with Gardner J. Greenleaf of this city as chairman and N. K. Raynes as Secretary. David Urch was nominated as the greenback candidate for the State Senate.

GOOD WORKS.

A collection ammounting to $220 was taken up at St. Mary's (Catholic) church on Sunday, in aid of the afflicted cities of the south. Part of this sum goes to Memphis and part to New Orleans.

The entertainment in aid of the relief fund given in the Universalist vestry last Friday evening, netted $17.75. A contribution for the same purpose was taken up Sunday afternoon by the Sunday school connected with this church, which amounted to $5.50; making a total of $23.25.

Travelling with Van Amburgh & Co's show are two children named Watson, one an equestrian and the other a contortionist. Monday morning the manager of the show was called upon by a representative of the Portsmouth Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, who explained to the manager the law of this State in regard to the employment of children in such capacities. The manager said that while he considered the law not a sensible one he proposed to obey all the laws of the various places the show visited, so the audiences at the circus did not see the boys perform in the afternoon and evening.

—The grand and awful difference between a tree and a bore is, the tree leaves in the spring and the bore never leaves.

—The only religious feature noticeable in Kearney's lecture is when he says: "We will now take up a collection." —Norristown Herald.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. dlw6t

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life-sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it, and regain vigor!

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. t oct4

Pike's Toothache Drops cure in 1 minute.

Read the testimonials of eminent citizens to the wonderful curative powers of Adamson's Balsam for the cure of racking coughs, colds and consumption. Price 35 cents.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 40 cents.

A well-timed and judicious concession to the popular demand for reduced rates has added very greatly to the former excellent popularity of the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia.

Laws of New Hampshire.

AN ACT to prevent the defacement of natural scenery, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:—

SECT. 1. Whoever paints or puts upon or in any manner affixes to any fence, bridge, or other structure, or to or upon any rock or other natural object, the property of another, any words, device, trade-mark, advertisement, or notice, without first obtaining the consent thereto of the owners of such property, shall, upon complaint of the owner or tenant of such property, or the city or town authorities within whose limits the offense is committed, be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each offense; provided, that this act shall not apply to any notice required by law to be posted in a particular place.

Approved July 15, 1878. dlw 6lt

—English is the court language of Germany. It is a proud moment when an American, visiting the palace, is saluted with, "Dot vas pooty schplentit morning, don't he?"

—The sides, the ends and the covers of an old trunk may be from time to time completely replaced in the course of continued repairs, but the labels that mark the fact that it made a trip to Europe in the year 1867 remain undamaged and decidedly conspicuous.—Puck.

—Probably, at the last, dreadful day, when Gabriel sounds his trump, if he doesn't stop once or twice between the blasts, and shout "General, General! Colonel, I say!" not more than two-fifths of the men in American cemeteries will get up.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Shot Dead at Sight.

William Brazelton was shot dead last night about two miles south of Tucson. An inquest was held over the body this morning, and the jury declared the shooting justifiable. Sheriff Shibell testified that he yesterday summoned four men as a posse to assist him in the capture of Brazelton; that from reliable information in his possession he deemed it necessary to shoot him at sight, and so instructed his posse; that on sight of him his order was executed, and death followed in about five minutes. He had upon his person two belts full of cartridges, two revolvers and one Spencer gun, the mask used in robberies, a pair of earrings, a gold watch, etc. C. R. Drake, assistant postmaster, testified that he put in a registered package these same earrings, and that they went out by the same mail that was robbed on the last day of July at Point Mountain. The sight of the body, loaded down with arms, the mask heretofore described by stage passengers, as well as his size and dress, impressed every one who looked at them in the Court House this morning that the right man had been properly killed.—Florence (Arizona) Citizen, August 23d.

—The rights of a parent in the custody of her own children are likely to be tested in the courts at Buffalo, N. Y. A young married lady of that city, who has an extensive fortune at her command, is unfortunately such a victim of intemperance that she remains in the seclusion of her own home most of the time, pursuing a life of the most degraded drunkenness. Her husband deserted her, and the fruit of her marriage is a bright child not yet a year old. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, becoming interested in the case, have notified her that unless she accomplish a reform in her manner of life they will remove the child from her charge. She defiantly urges them to "crack their whips," and the case, which is quite likely to be taken into the courts, will prove one of unusual interest.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the unqualified assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures Humors, from the worst, scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternate with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In most cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and constitutional physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M.D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
"THE LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
SIZE OF PELLETS.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are sensibly larger than usual seeds. They are entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without distress or inconvenience to any constitution, diet, or occupation. Purgative in the constitution, they are Alterative in their effect upon the system. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulder, Fullness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Acting as they do upon the vital fluid, they cleanse the blood, and in consequence the secretions, which are supplied from this source, will be healthy, and their virtues being thoroughly preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. Pills put up in these boxes are a Laxative, Alterative, or For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the utmost perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharging into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the head passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which full medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the adjacent or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, gum and balm in their essential form, free from every virous contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy or the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread its good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me inestimable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MERCANTILE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 22 PINE STREET, ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 139 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. Therefore made it advisable to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. C. E. MYERS & CO.,

No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

WASHING DAY.

"Oh, dear me! what shall we do?" said Mary Lennox. "It's just exactly like those working people, to go and fall ill just when we need them most. And every napkin in the wash, and not enough table linen to last two weeks. You must be a very poor manager, grandma, not to have more of such things?"

Old Mrs. Lennox sighed as she rubbed the glasses of her spectacles.

"My dear," said she, "I should have had more if I could have afforded them. But times are hard, and—"

"Yes, I've heard all that before," said Mary, irreverently. "But the question is, grandma, what shall we do about the washing, now that Katrina cannot come?"

Mrs. Lennox heaved another sigh. She was old and rheumatic, and the great piled-up basket of clothes seemed a terrific bugbear before her eyes.

"I'm sure I don't know," said she. "But if you girls will help a little about the dinner, I will try and see what I can do. It must be got out, I suppose, and—"

But here a slight, dark-eyed girl, with a clear, olive complexion, and wavy black hair growing low on her forehead, turned from the table, where she was rinsing china.

"You will do nothing of the kind, grandma," said she, as resolutely as if she had been seventy instead of seventeen. "You attempt a day's washing, at your age?"

"But my dear," said grandma Lennox, feebly, "who will do it?"

"I will," said the dark-eyed lassie.

"Georgie, I'm surprised at you!" said Mary; "why, you never did such a thing in your life!"

"That's no reason I never should."

"But, Georgie—if anyone should see you!"

"We don't generally receive company in the kitchen," said Georgie Lennox. "And if anybody should come in—"

"Well?"

"If they like my occupation, I shall be very much pleased; if they don't, they are quite at liberty to look the other way!"

And Miss Lennox tied a prodigious crash apron around her, rolled up her sleeves, and resolutely took her stand in front of the wash-bench.

"It seems too bad, my dear, with those little white hands of yours," said old Mrs. Lennox, irresolutely.

"Oh, my hands!" laughed Georgie. "What are they good for, if not to make themselve useful?"

Mary drew herself disdainfully up.

"Well," said she, "I never yet stooped to such a degradation as that!"

"It would be a great deal worse degradation to stand by and let my rheumatic old grandmother do the washing," observed Georgie, with philosophy, as she plunged her hands into the snowy mass of suds.

Old Mrs. Lennox had been left with a picturesque farm-house on the edge of Sidonia Lake, and nothing else. And so old Mrs. Lennox bethought herself to eke out her slender means by the reception of summer boarders. And in September, when her two grand-daughters obtained their fortnight's leave of absence from the type-setting establishment in Troy, where they earned their daily bread, they came home for a breath of fresh mountain air, and helped grandmother Lennox with her boarders. For there was no girl kept at the farm house, and no outside assistance called in, except as German Katrina came once a week to wash and scrub.

"It's drudgery," sighed Mary, who was tall and slender, with a fair complexion, doll-blue eyes, and a Byronic dissatisfaction with her lot in life.

"It's fun!" said Georgie, who had no such exalted aspirations, and liked to make custards, wash china, and decorate the tea-table with flowers.

"You'll hang out these clothes for me, Mary, won't you?" said Georgie, as she flung the last red-bordered towel on the top of the clothes-basket, "while I wash the pillow cases?"

"Indeed I shall not," said her sister. "With the Miss Pooleys playing croquet in plain sight? Never."

"Then I must do it myself," said Georgie, with a little shrug of the shoulders. "And—"

But just as she spoke there came a rap at the kitchen door.

"Come in?" cried Georgie, valiantly, while her sister, with burning cheeks, endeavored to hide herself and her occupation of peeling onions behind the big roller-towel.

And Mr. Raymond Abbott "walked in" accordingly.

"I beg your pardon, Miss Georgie," said he, rather blandly, "I didn't know I should disturb you."

"Oh, you're not disturbing me at all," said Georgie, serenely, resting one dimple-dotted, rosy elbow on the washboard, and looking at him like a practicalized copy of one of Guido's angels, out of a cloud of soapy steam.

"But," he went on, "I was going to ask one of the servants for a basket to bring fish home in."

"I will get it for you with pleasure," said Georgia.

And as she turned to the dresser, her sister answered the puzzled expression of Mr. Abbott's face.

"You are surprised to see Georgie doing that?" said she, with a gesture toward the plebeian tub. "And I don't wonder. But it's only for a frolic—a wager. Girls will do such things you know!"

But Georgie had heard the last words, and turned around with crimsoned cheeks and sparkling eyes.

"It is not a frolic," said she. "And it's not a wager. It's serious, sober earnest I am doing the washing because Katrina has sprained her ankle, and there's no one else but grandmamma to do it."

"Indeed!" said Mr. Abbott. "And can't I help you?"

"Yes," Georgie promptly made answer. "You can carry that basket of clothes out to the bleaching-ground for me."

"Georgie!" exclaimed her sister, as Mr. Abbott cheerily shouldered the load and strode away in the direction indicated by Georgie's pointing finger.

"He asked me," said Georgie. "I shouldn't have asked him!"

"Judge Abbott's son!" groaned Mary, "The richest man in Ballston! He'll never ask you to go out rowing on the lake with him again."

But the reappearance of the gentleman in question put a stop to the discussion.

"Miss Georgie," said he, "I would have hoisted them upon the riggings for you, but the wind takes 'em off so."

"That's because you needed the clothes-pins," said Georgie, handing them to him with alacrity.

"Couldn't you come and help?" said Mr. Abbott, wistfully. "Two can manage so much better than one."

"Oh, I'll come and help," said Georgie; "and be glad to get my clothes out drying."

She tied on her small gingham sunbonnet, and ran out into the yellow September sunshine, while Mary burst out crying with mingled vexation and anger.

"I shall never get over the disgrace of it in the world," she said—"never, never! Georgie has no dignity—no proper pride! No; don't speak to me, grandma, or I shall say something dreadful! I declare I've a mind never to own her as a sister again!"

* * * * *

"Have you finished the washing?" said Mr. Raymond Abbott.

"Yes, I've finished it," said Georgie Lennox. "But I shouldn't like to earn my living as a laundress. It's a very tiresome business."

Georgie was "cooling off," under the shadow of the frost grapevines in the woods, with a book in her hand, and the curly locks blown back from her pretty Spanish forehead.

Mr. Abbott looked admiringly down on her. All his life long, his experience had lain among the smiling, artificial dolls of conventional society. He had admired Georgie Lennox the first time he had seen her; but that day's experience of her frank, true nature had given depth and earnestness to the feeling.

"Miss Lennox," said he, "do you know what I have been thinking of since we hung out those towels and table cloths together?"

"Haven't the least idea," said unconscious Georgie, fanning herself with two grape-leaves, pinned together by a thorn.

"I have been thinking," said he, "that I should like my wife to be just such a woman as you are."

"A washerwoman?" said Georgie, trying to laugh off her blushes.

"I am quite in earnest, Georgie," he said, leaning over her. "Dear Georgie, will you be my wife?"

"But I am only a working-girl," said ingenuous Georgie, beginning to tremble all over, and half inclined to cry. "We are type-setters, Mary and I, and we are very poor."

"My own love, you are rich in all that heart could wish!" pleaded Abbott, taking both her hands in his; "and I want you for my own!"

Raymond Abbott had fancied Georgie Lennox when he saw her playing croquet, in pale pink muslin, with a tea-rose in her hair; but the divine flame of love first stirred in his heart when she looked at him through the vapory clouds of the wash tub—Guido's angel folding her fair wings in a farm-house kitchen.

Just so curiously are romance and reality blended together in the world.

Massachusetts Democratic State Convention.

The democratic State convention of Massachusetts met in Worcester Tuesday. The Butler men had secured the hall in which the convention was to be held, by breaking into it the night previous. They were ordered out by the mayor of the city, but refused to go; and for ruffianism and low blackguardism they are beyond dispute entitled to a premium. The regular convention was adjourned by the Democratic State Central Committee, to meet in Faneuil Hall, Boston, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. The Butler mob remained, and nominated Benjamin F. Butler for governor of Massachusetts, "with tremendous cheers." John F. Arnold of North Adams was nominated for lieut. governor, Charles M. Strauss of Hingham for secretary of State, Caleb Cushing of Newburyport for attorney general, John Boyle O'Reilly of Boston for auditor, and D. N. Skillings of Winchester for treasurer. The whole affair was on the part of the Butlerites one of the most disgraceful exhibitions of mob violence and demagogism ever witnessed anywhere, and should it not be rebuked as it deserves will indelibly stain the name of Massachusetts.

The Cost of the Fever.

The New Orleans Picayune of September 10th, in an article reviewing the ravages which the terrible yellow fever has made in that city, thus estimates the expenses which will naturally fall upon the citizens: "If we take the total cases of yellow fever as representing the extra burden which our people have to bear on the score of sickness, our friends abroad may have some data from which to judge the amount of distress in New Orleans at this time and of the probable increase during the next forty days. The total number of cases of fever reported here was, at 12 M. yesterday, 5211. If the aggregate expense of each case is put at the low estimate of $100, the grand total will be more than $500,000. The burials of those who have fallen number 1638 up to the same date, the average expense of each burial having been not less than $100, or a total of more than $160,000. In all probability the number of cases and of deaths between this time and frost will be less than the number of cases and deaths already recorded, but if the new cases for the balance of the season should be no more than 3500, and the total deaths to be recorded should be no more than 700, the additional expense on fever account will not be less than $420,000. By this estimate the epidemic will have cost us $1,080,000. This new, extraordinary and costly trouble comes to people who have become, by the effects of war and hard times, very poor. Without this visitation there would have been many thousands of cases of distress, and quite enough to tax the resources of the less unfortunate. The cup of trouble would have been bitterness without the epidemic; with that it overflows. We have estimated only the money cost of the fever. We can only approximate the amount which is not connected with the epidemic. This ordinary demand upon public and private relief might have been within the compass of our home resources had there been no extraordinary demands, but the tax would have been a very burdensome one. The epidemic has greatly increased, and perhaps doubled, the distress and destitution which would have befallen us under ordinary conditions. From these facts, figures and inferences intelligent and philanthropic readers abroad will easily understand the situation here, and, by comparison, in other stricken cities."

Chronicle Correspondence.

ANDOVER, Mass., Sept. 16th.

Seminary Hill has resumed its wonted aspect, now that the vacation is over, and its three institutions of learning are again open, and well filled with students.

At the Theological Seminary there are sixty-five young men preparing themselves for the pulpit; at Phillips Academy nearly two hundred boys, an unusually large number,—are fitting themselves for college and business; while at the Abbott Academy upwards of one hundred girls are working diligently to make themselves accomplished women. Each institution is conducted in a manner that is hard to excel, and they stand deservedly high all over the country. At the Phillips, this term, are seven Chinese and one Japanese; the former are sent here by the Chinese government to get an American education, and belong to some of the "first families" in China. The Seminary was recently presented with $25,000 by a gentleman of Philadelphia, a portion of which is to be used in remodeling the "old chapel," work on which is now in progress. The new chapel, erected in 1876, is a very neat and tasteful edifice, the cost of which was $50,000. The whole of Andover (or Seminary) Hill, buildings included, are the property of the trustees of Philips Academy, and it is one of the most charming places to be found in any section of the country.

This place is during the summer quite a resort for boarders, and would be much more resorted too, by those desiring recreation, if there were more accommodations. It is in contemplation to erect a large hotel on Pine Hill, a locality about a mile from the Seminary, and from which a most magnificient view can be obtained.

It may interest many of the readers of the GAZETTE in Kittery to state that Rev. J. P. Jones, who graduated at the Seminary in June, and who for the past two years supplied the pulpit at the Congregational church of the Point, sailed for Europe on Saturday, the 7th inst. He goes as a missionary to India, and is accompanied by his wife, the marriage occurring in Ohio a few weeks since.

As far as known here there are no Butler republicans, but a good many democrats will undoubtedly vote for him. It is going to be a lively campaign, but it don't seem possible that there can be voters enough in this State who desire Ben Butler for Governor, to elect him.

Was it a dream, or did the news actually come through B. Hill, to the effect that "G," your New York correspondent, had been speculating in some new-fangled "tooth-picks?" If so, is it proved satisfactorily that they were an excellent means of removing that patent tooth paste or powder which was so effectual in stirring up the "tartar?" NAT.

YORK, Me., Sept. 10th.

Mr. Editor: For the most contemptible kind of generosity give us the assemblage that upon election evenings gathers around the telegraph office at the Corner, like flies around a sugar bowl. Prior to the office being there, the most interested ones on both sides, say a dozen or a score, would, after their horses had worked all day hauling in the hait, lame and blind, start for Portsmouth to get the "news by telegraph," pay their tolls, put up the horses, get some oysters and a "little suthin" to keep the oysters warm, with various other etceteras to the amount of say $2 each, stay out all night, and "come home in the foggy morning." For the first few years after the office was located at the Corner, a few then generous did contribute a small sum, from $2.00 to $5.00 in all, to pay the operator for his painstaking to serve them and save them a trip to Portsmouth.

But, "What a fall was there, my countrymen!" Last year they raised (I think) the enormous sum of $1.25, and one gentleman gave 75 cents of that; they would stop till they get the news, and when the contribution box went around the door wasn't wide enough. One wanted to see somebody, "back in a minute," etc. This year the operator, at about 10 o'clock, gently hinted that some pay would be expected before the announcement of any news, and what was the next move? They left en masse, save alone this same gentleman who paid 75 cents last year. He said he wanted to know the facts, and was kindly shown, (for nothing as the operator supposed—but he insisted upon leaving on the desk a generous sum.) That man is not an office seeker, but an humble blacksmith, with a noble heart. Would that we had more such men.

We shall await another year.

Yours, P.

—"Don't give it a whey" is a parallel expression to "cheese it."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. disep1079

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Mr. Walter Pryor recommenced running his "hourly" on Tuesday.

Fanny Davenport is to appear at Music Hall on Friday evening, October 14th, probably presenting the comedy of "Olivia."

Catherine Claffey was not the victim of the Back Bay tragedy, Boston. A letter was received at Newport from her, Monday evening.

Howe Call, Esq., of this city, leaves next week for Michigan and the west, where he is to speak on the question of finance. He will probably be absent from the State until November.

The schooner Loella, Capt. Amee, is loading at Doane's wharf with dried fish and mackerel for the Boston market. Mr. Doane's vessels that have been to the grand banks this season have made good fares.

Pocahontas point, Gerrish's island, was a desolate looking place on Sunday to the crew of the solitary pleasure boat that cruised about there. The tents and flags are all gone, and the weir taken up and carried off.

The landing stage, bridge and breakwater from Appledore island, and the landing stage from Star island, were towed in on Monday by steamer Appledore, and placed in winter quarters at Noble's island.

Capt. Thomas Jamieson, well-known as a successful fisherman, will have charge of the schooner Velocipede during the season of fall and winter fishing. He has commanded the same vessel in previous seasons.

Col. Jerome C. Butler of this city announces by letter that he is not a candidate for the democratic nomination for State senator from the 22d (Newmarket) district. The candidate of that party will probably be Col. Charles W. Pickering of Greenland.

The Universalist parish of this city has chosen the following delegates to the annual Universalist State Convention to be held in Concord early in October; Thos. E. O. Marvin, Joseph H. Emery, James M. Carr and Miss Carrie A. Freeman. Rev. E. M. Grant, pastor of the church in this city, is to deliver the annual sermon. Edwin R. Junkins and Edward E. Vaughan have been chosen to the annual denominational Sunday School Convention to be held at the same place.

Mr. C. H. Meserve, the venerable son of Portsmouth whose visit to his native city last May, after an absence of fifty or sixty years, aroused so much interest among the older residents of the place, has arrived at his home in Rochester, N. Y., after making an extended visit to his relatives in Manchester, and various towns in Massachusetts and Vermont. The old gentleman writes that he heartily enjoyed his trip, and "never felt better and younger" in his life than now.

Mr. Tenney, the artist, is at work upon a portrait of our late much esteemed fellow citizen, Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, that bids fair to equal in merit and be as readily recognized as those that have preceded it from his easel, and which, it may be added, will hand down his name to posterity more than that of any other of his profession who ever preceded him in our city. Emigrating hither in his youthful years, no man's face was more familiar in Portsmouth than that of Mr. Hackett for half a century. To returned natives from far away, who perchance remembered him as their teacher for a time during brief periods when he had charge in his early manhood of one or another of the public schools, (and where he might have remained had he chosen to do so, rather than continue study in his profession,) it did not seem with form erect, elastic step, and all his faculties in their full vigor, that he could already have passed the "three score and ten allotted as the full measure of the life of man. A daily visitor of the place for so long a time, with ever something pleasant to say and much to be remembered by the listeners in after days, no habitue of the Athenæum was ever more missed than he when his face ceased to be seen and his voice was no longer heard there. B.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The democratic senatorial convention for the 24th district, comprising wards one, two and four of this city, was holden at the Rockingham house Tuesday forenoon. Samuel W. Moses presided, and Benj. M. Parker acted as secretary. Hon. Daniel Marcy was nominated as the candidate.

RAILROAD MEETING.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire, called to see if they would approve of a lease of the railroad and railroad property of the corporation to the Eastern railroad company, was held at Congress hall Tuesday forenoon. The president, Moody Currier, called the meeting to order, after which the clerk, William H. Hackett, read the call for the meeting. After some discussion it was deemed best to adjourn until after the special meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern railroad company, which is to be held in Boston on the 30th; thereupon, on motion of William R. Preston, it was voted to adjourn until Tuesday, Oct. 1st, at 10:30 o'clock, in Congress hall, this city.

News and Notes.

Charles P. Stickney, the Fall River defaulter, was placed under arrest on Monday.

American silver seems to be better appreciated in some markets abroad than it is at present at home. The State Department has received information that nearly a million dollars of our subsidiary silver is circulated in Hayti, and it is believed the standard silver dollar would find a ready market there.

Boston ranked next to New York in exports during July, with $4,264,625, Baltimore following with $4,013,547, then Philadelphia with $2,685,200, and then San Francisco with $1,555,179. As to imports during that month, San Francisco ranked next to New York, with $3,918,990. Boston next with $3,498,104, while the imports at Philadelphia were only $2,095,974 in value, and at Baltimore only $933,933.

Political.

A letter purporting to be written by William E. Chandler is published. We have heretofore held firmly to the faith that he was a republican of the republicans; but if he really wrote the letter credited to his pen we shall hereafter believe that he is willing to do what he can to destroy the republican party for the sake of having revenge on some person or persons who have opposed his desires.

There will be a meeting of the Republican State Committee in Concord, on Monday, Sept. 23, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Important business connected with the approaching campaign will come before the Committee, and it is expected that every member will be present to aid in laying out the campaign work. Candidates already nominated for official positions on the republican ticket, and active republicans throughout the State, are invited to be present.

The Kennebec Journal, Tuesday, published the gubernatorial vote of the entire State, with the exception of a few small towns and plantations. They are compiled from official returns, and give Connor 56,419 votes; Garcelon, 27,872; Smith, 41,404. Connor's plurality over Garcelon, 28,547; plurality over Smith 15,015. The vote for Smith and Garcelon combined aggregated 69,276, and therefore Connor lacks 12,857 votes of an election by the people. The aggregate vote thrown was 125,726. The total vote last year was 101,191.

In his speech at St. Paul, the other day, President Hayes gave expression to this irrefutable proposition, which was received with great applause: "If we want our standard of financial prosperity to be based upon sure and safe foundations, let us remember, let us all remember, that its best security is an untarnished national credit and a sound constitutional currency." This is sound doctrine. Let the people stand by it, and repudiate the abominable fallacies of the "fiat" money demagogues and monomaniacs.

The Okolona (Miss.) Southern States now essays the role of a prophet. It says: "The future belongs to us and ours. Davis and his Cabinet and his soldiers will rank with the Washingtons, the Hampdens, the Tells in the Pantheon of history, while Grant and his horde of bloody hirelings will be classed with the Vandals, Goths and Huns."

The New York World is a funny paper. It says that the result in Maine was not so much the consequence of the "greenback craze as a general disgust with republicanism." Just how disgust with republicanism should drive half the democratic party into the greenback movement is very difficult to understand. The World should begin with easier conundrums.

Prompt Relief of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of those bodily evils enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysts, and eminently wholesome and agreeable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now rupplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. d1w 6it

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

The Public Debt.

If the people of this country fail to be informed respecting the finances of the country, it will be no fault of the treasury officials. The Department has just issued an "analysis of the public debt of the United States from July 1, 1860, to July 1, 1878," which contains a large amount of information, but not all new. The paper shows among other things that the outstanding principal of the public debt of the nation was largest August 31, 1865, being $2,844,649,226.56, of which $2,389,530,294.56 was interest bearing debt, and that the interest payable on that debt was $150,977,697.57 per annum. The outstanding principal of the public debt July 1, 1878, was $2,256,-205,892.53, of which $1,794,735,650 is interest-bearing debt, and the interest on that debt was at the rate of $94,654,472.-50 per year. The total debt, less cash in the Treasury August 31, 1865, was $2,-674,815,856.76, and July 1, 1878, the debt, less cash in the Treasury, was $1,-999,382,280.45—showing a reduction in the intervening period of $675,433,576.-81. August 31, 1865, the public debt per capita was $77.25, and the interest $4.29. July 1, 1878, the former was $41.67 and the latter $1.97.

Democratic and greenback papers have commented on the fact that the interest-bearing debt was apparently $83,000,000 greater in 1878 than in 1877. Such is the case, but $50,000,000 of the increase is accounted for by the sale of 4 1-2 per cent. bonds for resumption purposes. The balance of the increase is only apparent, being due to the fact that in the process of refunding the six per cents with the four per cents, both classes draw interest for a brief period, the four per cents being first sold to obtain funds for paying off the six per cents.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great route, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Pustule. All Mercurial Disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially does it manifest its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, loss of appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" many of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and enlisted physicians generally in the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Send by dealers.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Fullness of the Head, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotches, Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Are the most impalatable of all cathartics. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. Full in bulk as the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprr. World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every known contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The properties have been witled upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have a considerable expense and personal trouble, spread so good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

I have cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 125 PEARL ST., BY. LOTHIAN.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG,
152 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DUDLEY, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,
No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Political.

The Boston Globe is out for Ben Butler for governor of Massachusetts. That paper was always a "disturbing element." For years it hypocritically pretended to be an "independent" republican paper in politics, and was always quoted as "republican" by the democratic sheets; and under this guise it managed, by invariably saying the worst for the party it pretended to favor, and the best for the opposition, to greatly harm the republican cause. Finally it bursted, and has since then been democratic; but it cannot forget its old trick of lending all its energies to the ruin of the party it pretends to favor.

Gen. Hoyt, republican candidate for governor in Pennsylvania, continues to advocate honest money in spite of the Maine election. His friends predict his election by 100,000 plurality.

The Democratic National Committee has been compelled to surrender to the demands of the Typographical Union, and to direct the person who has been doing the campaign printing to discharge his non-union printers and to employ only union men.

The greenback-democratic majority in the Maine House was acquired by a slender vote. The combined majority of thirteen of them was only 130 votes, or ten each.

Hon. J. B. Hawley, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, made the opening speech of the campaign in behalf of the republicans at Rock Island, Ill., on the evening of the 17th inst. Discussing the financial question from a standpoint of actual knowledge acquired in the Treasury Department, he took an advanced hard money ground.

Secretary Sherman explodes the yarn that he is a convert to greenbackism. He authorizes the most positive denial that he has changed his views upon resumption, or intends to deviate in any respect from a direct road to specie payments Jan. 1st. He adds that no recent action of his, or any recent statement of his, can be rightfully interpreted to mean that he has abandoned his hard money position.

—Clifton W. Tayleure, the writeure, acteure and autheure, is added to the list of faileures.—Lowell Courier.

—Sheep-killing dogs invariably attack the necks of their victims to sever the arteries and drink the blood, so an inventor has designed a collar with sharp projecting points, which effectually protects the sheep from his foe.

—David Davis is authority for the statement that one should do all his loving, courting and marrying in three days, but Mr. Davis can never construct a third party on any such basis as that.—Rochester Democrat.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de house, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. dlw 6it

Massachusetts Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Convention of Massachusetts met in Worcester on Wednesday, the 18th inst. Ex-Gov. Claflin was chosen president. On an informal ballot for Governor, Thomas Talbot had 851 votes, John D. Long 256, and there were seven scattering, including two for Benjamin F. Butler. The informal ballot was made formal, with but one dissenting voice. Hon. John D. Long was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, George Marston of New Bedford for Attorney-General, and Henry B. Peirce for Secretary of State. The convention was harmonious in the extreme, though the friends of the various candidates were earnest in their support. The contrast with the proceedings of the Butler mob of the previous day was so striking as to be even ludicrous.

Universalist State Convention.

The Universalists of New Hampshire hold their annual convention in Concord, October 1st, 2d and 3d.

The first day will be devoted to Sunday school interests.

Among the speakers announced for Wednesday and Thursday are Ex-Gov. Perham of Maine, Dr. Miner of Boston, and Prof. Shipman of Tufts college. The Concord parish will entertain all delegates and friends, and the hotels offer reduced rates.

The Concord railroad will sell round trip tickets for two cents a mile; the Northern and Boston, Concord & Montreal railroads will sell tickets for half fare. Tickets on the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad will be found in the hands of the conductors.

News and Notes.

It is quite likely that a number of naval officers will be "advanced one number" on the naval register through the indiscretion of Lieut. Comdr. DeWitt C. Kells, commander of the gunboat Rio Bravo, the light-draught vessel purchased some time ago for service on the Rio Grande. Collector Haynes, of Brownsville, Texas, has reported a letter from Kells embodying a proposition to bring about the firing upon the gunboat from the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, in order to precipitate hostilities between Mexico and the United States. In addition, Kells will be court-martialled for sending an insulting letter to Senator Kellogg. In this letter Kells called Kellogg a liar, and intimated that if the Senator panted for redress it would be cheerfully afforded him. The friends of the foolish officer say that he was under the influence of liquor when he wrote the letter, and that evil associates urged him to the commission of the offense. In other words, he was drunk and in bad company.

Michael Lawler, James Holland, Patrick Jones, Charles Webber and William Lanigan, members of a notorious gang of roughs called the "chain gang," of Lewiston, Me., are under arrest for brutally outraging a young lady about twenty years old and of excellent character, as she in company with a young man was on her way home from the circus on the evening of the 14th inst. The lady was terribly injured.

A young couple who married in England last spring contrary to their parents' wishes went to Australia, in the hope that time would soften opposition. No remittances reached them, and, utterly destitute in Sydney, they took prussic acid and died.

Robert Carvells, balloon trapezist with Keyes' balloon, fell from the balloon at the Phenix (N. Y.) fair, and was fatally hurt.

The vessels on the voyage between New York and Havana experienced terrible weather last week. The steamer Santiago de Cuba was ten days on the voyage. There was a hurricane off Florida, and she lay four days off Cape Carnival, and was obliged to throw her deckload overboard.

New Hampshire Items.

About seven weeks ago a man by the name of York and a daughter about three years old, living in Fremont, were bitten by a dog. On Sunday the 15th inst., the child was taken sick, and several physicians decided that she had hydrophobia. The child died on Monday.

The case of Abby S. Robbins vs. the town of New Ipswich, for an alleged defect in the highway, which resulted in the complainant receiving serious injury, tried at Nashua, resulted in a verdict of $1600 for the plaintiff.

The democrats of senatorial district No. 21 have nominated John H. Fogg for senator. In the Pittsfield district John W. Jewell of Strafford is the democratic candidate.

The son of Isaac N. Hobart of Orange was accidentally shot Monday, 16th inst., by one of a hunting party while they were resting at his house. The charge entered the side of his head, killing him instantly. His age was fifteen years.

Lovina Carter, a widow residing at Troy, died while sitting in her chair on Monday, the 16th inst. She had just completed a very hard washing.

A meeting of the clergymen and laymen of various denominations who believe in the doctrine of the second coming of Christ, held a meeting in the chapel of the Holy Trinity, New York, recently, and appointed a committee to make arrangements for a grand clerical and lay conference in New York, Oct. 30th and 31st and November 1st, for a discussion of that doctrine.

While Frank S. Smith and Curtis Farr were chopping in the woods, three miles from Libby's mills, in Littleton, Mr. Smith's ax glanced, striking him on the top of the foot and splitting it open. As there was no house nearer than three miles, Mr. Farr, although weighing but 130 pounds, took on his back Mr. Smith, who weighs 146 pounds, and carried him the three miles, stopping to rest only three times.

A little girl, three years old, daughter of Mr. Luke Bills of Amherst, was playing in the barn, when a neighbor's dog threw her down and bit her in a fearful manner. It was with difficulty that the dog was removed, and then not until the child was terribly mangled.

Political.

One of the handsomest jobs of burglary ever done in Massachusetts was that of the Butlerites at Worcester. A good many of them have no doubt been long in the business.

The Massachusetts democracy used to stand off with their hands in their pockets and laugh at the republicans when Butler scared them by trying to steal their State convention. Now the democrats know how it is themselves—only more so.

Kearney, the noted California tramp and coiner of choice epithets, delivered his customary speech to a large crowd in Worcester, Mass., on the evening of the day that Ben Butler nomicated himself as the democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, after his shoulder-hitters had captured the State convention. Kearney and his "private secretary" are going to stump Massachusetts for Butler.

The democrats of the Oregon legislature have elected J. H. Slater for United States senator. Mr. Slater, in an interview, says he is not in sympathy with inflation; advocates the substitution of legal-tender for national bank notes; opposes fiat money, and demands that currency shall be on a coin basis.

The republicans of the first district of New Jersey have nominated Hon. George M. Robeson as a candidate for Congress.

Thomas H. Benton, once a generally acknowledged expounder of the democratic creed, said: "If I were going to establish a workingman's party, it should be on the basis of hard money—a hard money party against a paper party."

Ex-Secretary Chandler has been making some remarks on the stump in Michigan which Mr. Potter's committee ought to heed. He says Mr. Hayes is as legally President as was Washington, and then adds: "If that Potter committee were really in search of fraud there was one man in this country who could have given them an immense amount of information on the subject of fraud. Why didn't they summons me? I could trace every fraud of the last election to No. 15 Gramercy Park, in the city of New York. They were afraid they would get more fraud than they wanted." Perhaps the Potter committee will give Mr. Chandler a chance to prove his words, but it will be entirely safe to bet heavily that they won't.

The democrats of Centre county, Pa., have nominated Ex-Gov. Andrew G. Curtin for Congress.

The democratic State convention of Connecticut was held on the 17th inst. Gov. Hubbard was renominated, with the rest of the old ticket.

John Hardy, clerk of Mayor Ely of New York, announces himself as an independent democratic candidate for Congress against Fernando Wood.

Chronicle Correspondence.

KITTERY, ME., Sept. 17th.

Rev. S. B. Bowdish, pastor of the Second Christian church in Kittery, and wife, celebrated the 20th anniversary of their marriage on Monday evening, Sept. 16th. They invited their parishioners, friends and neighbors to their home to spend the evening with them in a social way. After the invitation was given, friends proposed to bring refreshments for the company, which offer was accepted, and approciated by the host and hostess. Early in the evening the people began to arrive, coming singly, in pairs, triplets, and in squads, until the house was literally filled, there being fully two hundred persons present. Among them was a goodly number of young people, and all of the children were not left at home.

The early hours of the evening were spent in a social way, with singing and piano music. Then came the season for refreshments, when old and young vied with each other to make that part of the entertainment a success, which we believe must have been satisfactory to all participants, for the viands were rich, plentiful and of great variety.

Next was the presentation of a beautiful set of China, contributed by members of the society and friends. This was a genuine surprise to the recipients. The presentation speech was made by Rev. John A. Goss, a former pastor of the church, now pastor of the Court street Christian church of Portsmouth,—he and his amiable wife being present. Mr. Goss, being acquainted with the parties, expressed confidence in the pastor and in the people, auguring success to all in the cause which makes pastor and people a unit.

Mr. Bowdish with considerable emotion made reply, expressing many thanks for himself and companion to their many friends present, and to all who had contributed to the occasion, for the beautiful, valuable and useful present. After which prayer was offered by Mr. Goss, and then hand shaking and congratulations for the couple whose 20th marriage anniversary furnished such an interesting occasion.

A plenteous supply of rich and beautiful flowers were provided for the anniversary. Among them the floral cross presented as an offering to the bride and groom of twenty years, by Mrs. John Wentworth, is worthy of more than a passing notice. Its size, and the taste with which it was arranged, made it very attractive, calling forth the admiration of many, while its perfume, with that of the other flowers, added much to the sweetness of the occasion.

Then the time came for parting, and with hearts more closely united, and with souls more firmly knitted together, the "good bye" was said, and the visitors wended their way home by the light of the moon, feeling better and richer in purpose of life than when the night shadows began to fall around them. The pastor and family, with these new tokens of confidence and esteem, may well be encouraged, and retire to rest with a conciousness, that under God, with humility and devotion, there are good things in store for him and his people. So mote it be. ONE INTERESTED.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. disep19 79

THE CITY.

The three gentleman nominated by the republicans of this county for County Commissioners are all golden-haired.

Fanny Davenport is to appear at Music hall on the evening of October 4th, instead of the 14th, as incorrectly reported.

A dog belonging to James Carter bit a child of William Muir on the arm, Wednesday afternoon, and was shot by Mr. Muir.

Two lambs were stolen from the slaughter house of Cyrus L. Brown & Co., near Newcastle bridge, on Friday night, the 13th inst.

Higgins' "Tramp Combination" will present the American comic play, "Tramps; or, the stolen child," at Music hall to-morrow evening. See advertisement.

The Wide Awake base ball nine of North Hampton will visit this city Saturday afternoon and play a game of ball with the Portsmouth nine at the Plains. Game called at two o'clock.

On Tuesday afternoon, the 17th inst., a lad named John Fellows, whose parents reside in Boston, went in bathing at Sagmore creek, and was drowned. His body had not been recovered up to Wednesday noon.

The Great Falls Journal says: "Fred N. Footman, architect, of Great Falls, has been awarded the work of executing plans and superintending the construction of a new and large business block for Frank Jones, at Portsmouth. It will be one of the handsomest blocks in New England. Mr. Footman is competent for the work and something very nice may be expected."

We have received from D. H. Montgomery "Johnson's Method for Singing Classes," a very useful book for teachers of elementary singing schools. The tunes and pieces are selected from the most popular church music, glee and chorus books, and are such as are suitable for all beginners in singing. Published by O. Ditson & Co., Boston; price sixty cents.

A horse belonging to Mr. Silas Philbrick ran away on Court street Wednesday afternoon with two Sullivan boys, who were driving, the wagon being loaded with furniture. He turned into Water street, throwing the contents of the wagon all over that part of the street, and then ran the wagon against the window of C. E. Walker & Co.'s coal office, smashing it—the window—most effectually. He cleared himself from the wagon at that place, and ran down on a wharf, where he was caught. The boys were unhurt.

Harper's Magazine for October is received by W. G. Myers and Moses Bros., and is ready for delivery to subscribers or purchasers at their bookstores. It is a superior number. The contents are: A New England Dairy and Stock Farm, with thirteen illustrations; The St. Gothard Tunnel, with eight illustrations; Through the Dark Continent, with fourteen illustrations; Adonais, a poem, with five illustrations; New York in Summer, with seventeen illustrations; Around the Peconics, with twenty-one illustrations; with other poems, sketches, continued stories, editor's table and drawer.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 18; Batchelder, J.

Thomas L. Hanson, James Smith and James Henry, three drunks, were assessed $9.90 each, fine and costs. They have gone to Brentwood to help do the fall work on the county farm.

MISSIONARY STATEMENT

For three years ending September 15th, 1878: Donations of cash received for all purposes by voluntary contribution, over $6000. The largest gift at one time from any one individual was $1000; the smallest, one cent. These gifts have been made by 185 different persons. We have also received about 800 donations in the line of food, clothing, furniture, books, etc.

I have made 4200 visits to poor families, and have visited 1350 vessels, and otherwise helped many seamen. Have conducted 650 services, at the almshouse, jail, county farm and other places connected with the work, and assisted in as many more. Have received and distributed about 800 garments; given meals of victuals to over 1000 poor people, besides in winter making soup for poor families; distributed 70,000 pages of tract matter, and over 3000 papers, magazines, etc.; found places for many girls, and girls for places; obtained about 1000 names to the pledge of prevention of cruelty to animals among children, and over 100 signatures to the temperance pledge; and otherwise attended to the work of a missionary. Also to the care and management of the home on Deer street, (established two years ago and incorporated June, 1877, as the "Home for Indigent Women," by act of the New Hampshire legislature, and the property given to the judicious care of a board of four trustees for safe keeping,) which now has twelve inmates, dependant on us as much as our own children. I wish to say, Mr. Editor, that to my knowledge no friend has ever been asked by me for money to help the work; and also we extend our best thanks to all who have in any and every way assisted our work, trusting that we shall be kept in health and labors abundant in the future. I would also state,—though perhaps this is not necessary,—that our accounts have been at stated times placed in the hands of the auditor, Mr. James Moses, and others interested in the work and home.

I have now entered upon the fourth year as voluntary city missionary, and I expect to be just as faithful to the duties devolving upon a volunteer servant; and we are also expecting that the work will be blest more abundantly in the future than in the past.

Any friend desiring to will or bequeath property to the home will please remember the incorporated name.

WILLIAM A. LOYNE.

UNION FAIR AT DOVER.

Prominent men in eastern New Hampshire and in York county, Me., who are interested in agricultural and mechanical exhibitions, have united in an effort to have a grand fair at Granite State Park in Dover in October. Five thousand dollars in premiums are to be paid, and premiums are to be paid on the grounds, thus saving the trouble and delay so common at fairs. Wide-a-wake, reliable men, who have the means to back up what they promise, are managing the matter, and hence there can be no failure. The grounds are ample, centrally located and are the same upon which was held one of the most successful of the New Hampshire State Fairs. The counties of Rockingham, Strafford, Belknap and Carroll in this State, and York in Maine, are to combine in the fair, and these counties, so rich in agricultural productions and the manufacturing arts, can present an exhibition that was never equalled in New Hampshire. It is to be held on October 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th, when all the fruits and vegetables will be in the highest state of perfection. The officers of the Consolidated Exhibition are:

President, George W. Tash of Dover.

Directors, Chas. H. Hayes of Portsmouth, Jacob Carlisle of Exeter, Luther Hayes of Milton, Albert O. Phillips of Alton, Lafayette Hall of Newmarket, I. W. Springfield of Rochester, John W. Smart of Newmarket, John Simpson of Alfred, Maine, and Moses D. Page of Dover.

Executive Committee, Stephen Durgin of Wolfeborough, Hiram F. Snow of Dover, John T. Hicks of Dover.

General Superintendent, Charles E. Smith of Dover.

Superintendent of Stables, John Wiggin of Dover.

Manager of Exhibition Hall, Moses D. Page of Dover.

Treasurer, Hiram F. Snow of Dover.

Secretary, George D. Lamos of Dover.

Chief Marshal, Thomas G. Jameson of Great Falls.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS.

The Democratic Councillor Convention for the 1st district was held at Dover on Wednesday, 18th inst. Aaron L. Mellows, Esq., of Newmarket, was chosen to preside, and George G. Larkin of Exeter as secretary. On a ballot for a candidate the result was as follows:

Whole number of votes	94
Necessary for a choice	48
Edw. E. Bartlett of Nottingham had	5
Moses H. Goodrich of Portsmouth	89

And Moses H. Goodrich was declared the nominee of the democratic party of the 1st Councillor district.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention for the 23d (Dover) district was held in Dover on the same day, and George F. Gray of Dover was nominated as the candidate.

THE VICINITY.

The subscriptions at Dover in aid of the yellow fever sufferers amounted to $1460 on Tuesday night, the 17th inst.

Benjamin Barnes, one of the oldest inhabitants of Dover, died Sept. 16th, aged eighty years. He was a native of Boston, and for over half a century had been clerk of the Cocheco mills, Dover. In early life he was a member of the Boston Light Infantry, which organization he joined in 1817. Although actively interested in public affairs he declined all political honors. Benjamin Barnes, Jr., of Portland, Me., is a son of the deceased.

Much excitement has been caused to the denizens of "Smoky Hollow" during the past week, over the alleged appearance of the ghost of Pat Stanton, whose death from suffocation we mentioned last week. The body of Stanton was buried in Dover; but the ghost has the habit of taking midnight strolls to his old haunts, and in particular to a pile of railroad ties near the Foundry station, where he sits in state and frightens his former companions. Mike Roadey was coming from his work in the gas house at about twelve o'clock one night last week, when Pat's ghost came down to shake hands with him. Mike don't remember much more about it, for he fainted. Mike Conley swears by all that is good that he saw him sawing wood last Tuesday night, there by the ties, but as that was an unusual pastime for the individual while in the flesh some people think Mike must have been mistaken in regard to the ghost's occupation.—Great Falls Journal.

Funeral of a Gypsy Queen.

Over 25,000 people attended the funeral at Dayton, O., recently, of Matilda Stanley, who was recognized as the queen of all Gypsies in the United States. She died at Vicksburg, Miss., last winter, and her body was embalmed in view of the late ceremonies. Representatives of the prominent Gypsy families in all parts of the United States and Canada assembled in the city for the occasion, and the funeral procession was a mile long. The ceremonies were conducted by a minister of the United Brethren church, and did not differ from a Christian funeral. At the close the children of the queen threw themselves on the grave, and filled the air with lamentations. The body was buried at Woodland cemetery. Dayton has been for some time the headquarters of the Gypsies in the country, and the king, the husband of the late queen, lives near that city, owning a large tract of land.

—Senator Butler of South Carolina, who is travelling with the Presidential party, unconsciously perpetrated a good joke during his visit to Minnesota. On one occasion a person on introduction inquired: "Are you the man who killed so many people in South Carolina?" Mr. Butler, without betraying annoyance, pleasantly replied: "I presume you have killed more men than I have." He was unaware that he had got ahead of his questioner, until a hearty laugh from the bystanders suggested an enquiry as to the cause, when he was informed that the man was a doctor.

—And Ananias stood forth. This is said to have been so that so that some modern liars could stand first, second and third.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
In use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Eruptions, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow blotches upon the face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, loss of appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the care of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians prescribe it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it controls incipient Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are Sugar-coated, Tasteless, Small, Easy to Take, Purely Vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in the Region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so many forms of disease, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets, they are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping of the nostrils, of the throat, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be applied, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages and the ulcers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Agreeable Fragrant Balsam. Sold by druggists.

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, roots and barks in their essential form, free from every noxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have on file letters by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, without considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great merit, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me a fortune.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
REV. D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and virtues.
WM. BOWEN, 225 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. ARMSTRONG, 139 HANOVER AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the nauseous nostrums that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to write to Seth J. THOMAS, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

A South Pacific Expedition.

The English Arctic exploring ship Alert is being fitted out for a new surveying trip, which Nature says will be carried out principally in the South Pacific. Her first work will be an examination of the inner water leading from the Straits of Magellan to the Gulf of Penas, along the seaboard of Chili; from this she will stretch across the South Pacific Ocean from Fiji, adding en route as far as practicable to the present knowledge of the hydrography of the Low Archipelago—Society and Friendly Islands. After a few months spent in the neighborhood of Fiji and in an examination of dangers lying in the track of navigation between that group and the colony of New Zealand, she will, for the latter part of her voyage, be employed off the northwestern coast of Australia, principally in ascertaining the positions of, and as far as necessary charting, the various surfs and islets lying off the Australian continent, and between it and the ports of the Netherlands India, and at many of which are reefs, etc., while traffic has been for some time increasing on the search for trepang, pearls and guano.

The National Banks.

While the greenbackers are constantly complaining of the monopoly of the national banks, the banks are steadily reducing their capital, which, under the heavy taxation imposed upon it, yields less than other investments. The national banking capital pays taxes of over $7,000,000 to the general government, and the aggregate of the taxes, national and State, exceeds $17,000,000, equal to 3 1-2 per cent. on the capital employed. The average dividends have been the past year less than 6 per cent., and a great number of the banks are located in the west, where the current rate of interest is ten per cent. Any persons have a right to organize a national bank on an equality with the existing ones, by complying with the conditions requisite for the protection of the public. Those who complain of the monopoly have an equal right to share in it. But instead of this, those who enjoy the monopoly are hastening to divest themselves of it. With the resumption of specie payments, the currency of these banks will adjust itself to the public wants, will increase with the demand, and will retire as the demand falls off, forming a currency regulated by the laws of trade and the necessities of commerce; always sound and convertible. But a currency issued by the government, and restrained by no natural law, would become a continual disturbance of trade and fluctuation in prices. Congress is one of the worst bodies in the world to have the control of the amount of the currency. Such a control would place the business of the country at the mercy of politics; one day inflation would unsettle everything; another day contraction would bring thousands to bankruptcy. Stability is what the interests of labor and capital alike demand, and stability will be secured by the national banks, with the resumption of specie payments, which will allow the laws of trade to act.

The national banks have supplied the country with the best possible currency that could be furnished under suspended specie payments. Those who recall the times before the war will remember the scrutiny to which every bank note was subjected, with a view to its solvency. Now the scrutiny extends only to its authenticity. If it be the genuine note of a national bank, its security is not questioned. The only apprehension is of counterfeits, of which there have been few, very few, in comparison with those of the State banks. Nor has the public suffered by the failure of the national banks. Under this admirable system the note of a broken bank is as good as that of a solvent one. To break up the system, now, would be to inflict a greater evil upon the public than upon the stockholders of the banks, which, bending under the burden of taxation, are reducing their capitals, and many of them are not averse to going into liquidation.

News and Notes.

The Spanish frigate Pizarro foundered at sea Sept. 11th. All hands saved.

There was a grand wedding at Newport, R. I., Thursday, when Isaac Bell, Jr., of New York, and Miss Jeannette Bennett, sister of James Gordon Bennett, were married.

A letter from the commanding officer at the Red Cloud agency, D. T., states that two Indians, recently from Sitting Bull's camp, report abundance of game in that section, and Sitting Bull's followers are well supplied with arms and ammunition. It was the intention that the chief would make a raid into the Black Hills last spring, but having learned the distribution of our troops, and, further, that the British authorities would not allow him to return to Canada in case he made such a raid, he concluded it was best not to do so. These Indians also state that there are a number of dissatisfied followers with Sitting Bull, but he keeps them guarded so closely they cannot return to the United States.

Parties at the South have countermanded their order for 1000 cases of shoes from the Pittsfield factory on account of the yellow fever.

The Post Office Department is taking measures to deliver the mails to all quarantined cities in the South, and where the routes are cut off by the railroads ceasing to run on account of the quarantine regulations or otherwise, postmasters are instructed by some other method to serve the public by the delivery of the mails regularly.

The work of the Paris Silver Conference, such as it is, was summed up in the following formal resolution: "That it is necessary to maintain the monetary functions of silver as well as gold, but that the complications of the present situation preclude the adoption of a common ratio, or any attempt to regulate the relative value of the two metals." Our brilliant schemers in high finance had better ponder a little over this; the Europeans are no such uncommon asses as to try to regulate by law what can be regulated only in the open market of the whole world. Statute law can reconstruct the planetary system as easily as the fundamental truths of trade and commerce.—Providence Press.

In March last the log house of John Hurley, at Seneca, Michigan, was burnt, and one son perished. Mrs. Hurley and her infant escaped, but so horribly burnt that they died. Hurley was arrested on the 17th inst., on a charge of murder made by his father-in-law. One of the motives to the crime was probably an illegitimate intimacy with his wife's unmarried sister, who now charges him with her two children, one born before and one since the catastrophe.

The examination of Rev. H. H. Hayden for the murder of Mary E. Stannard was resumed at Madison, Conn., on the 18th. The evidence against the reverend seducer is quite strong, and it is believed that he will be held for trial.

There is a slight decrease in the number of new cases of yellow fever, but the condition of the stricken cities is not much improved.

The 250th anniversary of the landing at Salem of John Endicott, the first Governor of Massachusetts, was celebrated in that city Wednesday, the 18th. There was a great array of distinguished guests. An oration was delivered by Judge William C. Endicott, a lineal descendant of the governor, and a poem written by W. W. Story was read by Prof. Churchill. Toasts were responded to by Gov. Rice, Hon. R. C. Winthrop, Hon. M. P. Wilder, Dean Stanley, Hon. Leverett Saltonstall and others.

Two men were badly injured Tuesday, 17th inst., by the falling of a rock upon them in an excavation being made under Hell Gate, New York harbor.

The boy, S. Braden, of Indianopolis, who carried off all the honors of the English training ship Worcester, has arrived at New York. He has the gold medal and other prizes presented to him by the Queen, but he was refused a cadetship in the English Navy, which belonged to him, because he would not renounce his allegiance to the United States.

Mrs. Samuel Hooper's summer residence in Lenox, Mass., was entered by burglars on the night of the 16th, and though a family of half a dozen persons were in the house the burglars stole all the plate, said to be $2000 worth, and helped themselves to lunch and wine in the cellar.

Subscriptions have been opened in Paris for the yellow fever sufferers at the newspaper offices, at the United States Legation and Consulate and at the Exposition.

A member of the Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge, in session at Baltimore, argued on the 18th in favor of admitting civilized Indians to the order. Several reports of committes were made. A resolution to hold the next meeting at Jacksonville was lost. The proposed amendments to the constitution were indefinitely postponed, and the Grand Lodge spent the rest of the day in an excusion to Annapolis, Md.

Advices from Lexington, Mo., say that Mr. Taylor of Taylor & Reed, contractors on the extension of the Chicago & Alton railroad, has disappeared with several thousand dollars which it was expected he would pay the laborers, they not having been paid for two months. Taylor's chief clerk has also left for parts unknown.

There is a great reaction in political affairs in Canada. So far as heard from, 120 members of the Opposition are returned, and only 57 supporters of the present Government.

Political.

Geo. A. Wilson has been nominated for Congress by the democrats of the Ninth Illinois district. P. V. Denster has been nominated by the democrats of the First Wisconsin Congressional district. The democrats of the Sixth New Jersey district have nominated Andrew Alright.

In response to a call signed by over 5000 citizens of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, asking him to be a candidate for United States Senator, Matt H. Carpenter replied, stating that if elected he would regard it his duty to accept.

Prompt Relief of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of those bodily evils enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysts, and eminently wholesome and serviceable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now rupplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. dlw o1t

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virgisia, says: "Do sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, if he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhea are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. THE CITY.

An orator from Portland held forth on Market square, Thursday evening, to convert the people to the greenback faith.

A fish hawk, measuring five feet and eight inches from tip to tip of its wings, was shot at Sagamore creek Wednesday afternoon.

We are informed that another dividend will be paid the depositors in the Rockingham Ten Cents Savings Bank this month. Hope it's so.

Higgins' "Trapp Combination" will present the American comic play, "Tramps; or, the stolen child," at Music hall this evening. See advertisement.

The telegraph operators in this city and at Rye beach have contributed thirty-seven dollars to the Telegraphers' Relief Fund for victims of the yellow fever.

A flock of hens belonging to Mr. Andrew J. Smith of Christian Shore were recently poisoned by some person feeding them with corn which had been treated with strychnine. Small revenge, and a dangerous trick.

Schooner yacht Intrepid, 117 tons, belonging to Lloyd Phœnix of New York, sailed from this port for Portland, Thursday forenoon, but returned to the lower harbor in the afternoon. She is neat as a new pin, of course, and is largely composed of "legs and wings;" but to a seaman she presents anything but a beautiful model, her long overhanging stern being especially objectionable.

Brig Sally Brown, formerly of this port, bound from Pensacola to Sanjos with a cargo of 278,000 feet of lumber, was abandoned at sea recently. She was of 426 tons burthen, built at Newburyport in 1865 for several parties in this city, most of whom sold their interest some time since. Chas. H. Mendum, Esq., one of the original owners retained his interest in the vessel. The Sally Brown was formerly commanded by Capt. Matthews of the ship Cochorua; of late she has hailed from Boston.

A large number of circulars have of late been received in this city from the "National Art Company of Cincinnati," addressed to residents whose names are probably obtained from the directory, and containing the information that they have been fortunate enough to draw handsome oil paintings which can be had by sending two dollars. This is an old dodge, and it would seem to have been worn out; but the number of credulous people appear to be as large as ever, and it is believed that a large number—some, it is said, who should have known better, —have sent that amount. We have seen a letter from the Superintendent of Police of Cincinnati, saying that "the concern is entirely unworthy of confidence."—Times.

A gentleman from the rural districts appeared on Spring Hill, Thursday. Some of the gamins of that locality thought he looked like a man whom they could have some fun with, so they pelted him with fishes' heads, and had a real good time until the gentleman from the rural districts got tired of it and went for them, when they ran away, laughing. Some of them did not laugh long, for the gentleman from the rural districts could run like a deer, and soon caught two or three of his assailants, and punched their heads most commendably. They will make sure that the next quiet looking man they throw fish-heads at is a non-resistant.

We have received a book, just published, entitled "A treatise on the Horse and his Diseases." The book is finely illustrated with about 35 excellent engravings, which show the positions and actions of sick horses better than can be taught in any other way. It gives the cause, symptoms and best treatment of diseases, has a table giving doses of medicines and a few pages on the action and uses of medicines. In the treatise on each disease it is plain and practical, so that any person can readily find out just what to do, as technical terms are avoided as much as possible, making it just what every farmer and horse owner needs. It has a large collection of good receipts, and much other valuable information. As the publisher, B. F. Kimball, M. D., Enosburgh Falls, Vt., will send it to any address on receipt of 25 cts., every horse owner should improve this opportunity of procuring this useful book.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

Bonds of Charles H. Besselievre, Thomas R. Moore, William Nowell, Peter Pray, Charles P. Abbott and Joseph B. White, as police officers and night watchmen, were accepted.

Petition of Charles R. Downs for five naphtha lights on Middle street was laid on the table.

Matter of North church bell was referred to committee on fire department, with power.

Walter C. Harriman, Esq., representing the petitioners for the widening of Vaughan street at Hanover, and Mr. George W. Pendexter, representing Mrs. Cleaves, addressed the Board. The petitioners were granted leave to withdraw, in order to draw up a new petition.

Adjourned.

A SUGGESTION.

A plan for the abatement of the "mill-pond nuisance:"

The city to purchase both ponds and all privileges pertaining thereto, then build a marginal wall that will prevent an overflow of any considerable amount of land during a high course of tides; also to allow a rise and fall of eighteen inches of ordinary tides, and adjust the gates so that eighteen inches of water can flow over the top of each gate.

The water from the sea, owing to the difference of temperature will go to the bottom, and the warmer water rise to the surface and flow out on the ebb tide; this will occur twice in twenty-four hours, which will keep the ponds pure and leave no flats exposed to vitiate the air. The water-power could be leased eight months of the year, from the first of October to the first of June, and during the summer months the ponds would be full.

The advantages of this plan would be: economy in outlay, the ponds objects of beauty, and better health for all.

CITIZEN.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention for Dist. No. 22, (Newmarket district) was holden at Newmarket on Thursday. Herbert F. Norris, Esq., of Epping, was elected president, and Dr. Wm. O. Junkins of Greenland secretary. The committee on credentials reported twenty-two delegates present and entitled to seats in the convention. A ballot for a candidate for Senator was then taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	22
Necessary for a choice	12
Gilman H. Jenness of Rye had	2
Josiah S. James of Epping	2
George A. Bennett of Newmarket	5
Charles W. Pickering of Greenland	13

And Col. Charles W. Pickering, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee of the Convention. The nomination was then made unanimous. A committee of three was appointed to notify Col. Pickering of his nomination and ask his acceptance. The resolutions of the State convention were adopted, after which the convention adjourned.

UP THE PISCATAQUA.

Up the river seems to possess but few charms for pleasure seekers, yet it is as distinct in its scenery attractions as its opposite — down the river. Instead of ragged shores and protruding ledges with shaggy locks of seaweed sporting on the breakers, pebbly and sanded beaches, slonghy waves and the blue ocean field with its bracing breezes, we have the placid yet restless stream whose banks present many points of beauty.

In our reverie we go back two centuries ago and draw pictures of its primitive days when only the canoe of the Indian glided through its waters, when the sea bird floated over its broad surface and the salmon sported in its swift currents, while along the shore was a dense setting of pine and oaks receding as far back as the eye could reach. But civilization awoke it from its dream life; the pioneer's axe cleared the forest and brought into existence meadows, orchards and gardens. As progress with its attendant co-operators, enterprise and improvements sped along, it approached the time to scenes within our own recollection which now almost seem like a passing vision of childhood's days, when the river was dotted with barges, gondolas and skiffs of every conceivable shape and style, filled with produce and other commodities for the supply of the market. One of the attractions was the deeply loaded boats containing the variety of articles for home use, from the household bunch of herbs to the luxurious bowl of field strawberries, balls of golden butter and cans of fresh cream, and these giddy crafts guided by fair young maidens and the wives of sturdy farmers. In those days it was no uncommon sight to see old ladies rowing their wherries to and from the city, and steering them through the intricacies of the tides and eddies with no little amount of tact and skill.

We commence our voyage at sunrise, leaving Portsmouth Bridge in our rear. The blue of the sky, the green of the meadows, the silver rays of the sun playing amid the sombre shade of the pines all harmonize into one glorious scene. The notes of the birds blending with the melody of the singing tide are the only breakers of the quietness that prevails. While now and then we catch the fragrance of new made hay and from fields flowered with clover blossoms.

On our left we pass the bridge which spans Cutts' cove, Freeman's Point, and then comes the high bluff, in the centre of which is the famous Pulpit Rock. This location was once the resort of picnic parties, but since it has been denuded of its trees it has passed into one of the pleasant remembrances of the past. Many will remember the impromptu sermons and declamations that greeted and no doubt oftentimes astonished the river voyager while passing this point, and we can almost seem to hear the chimes of the melodies which used to ring out in the voices of the young wild flower gatherers who often frequented this treasured spot. We must not forget the Devil's Den at the base of the cliff close by the shore, though we never could conceive how his majesty with his vast army of retainers could hold court in so small an apartment. Above is the Wentworth farm, and here is one of the gems of natural beauty. Its border is skirted with trees and shrubbery, and a graceful curve of the bank carries you into a shady nook which forms a pleasant retreat for a quiet rest. The Pearce farm which adjoins this has recently been purchased by Mr. Charles C. Lamprey, who has made extensive improvements in erecting fine buildings and fertilizing the land. The next land that borders the river are the farms of John George Pickering and Seth Huntress, and we now strike the Newington shore, passing the Hill, Paul, Huntress and Rollins farms, which are occasionally spanned by the bridges which cross an interval of land or the entrance to some creek. The Frank Pickering farm and point form the bend of the stream toward Durham, and the next attraction is Bloody Point, so called from a legend of a fight with Indians. From this point a reef called Landstaff Rock runs north-north-east, extending about one-half way across the river and covered at low tide with six feet of water. It is said that a ferry was once run from here to Eliot, the opposite shore, to or near the Leighton farm. Knight's ferry is familiar to those who visited the Dover Point House or took this route to Dover during the interval of time of the old Piscataqua Bridge being carried away, and the building of the present railroad bridge. Passing under the Portsmouth & Dover Railroad Bridge we come to the Drew farm, which was once the favored resort of river parties. It is pleasantly situated, embracing many fine views. Wending our way on we pass Back Cove, Zacchais Point, Calf-skin Point, northwest of which are the Horse Races, Broad Cove, Hen Island and Fox Point. From this place the old Piscataqua bridge was thrown across to Goat island and then continued to Durham. It was erected in 1793, was 2600 feet long, 40 feet wide, and cost about $65,000. It is said that in the year 1790 the indians under a sagamore by the name of Hopwood attacked the settlers at Fox point, destroying the houses, killing fourteen persons and taking six prisoners. They were afterwards pursued and some of the prisoners recaptured, and also a part of the plunder. The action was severe and Hopwood was wounded. After a glimpse at Bald Head, which follows the bend of the Piscataqua toward Great Bay, we end our journey and retrace our steps to our starting point, to take a sketch of our neighbors on the Eliot shore, which we shall give in our next,

QUILL.

THE VICINITY.

The annual Salisbury beach gathering, Thursday, was attended by 12,000 or 15,000 people. Hon. J. K. Tarbox was the principal speaker.

There will be a dramatic entertainment at the town hall, Greenland, on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, at which time "Marriage a Lottery" will be presented by the same company of amateur performers, from this city, who so acceptably entertained our citizens at Music hall on the 9th.

Another raid was made on the Cape Neddick house in York a few days since, by Deputy Sheriff Grant of Saco, who secured about three gallons of various kinds of liquors. The Wentworth house at Wells beach was also raided upon and a small quantity of spirits was found on the proprietor's person.

The house of George Miller in Kennebunkport, Me., was entered by burglars about 1 o'clock Tuesday night, the 17th. The burglars entered the room of Miss Miller, the housekeeper, beat her with a club and choked her; then went to the room of George and Benjamin Miller and demanded their money. They took the pants belonging to George Miller, containing $13C. They were masked and armed with clubs.

Cards and Croquets.

One day this summer we rode fifty miles in a railway car, seated behind four men, who were playing with those awful playthings of the devil—cards. They played euchre until they were tired of it. They played a little seven up, pedro, and occasionally a trifle of poker. We never heard a dispute. Their bursts of merriment at some unexpected play repeatedly drew our eyes from our book. They never quarrelled and never called names once. When we got out at our station we sat at our window and watched a party of young men and maidens play croquet. In fifteen minutes we saw two persons cheat unscrupulously. We heard the one player who did not cheat accused of cheating five times. We heard four distinct bitter quarrels. We heard a beautiful young girl tell two lies, and a meek looking young man three, and finally we saw the young girl throw her mallet against the fence so hard it frightened a horse; the other young girl pounded her mallet so hard on the ground that it knocked the buds off an apple tree; they both banged into the house at different doors, and the young men booked sheepish and went off after a drink. Now, why is this? Isn't croquet a good moral game?—Hawkeye.

—The Mormons claim to be 400,000 strong.

—A woman in Ludington, Mich., shot and killed a neighbor's pet bear that strayed into her house. On the following night she sent a bullet into a burglar who entered by the same door, which is still unfastened.

—Westmoreland is the smallest county in Virginia, but it was the birth-place of three Presidents—Washington, Madison and Monroe.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial Affections, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated with a white or yellowish fur, you may be assured that symptoms from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by all druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of calomel, croton oil, and baleful mercurials. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headaches, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fevers, Dimness of Sight, Feeling of Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pleasant Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes producing irritating cough, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, mucous matter collects in the throat, causing hoarseness, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. One liquid preparation may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of treatment yet invented with which relief could be had, and can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers are frequently also, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has gone its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have cheerfully expressed their personal gratitude, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable. HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering. GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure. D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my patients all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them. WM. BOWEN, 255 IVY ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success. WM. ARMSTRONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of a second to dispute its merits. E. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the nauseous nostrums that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston, GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers generally throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

An Affecting Sentence.

Judge ——, of the —— Judicial District of Arkansas, had brought before him a convicted felon to be sentenced. The opportunity to "improve" the occasion was not to be lost, and so, after the usual demand for reason why sentence should not be pronounced, his honor slowly and with genuine feeling addressed the prisoner: "My poor fellow, you are about to go to the penitentiary. You are required to give up for a long term everything which the great world values: your family—and instead to take for your associates only felons like yourself; your home, and to take instead what can never have the semblance of a home; your will, and so be subject to the order of men who have no sympathy with you. Even your ordinary clothing you will exchange for (here his honor hesitated, and raising his left arm, pointed to it with the index finger of the right hand) striped clothes, the stripes not running lengthwise, like these, but so—round and round, like a coon's tail."—Harper's for October.

—To make a mango—read him your last poem.

—East Liverpool, O., is warmed and lighted by its natural gas wells, one of which has been running for twenty years and sends out as strong a stream as ever. The gas gives a flame that almost rivals the electric light in brilliancy, and it costs so little that the lamps in the city streets are kept burning day and night. It is used in private houses and factories alike, and cooks a steak or heats a furnace with equal satisfaction.

—An Indian soap-stone quarry of considerable size has been discovered on Rock creek, just outside of Washington. Dr. E. R. Reynolds, of the pension office, happened on it in his rambles, and the first time an official of Smithsonian Institute visited the quarry, more than one hundred unfinished vessels were found, of all sizes and shapes, many of them nearly complete and of rare scientific value. Excavations will be made to lay completely bare the interesting relics of the aboriginal work-shop.

—The plague causes a joke now and then, grim though it sometimes be. It is related of a physician in the United States army that his clerk a few days ago came into his presence while he was very much occupied, saying, "Doctor, here's a communication for you from New Orleans; what shall I do with it?" Still engaged with his work, the good man replied hastily, "Has it been fumigated?" The clerk, telling him it had not, was directed to fumigate it at once. This being done, and the paper handed to the physician, he was not a little surprised to find it was a telegram.

—A Phillisburg, N. J., item says: A night or two ago, just as his train had passed Crawford, Lafayette Larry, an engineer on the Central road, saw a red light appear some distance ahead of him, and after burning a few moments disappeared again. Thinking there must be something wrong he brought his train to a stop, when a man got on, who, in answer to a question as to who it was that stopped the train, said, "I guess I did." "But where's your red light?" was further queried. "Here it is," he replied triumphantly, producing a long, flat, well-filled whiskey bottle. "I lit a match and held it behind it." The men on the train say the resemblance to the ordinary red light was perfect. The man who made this ingenious invention was a commuter who had been left behind by the regular train.

—An ingenious tailor of this city got a lot of empty pop bottles, put one of his business cards in each, then wrapped up every bottle separately in a poisoned tenderloin steak and threw them into the bay from the ferryboats, one by one. He naturally supposed that the meat would be swallowed by sharks; that the poison would kill the latter; that the fish would float ashore, be cut open, the bottles discovered, the fact be reported by the newspapers, and an original and effective advertisement secured. That was precisely what happened. Day before yesterday a yachting party picked up an immense shark not far from Alcatraz. In its stomach was found one of the bottles alluded to, and the card it contained handed to a reporter of this paper. The name of the clever merchant it contained, ——, will be published at our regular advertising rates, if so directed by him. See terms on inside page.—San Francisco Post.

—Several years ago, in a western town, a young lawyer, a member of a large church, got drunk. The brethren said he must confess. He demurred. He knew the members to be a good people, but that they had their little faults, such as driving sharp bargains, screwing the laborer down to low wages, loaning money at illegal rates, misrepresenting articles they had for sale, etc. But they were good people and pressed the lawyer to come before the church meeting and own up his sin of taking a glass too much; for they were temperance people and abhorred intemperance. The sinner finally went to the confession, found a large gathering of brethren and sisters, whose bowed heads rose, and whose eyes glistened with pure delight as the lawyer began his confession. "I confess," he said, "that I never took ten per cent for money." On that confession down went a brother's head with a groan. "I never turned a poor man from my door when he needed food or shelter." Down went another head. "I confess I never sold a skim milk cheese for a new milk one," whereupon a sister shrieked for mercy. "But," concluded the sinner, "I have been drunk, and am sorry for it." Whereupon the meeting very peacably dispersed.

News and Notes.

The yellow fever is increasing in Tennessee and Louisiana, and a fresh appeal for help comes from Memphis. The stricken city is almost depopulated.

At a wedding party in Elizabeth, N. J. Thursday, Richard Ray, father of the bridegroom, was shot by a groomsman. Roughs stoned the house, and Ray and others went out to drive them off. The groomsman fired at the roughs and hit Ray.

The mortality from yellow fever is indicated by the latest telegrams to have been as follows, up to Sept. 19th: New Orleans, 2,043; Memphis, 1,891; Vicksburg, 584; Grenada, 223; Port Gibson, 96; Greenville, 49; Canton, 54; Holly Springs, 80; Ocean Springs, 25; Lake Station, 17; Baton Rouge, 27; Plaquemine, 27; Morgan City, 6; Hickman, Ky., 26; Louisville, 7; Cincinnati, 4; Gallipolis, Ohio, 11; Biloxi, Miss., 1. Total, 5,171.

The barn of Samuel Orr of Goffstown, with seventy-five tons of hay, a lot of farming tools and a valuable ox, was burned by an incendiary fire on the night of the 18th inst.

Deacon Seth Smith of Hebron, Conn., a prominent citizen, slipped off a load of shingles Monday evening and struck on his head, breaking his neck.

Prof. Elias Loomis of Yale college is said to have created great consternation at college by publishing "Algebraic Problems and Examples" without a key. According to a new rule of the faculty, any upper classman detected molesting a freshman will at once be dropped into the next lower class, no matter how high his standing. So vigorous a measure has borne its natural fruit in utterly dwarfing all attempts at hazing, until freshmen have been seen even occupying the juniors' fence without hindrance.

The directors of the Ipswich, Mass., gas light company have voted to reduce the price of gas to all consumers ten per cent. The price formerly charged was two dollars per thousand feet, the present reduction making the price one dollar and eighty cents, which is lower than gas is furnished in any other city or town in New England.

The schooner City of Gloucester arrived at Gloucester, Mass., Thursday, with her flag at half-mast for the loss of two men, Martin Strand and Charles Nelson, who left the vessel on the banks and did not return. Grief was turned to rejoicing and the flag run up to the masthead as the missing men came on board and received congratulations. They were picked up after forty-two hours exposure by an English vessel, transferred to the Tom M. Gaffney, and arrived home two days before their own vessel.

The Eclectic for October contains nineteen articles, counting the four editorial departments, including "The Rise and Progress of Ultramontanism in Germany," by Prof. Von Schulte; "Music and Musical Criticism," by Edmund Gurney; "Social Aspects of the Paris Exposition," by Miss M. Betham Edwards; "Iceland," a lively descriptive paper by Anthony Trollope; "The Races of Asiatic Turkey," by J. C. McCoan, editor of the Levant Herald; "The Moon's Myriad Small Craters," by Richard A. Proctor; chapters of "Macleod of Dare," by Wm. E. G. Southworth, a hotel keeper at West Lebanon, was dangerously injured Thursday while attempting to stop a runaway team. In the act of seizing the horse Mr. Southworth was thrown violently to the ground, and both the horse and wagon passed over his body, breaking one of his ribs and otherwise injuring him internally.

D. L. Moody held a large concourse of people in the grove meeting at Chesterfield Lake, Thursday. Fully 3000 people were present to hear the evangelist.

On Wednesday, the 18th, another of Concord's clergymen celebrated the golden anniversary of his ordination to the ministry. Rev. E. E. Cummings, D. D., is well known personally and by good reputation throughout New England. He is the fourth clergyman in Concord who within a few years has passed his fiftieth year in the ministry. The other three were Rev. N. Bouton, D. D., (deceased), Rev. Silas Curtis (Freewill Baptist) and Rev. Eleazer Smith (Methodist), the two latter now living in the enjoyment of good health. Rev. Dr. Cummings was born in Claremont, Nov. 9, 1800. He graduated at Waterville College in 1828, and was ordained to the ministry and settled over the Baptist church in Salisbury Sept. 17, 1828. In 1832, March 2, he was installed over the First Baptist church in Concord, where he remained eighteen years. In 1854 he became pastor of the new Pleasant street church, and filled that pulpit until 1869, making a pastorate of thirty-three years in Concord.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 16th.

Your correspondent spent some days just before and after the election that has just occurred in Maine, in those portions of that State most notorious for the greenback craze. It was honestly endeavored to get down to the causes underlying the remarkable revolution in public sentiment that has taken place during the past three months, as indicated by the vote cast on the 9th inst. The campaign was fought almost exclusively on financial issues, the greenbackers forcing the fight as though anxious to divert attention from the undeniable purpose of the leaders now supreme in the counsels of democracy to ignore the verdict of the late war, wipe out the constitutional amendments adopted after its close, and return to the reign of the bowie knife, the pistol and the mob. Those who remained staunchly loyal all through the dark days of the war, including the most intelligent elements, felt they had been forced into a false position by making matters of finance, vital as they were conceded to be, the only issue. But they had no choice but to accept the gauntlet as thrown down by an opposition that grew more blatant and domineering from the beginning of the contest to the turning of the polls at five o'clock P. M. on the 9th inst. It was noticeable that the same classes who supported the war at first, but gradually arrayed themselves under the banner of disloyal democracy as the price of their tea and coffee increased and as a draft became more certain, and the voters who have grown up since under the tuition of that style of patriots, fell one by one away from their allegiance to the cause of honest money and the preservation of national faith to its creditors, as the democratic-greenback orators became more profuse in their promises of an abundance of money provided their candidates were elected. Ridiculous and absurd as it may appear to dispassionate observers, a large proportion of voters esteemed, as a whole exceptionally intelligent, talk and appear to believe that money under the circumstances named, will be as plenty as the stones in their fields. The one leading idea every greenback orator seemed most solicitous to inculcate, however much they differed on other points, was that of "fiat" money. The delusion that government can give intrinsic value to a piece of rag or paper by the impress of its stamp, is, in many localities, overwhelmingly prevalent. It seems to strike an outside observer as a sort of epidemic craze. More financial wisdom, such as it is, was gathered in a two weeks' visit there than has been accumulated in a ten years' residence here among the representative men of the nation, a part of whose business has been to know something of national finances. Men heretofore credited with knowing next to nothing have suddenly acquired celebrity as the ablest expounders of the new science. Boys sixteen years old, and usually occupying the dunce's place in their classes at school, can reel it off by the hour, so constant have they been in their attendance at the greenback rallies that have been held in nearly every school-house or public hall in the State. It is dire confusion and demoralization all over the State. The old system of finances, founded on silver and gold as the only standard of value, which the fathers devised and was never before seriously questioned, has been uprooted and rejected for the new one by the amateurs. But the day is not distant in the future, likely, when the teachers who have acquired such sudden prominence will be estimated at their proper value; and the crude and revolutionary doctrines they have so industriously disseminated will be cast aside.

The work of relieving the yellow fever sufferers is still the one occupying the greatest share of our attention. The ingenuity of every one has been stimulated by the rivalry to do most, and new methods of raising funds have been resorted to with fair success.

The Star of a recent date says: "The Republican Congressional Committee will forthwith take the necessary steps to secure a phonographic report of the speech made by the President in Minnesota yesterday and will give it the widest circulation. The speech is generally accepted, even by the personal and political enemies of the president, to be an able one, full of sound logic and incontrovertible facts. The republicans recognize in it a speech which will enlist the interest of the average readers, and for this reason it will be extensively circulated."

KNOX.

Political.

John T. Hulme, secretary of the greenback State committee, has assumed editorial charge of the New Hampshire Patriot, hitherto the leading democratic paper of the State, owned by E. C. Bailey of Boston. The Patriot is now a greenback paper.

A Washington despatch of Thursday says: "A letter has been received from William E. Chandler predicting that the result in Maine will be repeated in New Hampshire, that there will be no election of governor, and that the legislature will be lost to the republicans." We shouldn't wonder if some inflationist had tried his hand at the truth, and inflated it a good deal before it reached the press in the shape quoted. At the same time it would be well for Mr. Chandler to brand the despatch as a flat-footed lie.

The Boston Post of Friday in an editorial substantially notifies the republicans of Massachusetts that it is their duty to support the "regular" democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts, whoever he may be, against Ben Butler. As the democratic party of Massachusetts has been in a hopeless minority for years, even when united, and is now split into two factions by Butler's capture of three-quarters of it, the Post's demand that the republicans meekly drop in at the tail of the procession headed by the old-line democrats seems modest indeed.

If Isaac Hill's spirit could return to earth and see the old Patriot a greenback sheet, wouldn't he be glad he was dead?

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtwsp1079

THE CITY.

Reform Club meeting in Mechanics' hall Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The "Wide Awakes" of North Hampton and the "Portsmouths" pound the sphere at the Plains this afternoon, at two o'clock.

There is a large fleet of coal vessels at the Concord railroad wharf and the private coal wharves, and quite a number of vessels expected to arrive.

A telegram was received in this city from Lynn, Mass., Friday, announcing the sudden death of Dr. Enoch C. Call, formerly of Portsmouth. Dr. Call was a brother of Thomas E. Call, Esq., of this city.

The fishermen out of this port found mackerel on the "shoal ground" Friday, and all the boats went out that evening to try for fares. The fish taken Thursday averaged larger than any previously taken in this vicinity this season.

Lieut. David Whipple, U. S. M. C., of this city, went to Boston this week and had one of his fingers taken off at the second joint, consequent on an injury received at New Orleans when he was there attached to the U. S. S. Enterprise.

Jeremiah Manning, the marine who jumped from the cars when on his way to Brentwood in custody of an officer, and who was afterward taken from the navy yard to the county farm, left the farm this week without waiting for the formality of a discharge, and again presented himself at the marine barracks.

An excursion train will leave the Eastern railroad depot in this city for the White Mountains, through the Notch to Fabyan's, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. Tickets, good to return at any time on or before Oct. 2d, only $2.50 for the round trip. As this is the best season of the year to visit the mountains, no doubt a large number will be induced to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Sophus Hagermann, of the United States Coast Survey, was in conference with Mayor Sise, Capt. William Treadwell and Mr. Thomas H. Odlon, Friday forenoon, in reference to the obstructions in our river. Capt. Hagermann will immediately commence sounding and surveys, beginning operations off Noble's island, and will occupy some two or three weeks in the work. He will also examine into the subject of a breakwater at the third Newcastle bridge, and will report the general results of his labors to Gen. Thom.

The lower harbor looked quite lively, Thursday. Several yachts and a number of fishing vessels and coasters were moving about or at anchor, steamer Clara Bateman was engaged with tows, steamer James Sampson was down from up river with a party of excursionists from South Newmarket, the little Mollie was tripping it between this city and the Shoals, a light-house steamer was anchored in the cove near Fort Constitution, schooner Golden Gate was loading dried fish at Goat Island wharf, and a score of pleasure boats were flitting about.

Hon. Evarts W. Farr, the republican candidate for member of Congress in the third district, went to the war in the 2d New Hampshire Regiment from this city. Previous to his departure he was married here. He returned from the war with the loss of an arm. He may not be able to utter as ponderous arguments as his legal neighbor, Harry Bingham of Littleton, but if elected to Congress he can make an "off hand" speech on all occasions, and can be depended on to vote every time in support of the national honor and the interests of the people.

The deficiencies of the appropriations for the naval service in the bureau of steam engineering required an act of Congress before certain claims could be allowed. They were reported upon unanimously by the committee on expenditures of the navy department, and provided for in the general appropriation bill to supply deficiencies passed in June last. Among the waiting creditors of Uncle Sam were Hon Stillman B. Allen of Boston, $450; Cook, Rymes & Co., $14; Eastern Railroad, $11.90; H. H. Ham, $3.50; Rider & Cotton, $106.58; Mercer Goodrich, $1.58; George E. Hanson, $83; and others. These bills had to be incorporated in an act of Congress before Sec. Thompson could have authority to pay them. It may seem like circumlocution, but it is an observance of law.

A cheap passage to Greenland this afternoon to witness the play of "Marriage a Lottery" at the town hall at four o'clock, can be secured on application at Cochrane's stable, Vaughan street.

Money is easy on call at one and a half to two per cent. per annum in New York. This does not satisfy the greenback men, who want to make it easy to get it for nothing. The bloated capitalists must come down in their rates.

Mr. Thomas S. Nowell has leased his fine residence on Miller avenue, near Miss Morgan's school, for a term of years, to Geo. Tompson, Esq. Mr. Nowell in addition to the sales of bark rossing machines used by tanners in nearly every section of the country, is interested in a knitting machine invented by Mr. Orison Twombly of Lake Village, formerly of this city, which is in successful operation in Equitable building in Boston, and though wonderfully reasonable in cost is said to be of perfect mechanism. A company is being formed to sell these machines throughout this country and Europe. Mr. Nowell's constant labors do not permit him to expend five hours of valuable time daily in the cars, hence his removal to Boston.

Capt. R. H. Tucker, of Wiscasset, Me., a gentleman well known in this city, where he was interested with his late father in several ships built on this river, on Thursday launched a curious boat called "Air Propeller." It is diamond shaped, flat bottomed, ninety feet long, and fifteen feet wide in the centre; has five masts, fitted with very odd-shaped three-cornered sails, every alternate one being set point downward instead of up; the rudder, and in fact every part of the boat, differs from that in general use. Capt. Tucker will put a steam boiler in this boat for the purpose of forcing air beneath it, which will be the motive power in calms. The boat is a decided novelty, and may develope some useful improvements.

O. Ditson & Co., of Boston, have published a new singing book entitled "Onward," by L. O. Emerson, designed for singing schools, musical institutes, conventions, etc. "Onward" has the same general structure as the author's preceding books of the same character, a very prominent feature being the large number of glees, quartets, and choruses, which occupy full half of this book. As the glees are well chosen, they constitute by themselves a glee collection, valuable to keep; there is also a goodly number of psalm tunes, of about all the metres, and a score of anthems and chants. The elementary course fills but a few pages, but is sufficiently elaborated. It will be seen that the 192 pages of the "Onward" are very well filled, and that either as a class book, or a book for chorus or social singing, it is among the best. For sale by D. H. Montgomery, Market street.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Sept. 20; Batchelder, J.

The only sinner before the court was Salisbury Kimball, who was charged with the offence of drunkenness, and was proved guilty of that and also of the still greater offence of not having $9.90 to pay his fine and costs with. Mr. Kimball will register his somewhat aristocratic name at the Hotel Scott in Brentwood for a few weeks to come.

THE VICINITY.

Miss Rubie Frink, of Newington, has opened a singing school in that town.

Trout fishing in Maine is at an end for this year, the "close season" commencing Sept. 21st.

Another section of the new fog-horn tower at Whale's-back was put in position on Friday.

The new Catholic church in Exeter is to be dedicated the first Sunday in October, by Bishop Healey of Portland.

The Portsmouth Baptist Association held its annual session at Dover on Wednesday and Thursday. There was an excellent attendance.

Mr. Noah P. Wiggin, of Stratham, recently sold a yoke of oxen that weighed 4000 pounds. They were shipped to Liverpool, England, by steamer from Boston.

In the garden of Mr. Rufus W. Weeks at Greenland is a sunflower plant which measures ten feet and nine inches in height and has a flower four feet and three inches in circumference. One of the leaves is eighteen inches in length.

The Rockingham Association of Universalists met in Kingston this week. On Wednesday a meeting of the Council was called, with Hon. T. E. O. Marvin of this city as chairman. In the afternoon an able sermon was preached by Rev. R. T. Sawyer of South Newmarket. The evening meeting was opened as a praise meeting by Rev. S. S. Fletcher of Exeter, with prayer by Rev. N. R. Wright of Woburn, Mass., after which a sermon was preached by Rev. E. M. Grant of this city, from the text, "I am the vine, ye are the branches."

In the chapel of Phillips Exeter Academy is a large and valuable collection of portraits of distinguished men who have been connected with the Academy. A fine medallion likeness of Benjamin F. Butler was among them. This medallion was not in its place Friday morning. It was probably carried away Thursday night by mischievous students.

Sept. 10th Mr. Hiram H. Wood had a horse stolen from his barn, on the same night Mr. Geo. B. Haley had a harness stolen, and Mrs. John H. Winkley had a wagon stolen, all of Barrington. The thief drove the horse to Boston and put him up at a stable. Last Saturday he took the horse away and sold him for forty dollars, leaving the harness and wagon at the stable. Henry A. Drew of Strafford, who has had considerable experience in working up cases of this sort, started out on track of this thief, and yesterday he overhauled the rascal in Coleman's stable, Boston, and took him back to Dover, arriving here last evening by 6:15 train. His name is Wm. G. Hall, but he has been bumming round under all sorts of names. He was born in Barrington, but has been away for several years. A part of the time he has been peddling cigars. This morning he was in our police court and sent to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury next February. All the stolen property was recovered.—Dover Democrat, 18th inst.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de elenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. diw oit

Prompt Relief of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of those bodily evils enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysts, and eminently wholesome and acceptable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now supplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

The most excellent attributes to the success of a first-class hotel are courteous treatment, a well-appointed cuisine, and well-furnished rooms. You can find all these at the Colonnade Hotel in Philadelphia.

The soothing, healing effects of Adamson's Balsam are plainly experienced from the first dose. Its work appears little less than magic. Yet it acts on well-known scientific principles in curing coughs and colds, and because compounded in just the right manner to cure.

—It is reported that a Greenfield, Mass., lawyer, who took a woman down to the supreme court at Northamton the other day and procured a divorce for her, found a suitor for her hand awaiting their arrival at the Greenfield depot that same afternoon, and that he took the twain to the town clerk's office, procured a marriage certificate for them, and then married them in his character of a justice of the peace.

Refined Cider.

Of the different summer beverages manufactured at this establishment it is hardly necessary to say a single word. They have become popular "on their own merits" and can be found in many private families an on sale in every hotel, saloon and restaurant in this locality.

The lagers bottled by me are from the best breweries in the country, and it is safe to say that there is no better in the world.

—The older the seeds the more perfect the lady-slippers will be. And the older the banana peel the less graceful and the more perfect will be the gentleman slippers.

—Joy is a shy bird, but when a man comes unexpectedly upon a two-dollar bill in the pocket of an old vest laid aside last winter it flaps its wings and crows as loud as anybody's chicken.

—Gen. Howard has held a conference with chief Moses, who announced the willingness of his tribe to go on a reservation of their own choice, but not remote from their own country.

—"Now, Your Majesty," said the scientist, who had been commanded to conduct a series of experiments before royalty, "these two gases will have the honor of combining before Your Majesty."

—When a Glover, Vt., man prohibited fishing in his pond some time ago, his neighbor, who owned the outlet brook, offset it by putting up near the stream this sign: "Fishing is not prohibited here; fish and be d—d. Worms behind the barn."

—Bashful lover—"Ah, Miss, I, I wanted to see your father. I've some important business matters to propose to him." Benevolent young lady—"Well, I'm sorry father is not in—but can't you make the proposals to me?" The wedding cards were soon ordered.

—A girl in Trenton, New Jersey, married a Hungarian nobleman, and now she has to take in washing six days in a week, instead of two as formerly, in order to support her new title in becoming style. Promotion in the social scale always brings increased responsibilities with it.

—H. P. Russell of Ironton, Mo., soaked a shell fired from one of Price's guns in 1864, in a barrel of water for six weeks, and then tried to extract its contents with a hammer and cold chisel. Fragments of the bomb were picked up half a mile distant, but they hope Russell will recover.

—A number of Newport swells and others who visited the English war-vessel Bellerophon were badly sold by buying a lot of canes from the sailors at one dollar apiece, which they supposed came from the West Indies, but which were really of home manufacture, and cost twenty-five cents each on shore.

—The Chinese quarter of San Francisco has been undergoing a thorough official inspection. One house had two stories below the level of the street, divided into rooms about five feet by eight, containing two to six occupants each. Lepers were found, and one of them was said to be engaged in the manufacture of cigars that were sold daily in the city.

—The leading saloons of St. Louis having agreed to donate their gross receipts for one day to the yellow fever relief fund, at Bonnet's Mr. John W. McCullagh came in with a friend and threw down ten dollars for two cocktails, saying if any other man went it better he would take another drink. Senator Armstrong paid two tens and a five for ten drinks.

—A young lady was speaking to a friend who had called upon her regarding a tract characteristic of her mother, who, she remarked, always had a good word to say of every one. "Why," said she, "I believe if Satan were discussed mother would have a good word to say about him." Just then the mother entered and was informed what the daughter had said, to which he replied, "Well, my dear, I think we might all imitate Satan's perseverance."

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple or Eruption, including Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Scaly or Leprous Diseases, and Mercurial Diseases, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by inactive, torpid, or impure blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially does it manifest its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headaches or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you may assume that Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians prounounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no fear need be apprehended from their use. They operate without disgust, nausea, griping, or pain, and are so perfectly harmless to the constitution, diet, or occupation, that Children, Delicate, Costiveness, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Diseases, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Jaundice, Feeling of being Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the special power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the virtues of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every known contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has gone its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy or the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

I HAS cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have testified that it has strictly estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 258 12TH ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. KNOWLTON, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly two years, and can say candidly that we have sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, D.C.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made efforts to believe Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.

"FIAT" MONEY: AN EXAMPLE.

There are no lessons so valuable as those gathered from experience, and no warnings so much to be heeded as those which speak from the pages of history. If those who advocate the fiat money theory should give heed to the lessons of experience or listen to the voice of history, they would, if honest, lose faith in their heresy.

All must admit that the framers of the Constitution took special pains to prevent the issue of paper money by the Government. If we carefully read the financial history of the Revolution we shall not be at a loss to determine the causes which led to the declaration in effect that silver and gold alone should be the only money recognized by the Constitution of the United States. They had just been through with a terrible experience with a redundant and depreciated paper money. They had just escaped from the harsh school of experience, and as founders of a Republic they proposed to put it beyond the power of their successors to plunge the country into the distress through which they had passed by reason of a redundant paper currency.

At the present time, when so many men (some of whom are honest, many of whom are demagogues, and more of whom shut their eyes to results in hope of present relief), are advocating or looking with favor to greenback theories, it is fitting to revert briefly to the history of the Continental currency and learn from the experiences of the fathers of the Republic a lesson which, if heeded, will be of great value to us.

The American colonists commenced their struggle for independence without money or credit. They were not a nation and could not enforce taxation. Apparently there was no other resource for them except to issue paper money or make a forced loan. The issue of fiat money was commenced May 10, 1775, when $3,000,000 of paper was emitted. Four months later Congress made an additional issue of $3,000,000. Franklin, who has been quoted by the greenbackers as in favor of paper money, opposed the additional issue on the ground that the notes would become of little or no value, and advocated the bonding of the first issue. He was however, overruled, and the Colonial Government set sail on the shoreless ocean of inflation without possibility of redemption.

The people before the close of the first year manifested a hostility to the paper money, but that made no difference; for once begun, the race must be run to the end. Issue followed issue until, at the close of 1776, $19,000,000 of Continental currency was outstanding. During 1777, $19,000,000 more was issued, and the issues multiplied until, at the close of the year 1779, $241,522,280 had been emitted. This was a fraction over $85 to each man, woman and child in the colonies. According to the theory of the greenbackers everybody should have been prosperous, since money was plenty and cheap and the volume apparently "adequate to the wants of business."

But here came in a difficulty. If all the paper money was worth its face in coin the Republic had opened a royal road to affluence, and our forefathers had discovered the fabled El Dorado in a printing machine and a very ordinary quality of printer's ink and paper. Alas, such was not the case. Depreciation began with the second or third issue; and while the volume of such currency increased in arithmatical progression, its depreciation went on with more than goemetrical velocity. Depreciation began in 1777. In March, 1780, a dollar in coin would purchase $40 of continental currency. May 4th, 1781, $2 in coin would purchase $1000 in currency. The following table presented to the Twenty-eighth Congress by Mr. Woodbury, Secretary of the Treasury, shows the value of the Spanish milled dollar in currency and of $1000 of currency in coin at different periods during the Revolution:

Date.	Nominal currency value.	Specie value.	Nominal currency value.	Specie value.
Mar. 1, 1778	$1.75	$1	$1000	$571.42
Sept. 1, 1778	4.00	1	1000	250.00
Mar. 1, 1779	10.00	1	1000	100.00
Sept. 1, 1779	18.00	1	1000	55.56
Mar. 15, 1780	40.00	1	1000	25.00
Dec. 1, 1780	100.00	1	1000	10.00
May 1, 1781	500.00	1	1000	2.00

The advocates of fiat money make haste to deny that this currency was really absolute money but rather promises to pay coin. Very true; it never entered the heads of the fathers of the Republic that they could print "this is a dollar" on a piece of paper, and by so doing make it so. We make haste to defend them against such an imputation of lunacy. But what is fiat money? Simply a decree of Congress that a piece of paper or leather, stamped with figures or words indicating value, is a legal tender money, and the enactment of laws that such irredeemable and worthless material shall be received by creditors or sellers for debts or goods. Consequently if the Government issues promises to pay coin and compels the people to take them as money even after it has put out so many that redemption is impossible, such evidences of debt or value are fiat money to all intents and purposes.

The Continental Congress declared its currency to be a legal tender. In 1776, after $3,000,000 was issued, Congress untook by its "fiat," or decree, to keep it up to its face value in coin by passing a law which set forth that any person who refused to accept its currency or paper money should be "deemed, published and treated as a public enemy and precluded from all trade with the inhabitants of these colonies." Colonies backed Congress in its attempt to keep the paper money at par with coin. The New England colonies passed laws fixing the currency prices which storekeepers might charge for goods. Safety committees were clothed with arbitrary powers to exchange their goods and property for this depreciated and redundant paper money. Gen. Washington was authorized to take whatever property or goods he needed and pay for the same in Continental currency at what he considered a reasonable price; and Gen. Putnum issued an order remitting to "close confinement" all those "so lost to public virtue" as to refuse to take the paper money of Congress for their goods. Thus it appears that the strong arm of the military power reinforced the decree or "fiat" of Congress, that its issues of paper money should be taken for goods at its face. But all was of no avail. In seven years, under an issue of $240,000,000 by Congress and the several colonies, the value of the paper dollar fell from par in coin to utter worthlessness, and died in the hands of the holders.

In view of this lesson and warning, and every other lesson and warning of experience and history, is it worth while to repeat the fiat money experiment and reach the same result? If the military power of other countries have been unable to make people accept irredeemable paper money for the money of the commercial world, can we expect that our Butlers, Ewings and Pomeroys can make such a theory successful in time of peace?—Boston Journal.

Newmarket District—comprising Durham, Epping, Greenland, Newcastle, Newington, Newmarket, North Hampton, Ward Three in Portsmouth, Rye, South Newmarket and Stratham — at Town Hall, Newmarket, Tuesday, Sept. 24th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Rockingham District — comprising Hampton, Hampton Falls, South Hampton, Seabrook, Atkinson, Brentwood, Danville, East Kingston, Exeter, Hampstead, Kensington, Kingston, Newton, Plaistow and Sandown—at Town Hall, Exeter, Wednesday, Sept. 18th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The National Banks.

Some of these banks are reducing their capital, and dividing the sum so reduced among their stockholders. It is a good time for those banks which have large capital to take in sail. The legislation in Congress next winter will doubtless be adverse to the banking interest, and as the rate of interest continues low, and the expense of doing business does not decrease and dividends must be small, the managers may well say to the stockholders, "call and get your money." There will be, when business becomes better, (as every one expects it will soon be,) a more healthful method of conducting affairs. Credits there will necessarily be, but they must be based upon property and not upon nothing. There has been too much money hired, and too many men endeavoring to do business without either capital or brains, the whole risk of whose results was borne by their creditors.

The Yellow Fever.

The report of the Surgeon General at Washington for the week ending Saturday noon is as follows:

Vicksburg — Epidemic abating; 121 deaths for the week ended last evening—a decrease of 113 deaths from the week before; 11 deaths in the last twenty-four hours; total deaths to date, 721.

New Orleans—During the week ending yesterday noon 1401 cases; 445 deaths, a decrease of 172 cases and deaths compared with the previous week. In the last 24 hours, 165 cases, 69 deaths; total cases, 7538; deaths, 2368.

Baton Rouge—Up to 9 A. M. yesterday there were 672 cases and 39 deaths.

Morgan City, La.—During the week, 41 cases; 10 deaths.

Mobile—Four cases, 2 deaths.

Grenada, Miss.—For the week, 20 new cases, 37 deaths; total deaths to date, 271; no decrease in the virulence of the fever. Dr. Henry Stone of Natchez is the only physician on duty.

Pass Christian, Miss.—From the 9th to the 20th there were 6 new cases; no deaths.

Biloxi, Miss.—Twenty cases, 7 deaths, to the 20th.

Ocean Springs, Miss.—Fourteen cases, 3 deaths for the week.

Memphis—620 deaths for the week ended Thursday evening; total, 2131 deaths. There are a number of cases not known to the Board of Health.

Brownville, Tenn.—For the week ending yesterday, 100 new cases, 15 deaths; total, 130 cases and 44 deaths.

St. Louis—6 deaths, 4 at quarantine; all refugees.

Louisville—18 cases, 8 deaths; total cases 77; deaths, 26; all refugees.

Cincinnati—5 cases, 1 death; all refugees; total cases, 30; deaths, 13.

Bay Saint Louis—Fifteen new cases during the last week; deaths not reported.

Cairo—Three new cases since last report; two died in Cairo and one went to Mound City, eight miles from Cairo, and died there.

Havana—Fifty deaths from yellow fever and four from small-pox during the week ending Sept. 14th.

Key West—Six cases of yellow fever and five deaths during the past week.

The Secretary of War, having received a request from the Howard Association of New Orleans for 60,000 rations, had a conference Friday with the Commissary-General of Subsistence, and it was ordered that 40,000 rations be distributed among the yellow fever sufferers of that city.

News and Notes.

Frederick Sproat, aged about twenty-five years, on Friday afternoon murdered Laura E. Hunt, about the same age, and then killed himself, at Lowell, Mass. Both were operatives in the Boot cotton mills. Sproat had for some months offered attentions to the girl, but his advances were repelled. On the day of the murder he borrowed a revolver, called the girl to the door of the mill, and, after a brief talk, in which he is supposed to have offered himself to the girl in marriage and been rejected, he suddenly shot her twice in the head, then shooting himself. Neither spoke after the shooting. Miss Hunt was a member of the First Congregational church of Lowell, and bore an irreproachable name. She was not waited on by any rival of whom Sprout could be jealous.

Buffalo Bill has had trouble with the Pawnee Indians belonging to his troupe. The Commissioner of Indian affairs, learning that they belonged to the regular reservation, from which they are absent without permission, ordered them back. Mr. Cody represented to the commissioner that if this order was carried into effect it would cause considerable pecuniary loss to him, as the combination was advertised for appearance fifteen or twenty days ahead, and assured the commissioner that the Indians were well treated. Arrangements were finally made by which Mr. Cody entered into $5000 bonds to return the Indians after a specified time—within which it is agreed the Indians shall be kept sober—to their agency at his own expense.

The New York Sun says that "Sam Bard, who died of yellow fever at Baton Rouge, was a man of eccentricity, talent, and very varied political experiences. We do not know how many newspapers he has started in different parts of the south since the close of the war, or how often he has changed his politics; but we know he has been an editor in Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana, and that his papers have been republican, democratic, independent, anti-Grant, pro-Grant, and anti-Hayes. At one time Grant appointed him postmaster at Chattanooga, and at another time governor of the Territory of Idaho. He was a man of vim and humor; and had he possessed fixed convictions, and been true to them, he would have made a deeper mark than it was his fortune to make."

The County Superintendents of the Poor, who have just held their eighth annual convention at Canandaigua, N. Y., agreed that it is both illegal and impolitic to maintain able-bodied paupers in poor houses. They also oppose the present or any system of out-door relief as an encouragement to pauperism.

Mr. True, connected with E. C. Allen & Co.'s publishing house at Augusta, and a Mr. Lezander, while out on Carrying Place Pond, Moscow, Maine, Thursday, in a small canvas boat, fishing, were capsized by firing at some ducks. True, who had twenty-five pounds of cartridges on his person, sank immediately. Mr. Lezander was rescued in an unconscious condition, but soon recovered. True leaves a widow and three children.

Suit has been brought against Rear-Admiral Worden, the hero of the fight between the Monitor and Merrimac, by a Prof. Maury, late of the Naval Academy, for slander.

The well of the United States Hotel at Boonton, N. J., was found poisoned with Paris green early last week. The discovery was made in season to prevent use of the water.

Louis Guetiga, a nephew of the proprietor of the Spencer house in Indianapolis, on Friday shot and instantly killed a young woman named Mary McChew, formerly a dining-room girl at the hotel. Cause, jealousy.

Sherman City, a small village in Isabella county, Mich., was annihilated by a tornado Friday. Every store, dwelling-house and shed in the village was swept clear, except one frame dwelling, which was partially destroyed. The air was thick with timbers, boards, brick and stone. The inhabitants took refuge in cellars. Mr. Tryo, his wife, little girl and baby were badly injured. At Coleman's Mich., considerable damage was also done. C. Dean had his skull broken by a faling tree.

A telegram from the Collector of Jacksonville, Fla., requests immediate aid for forty shipwrecked seamen there, but the name of the vessel to which they belonged or where they came from is not mentioned. The department will render all the aid in its power.

The third big timber raft sent from Hartford to New Haven this season is now being formed at the former place, and will be started on its way in a few days. It is 150 feet wide and 800 feet long, and contains about 2,000,000 feet of logs.

Naval Constructor Edward Hartt has been appointed president and Commander James D. Graham and Naval Constrctor Frank L. Fernald members of a board for a survey on the Yantic, at the navy yard, Washington.

New Hampshire Items.

Eben Johnson, a painter at Manchester, attempted to commit suicide Friday with poison, but he was rescued by physicians. He says that he will yet succeed. Depression, caused by the loss of children, is the supposed cause.

The fourth and last meeting for the season of the United States Hay Fever Association was held at the Sinclair House, Bethlehem, on the 15th inst. Vice-President Dr. Gordon Hall presided. Letters were read from Dr. N. Eastman of Richfield Spa, N. Y., C. L. Kettle of Boston, Mass., containing valuable information and suggestions. Mr. French of Washington, D. C., related his experience with the disease. Dr. Beard of New York addressed the Association, giving his experience and mode of treating the disease. The Association then adjourned for the season.

—A matter of cores—Apple seeds.

—School days are here, and the small boy who has been perfectly healthy all summer is beginning to feel ill again.

—Five tramps recklessly resolved to capture Kenton, Ohio. They marched into the village flourishing their clubs, terrified a few women, and began to pillage a store. Their triumph was short. The villagers gathered in force, stripped them, dipped them into a barrel of tar, rolled them in sand, and drove them out of town.

—The London Telegraph has produced the champion bull of the season. Writing of the German Social Democrats, it says that they "neither fear eternal punishment nor reward." Which reminds the Whitehall Review of a story of Bishop Wilson, of Calcutta, who travelling to the diocese, when a breeze sprung up, then a squall, and at last matters got so bad that the skipper came below with a grave countenance. "My Lord," said he, "in a very few minutes you will be in heaven." "Dear, dear!" ejaculated the Bishop, "how very, very horrible!"

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dsept1079

THE CITY.

The Unitarian Conference at Saratoga, N. Y., closed its session on Friday. Rev. James DeNormandie of this city was chosen a member of the committe on fellowship.

Mr. Geo. E. Dearborn, of Greenland, has placed upon our desk a box of the largest Gravestein apples we have seen this season. They are beauties, some of them measuring nearly a foot in circumference.

The game of ball Saturday at the plains between the "Wide Awakes" of North Hampton and the "Portsmouths,' was won easily by the home nine, by a score of fourteen to eleven. The Wide Awakes had only six of their nine, but took three from the outsiders.

Two of our amateur oarsmen were out for practise on the river, Friday. They were pulling their very best, a la Courtney, when by some means an accident occurred, resulting in one of the oarsmen going into the river over one side of the shell, and the other over the other side. They were fished out unharmed.

City Marshal Entwistle and Assistant Marshal Gray on Friday started after a French Canadian named Joseph F. Duhan, who had stolen a sulky from Mr. Carmi A. Norton and a nice harness from Mr. Christopher Ham, both of Greenland. They overhauled him at Alfred, Me., and brought him and the stolen property back to this city.

Dr. Theodore H. Jewett, a widely known physician of South Berwick, died of heart disease in the parlor of the Crawford house on Friday. He was sitting upon the piazza, and remarking upon the heat rose up, went into the house, threw up his arms and instantly expired. He was well known in this city, and was the father of Sara Jewett, the author of Deephaven. His wife was the daughter of Dr. Wm. Perry of Exeter. Dr. Jewett had a wide reputation as a skillful practitioner, and his kindly disposition and agreeable manners made him even on his professional visits often the most welcome of callers. He was the son of the late Theodore F. Jewett, who thirty or forty years ago was seen frequently on our streets while his ships lay at our wharves. The doctor went to the mountains to benefit his health, which had been somewhat impaired. He was a Professor for two years in the Bowdoin Medical College at Brunswick, and last year was President of the Maine Medical Society. He was born in 1815, and graduated at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia in 1840.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Sept. 21; Batchelder, J.

Joseph F. Duhan, a French Canadian, was arranged on a charge of stealing a sulky from C. A. Norton. The case was continued to Tuesday, 24th inst., and Duhan was committed to jail in default of $600 bail.

A SOLID FOUNDATION.

The workmen engaged in excavating for the cellar of Mr. Jones' new building at the corner of Fleet and Congress streets, find a section of that hard blue ledge for which our city, founded on a rock, has ever been noted. The aqueduct and gas companies long ago found what it costs to dig a trench through some of our streets, where the ledges of rock seem to have been placed without any anticipation that the art of man would seek to remove them. The blasting of this ledge is performed by three gangs of drillers under the supervision of Mr. Joseph R. Holmes. The granite foundation stone to be used in the building comes from Rockport, Me. The building will be put up by contract; we are not aware that this contract has as yet been awarded. The building will have two stores facing on Congress street and one on Fleet street. In point of construction it will be second to no building of the kind in Portsmouth.

THE VICINITY.

Benjamin Barnes of-Dover, who died on Monday of last week, leaves about $100,000 to be divided between his three sons.

A greenback club was formed in Great Falls last week, forty-seven persons signing the roll. James A. Edgerly, Esq., a lawyer somewhat widely known for his conection with liquor prosecutions, is one of the prominent movers in the matter.

The Rockingham County Shooting Club has received a challenge from the Powow Club of Amesbury, to a trial of skill, on the grounds of the former, in Tremont. The contest takes place next Saturday, each club to consist of eight men, twenty-five balls each, with Bogardus' screen, trap and rules.

Charles Jackson of Rochester last week stole a team which Alonzo Hammond of Great Falls had just driven to the former town. Jackson drove his prize to Great Falls, where he was arrested. He was taken before a police magistrate in Dover, pleaded guilty, and was lodged in jail to await trial before the supreme court.

The Dover Democrat says the scholars in the public schools of that city contributed "freely and of their own volition entirely, to the fund in aid of the fever sufferers of the south," the sum of $82.48. "The high school gave $16.85. The balance of the amount was given by the grammar and primary schools in sums ranging from eighty-three cents to $6.25 for each room. The contributions from the different scholars ranged from one cent to fifty cents. The aggregate contributions in pennies, two-cent, three-cent and five-cent pieces was $9.11. So much for the Dover schools."

Charles Hurd of Biddeford, a fish peddler, went to Kennebunk with his fish cart last week and there met a "friend" who made him half drunk. In this condition he went into a store, and finding only a boy present he put on a terrible look, scared the boy, and then emptied the loose change from the till into his pocket. This new industry seeming to pay better than selling fish, Hurd next went into a jewelry store and fitted himself out with rings, and afterward appropriated a nice lap robe and whip. At this point in the proceedings an officer took Hurd into costody, and he was bound over for trial at the supreme court. He induced the officer to go with him to Biddeford, where he said he could get bail. On arriving at his home he requested permission to change his clothes, and was allowed to go into another room for that purpose. Not returning presently, the officer looked into the room and found that his prisoner had retired through the window.

Why Women Can't be Masons.

At a late anniversary celebration of the Masons of Austin, Nevada, the orator of the day thus discussed upon this vexed question:

Women sometimes complain that they are not permitted to enter our lodge and work with the craft in their labors, and learn all that there is to be learned in the institution. We will explain the reason. We learn that before the Almighty had finished his work, he was in some doubt about creating Eve. The creation of every living and creeping thing had been accomplished, and the Almighty had made Adam, (who was the first Mason,) and created for him the finest lodge in the world, and called it Paradise No. 1. He then caused all the beasts of the field and fowls of the air to pass before Adam for him to name them, which was a piece of work he had to do alone, so that no confusion might thereafter arise from Eve, wh ohe knew would make trouble if she was allowed to participate in it, if he created her beforehand.

Adam being very much fatigued with the labors of his task fell asleep, and when he awoke he found Eve in the lodge with him. Adam being Senior Warden, placed Eve, as the pillar of beauty, in the south, and they received their instructions from the Grand Master in the east; which, when finished, she immediately called the Craft from labor to refreshment. Instead of attending to the duties of her office as she ought, she left her station, violated her obligations and let in an expelled Mason, who had no business there, and went around with him, leaving Adam to look after the jewels. This fellow had been expelled from the Grand Lodge, with several others, some time before. But hearing the footsteps of the Grand Master, he suddenly took his leave, telling Eve to go to making aprons as she and Adam were not in proper regalia. She went and told Adaam, and when the Grand Master returned to the lodge, he found his gavel had been stolen.

He called for the Senior and Junior Wardens, who had neglected to guard the door, and found them absent. After searching some time, he came to where they were hid, and demanded of Adam what he was doing there, instead of occupying his official station. Adam replied that he waited for Eve to call the Craft from refreshment to labor again, and that the Craft was not properly clothed, which they were making provision for. Turning to Eve, he asked her what she had to offer in excuse for her unofficial and unmasonic conduct. She replied that a fellow passing himself as a Grand Lecturer had been giving her instructions, and she thought it was no harm to learn them. The Grand Master then asked her what had become of his gavel. She said she didn't know, unless that fellow had taken it away.

Finding that Eve was no longer trustworthy, and that she had caused Adam to neglect his duty, and had let in one whom he had expelled; the Grand Master had the lodge closed, turned them out, and set a faithful tyler to guard the door with a flaming sword. Adam, repenting of his folly, went to work like a man and a good Mason, in order to get reinstated again. Not so with Eve; she got angry about it and went to raising Cain. Adam, on account of his information, was permitted to establish lodges and work in the lower degrees; and, while Eve was allowed to join him in works of charity outside, she was never again to be admitted to assist in the regular work of the Craft. Hence the reason why women can't become an inside Mason.

—Paris, according to Fun, has a sensible method of dealing with the dog question. If a dog is seen in the streets without a collar, the police instantly collar him; if without a muzzle, they provide him with one—with a gun at the end of it.

—A gentleman who was having his boots blacked was suddenly left in an unfinished state by a boy who ran across the street and held a brief conversation with a lad of his own age. "That's no way to leave a job" said the gentleman, as the boy returned. "Spect not, but I've got more'n butes to look after!" "Who was that boy?" "That boy? Why, he's got a chattel mortgage on this 'ere new brush, and I run across there to ask him how was his health. I don't propose to be sot down on and wound up into bankruptcy, jist because I can't talk sweet to Billy and stave him off till I wear the bristles clear off the brush!"

—Ethan Allen, whose misfortune it was to have a termagant for a wife, had, and deserved, a reputation for courage of the leonine kind. Some wags thought to frighten him once, but they mistook their man. One of them, arrayed in a sheet, stepped in front of him in the road late one dark night when he was on his way homeward. Ethan stopped to look at the spectre, and without a moment's hesitation, exclaimed, "If you come from heaven, I don't fear you. If you are the devil, come home and spend the night with me—I married your sister." His neighbors never sought to test his courage after that. All of which comes from Vermont direct.

Prompt Relief of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of those bodily evils enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysts, and eminently wholesome and agreeable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unsanctioned nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now rupplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. diw 6lt

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

The most excellent attributes to the success of a first-class hotel are courteous treatment, a well-appointed cuisine, and well-furnished rooms. You can find all these at the Colonnade Hotel in Philadelphia.

The soothing, healing effects of Adamson's Balsam are plainly experienced from the first dose. Its work appears little less than magic. Yet it acts on well-known scientific principles in curing coughs and colds, and because compounded in just the right manner to cure.

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. t oct 4

Political.

The New York Tribune says Senator Eaton, having been asked what would come after unlimited silver, replied, "Unlimited paper." "And what after that?" "Hell!" was the terse and not inappropriate reply.

The worthless tramp Cohen, who calls himself a labor agitator, is still defying the police authorities of Washington at the head of over 300 idle negroes, who wouldn't work if they had a chance. It is surmised by some that some politician, probably Butler, is in the back ground, and that Cohen is simply the hired tool to do his dirty work in trying to make an issue between labor and capital at the seat of the Federal Government, with the hope that the result may affect certain elections to come off soon.

Hon. D. M. Skillings and John Boyle O'Reilly have declined the nominations tendered them by the Butler convention at Worcester.

Russia has been putting forth paper money. With every issue the value of the stuff has gone down, and prices have risen. With all his despotic power, the czar is unable to keep it at par or near it, and the demand for a cessation of the issue and a return to solid money is now universal. This is another nut for the greenbackers to crack.

—A London magazine says that a light of British science was lately visited by a Kentuckian admirer, who said: "Sir, we admire your writings and have shown it. We had no academic distinction to confer on you, having no university; but we have done our best. We are a racing people, and have named our best stallion after you."

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on food in the stomach, preventing the conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive remedy, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another lady, from Providence, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 192 pounds to 192 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Hoosick Falls, N. Y., says: "Without making any change or addition to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Houston, Texas, write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and without injury. I have lost twenty-five pounds in all, commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) has the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, when I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unrivalled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my highly appreciated value, based upon my personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special disease incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, sink one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single individual lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressed Periods, Other unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those wishedness further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of real worth, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me inestimable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
REV. D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good results.
WM. BOWEN, 223 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. ARMSTRONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made it a duty to let it before Seth J. THOMAS, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers through out the United States and Canada. WEEKS & POTTER, Eastern, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,

NO. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

Political.

The following, which we clip from the Boston Post of Monday, shows that the democrats do not like to burn their fingers when trying to set fire to some one else's house: "We call attention to the note of declination of Dr. Blatchford, found in another column. He is one of the soundest and most influential democrats of the State, and for more than twenty years has served on committees to promote the democratic cause. From a personal interview with him it appears that, in common with thousands in the democratic party, he was willing in the interest of State reform to use Butler to break down the old republican ring in Massachusetts. When, however, he found that Butler's ulterior motive was to destroy the democratic party in order to ride rough shod over its ruins into the Presidency, and that the mob spirit among his adherents was so rampant as exhibited at Worcester, he became utterly disgusted, and now refuses to have anything further to do with a faction whose life is fed by the spirit of discontent, and whose motive power is destruction of everything that stands in its way."

—A Clover Orchard, N. C., woman has given birth to nineteen children in twenty years of her married life. For nine consecutive years she gave birth to twins annually, for ten more she rested upon her laurels, and in the twentieth she gave birth to a single child.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. diw 6lt

Prompt Relief of Bodily Evils.

The prompt reform of these bodily evils enfeebled digestion, incomplete assimilation, inactivity of the liver, kidneys and bladder, as well as of the nervous symptoms which these ailments are especially prone to beget, is always accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine accredited by physicians, pronounced pure by analysts, and eminently wholesome and agreeable. Surely such a restorative is preferable to unpalatable and indigestible mineral drugs and unauthorized nostrums. The nation at large assuredly thinks so, judging by the unprecedented demand for the article from Maine to the Pacific, a demand now supplemented by immense orders for it received from tropical America, Mexico, the British and Spanish Colonial possessions, and elsewhere. Both at home and abroad it is recognized as a standard remedy and preventive, the decisiveness of its effects recommending it everywhere.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by all Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 50 cents.

The most excellent attributes to the success of a first-class hotel are courteous treatment, a well-appointed cuisine, and well-furnished rooms. You can find all these at the Colonnade Hotel in Philadelphia.

The soothing, healing effects of Adamson's Balsam are plainly experienced from the first dose. Its work appears little less than magic. Yet it acts on well-known scientific principles in curing coughs and colds, and because compounded in just the right manner to cure.

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. 1oct4

The New Departure.

It is astonishing what numbers of persons are willing to give the world advice upon matters of finance.

Once there might be found, here and there in a nation, men who by long experience in accumulation, or careful study and observation, had certain theories as to wealth, and entertained notions of its source, power and results, which they modestly submitted to the world.

Now there goes up and down in the land a vast procession of the unemployed, and as the men of leisure sit in the grocery of the country village, such wisdom and oracular information concerning this heretofore abstruse question as is now daily and hourly uttered is wonderful to hear. In short, every man who is more or less out of a job, and does not want one, every one who owes a debt and does not want to earn the wherewith for its payment by hard labor, every one who would like wealth without the toil, sacrifice and ordinary means of its acquisition, proposes a plan by a multiplication of the currency, in the issue of paper promises to pay, in the belief that, as in Dixie during the rebellion, money will be plenty and every one be flush, no matter what he may do for a livelihood.

It is one of the peculiar features of our politics, that new ideas in regard to many subjects are easily adapted by adventurous persons, and engrafted upon some new organization and take shape in a political platform. Men, to-day, who talked loudly for specie payments while such payments were impossible, and voted the ticket of the party which "resolved" in its convention that a specie basis was the only safe method, now that we are at specie payments are convinced that unlimited and unsecured paper promises issued with whatever constitutional authority, if only issued by the government, would be the panacea for dull times and stagnant business. It is the debtor element seeking to compel the creditor to reduce his security. It is the division of property on the ground that one man has just as good a right to have another man's wealth as he who toiled for it. It may be pleasant to advocate such a theory, but that it has a single element of sound sense no one will pretend to claim. The question occurs, how is it so many men fall into line and array themselves with the greenback party? It is true that there always will be a certain class of disappointed men in either great party. Men there are in the republican ranks who have either been satiated with all in that organization they can ever be likely to receive, or whose merits or consequence have not been sufficiently appreciated, and in the democratic party there are the impatient waiters for something to turn up, when years of disappointment follow each other in rapid succession, but these are not enough to account for the grand army of greenback men, who leave the promising democracy to the disgust of their leaders, and swell the ranks of the soft money men. The result shows that the republican party has preserved its identity because wedded to principles, and no matter how often, at times, members of its organization have freely criticized some of its actions, by abstaining from voting, or even voting with the opposition, their party is maintained, as it was organized, upon sound reformatory ideas, a fact which its intelligent reading, thinking and reflecting members never lose sight of. The adhesion of the democracy, on the other hand, has been upon the basis of prejudice and the hope of spoils. The loss of the control of the party by the party leaders in Massachusetts is a case in point, illustrating this view.

A man, the most hated by all those who remained in the democratic camp, and one for whom in the lexicon of democracy there was no such word as forgiveness, suddenly, without even advocating himself as a democrat, captures the subalterns in the army, controls the primaries and actually steals the convention from the party, leaving the time-honored State central committee high and dry, without a band of delegates to re-elect them. Butler allows the leaders to march out without their swords, but the privates are all prisoners of war with likelihood of re-enlisting under the banner of their captor.

It is not to be wondered at, that despite the wringing of hands, the tears and protestations of the old lady leaders of the democracy, the rank and file go where the best rations are offered. Frank Jones, who has a longer head than any man of his years in his party, saw this long ago. Instead of following the cue of the old liners, and looking backward, Mr. Jones took a long gaze toward the future. He saw it and declined to run for Congress. Not Randall's entreaties nor Tilden's cajolery could move him to change his mind as to being a candidate in these days. Sam Anderson of Maine had checked his baggage on the greenback platform, but with a democratic ticket failed to connect and was left behind. The democratic papers controlled by party leaders deplore this defection, but the other sheets seem to have become convinced that the democracy will be captured by the greenbackers as easily as years ago they yielded to the Know Nothings.

The greenback project will have its run for awhile, and then the democracy will struggle back to their leaders, ask forgiveness and profess loyalty to the party, until some new fangled organization shall again seduce them from their old allegiance.

News and Notes.

On the 8th of July a mad dog at Fishkill, N. Y., bit some fifty other dogs, and also bit David Bell, Elizabeth Greenwood, and John Miles. The latter was drowned soon after at Navark while suffering from hydrophobia. David Bell is now dying at Fishkill in the agonies of hydrophobia. The other dogs bitten have mostly been killed, and it is reported that quite a number of children who were bitten by the dog are showing evidences of hydrophobia.

It is now thought that the unfortunate woman who was murdered on the Back Bay, Boston, Sept. 4th, was Mrs. Alice V. Eastman, recently employed as a domestic in the family of Mrs. Bannister of No. 10 Oxford street, Boston.

A horse railroad office in Kansas city was robbed of $1000 in cash and $21,000 in bonds, and a life insurance policy of $25,000, Friday afternoon, by thieves who operated while a confederate kept the cashier engaged in conversation out of doors. The insurance policy and some other papers were afterward found in a stable.

Aaron Converse of Stafford, Conn., was accidentally shot and killed by Newell Delphin while hunting raccoons on Friday night. He had climbed a tree to drive a coon out of its hiding-place, and was instantly killed by a charge from his companion, who supposed he was firing at the game.

Mrs. William Merrick and her infant of a few days old were found dead and concealed under a pile of logs on a farm in Indianapolis on Sunday. They had evidently been dead several weeks. Merrick has been arrested for the murders.

A Washington despatch of Monday says that Commodore Shufeldt, Acting Secretary of the Navy, has issued orders to the commandants of the navy yards that eight hours shall constitute a day's work and full compensation be paid therefor, the same as now paid for ten hours. Persons electing to work ten hours will be paid extra therefor. Col. Casey, Commissioner of Public Buildings and Grounds at Washington, has issued a similar order for the government of the workmen in his employ.

Advices from Hayti report terrible destruction by a tornado and tidal wave on the 3d, 4th and 5th of September. Warehouses were swept to the sea with their contents, buildings demolished, wharves swept away and vessels wrecked. The tornado tore houses to pieces, and the sea rushed in, sweeping away men, women and children. The distress in the country is fearful, as the crops and roads are entirely destroyed. The number of lives lost cannot be estimated.

Gen. Henry Raymond, Commander of the Veterans of 1812 in New York, died in Jersey City, Thursday night, aged 87 years.

Burt Taylor, a well known burglar, was shot dead by a Chicago policemen Saturday while trying to escape from a house which he had just robbed.

Crosby Knowlton of Liberty, Me., while sitting beside his well curb, was shot by a man who was out gunning and mistook the waving of Mr. Knowlton's hair for a squirrel moving about. Luckily the gun was not heavily loaded, and only with small shot. He was but slightly injured.

The steam collier Leopard, sunk on the Londoner off Thatcher's island, was sold some time ago to three Boston gentlemen for $800. One of the gentlemen having all the facilities for wrecking wished to wreck her, but the other partners objected, preferring to make an attempt to raise the vessel. They have been unable to come to any agreement about the matter, and are now considering the proposal of a Boston man who offers to put her in Boston harbor all right for $25,000—not to receive any remuneration in case of failure. The stern of the Leopard is out of water at low tide, her bow lying in deep water, and the first storm from the northeast is pretty sure to send her off into deeper water. The coal was given away to whoever would take it out. It does not seem probable that any work will be done on her this season, as it is already very late.

Adolph Hoffman, or Hauseman, has been arrested in New York for bigamy, and obtaining money on false pretenses. Nine of his wives appeared against him, and several of them gave him a good mauling in the court room. Hoffman's favorite plan was to put in the German papers an advertisement asking for a respectable housekeeper to take care of the home of a rich widower. He would call upon those who answered his advertisement, and if he found that they had money he would propose to each one in turn that she should be married to him. After he had got possession of their money the women would see him seldom, he giving different excuses to each. He pleaded guilty, and was remanded. It is expected that other wives will appear, and other charges be entered against him.

Mrs. Lucy E. Ricker of Waterboro', York county, Me., has been appointed postmistress of that place.

— The Duchess of Edinburg's girl-baby is Queen Victoria's twenty-sixth grandchild.

—Mr. C. D. Sanders, of Parkersburg, W. Va., is a tall, straight, robust man, between fifty and sixty. He has not slept for fifteen years; he feels tired sometimes, but never sleeps, though he has tried working continuously for ten or eleven days and nights. Heavy opiates have no effect upon him. At night he goes to bed "so as to be out of the way," and lies there and thinks, but does not sleep.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

PUBLIC MEETING.

All persons who are in favor of the honest payment of the public debt, and of a currency on a gold basis; who are opposed to any further issue by the government of a currency inconvertible with gold, the world's recognized measure of value; who are in favor of a speedy return to specie payment as essential to a revival of the commerce, business and credit of the country and to the welfare of the laboring masses, are requested to meet at the Common Council Room, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th, to take steps for the formation of a HARD MONEY CLUB.

THE CITY.

A farmer of this vicinity who raises a large amount of apples, on Monday sold his entire crop of the fruit to a gentleman of this city at ninety-five cents a barrel, barrels included.

Mr. Arthur Harris, formerly a member of the Portsmouth Brewing Co., has returned with his family from his trip to Europe, and is connected with the Continental Brewery in New York city.

The stairs leading from Bow street to the river, opposite the end of Church street, are undergoing repairs. Admirers of autumnal views will find themselves repaid for the time expended in a visit to this locality.

Twelve coasting vessels arrived at this port on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, among them being the schooner Emperor, after a load of apples to take to Boothbay, Me., the P. T. Willets, George Gilman and John Bracewell, with coal for Charles H. Trickey of Dover, and the Hazelton, with coal for C. E. Walker & Co. of this city.

Rev. Octavius B. Frothingham, of Boston, delivered a sermon on "Our Country" in the Unitarian church, Sunday evening. The church was filled, and the eminent preacher was listened to with the most interested attention, albeit his sermon might be called a political one without any fear of a suit for slander. He doesn't favor more greenbacks.

A young girl named Mary Stringer walked down on steamboat wharf Sunday evening at about nine o'clock, and the night being very dark she walked off the wharf into the river. Her cries for assistance attracted the attention of John Reagan and James Sweeney, who went to her rescue, found her floating from under the wharf and pulled her out of the dock, badly frightened and nearly exhausted.

Two old campers-out of this city, Messrs. Joseph R. Curtis and Daniel J. Spinney, took a pedestrian trip to Mount Agamenticus and return on Sunday. The distance would be about thirty-six miles under any circumstances, but our excursionists not being accustomed to inland travel and being too modest to ask questions about the right road to take, lengthened their tramp to about fifty miles. They are enthusiastic in their description of the views they saw, as were some other visitors from Portsmouth and the surrounding towns. The autumn view from Agamenticus will ever hereafter be a theme to rouse the enthusiasm of those nature-admiring tramps.

For something like a year past Aldermen Perkins and Plumer D. Norton have used their best endeavors to devise some method by which the much-discussed mill-pond nuisances, north and south, could be abated. Several measures have been brought before the City Councils, talked about from one meeting to another, and continually postponed, until the citizens most actively interested in the matter well nigh despaired of anything practical ever being done. A skillful engineer was brought from Boston to make a survey and report, and draw up a plan; citizens' meetings were held, and power was given committees to act, yet still nothing was done. This year the gentlemen named, thinking there had been dallying enough, determined to take positive action of some kind; and the councils having passed a resolution authorizing the purchase of the south pond the bargain was settled on Saturday by the city paying to Mr. Barnard, the owner of the pond, a sum of money which secures to the city on the 1st of October the possession of the mill and pond. Residents in the vicinity of the north pond will now gather courage to hope that something may yet be done to relieve their distress.

Special prayers for the yellow fever sufferers at the south were read at St. John's church on Sunday, by order of the House of Bishops.

Evening services at St. John's church will be held at half-past seven o'clock, instead of at five o'clock as during the summer months, on Sundays hereafter.

The Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of New Hampshire will be held in Masonic Temple, Concord, to-day.

Ship Triumphant, commanded by Capt. Henry Libby of this city, arrived in Hampton Roads on Saturday, the 21st inst., from Pabellon de Pica, with a cargo of guano, and was ordered to proceed to New York.

The seventy-eighth annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New Hampshire, meets at St. Paul's church, Concord, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. John Christie, Lyman D. Spalding and John Hatch, are the lay delegates from St. John's church in this city.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Sept. 23; Batchelder, J.

Charles Medwood, James Gilchrist, familiarly known as "Scotty," and a regular customer at the police court, Patrick Mead, another regular customer, and John Crowley, were all arraigned for drunkenness, all adjudged guilty, and each sentenced to pay $9.90, fine and costs. They will probably work it out at Brentwood.

THE POWHATAN.

The U. S. S. Powhatan, Capt. T. Scott Fillebrown, will leave New York this morning for this port, and is expected to arrive here on Thursday. The Powhatan is the flag ship of Rear-Admiral John C. Howell, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, and is officered as follows:

Capt. Thomas Scott Fillebrown, chief of staff and commander of flag-ship.

Chief Engineer David B. Macomb, fleet engineer.

Medical Inspector John Y. Taylor, fleet surgeon.

Pay Inspector Cuthbert P. Wallach, fleet paymaster.

Capt. Henry J. Bishop, U. S. M. C., fleet marine officer.

Lieut. Frederick H. Paine, flag lieutenant.

Lieut. William H. Parker, Jr., admiral's secretary.

Ensign William B. Carpenter, admiral's clerk.

Lieut.-Comdr. F. E. Chadwick, executive officer.

Lieut. A. J. Iverson, navigating officer.

Lieutenants, Andrew Dunlap, C. H. Arnold, William H. Reeder, William H. Bechler.

Midshipmen, Walter McClean, Richard T. Mulligan.

Passed Asst. Surgeons, William S. Dixon, Richard Ashbridge.

Passed Asst. Engineers, Robert B. Hines, Conrad J. Habighorst.

Sec. Lieut. of Marines, William P. Biddle.

Captain's Clerk, Midshipman McClean.

Paymaster's Clerks, William Moriarty, (fleet,) A. E. Moriarty.

Cadet Midshipman, Philip V. Lansdale.

Boatswain, Charles Miller.

Gunner, William Cheney.

Carpenter, W. H. Barrett.

Sailmaker, Gilbert D. Macey.

The Powhatan carries a crew of 350 blue-jackets, fifty marines, and eighteen bandsmen.

Rear-Admiral Howell, Fleet Engineer Macomb and Fleet Marine Officer Bishop are all well known, and favorably, in this city. Adm. Howell was one of the best commandants this navy yard ever had, and though "the politicians" not unfrequently differed in opinion with the commodore as to how certain things should be done, they respected him all the more for his faculty of letting every one know just where he stood. Chief Engineer Macomb has for many years made this city his home—as far as a naval officer on the active list can be said to have a home—notwithstanding the Navy Register says he is a resident of the State of Pennsylvania; and a very large circle of friends would regret his shifting his home to any other place. Capt. Bishop, of the Marine Corps, captured one of Portsmouth's fair daughters for a wife, and though it is now something like ten years, or even more, since he was stationed at this navy yard, pleasant recollections of him as an officer and a gentleman are still vivid in the memories of the many who then enjoyed his acquaintance. Should the Powhatan remain here for a month, as it is suggested she may do, it will be none too long to satisfy those who wish to recall the days of lang syne.

WOULDN'T SPEAK OUT.

The convention which last week nominated Col. Charles W. Pickering of Greenland as the democratic candidate for State senator from the Newmarket district, adopted the platform of the democratic State convention. Now this platform, so far as financial matters are concerned, is a non-entity; Col. John H. George, indeed, in answer to a greenbacker who wished the State convention to take a decided stand for inflation and repudiation by adopting some extreme rag-money supplementary resolutions, told him that the platform already adopted had been drawn up with especial reference to enabling everybody, from the most determined gold-bug to the most insane inflationist, to stand upon it—that there was nothing in it to repel either class, as it really said nothing at all, and could be construed in any way the reader desired. One of the delegates to the senatorial convention, Col. J. C. Butler of this city, being desirous that the democratic party should take some kind of a stand on the leading question of the day, and preferring it should be the right one, introduced a resolution squarely pledging the party to "the honest payment of the national debt" and "a currency on a gold basis;" also declaring the party "opposed to any further issue by the general government of a currency inconvertible with gold, the world's recognized measure of value;" and demanding (as the democratic State convention only three years ago demanded) "a speedy return to specie payments as essential to a revival of the commerce, business and credit of the country and to the welfare of the laboring classes." But the Senatorial convention had no more backbone than the State convention, and for fear of offending the repudiation-inflation party would not even consider the resolution. Incidents of daily occurrence show that the political fight is rapidly narrowing to a contest between honest men and repudiators, in which the honest men of both the old parties will have to unite on one platform and one ticket; in this State it has already reached the point at which every man who wishes to vote for the maintenance of the national honor and against widespread financial disaster, must vote for the candidates of the only party which has dared speak out in plain terms against repudiation and unlimited inflation; and that party is the republican party.

New Hampshire Items.

About twelve o'clock Saturday night a good-looking young woman, apparently thirty years old, demanded to be locked up at the Manchester police station as a tramp. She was soon seized with convulsions, and physicians think it was an attempt at suicide by taking chloraste. She is a stranger in the city, and gives the name of Minnie Oldfield. She was born in the Isle of Wight, but refuses any further information. She had on a rich black silk dress, and was otherwise modestly and becomingly attired. She remains in a critical condition at the City Hospital and regrets that the officers did not let her die.

The contractors of the Nashua & Keene railroad have nearly completed the work of grading the road to Keene, and have discharged about 300 men the past week. The rails have been bought, and the work of track-laying will commence at once. Contractors are confident that the road will be put in running order before Dec. 1st, and if so the offer made the road by the city of Keene will hold good.

A dwelling house in Gilford, owned by Folsom & Preston and occupied by Mr. Folsom, was burned Monday morning. Incendiary. Loss $600; partially insured.

Laton's building in Nashua was damaged to the extent of $2000 by fire and water on Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon three buildings on "French Acre" were burned; loss $1500. Both fires were incendiary.

—A new cannon has been made at the Krupp works in Germany of enormous dimensions. A ball of this cannon pierces the thickest armor plates of vessels at a distance of eight miles. Two shots at a range of six thousand feet are supposed to be enough to dismantle and sink the most powerful ship. Each ball costs $150.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its utility to be such as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 198 pounds to 122 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston says: "Without special change in diet or exercise, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & WEMPLE, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. At the time Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost!" Anti-Fat is an unrivalled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, relieves dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, heaped it out as the chief or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which it is recommended, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensation, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it is adapted to fulfill a diagnosis of disease, being in most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have won wealth upon merit, and have the confidence of those who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman or intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great merit, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a perfect cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 225 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG,
159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21st.

Not a few interested in public affairs have been brought for the first time since the Maine election to acknowledge the disintegrating tendencies of the current politico-financial agitation. It had been contended that the "fiat" money heresy could be most effectively met by ignoring the whole matter—that recognizing would only enlarge the area of its mischievous influence. But such theories vanish away in the face of accomplished facts, such as startled intelligent Washingtonians and temporary sojourners here on the 9th inst. But we have got far enough away from that Waterloo affair to reason more clearly and dispassionately upon the probable effect upon old party organizations. Republicans find a grain of comfort that theirs is left intact, having a nucleus of the most intelligent voters of that State, so earnest in their convictions that the wave of repudiation—of Kearneyism—which has just gone over them, has left them in no sense discouraged or demoralized. On the other hand, democracy has to mourn the complete surrender of its party machinery into the hands of a rag-tag and bob-tail mob, having no bond of common sympathy save the hope of abundant money to be had almost without effort. Of course it is seen by reflecting men how soon such an absurd delusion must be dispelled. The cohesive power of the new party will prove unequal to such a shock, and the democratic managers will be confronted with the grave problem of how to win back the allegiance of those urged to go into this mongrel concern only to be mocked by the false hopes raised, and keenly alive to the fact that their last estate is worse than any that has preceded it. But it has come to be admitted that Butler's success in Massachusetts is not so improbable a contingency as it was alleged to be prior to the Maine election.

Senator Dawes of West Virginia is undoubtedly an honest man as the world goes; but the exposures of robberies against Treasury officials that his experts didn't make, are not flattering to his genius as a detective, and aid him not a whit in building up a reputation as the saviour of his country from the grasp of republican vultures. Since his entrance on Senatorial life he has grown celebrated only for the reckless character and persistency of his charges against the custodians of Uncle Sam's money. They were not specific or directed towards any particular individual, but were of that indefinite, vague nature which characterize the efforts of the average democratic reformer in this line of search for political capital. His inability to produce one scrap of evidence seeming to justify his insinuations, evidently induced his more cautious and far-sighted political associates in the Senate to withhold their endorsement; but by a constant reiteration of his charges, as though he had a mission and could not be deterred or turned aside by evasive explanations of false balances, etc., he finally worried the Senate to appoint a committee to investigate into the truth of his allegations. He was made chairman, and was voted experts and the largest latitude for making thorough work; and their report to the effect that they have found the accounts, running over a long series of years and involving thousands of millions of dollars, all straight and correct to a dollar, must prove exceedingly humiliating under the circumstances.

From a table recently prepared at the Treasury Department it appears that at the end of the last fiscal year there was outstanding of State bank circulation $426,504; National bank circulation $324,514,284; demand notes $62,297.50; legal tender notes $346,681,016; one and two year notes of 1863, $90,485; compound interest notes, $274,920; fractional currency, $16,547,768.77.

Hon. Edward McPherson, who has for over a year been Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at the Treasury, and has succeeded in reducing that vast Bureau to something like order, has resigned and will become political editor of the Philadelphia Press. KNOX.

—The father of Tom Thumb is a pauper in the Chicago poorhouse. Tom quarrelled with him when a boy, and has never visited him since. He has fourteen sons and daughters in all, several of whom are wealthy.

—A Washington, D. C., despatch of the 5th inst. says: A Mrs. Cassidy, whose husband is an employe of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, living between Washington and Bladensburg, has just given birth to five children—three girls and two boys. All of them are remarkably well. They are small, but still perfect in their organizations and may live. The mother is out of danger and able to receive the congratulations of her friends.

Republican State Committee.

The members of the new Republican State Committee, chosen at the recent State convention, met in Concord on Monday for the purpose of organization. Hon. E. M. Topliff of Manchester, chairman of the previous committee, called the meeting to order, and Geo. E. Jenks of Concord acted as temporary secretary. Mr. Topliff was unanimously re-elected chairman; he thanked the committee for the high compliment paid him, but said that impaired health would compel him to decline the the election; he would, however, render all the assistance he was able during the campaign. Mr. Topliff believed that nothing but determination and hard work was needed to secure another old-fashioned republican victory. George E. Jenks of Concord was re-elected secretary, and Hon. John Kimball of Concord was re-elected treasurer. The meeting was then adjourned until nine o'clock P. M.

During the early part of the evening the county delegates held a meeting; each delegation chose a member of the Executive State Committee, as follows: Rockingham county, Col. J. Horace Kent of Portsmouth; Strafford county, George W. Colbath of Dover; Belknap, Levi R. Weeks of Laconia; Carroll, Col. James E. French of Moultonborough; Merrimack, Col. Charles H. Roberts of Concord; Hillsborough, Hon. E. M. Topliff of Manchester; Cheshire, Frank C. Faulkner of Keene; Sullivan, Col. J. A. Wood of Acworth; Grafton, Hon. A. A. Woolson of Lisbon; Coos, Samuel M. Harvey of Columbia.

At nine o'clock the State committee reassembled with a largely increased attendance of members and prominent politicians. During the recess of the committee a very strong pressure was brought to effect the election of Col. J. Horace Kent of Portsmouth as chairman. Col. Kent's support was of a most flattering character, but he stated that his large business as Sheriff of Rockingham county would prevent his accepting the position. Major Henry H. Huse of Manchester also had many friends who desired to make him the chairman, but he said he should prefer that some one else be chosen to fill the position. There was also a call for Hon. E. H. Rollins, now United States Senator, but Mr. Rollins said his health was such that he should not feel it right for him to accept the chairmanship. Senator Rollins stated, however, that he would gladly render the committee all the service in his power during the campaign. Several ballots were then taken, and the final result was the election of Major Huse of Manchester as chairman, the choice being made unanimous on motion of Col. Kent. Hon. E. H. Rollins was then added to and made chairman of the Executive Board of the State committee.

Naval Matters.

Passed Assistant Paymaster George A. Deering is ordered to the U. S. S. Tallapoosa Oct. 1st.

Pay Director Charles W. Abbott is ordered to duty at the Boston navy yard.

Capt. John H. Highbee, U. S. M. C., who was detached from duty at this navy yard some time since and placed on waiting orders, is ordered to the U. S. S. Richmond as fleet marine officer. The Richmond is to be the flagship of the Asiatic squadron, and will go into commission Oct. 21st, taking the place of the Monocacy.

Second Lieut. Randolph Dickens, U. S. M. C., is detached from duty at this navy yard and ordered to the Richmond.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal says "The mission of the U. S. S. Ticonderoga, now fitting out at Portsmouth navy yard, is to take Commodore Shufeldt, present Chief of the Bureau of Equipment, to the African coast, where he will act as umpire between the government of Liberia and Great Britain on the boundary question. Commodore Shufeldt takes an active interest in Liberia and is Vice President of the American Colonization Society."

Grand Commandry of New Hampshire.

At the Annual Conclave of the Grand Commandry of Knights Templar and the Appendant Orders of the State of New Hampshire, held at Concord on Tuesday, the following Grand Officers were duly elected and installed:

Eminent Sir Albert S. Wait, of Newport, R. E. Grand Commander.

Sir Joseph W. Hildreth, Concord, V. E. Deputy Grand Commander.

Sir Benjamin F. Rackley, Dover, E. Grand Generalissimo.

Sir Nathan P. Hunt, Manchester, E. Grand Captain General.

Sir Joseph Kidder, Manchester, E. Grand Prelate.

Sir Thomas S. Ellis, Lancaster, E. Grand Senior Warden.

Sir Milton A. Taylor, Nashua, E. Grand Junior Warden.

Sir Frank A. McKean, Nashua, E. Grand Treasurer.

Sir George P. Cleaves, Concord, E. Grand Recorder.

Sir Andrew Bunton, Manchester, E. Grand Standard Bearer.

Sir Washington Freeman, Portsmouth, E. Grand Sword Bearer.

Sir Edward R. Kent, Lancaster, E. Grand Warder.

Sir J. Frank Webster, Concord, E. Grand Captain of the Guards.

Political.

O. C. Moore of the Nashua Telegraph was nominated for Senator by acclamation on Tuesday, by the republican convention of the 17th New Hampshire district. Edward Gustine was nominated by the republican convention of the 13th district.

"The friends of prohibition, who intend to hold it as a distinct political issue," will meet in convention at Good Templars' hall, Nashua, on Tuesday, Oct. 15th, to nominate a State ticket.

The republicans of Connecticut on Tuesday nominated Charles B. Andrews for Governor, on one of the hardest of hard-money platforms.

Rev. Lewis Cobell, of Virginia, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress in the Lynchburg district, on the platform of "No interest on money, and death to lawyers."

Cohen and his gang of idle vagabonds, who have so long been allowed to disturb the quiet of Washington, have at last been brought under control by the authorities, and there was no mob parading the streets on Monday.

News and Notes.

Capt. Pressy and the crew of the brig Sally Brown, before reported wrecked, arrived at New York 24th inst.

Mrs. Daniel Witt of Hubbardston, Mass., an aged lady, was walking across her room, when, without any warning, the bone of her left hip broke off at the socket. It was a singular accident, resulting from the absence of animal tissue in the bone, it being almost entirely changed to carbonate of lime.

Letters from Shanghai indicate that the reports of the China famine were not exaggerated. It is stated that 50,000 people are starving in the single city of Tsinanfu, and that 15,000 had already died there of hunger and disease.

At Cincinnati, Sunday night, Charles Prehn, an upholsterer, aged twenty-three years, shot and instantly killed his wife, aged twenty-one, and then blew out his own brains. They had separated twice, owing to a mutual suspicion of infidelity. Mrs. Prehn called upon her husband to endeavor to effect a reconciliation, but a quarrel ensued between them, ending in the double tragedy.

Theodore Tilton has returned from Europe.

The Homeopathic Medical College at Cleveland, Ohio, is in trouble, owing to the finding of the dead bodies of a number of prominent citizens and ladies concealed about the premises, having been stolen from their graves for the purpose of dissection. The excitement against the faculty of the college runs high in the vicinity.

The body of Sproat, the Lowell murderer and suicide, was taken to the home of his parents in Norwich, Vt., Monday forenoon. His mother was so prostrated by the news as to be dangerously ill. Miss Laura A. Hunt, the victim, was buried Monday afternoon. Notwithstanding the announcement that the services would be private, the house and vicinity were crowded. Rev. Smith Baker, pastor of the First Congregational church conducted the services. The counting-room of the cotton mills where Miss Hunt was employed was closed, and the agent, paymaster and clerks were present. They also contributed a beautiful floral gift, as did the Sabbath school class of the deceased.

John Courtney, a fisherman, Friday started from Bayport, R. I., to remove his wife and six children on a yacht to a neigbboring fishermen's settlement. The sea washed his furniture off and finally swept away the entire family. Courtney picked them up and placed them upon the yacht again, but they were as often swept off, and he was fast becoming exhausted, when Capt. Carmen of the Canoxsie sailed up. Carmen and Courtney labored heroically until the family was rescued. The mother was insensible. A girl aged sixteen was drowned just as her father was swimming toward her for a last effort. Fishermen contributed money, provisions and household articles to give Courtney a new start.

William A. Langley, formerly of Bangor, Me., died of yellow fever at Canton, Miss., on Sept. 22d. He was for many years intemperate, but of late years had reformed and was well known as a temperance lecturer of considerable ability. While at the west recently he volunteered to go south as a nurse. He was forty-five years old and leaves a wife.

Lippincott's Magazine for October is bright and entertaining as usual, while containing several contributions that merit particular notice. First in importance is Mr. George Kennan's paper on the "Unwritten Literature of the Caucasian Mountaineers," which exhibits a familiar personal knowledge of this most interesting people, and embodies some of the most striking stories and proverbs to be found in the folk lore of any nation or race. The "General Exhibits" at the Paris Exposition are well described by Edward H. Knight, one of our Commissioners, with appropriate illustrations. A sketch from life, entitled "Communtsts and Capitalists," by Octave Thanet, paints vividly some of the tragic scenes of the great strike of last year, with an undercurrent of suggestiveness that deserves attention. "Of Barbara Hicks" is the title of a very quaint and pleasing love story, in which Quaker life and manners are delineated with great fidelity and a delicate humor. We must not omit to mention a letter from Mauritius, by Lady Barker, written with her usual animation and graphic power, "An Adventure in Cyprus," by David Ker, and fresh installments of the two serials, "For Percival" and "Through Winding Ways." The "Monthly Gossip" is more than usually bright and varied, including an account of the relations between Edgar Poe and the late Mrs. Whitman;, with extracts from unpublished letters, a matrimonial dialogue on "A Little Perversity in Women," and brief discussions of topics that are more or less seasonable.

New Hampshire Items.

John Pond, a wealthy citizen of Manchester, was fined $20 and costs, Monday, for stealing a dozen eggs.

A. P. Pratt, formerly connected with the New Era in Portland, has started a greenback paper in Manchester.

Stearn's carriage shop, two houses and a saw-mill owned by Mrs. Nettleton, Whittemore's sash and blind factory and John Flanegan's house and barn, in Newport, were burned Sunday morning. Mrs. Stearns lost $2500; insured $1000. Mrs. Nettleton's loss, $4500; insurance $2500. Other losses $3800; insurance $2800.

The lumber and grist mills owned by Henry Joy & Baldwin at New Zealand, White Mountains, rented by G. W. Richardson, with two tenements and other outbuildings, were burned Monday night, with a lot of manufactured lumber. Estimated loss $15,000 to $17,000; well insured.

Edward P. Shute, for five years general passenger agent of the Mobile, Texas & Chattanooga Railroad, and latterly in the employ of J. H. Adden & Co. of New Orleans, died in the latter city on Thursday last of yellow fever, aged twenty-seven years. Mr. Shute was a son of the late Samuel Shute of Concord, and graduated at the Concord high school. The New Orleans papers speak of him as one of the promising young men of that city.

The Greenback Lever of Manchester has been absorbed by the Granite State, published in the same city, the first number of the new paper appearing last week. Subscription price, $1 a year; ten cents for the first three months, with one-third to agents. Too cheap to be good, it would seem.

The last House of Representatives required the Comptroller of the Currency to prepare a complete list of all stockholders of National banks. This caused a vast amount of labor, but it has demonstrated the fact that a large proportion of stock is held for poor people. In the cities the savings and trust companies are large holders of the stock. In some of the National banks one-third to one-half of the stockholders are women.

Brother Nathan Kane attended a revival meeting near Culpepper, Va., and was singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs out of a hymn book which Deacon Lewis Tyman wanted. Deacon Tyman drew his trusty razor, and the pastor, who had been unable to prevent the discussion, will preach Brother Kane's funeral service.

—Mr. Shiel, member of Parliament for Athlone, Ireland, and son of the famous Irish orator, spoke twice during the recent session. On the first occasion he said: "Mr. Speaker, sir, if I am in order, I beg to move the adjournment of the debate." On the second he observed: "Mr. Speaker, sir, I beg to withdraw my amendment for the adjournment of the debate."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes us, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. (tSept1079

PUBLIC MEETING.

All persons who are in favor of the honest payment of the public debt, and of a currency on a gold basis; who are opposed to any further issue by the government of a currency inconvertible with gold, the world's recognized measure of value; who are in favor of a speedy return to specie payment as essential to a revival of the commerce, business and credit of the country and to the welfare of the laboring masses, are requested to meet at the Common Council Room, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th, to take steps for the formation of a HARD MONEY CLUB.

THE CITY.

Tickets to Fabyan's and back—good to return until and including Oct. 2d—can be procured at the Eastern depot this morning at $2.50 each. The excursion train leaves the depot at half-past seven o'clock.

The yacht "Mingie," noted as one of the fastest boats on the river the past season, has been sold to parties in or near Manchester and taken to Lake Massabesic, where she "cleaned out" all the crack boats that were brought against her.

A letter was received by Dr. S. C. Whittier on Tuesday from Mr. Stephen W. Clarke, announcing decided and rapid improvement in the state of the latter's health, and his probable return to this city and his duties as a teacher in a few days.

Newichewannock Tribe, No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, of this city, with ladies and friends, will have a clam bake at Dover point on Friday, 27th inst., "corn and venison" being served at half-past three o'clock. Saville, of the Dover Point hotel, will have charge of the "bake," so it will certainly be first-class.

The Milwaukee (Wisconsin) Sentinel of Sept. 20th says: "Mr. John Christie, of New Hampshire, aged seventy-four years, the oldest Mason of the thirty-third degree in the United States, came up from Portsmouth, N. H., his native home, fully a thousand miles, to attend the Grand Council held in this city last week."

Picataqua Lodge of Odd Fellows at their regular meeting Monday evening appointed a committee of three to ascertain the probable expense of hiring the hall to be built in Jones' new block, and to confer with the sister lodges and encampments in relation to the matter. The selection of representatives to the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire was postponed until next Monday evening.

The members of the Young Men's Bible Class Association connected with the Court street Christian Sabbath school, called upon Rev. John A. Goss at his residence on Summer street, Monday evening, when Mr. Charles Hatch, in behalf of the Association, presented Mr. Goss with an elegant silver tea urn. It was a complete surprise to Mr. Goss, and shows the esteem in which he is deservedly held by the members of the Association.

The Concord correspondent of the Boston Journal, under date of Sept. 23d, says: "It looks now as if the democrats in the first district would nominate Hon. Thos. J. Smith of Dover. Hon. Frank Jones of Portsmouth, now representative to Congress, says that if every delegate in the democratic convention should desire him to run again, he would not accept the nomination. There has been an informal conference of democrats in this city to-day, but the object of their meeting is unknown to the public. Among those present were Hon. Frank Jones of Portsmouth, H. H. Metcalf of the Dover Press, Hon. John H. Pearson of Concord and Hon. E. D. Parker of Franconia."

POLICE COURT.

TUESDAY, Sept. 24; Batchelder, J.

Joseph F. Duhan was brought up on a continued case for stealing a harness and sulky from persons in Greenland, and was held in $600 for his appearance at the October term of the Supreme Court.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. Leonard B. Cook, of York, has commenced putting up other structures on the site of his farm buildings near the head of York river, burned last spring.

The First Congregational Society of Exeter contributed $60 on Sunday for the fever sufferers.

Rev. Mr. Robie, pastor of the Congregational church at Greenland, has handed to Dr. William R. Preston of this city the sum of $21.65, collected in his church on Sunday for the yellow fever sufferers at the south.

The Christian Baptist Conference of York and Cumberland counties, Me., was held in the church at York village last week, commencing on Thursday and closing on Sunday. The attendance was large, and great interest manifested.

The wife of Mr. Cyrus E. Hayes, of Dover, attended to her usual avocations about the house on Monday until near the middle of the forenoon, when she suddenly fell to the floor and was dead before she could be raised. Her age was about fifty years.

Mr. Albion Wesley Moulton, of Beech Ridge, York, has been making extensive repairs on the house which he bought of John Blaisdell. On Saturday he hauled on to his place a building for a stable, fourteen yoke of oxen being the motive power, heavy wheels being placed beneath the building for running gear. He is placing a handsome hedge around his homestead premises, and fixing things up generally.

The horse stolen from Hiram H. Wood of Barrington by William H. Hall, alias Edwin H. Brown, whose arrest and committal for trial at Dover we have already chronicled, was traced to East Kingston, being in possession of a party who had purchased it at auction, and when Hall called to get his cash he was captured. The animal was well used up and showed marks of cruelty. A wagon and harness stolen by Hall were recovered from a sale stable in Boston.

While the schooner Henrietta, Capt. Hall, coal laden, was being towed up the river to Saco on Saturday evening, she ran into the government pier at Chase's point, broke two planks and started several of her timbers. Her crew managed to keep her afloat untill arriving at the sand-spit northwest of Cow island, when she settled. When the tide went down the leakage was in a measure stopped, and she reached the wharf in Saco Monday evening.

Miss Mary E. Grover of Beech Ridge, York, received from the Ipswich (Mass.) Mills, E. H. Martin agent, one thousand and forty bunches of hosiery—one dozen pairs in a bunch—to be "seamed" and finished, during the month of August. Miss Grover does not do all the seaming herself, a considerable proportion of the work being given out to young women in the neighborhood to do. She has received as high as fourteen hundred dozen in a month, which the agent says is more than any other sub-agent has ever attended to; and she has herself seamed three dozen in one day.

The old Methodist meeting house at Spruce creek, Kittery, has been removed. It was sold to Henry Grover of York for $50, and by him disposed of to Mr. John Wentworth of Kittery for $75. Mr. Wentworth has utilized it for additional buildings on his fine farm. A new church is going up on the old site, the contract having been given to Henry Grover of York and Alsbury Goodwin of Kittery, for $1650. They purchase their lumber at the mill at Frankfort, Me., at $7.25 a thousand feet, taking it at the mill; freight to Kittery Point, seventy-five cents per thousand.

The crops in York and vicinity are generally good this year. Of apples, the yield in York, Eliot and Kittery is very large, and the quality much above the average. The hay crop is heavy, and secured in good condition. Potatoes are medium, and no complaints are made of rot, though the potato bug has been troublesome. Corn is fair, though the dry weather affected it more than it did the same crop on the New Hampshire side of the river. Some wheat was sown this year, and the yield has been such as to encourage further experiments in this line. The prices obtained for produce rule low, and large quantities of nice apples are being turned into cider. N. F. Mathes & Co., of Portsmouth, are reported to have bought a hundred hogsheads of cider at a very low rate, to make into vinegar.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republican Senatorial Convention for the Newmarket (22d) district was held at Newmarket on Tuesday. The convention was called to order by S. A. Haley, and organized as follows: President, Jeremiah Towle; Secretary, S. S. Whidden. On motion of J. S. George of Newmarket a committee on credentials was appointed, who reported twenty-two delegates present. On motion of Mr. Whidden of Newmarket the convention proceeded to ballot for a candidate for State Senator, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	18
Necessary for a choice	10
A. H. Varney, So. Newmarket	5
Emmons B. Philbrick, Rye	13

And Emmons B. Philbrick was declared the candidate of the republicans of the 22d district for Senator. On motion of Dr. Varney the nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Philbrick appeared and briefly addressed the convention, accepting the nomination; and the convention then adjourned sine die.

—A St. Louis clerk is named Gasbill. Unhappy man. Everybody disputes him.

—Customer; "Waiter, this bit of turbot is not so good as that you gave us yesterday." Waiter: "Beg pardon, sir, it's off the same fish."

—A Boston young man married against the wishes of his parents, and in telling a friend how to break the news gently to them, said: "Tell them first that I'm dead, and then carefully work up to the climax."

Environed With Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely neutralizes the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma-tainted water. This benign antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, best des effect. ing a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Two Noted Grave-Robbers.

Our readers will remember the account given in these columns of the robbing of the grave of Hon. Scott Harrison, in Ohio, last May, the body being found in the dissecting-room of the Ohio Medical College. Public indignation justly brands any man as a scoundrel who will rob the grave of the dead. But there are two noted grave robbers in the country, so far from being the subjects of the people's wrath, are universally lauded for their virtues. The reason is plain. While the former class steal the dead bodies of our loved ones to submit them to the dissecting knife, these only rob the graves to restore the living victims to our hearts and homes. Their medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets—are household words the world over. The Golden Medical Discovery cures consumption, in its early stages, and all bronchial, throat, and lung affections; Pleasant Purgative Pellets are the most valuable laxative and cathartic.

—By an old bachelor: "You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will, but the frightful ceramics pasted on by the women folks will stick to it still."

—A noted sharper, wishing to ingratiate himself with a clergyman, said: "Parson, I should like to hear you preach more than I can tell you." "Well," responded the clergyman, "if you had been where you ought to have been last Sunday, you would have heard me." "Where was that?" asked the sharper. "In the county jail," was the reply.

—The Western Union time-ball at New York is being replaced by a new one, and while some workmen were engaged on it Saturday the observers on the sidewalk were surprised to see them drop their work and run away, throwing their arms about wildly. An explanation showed that the men had stirred up a hive of bees which had taken possession of the ball and had occupied it several months, in spite of the daily inconvenience of being precipitated from the top of the pole to the bottom.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or offiocered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old town by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

— THE —

NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE

Contains more original matter

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars are the eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately went to Cincinnati and laid in a store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 149 pounds, and she feels so much improved in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, I have taken Allan's Anti-Fat, which has cut four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city nearly one pound in one week." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. DOWELL & FLUMERFELT, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and powerful remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while administering positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career, in its application, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Retroflexion, Sympathetic Sympathies, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Nervous Hurriedness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhaust this necklace of its jewels, but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has gone its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me incalculable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

I HAS cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., BURLINGTON, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 225 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. THE GENERAL MUSTER DAYS AT THE PLAINS

In By-Past Years.

Those delightfully remembered times are getting well back into the past, but these bright, autumnal days, opening "frosty but kindly," recall to not a few the October mornings, when, with light hearts and not less light footsteps, and well-saved small change jingling in their pockets, they started away for Portsmouth Plains, or as friend Shillaber so happily terms it, with a love of those old times in his heart,

"That grander field in boyhood's view
Than New Orleans or Waterloo."

Not even the fourth of July had a warmer welcome than general muster day. Had the school authorities, in a moment of vindictive insanity, forgetting their own youthful days, attempted to deprive them of the holiday, they would have been in danger of being sacrificed upon their own hearthstones, even before eating their breakfasts, and few there would have been, old or young, who would not have been ready to say they were rightly served for such a before undreamed-of atrocity.

The first object to be seen on reaching the ground was a farmer's wagon, having in it a barrel of new cider on tap, from which each urchin refreshed himself with a glass at the very moderate price of a single cent; the more enjoyed as the family supply of the article for the fall and winter most likely had not arrived, and they had not yet enjoyed the felicity of imbibing the much appreciated liquid, when now, through an oat straw or a tin pencil-case. Next followed a survey of the booths, extending for much of the way onward, along the stone walls, to Libbey's barn, in which the luxuries were displayed of cold roast chickens, the roast and corned beef and boiled ham, with a host of attractions in the pastry and confectionery line, that were destined, long before the close of the day, to render them financially bankrupt; drawing from them their last cent, after resisting for weeks beforehand the temptations of those earthly paradises, Peduzzi's and Dunyon's confectioneries, and the attractions of Eunice Hoyt's baskets of fruit at Slade's corner of Spring-hill. There were, besides, offered for their patronage, Freeman's oysters, those ever popular bivalves, eaten fresh from the shell, with pepper and vinegar to relish them, and Berry's buns, an article of which the vender had the entire monopoly; bakers' carts were there from town from whence gingerbread could be had by the sheet at about half-price, affording the country people who came to the shows an opportunity of indulging largely in that, to them, much appreciated article, and taking it home to the younger fraternity.

No one that can recall the scene who in after time looked upon the gorgeous displays of military, numbering scores of thousands, in the large cities whither they had emigrated, ever gazed upon a spectacle of the kind to their eyes in their youth of greater splendor than that of Portsmouth regiment while stretched in review across the field. There were the Gilman Blues, the Rockingham Guards and the Artillery, all fine bodies of troops, handsomely uniformed, and well armed and equipped; the Sea Fencibles, composed of shipmasters, had their place in the line; last of all came the ununiformed militia, whom the boys took an especial pleasure in disparaging, by applying to them such epithets as "Mill-Dam Rangers," "Puddle Dock Invincibles," etc. One of the latter class of "citizen soldiery," as it is only polite to term them, having in his composition much of the humorous took a fancy to reverse in his compliance with it the order to appear in dark coat and white pantaloons, by presenting himself in a white jacket and dark pantaloons, as well as his rusty firelocks and other equipments forming a complete burlesque of the "regulation" articles. On being called to account by the captain for his queer appearance, he replied, in substance, and in the gravest manner, that, like the starved apothecary in "Romeo and Juliet," his "poverty and not his will" compelled him to such a seeming disobedience of orders, when the former passed to an inspection of the rest of his command, but returning after reaching the end of the line, placed him with his face to a tree at the place of rendezvous, (then known as Mason's hill,) and told him to remain there until the regiment returned from the Plains, but as soon as the others were out of sight, he went home, put on his "Sunday-go-to-meeting" garments, and had a good time all day at the training field, yet taking care to leave there in time to resume his "regimentals" and be found at his post by the tree when the rest of the company returned for dismissal; and being rewarded by "the capting" with the compliment that if he was not much of an honor to the corps otherwise, he had at least shown the first requisite in a soldier, obedience to orders.

In a second-story room at Libbey's tavern a lively scene of "tripping it upon the light fantastic toe" was visible all day long, to the music of a cracked fiddle in the hands of the Paganini of Rock Pasture, an "ancient mariner" if not Coleridge's, who received three cents from each gentleman participant at the close of a dance, one of which, known as a "fore-and-after," would be termed by our French cousins across the water, from two only sharing in it, a "pas de deux." Some of the dancers, in their displays of the Terpsichorean art would have done credit to Mr. Richard Swiveller at Miss Sophy Wackler's ball in Dickens. Could the scenes in that second-floor room, in which flaming calico was mingled with blue swallow-tailed coats and bright gilt buttons, and an occasional uniform of the gay and festive "Blues," be reproduced by a Cruikshank or a Nast, they would form pictures of the comic rarely surpassed.

One of the accompaniments of the general muster day was a jolly son of Erin, in green velvet coat and small-clothes and a red vest, having a series of gayly colored pictures of scenes in Queen Elizabeth's time, that were viewed through perspective glasses in the front of the box that contained them, and a description of which was rattled off by the exhibitor with a glibness that could only have been displayed by one of his countrymen. He looked as if he might have been transported direct, by some mysterious mode of travelling, from Donnybrook Fair, and from whence he did appear, never being seen at any other time, none could tell. The boys had an idea that he was a part of the holiday, ceasing to exist at its close, but sure to come to life again on the next muster-day.

Another of the annual attendants upon the field was "Jolly" Brown, a famous peddlar of his time, with a well-filled wagon of all sorts of notions, who, in auctioning off his goods with a merriment that would have done honor to Dickens' "Doctor Marigold," was ever a delight to the boys, whether upon the Plains or "the parade" on Market square.

The school-boys, the "prentices" as they were called by the older of the population, out for a holiday, and such of the clerks as could get leave of absence, had the field to themselves in the earlier part of the day, but afternoon brought with it the maturer in years, who remembered with delight their own youths, numbering among them a few, who, from personal recollections, could talk of the war of the Revolution, and others by the score to whom the war of 1812 was an affair of yesterday. Members these were of the military of former days who had "served out their time" as colonels, majors and captains, who loved to crack a joke at one of their successors, who, in crossing the field, chanced to come in their way—affecting to be very happy at being relieved from further service, yet in the pleasure they apparently took in talking of the time when epaulettes adorned their own shoulders, showed that "military glory" had not been to them without its charms.

Some of the features of an English fair were often visible at the Plains on the popular holiday. On one occasion, when others had been displaying their skill at running and leaping, a young farmer of Newington, while a looking on, said to one who had been showing how high he could jump, "Why, I can hop higher than that, and if anybody wishes to bet a quarter that I can't hop over this handkerchief as high as the two tallest men here can hold it, here is the money." No one believed he could accomplish such a feat, and four placed quarters in the hands of the umpire, to which the other at once responded, and throwing off his shoes and giving his coat to a friend to hold, after running back a few yards, he cleared the "bandanna," with some inches to spare. As the name has always been a not uncommon one at Newington, it can give no offence to any one to say that the young man was an unusually good-looking one, and that his name was that of Pickering.

It would occupy too much space to recall all the scenes attendant upon general muster day at the Plains, that survive in the memory of the writer, though there are no "greener spots in memory's waste" than they to all who alike remember them.

The weary legs referred to by friend Shillaber in the first of his reunion poems, with which the boys returned to their homes, only made their sleep sweeter at night, and were forgotten next day in chatting of the good time they had on that preceding it.

With our elegant military, including a troop of horse, of these later days, why cannot we have a field-day once more at the Plains, with the booths, and the old-time accessories of such an occasion, and give the school-boys a holiday to enjoy it? Of two of "The boys" of years gone by who went to the Plains at the grand review of two years since for the old associations of the place on like occasions, one asserted his need of only a glass of new cider from a farmer's wagon to render him completely happy, and the other thought a sheet of gingerbread, or a pocketful of Berry's buns, would bring to him an equal amount of felicity. They tried to catch the sound of the fiddle in the up-stairs room at Libbey's tavern, as they were wont to hear it in other days, but, like

"The harp that once through Tara's halls
The soul of music shed,"

its last strain had died out long ago, to be heard no more. J. H. B.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

Senatorial.

Portsmouth District — consisting of Wards One, Two and Four of the city of Portsmouth—at the Court House in Portsmouth, Tuesday, Oct. 1st, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Joshua Gilman Hall,

The successful nominee at the Republican Convention at Dover on Wednesday, was born at Wakefield, in Carroll county, and is in the fiftieth year of his age. He is a direct descendant of John Hall, one of the early settlers of Dover, and derives his middle name from an ancestor who was a captain under General Stark at Bennington. Mr. Hall received his early education at Gilmanton Academy, and entered Dartmouth College in 1847, and graduated in 1851. In his class were the late George Wm. Burleigh, Edward Ashton Rollins, Prof. E. T. Quimby, and Ex-Congressman Willard of Vermont. After leaving college Mr. Hall entered the office of that distinguished lawyer, the late Daniel M. Christie, and was admitted to the bar of Strafford county in 1855. For three years he was in practice at Union Village in Wakefield, and in 1858 removed to Dover. He was appointed County Solicitor in 1862. He has always been in constant practice of his profession ever since he came to the bar. In April, 1874, he was appointed Attorney of the United States for the District of New Hampshire, which office he now fills, having been re-appointed a few months since. He has served two terms as State Senator, and has also served as a Representative of his ward in the House.

He has often been called upon to fill places of trust among his neighbors in Strafford and Carroll counties, and has always been held in high esteem for his sterling integrity and unswerving honesty, not only in the practice of his profession but in every position to which the confidence of his fellow citizens has called him. Mr. Hall is not a politician, in the usual acceptation of that term. He is a well-read lawyer, a careful observer of public events, a student of history, and pronounced in his views upon all political and financial questions; but in the arts of politics he has never been adept. In short, he is a high-toned, honorable and conscientious man in his politics, as in his social relations. No man can say one word against Mr. Hall as a fit representative of good morals, industrious application and sound views upon all the great questions of the day. The people will hail this nomination, not as a pre-arranged result, but as the voice of the district expressed through their delegates in convention. The nomination is a strong one. In Mr. Hall's hands the interest of our district and every part of it will be carefully watched and ably served.

The sound and thinking men of the district will rally to the support of Mr. Hall as a candidate. He will have a hold upon the people of the district, not because he caters to popularity, not because he caters to popularity, not because to-day he is a candidate and will seek to win votes for his own aggrandizement, but because of his well-known character, which leads every one, far and wide, to feel confident that his past record as an honorable and straight-forward man will in no way be impaired by any of the temptations incident to Congressional life.

Massachusetts Democratic State Convention.

The "regular" State convention of the Massachusetts democracy was held in Faneuil hall, Boston, on Wednesday, Sept. 25th. Gen. Whitney was chosen president, and in his speech on taking the chair raked down Gen. Butler, and also had a shot at Mayor Pratt of Worcester for his disgraceful yielding to the Butler mob. Hon. Josiah G. Abbott was nominated for governor by acclamation.

More of Tilden's Reform.

In the income tax suit against Samuel J. Tilden, before U. S. Commissioner Maynard, at Marquette, Mich., on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 24th, evidence was produced in the books of the iron mine near Marquette, showing that Tilden's income during the period he refused to make a return to the United States revenue officials was over $1,000,000. After the books were examined by the Commissioner, and had been given in evidence, they were forcibly carried away by a gang of men who rushed into the office. Thomas Harland of New York, Tilden's attorney, had been looking over the books, and when through placed them in a convenient pile on a table close to the door.

Chronicle Correspondence.

RYE, Sept. 21st.

The Christian society of Rye had their annual picnic at the Wentworth hotel, Newcastle, on Wednesday, of last week. The Rye Cornet band was present and enlivened the occasion with fine music. The tables were well provided; speeches were made by Rev. Iva S. Jones pastor of the society, Rev. Willis Hadley of the Congregational church of Rye, Hon. Emmons B. Philbrook and others. About three hundred people were present, and all were pleased with the manner in which the picnic was carried out.

A reception and oyster supper was given the members of the cornet band and their ladies at the residence of G. H. Jenness on Thursday evening of last week, by Mr. Jenness, on account of the silver service voted that gentleman at the North Hampton fair last winter, the band having voted unanimously in his favor. The reception was a very enjoyable affair.

The unjust vote passed at the last town meeting, making a reduction of four per cent on taxes paid before Sept. 15th, and adding interest on taxes paid after that date, has been taken advantage of by many of the tax-payers; it will probably be repealed at the next town meeting, as it should be. The selectmen recently attached and sold the wagon of one of our hard-working farmers, for non-payment of his taxes.

James Page killed four loons one morning recently, while gunning on the ledge.

The cornet band gave an open-air concert at the Chesley Brothers' store at the Four Corners on Thursday evening, playing several fine pieces. They were treated to a collation at Chesleys' residence.

The life-saving crew have commenced their duties of patrolling the beach, and farmers complain that they heap up all the seaweed that comes ashore on their beat, and sell it, which the farmers do not consider fair play at all.

The law passed at the last session of the legislature to prevent the defacing of natural scenery and private property with advertisements of quack medicines, etc., is a good one, and it is to be hoped will be strictly enforced in this town. There is need enough of it.

Many citizens hope Rye will not be behind-hand in doing what it can afford to aid the sufferers at the south, but as yet I have not heard of sympathy taking a practical shape.

The apple crop in this town is very heavy this year, and the quality above the average. SCRIBE.

Political.

The republicans of the third Congressional district of Massachusetts on the 25th inst. nominated Hon. Walbridge A. Field for the seat to which he was elected, and which Benjamin Dean now holds by vote of the democratic House, assisted by Ben. Butler.

Dennis Kearney has been denounced by the California National Greenback-Labor Committee as "a blantant, low and profane humbug," with whom they are not in sympathy and who does not represent in any way the workingmen of the State.

In a written speech at Salem in September, 1868, when accepting the republican nomination for Congress in the Essex district, Gen. Butler said: "No one more heartily than I do can cry God speed the time when the greenback and gold shall be convertible and reconvertible." That time is now near at hand and Gen. Butler is doing all he can to postpone it.

Gen. Marston's speech in the convention on Wednesday had the effect to change the aspect of affairs suddenly, and at its close the nomination of Mr. Hall was at once regarded as certain. Mr. Hall's claims were advocated by Frank Hobbs, Esq., a native of Wakefield, who has known Mr. Hall from early childhood, and who very gracefully endorsed his qualifications for the position.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

The schooner Samuel W. Knight, of Pembroke, Me., in coming down the river on Wednesday with a load of brick, ran upon half-way rock and filled with water on the ebb tide.

If any person can read the article in another part of this paper on the old-time militia musters, and not be interested, it is proof positive that he never attended a "general muster" at the Plains.

The Boston Traveller of Sept. 23d has the following, which will especially interest those of our citizens who were church-goers fifty years or more since: "Elder Moses How, now of New Bedford, who is in his ninetieth year, preached his eight thousandth sermon, yesterday afternoon, in Advent chapel, corner of Kneeland and Tyler streets. He is a vigorous veteran, with much of the earnestness for which he was noted when he preached at Portsmouth and other places in New Hampshire, half a century ago. He preached in the forenoon at Father Taylor's bethel, North square. He is a most wonderful old man; he was a friend and co-worker with our venerable Father Taylor, having been pastor of the Mariner's church in New Bedford nearly fifteen years."

The Boston Herald interviewer seized upon Howe Call, Esq., of this city, on his triumphal march from the victories his eloquence had brought about in Maine, to the great west, where he goes to enlighten the farmers upon the subject of finance. The orator remarked to the interviewer "that of the two old parties in the east, the republican alone has grappled with the leading issue in politics, and, whether right or wrong, has arrayed itself on one side of the great question of the day. He indorses the principles of the national party because they are right, and, if right, they will surely triumph." Out west Mr. Call is regarded as an oracle; and this reminds us of a passage somewhere which refers to a prophet having honor out of his own city, or something of that kind. Mr. Call has it pretty thick as he travels.

HARD-MONEY MEETING.

The meeting of citizens in favor of forming a hard-money club, held in the Common Council room on Wednesday evening, 25th inst., was called to order by Col. J. C. Butler. Mayor Sise was voted to the chair, Charles E. Batchelder, Esq., being chosen secretary. Remarks were made by Col. Butler, Judge Bufford, and Dr. Curtis. It was voted that a committee of three be appointed by the chair to draft a series of resolutions for the formation of a hard-money club, and Jerome C. Butler, Marcellus Bufford and Shirley B. Cunningham were appointed. The meeting then adjourned to Monday evening, Sept. 30th, when the committee will report.

COCHECO MANUFACTURING CO.

The annual meeting of this corporation was held at Dover on Wednesday, 25th inst. The affairs of the company were reported to be in a good condition. The following board of directors was unanimously chosen:

Amos A. Lawrence, John A. Burnham, J. Ingersoll Bowditch, T. Jefferson Coolidge, Robert M. Mason, John McDuffee, Howard Stockton.

The stockholders dined at the American house.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

The Republican Congressional Convention for the 1st district was held at City hall in Dover on Wednesday, 25th inst. The convention was called to order by George W. Colbath of Dover, of the State committee. William D. Knapp of Great Falls was chosen temporary chairman, and the permanent organization was effected by the choice of Charles H. Parker of Wolfeborough as president, William E. Hadley of this city being one of the vice presidents, and A. J. Hackett of Belmont and one delegate from each of the three other counties acting as secretaries. The convention adjourned to one o'clock in the afternoon for the report of the committee on credentials, and to give the Councillor convention a chance to get through its business. At one o'clock the Congressional convention reconvened, and the committee reported 243 delegates present. Frank Hobbs of Dover moved that the convention proceed to ballot for a candidate for Congressman, at the close of a speech in which he vigorously urged the right of every man to make known his wishes by his vote. Gen. Marston then took the platform, and said that as his name had been mentioned in connection with the nomination he wished to say that he had not asked any delegate, by word or letter, to vote for him; that as he was the candidate at the last election, and beaten by his opponent's money, some of his friends maintained that he was entitled to a renomination; but he (Gen. Marston) did not recognize that any man had any "claim" whatever on any elective office; he made no "claim" and had not sought a renomination. The motion for a ballot was put and carried, resulting as follows:

Whole number of votes	201
Necessary for a choice	101
Calvin Sanders of Dover had	3
Daniel Hall of Dover	4
Gilman Marston of Exeter	4
Benjamin F. Prescott of Epping	10
Titus S. Tredick of Portsmouth	10
Ezra H. Wipchester of Portsmouth	21
Joshua G. Hall of Dover	149

And JOSHUA G. HALL was declared the candidate for Congress of the 1st Congressional District of New Hampshire. A committee of which Greenleaf C. Bartlett of Derry was chairman, was appointed to notify Mr. Hall of his nomination. Mr. Hall appeared and addressed the convention, accepting the nomination. The committee on resolutions, of which Frank Hobbs was chairman, reported the resolutions of the State convention, with supplementary resolutions affirming the right of every citizen of the United States to vote as he pleases and have his vote counted; the resolutions were adopted, and the convention then adjourned sine die.

The Republican Councillor Convention for the 1st district met in City hall, Dover, at noon on Wednesday, the 25th inst., and was called to order by Col. J. Horace Kent of this city, of the State committee. The permanent organizations was effected by the choice of Col. Kent as president, and Luther Hayes of Milton as secretary. Col. Albert Eastman of Hampstead addressed the convention in a speech of which brevity was the only fault, and moved the nomination of Warren Brown of Hampton Falls by acclamation, which motion was carried with cheers. Mr. Brown addressed the convention, accepting the nomination, and his speech was well received. The resolutions of the State convention were adopted, and after just seven and a half minutes spent in business (exclusive of the time taken up by Mr. Brown in his address,) the convention adjourned without day.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic County Convention for Rockingham county was held at Epping on Wednesday, 25th inst. Dr. Eastman of Hampstead was chosen permanent chairman, and nominations were made as follows:

For solicitor, Joseph F. Wiggin of Exeter; for Sheriff, A. L. Jenness of Deerfield; for Register of Deeds, Frank W. Rand of Portsmouth; for Treasurer, George S. Rundlett, of Epping; for Commissioners, George K. Proctor of Exeter, John D. Brown of Raymond, George Whitney of Derry. The resolutions of the State convention were adopted. The attendance of delegates was very large.

THE VICINITY.

The annual meeting of the Salmon Falls Manufacturing Company will be held at Rollinsford to-day.

A gentleman commenced the circulation of a subscription paper in aid of the yellow fever sufferers, at the navy yard on Tuesday, and had collected over a hundred dollars up to Wednesday evening.

JOHNSON'S UNIVERSAL ENCYCLOPÆDIA.

Mr. Jared Reid, Jr.:—My Dear Sir: I have been in the daily use of Johnson's New Universal Encyclopædia for three years. After the use of similar works, including Appleton's, I can truly say it is superior, all things considered, to any and all other similar works combined. While I have seached other Encyclopædias in vain for information on special subjects, I have without exception found in this work just what I wanted. The articles are not second-hand condensations, but complete and authoritative statements, many of them models of their kind, with the names of the authors annexed, many of whom will be recognized as leaders and authority in their special departments. No family can really afford to be without the work. Horace Greeley was a busy, practical man, and as he conceived the idea that is wrought out in this work, and wrought upon it himself, you may be sure that it is designed, not only for professional and scholarly men, but for plain and practical people, for daily reference on any and every subject. I earnestly hope that not a person who can possible purchase the work will fail to do so. The small economy of three cents a day for a single year will procure a Volume of this work, which is not perishable like food or clothing, but will be a lasting blessing to the members of the household. With the simple desire of promoting the public good I write this commendation, and wish you abundant success in your worthy efforts in circulating the grand work, assured by so doing you are helping the cause of education and religion in our community.

JAMES W. HUBBELL,
Pastor North church,
Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 23d, 1878.

News and Notes.

The yellow fever is spreading in the south and the only hope for relief is the coming frost, which it is hoped is not far off.

Hon. Addison Laflin, ex-naval officer of the port of New York, committed suicide by hanging at his home in Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 24th.

Another eruption of Vesuvius is announced.

Mrs. Abby Davol, of Portsmouth, R. I., kindled the fire with kerosene, Sept. 23d, and was burned to death.

Elijah B. Cole, a prominent citizen of Knightville, Mass., was shot at and wounded by some unknown person who fired at him through the window of his parlor on a recent evening. He will recover.

In the trial at Portland of Charles Elias Prescott for the murder of Henry Williams, the jury brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. The defence will probably file exceptions, which will delay his sentence until next summer.

Era Bishops of Fall River, Mass., a girl twelve years old, attempted to hurry up the fire with kerosene, when the can exploded, fatally burning her and badly injuring two other children.

Two men recently induced Jason Clark of Westhampton, Mass., seventy-one years old, to ride on a board between the axles of a lumber wagon, and then purposely drove fast to shake him off. He fell off and died in a few hours of concussion of the brain. The same trick had been played on the poor old man before.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of Nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

The fact of the Business is that Sulphur Baths have become unnecessary since the introduction of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, because that article answers the same purpose, viz., the removal of eruptions, rheumatism and gout. Sold by al Druggists.

HILL'S HAIR & WHISKER DYE, Black or Brown, 40 cents.

Thirty of the best organ makers of the world are competitors at the Paris Exposition. A cable despatch to the Associated Press says two highest gold medals have been awarded to the American makers, Mason & Hamlin.

Health is an inestimable jewel. The cough that deprives you of it may take your life too. One bottle of Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar will avert the evil, and save you from consumption. Will you weigh Life against a half-dollar? Sold by all Druggists. t oct 4

Bible Facts.

The learned Prince of Grenada, heir to the Spanish throne, imprisoned by order of the crown for fear he should aspire to the throne, was kept in solitary confinement in the old prison at the Place of Skulls, Madrid. After thirty-three years in this living tomb death came to his release, and the following remarkable researches taken from the Bible, and marked with an old nail on the rough walls of his cell, told how the brain sought employment through the weary years:

In the Bible the word Lord is found 1,853 times; the word Jehovah 6,855 times; and the word Reverend but once, and that in the 9th verse of the 111th Psalm. The eighth verse of the 117th Psalm is the middle verse of the Bible. The 9th verse of the 8th chapter of Esther is the longest verse; 35th verse, 11th chapter of St. John, is the shortest. In the 107th Psalm four verses are alike—the 8th, 15th, 21st and 31st. Each verse of the 136th Psalm ends alike. No names or words with more than six syllables are found in the Bible. The 37th chapter of Isaiah and 19th chapter of 2d Kings are alike. The word Girl occurs but once in the Bible, and that in the 3d verse and 3d chapter of Joel. There are found in both books of the Bible 3,566,483 letters, 773,-693 words, 31,373 verses, 1,179 chapters, and 66 books.

—"Love is an internal transport!" exclaimed an enthusiastic poet. "So is a canal boat," said a practical old forwarding merchant.

Established 1756.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of

$1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

$2 at the end of the year.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:

THE BLOCK SYSTEM, OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 8 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drugstore for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 162 pounds, and she feels better than she has spent in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known firm of Seth Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city twenty-five pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & FITZPATRICK, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Allan's Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a great remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., Proprs, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while administering its positive results in the special diseases incident to the system of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician and as a Christian and I ask it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. In conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from natural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all those diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every trace of contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread its good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is a remedy of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medicinal specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me its valuation.
HENRY WELLS, OF WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed the same high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. M. BOWEN, 237 Third St., NY. Agent.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 139 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. Therefore much thought it behoved me to tell it. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.

Daily Chronicle.

An Unpublished Incident of the Wagner Trial.

The Bangor Commercial of Sept. 23d publishes the following, which will be read with interest by many:

Max Fischacher, Esq., of Boston, was in this city (Bangor) on Saturday. Mr. Fischacher was counsel for the prisoner in the trial of Louis Wagner for the murder of two women at the Isles of Shoals in March, 1873. It will be remembered that after a prolonged trial in June of that year, the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Judge Barrows presided at the trial, which took place in Alfred, York county. Hon. H. M. Plaisted of this city (Bangor), was then Attorney General of the State and ably conducted the prosecution. Exceptions were filed but these were afterwards overruled. At the September term of court Judge Peters of this city sentenced him. The Governor and Council finally settled upon Feb. 26th, 1875, as the day for his execution. The Governor respited it till March 26th, and then again to June 26th. He was then executed, protesting his innocence. There have been many persons who believed in his innocence. We think, however, that all such fears may be allayed and that be simply received his just dues. We had the pleasure of an extended interview with Mr. Fischacher on this visit to our city. Mr. Fischacher declined to express an opinion in regard to the guilt or innocence of Wagner, "But," said he, "I will give you a little circumstance bearing on that question which did not come out in evidence. The theory of the government was that Wagner committed the deed about one o'clock on the morning of the sixth of March, and on his return from the islands that morning he landed at Newcastle and thence footed it into Portsmouth, three miles, crossing two or three bridges. The government claimed to identify him by several witnesses in Newcastle, and notably at the bridge which was partially destroyed and where Wagner crossed the chasm on a pole. The identification of Wagner at the bridge on his way back was the important point in the case, if not decisive of the issue. After Wagner's arrest and while in jail in Portsmouth he was confronted with every man, woman and child who claimed to have seen him that morning in Newcastle. Near the close of the trial," says Mr. Fischacher "I learned that one of those who was thus brought to identify Wagner expressed the opinion that he was not the man. The court adjourned Saturday noon to give me time to go to Portsmouth and look up this man. I found the man. He was John Lyons, who had testified in the case for the government to the effect that he saw Wagner just after he crossed the chasm on the bridge, that he spoke to him and asked him how he got across, described his clothing, etc. I asked Lyons to explain how it was that when brought to identify Wagner in Portsmouth jail that he said Wagner was not the man. Lyons replied that Wagner was the man, and that he knew he was when he saw him in jail but did not like to say so in Wagner's presence, but that he did say so to the officers as soon as they got out of the jail. 'Now,' said Lyons, 'I will tell you how you can satisfy yourself that Wagner was the man. When I saw him at the bridge I noticed there was a white spot on the buckle strap of his blue overalls. I noticed it particularly as he passed me, and I looked after him and remarked it to a friend a few moments after. Now if you will look at the overalls after you get back to Alfred, I have no doubt you will find the white spot.' So when I got back to Alfred," says Mr. Fischacher, "I examined the buckle strap, and sure enough there was the white spot just as Lyons had described it. I did not have Lyons recalled."

New Hampshire Items.

The Agricultural Society of Candia has voted to hold its annual fair October 4th Gov. Prescott, Gen. Natt Head, Hon. Albert Palmer of Boston and others have been invited. The procession will include, beside town teams, cavalry and infantry, probably.

Fred Q. Glidden, son of Wm. Glidden of Gorham, accidentally shot himself with a pistol on the evening of Sept. 25th, inflicting a fatal wound.

Brown's Band, twenty-three men, visited the summit of Mount Washington Wednesday, the first band ever on the mountain, and the first tune played was Keller's American hymn. The band accompanied an excursion party of nearly three hundred persons from Concord and vicinity.

The greenback State committee met in Manchester on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th. George E. Hodgdon of this city, chairman of the committee, presided, and John T. Hulme, secretary of the committee and editor of the Concord Patriot, was secretary of the meeting. The Boston Post's report says: "Arrangements were perfected for a thorough canvass of the State, including a large number of orators from Maine and other sections of the country! An animated discussion took place, during the protracted session, as to the proper method of conducting the campaign. A radical difference of opinion seems to exist among the leaders upon the question of nominating a straight greenback ticket for all officers, without reference to old party affiliations, while others seem desirous of presenting tickets to win. The prevailing sentiment is that of hostility to the republican party, though the leading spirits take pains to denounce both parties."

Keeping Paper Money at Par by "Fiat."

The greenbackers demand an issue of vast quantities of legal-tender irredeemable paper, to be "kept at its face value by act of the government." They do not demand that the earth should be turned around the other way, or the laws of gravity abrogated by act of the government, though one is as easy of accomplishment as the other. Butler, in his speech at Newburyport, talked as follows about that famous "fiat" money, the French assignats:

The French assignats were never money at all, but land bonds. That is to say, in the Revolution, the Revolutionary government confiscated the estates of the nobles, and they gave warrants, giving men titles to these lands, and they were passed from hand to hand as money, but were not money; they were not legal-tender for any debt. That is the test of money. If anything will buy at par and pay all debts, and is furnished by the government for that purpose, that is money.

Benjamin F. Butler is not a fool, and when he said the French assignats were "not legal tender for any debt" he must have willfully lied, for he must be cognizant of the facts. Not only were assignats receivable for all government dues, but such laws as the people of this country would not for a moment submit to were passed to keep the "fiat" paper "as good as gold." In legalizing the issue of eight hundred million francs of this paper, the assembly declared that all government debts should be paid in assignats. Afterward maximum laws were passed, ordering the sale of goods at a fixed price of this paper money. Still the assignats depreciated, and people bought gold at extravagant prices to hoard until better times. On April 11th, 1793, a new law was aimed at this practice, making it a felony, with a penalty of six years' imprisonment in irons, to sell or exchange specie for more than its nominal value in paper! Still later, to quote White, "In obedience to those who believed with the market-women of Paris, as stated in their famous petition, 'that laws should be passed making paper as good as gold,' Couthon, on August 1st, 1793, proposed and carried a law punishing any person who should sell assignats at less than their nominal value."

And yet Ben Butler says the assignats were not legal-tender! And in the face of the disastrous experience of France with her "fiat" assignats, of the American colonies with their "fiat" Continental money, and of the rebel Confederacy with its constantly depreciating and at last worthless paper currency, the greenbackers affect to believe—and we have no doubt many of them really do believe—that an act of Congress can create wealth, and keep an enormous and ever-increasing mass of worthless and irredeemable—worthless because irredeemable—paper money at par for its face value. France tried it; made it felony to demand for specie more than its face value in assignats, and a crime to sell assignats for less than their face value in specie; "the people" demanded laws that would "make paper as good as gold," and the assembly passed laws for that purpose; and still the paper went down in value. The fact is, Congress may pass fifty laws to enable a man to lift himself over a fence by tugging at his boot-straps, or to fall from the ground to the roof of a house, but he will not be able to do it after all.

News and Notes.

The United States steamer Enterprise, which has been surveying the Amazon river, arrived at New York Sept. 25th, from Para.

The Annapolis correspondence of the Baltimore Sun says that "hazing at the Naval Academy continues with unabated zeal on the part of the cadets, notwithstanding the authorities are using every precaution against the practice." The Baltimore American's correspondence of the same date, says: "There has been no hazing at the Naval Academy for a long time, and it is hoped that the evil practice has been broken up." We trust that the latter report is the true one.

Adolph Hausman, the New York German who married nine wives, has gone to State prison for eight years. He received a good thrashing from one of his wives in court, too, when on trial. He was glad to plead guilty in self defence.

Gen. Sheridan replies to Sitting Bull's requests: "We are not especially anxious about the Indians who went north coming back, but if they do come it must be on terms of unconditional surrender."

Frank Currier, a young man of West Gloucester, Mass., shot himself in the left side with a revolver Sept. 25th, because the girl he wanted would not accept him.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson of Fall River, Mass., twenty-eight years old, killed herself with poison Sept. 25th. She leaves a son eight years old, and a husband who left her eight years ago on account of her drunken habits.

Rev. H. H. Hayden, of Madison, Conn., after an examinating lasting nine days on a charge of murdering Mary Stannard, was discharged by the police justice. The State counsel declares that the justice ruled out the most important evidence, and that Hayden will be brought before the superior court on a bench warrant.

A disastrous collision has evidently occurred between two vessels in about lat. 44, lon. 59. Brig Como, Tooker, at Halifax Sept. 19th from London, reports that on the 17th she passed the bow and stern part of a vessel about three miles apart. It was apparently the wreck of a vessel of about 500 tons. The mast and fore yard were standing in the forward part of the vessel. Brig Wanderer, Lewis, at New York from Cork, reports that Sept. 13th she fell in with a large quantity of petroleum barrels; picked up forty-six of them, when the wind breezed up and obliged her to leave them; judged the number to be between 2500 and 3000; nothing was seen of the wreck but a piece of one deck beam about twelve feet long, broken short off at both ends, showing the appearance of a collision. Barque Sarah H. Smith, at Delaware Breakwater from London, reports that Sept. 10th she picked up four barrels of petroleum, (in lat. 42, lon. 53;) also passed about 300 barrels, and large pieces of floating wreck.

The Mexican Government has ordered the troops at Monterey to the Rio Grande frontier, and 5000 re-enforcements are en route to the border. Thirty thousand dollars have been appropriated to meet the expense of mobilizing this force. Gen. Navarre is to command.

The yellow fever plague is still increasing in violence, and spreading further back from the rivers. At Lake and Lawrence, Miss., the fever is very bad, and also at Thibordeaux and Baton Rouge, La. Improvement is reported from Canton, Miss., where the ratio of deaths is decreasing. In Memphis the applications for aid increase daily, but the authorities report no more pecuniary aid needed from outside at present; the disease continues to spread, but the death rate is less than heretofore. The fever is very bad at Southwest Pass and Bay St. Louis, La. From Vicksburg and New Orleans comes the old story—no hope of the disease abating until after heavy frosts.

On the night of Sept. 24th George B. Browning of Rutland, Vt., was robbed on the highway and probably fatally injured. On the 25th Wm. H. Main of Rutland sold Browning's watch, bought a wedding ring and was married. On the 26th Main was arrested and held in $10,000 for highway robbery with violence.

A short time ago three servant girls discharged from Narragansett Pier for disorderly conduct, took passage at Stonington in the steamer Narragansett for New York. On the passage they became drunk and riotous, and the captain felt compelled to lock them up. Now one of the girls has sued the captain for false imprisonment.

The Paris Patrie says the difficulties between France, England and the United States, relative to the Newfoundland fisheries, have been arranged. The three cabinets are now drawing up a convention which will obviate all future disagreements.

The Washington Monument Commission has informally approved Col. Casey's plan for strengthening the foundation, but referred to the Attorney General the question whether the plan would necessitate a greater expense than the $36,000 appropriated to the purpose. Any of the appropriation for completing the monument can be expended on its base.

The leading articles in the Sanitarian (the organ of the American Medico-Legal Society) for October are "Sunlight and solarization in health and disease," and "The relations between sewer gas and diphtheria," both of special value. Published by A. N. Bell, 47 Lafayette place, New York city; $3 a year, in advance; twenty cents a number.

Political.

Howe Call, Esq., is certainly right in saying that his old party, the democratic, is playing the "good Lord, good devil" dodge on the financial question, and trying to be all things to all men, while the republican party has taken the open stand against inflation and repudiation which even hard-money democrats, with a few honorable exceptions, have not dared to take.

Wade Hampton, the de facto governor of South Carolina, tells Gov. Rice of Massachusetts that he lies when he intimates that the object of procuring the indictment of Kimpton was not for the purpose of trying him. If the "great and good Hampton" had not so persistently lied himself about the securing to South Carolina republicans of their political rights, his high-flown bounce might have more effect.

Tilden and the hard-money democracy of New York received a black eye on Wednesday, when the democratic State convention met and was captured by Tammany hall.

The democratic party of Connecticut, like their brethren of Maine and New Hampshire, and most of their party in Massachusetts, have surrendered to the greenbackers. The democratic convention in the third district of Connecticut on the 25th inst. nominated for Congress Charles W. Carter, the greenback candidate from that district.

The Washington Republican gives an account of Ben. Butler's bonds at the Treasury. After reciting the circumstances that called forth Butler's tricky letter, it says: In this letter he said he had given permission to the Register of the Treasury to exhibit the books to the writer of the article aforesaid on condition that his (the writer's) ears should be cut off if Butler's name did not appear on the list of bondholders. The gentleman who wrote the article, not wishing to run the risk of losing so valuable an appendage as his ears, and perhaps convinced by Butler's bombast, did not avail himself of the offer. It now appears that the Register of the Treasury has received no such permission from Gen. Butler, although, if it is given, he will have no objection to comply, and it is reported round the Treasury that the examination can be made in perfect confidence that the ears will not be cut off.

The New York Tribune says "There is nothing mean about Wade Hampton. He assured the South Carolina negroes that he will never oppose universal suffrage so long as it gives the South thirty-five more members of Congress and thirty-five more votes in the Electoral College than would otherwise belong to it. And he might have added, so long as colored men can be rifle-clubbed into voting the democratic ticket."

Blaine's patent, back-action greenback is an improvement on Butler's. It has $100 printed on one side and $1 on the other. If you owe a man $100, you are careful to give it to him that side up, but for small transactions the $1 side is used. Place open barrels full of these in all the public squares, where everybody could help themselves.

In war time, when greenbacks were issued to pay for putting down the rebellion, democrats predicted that they would not be worth the paper on which they were printed. Now that greenbacks are about as good as gold, made so by republican management, the democrats claim it as their currency, and want more of it. They want to see old prophecy fulfilled.—Iowa State Register.

If, as Butler says, the Continental money "wiped itself out of existence without anybody being the loser," the counterpart of the statement is equally true, that nobody was the gainer. The equation would thus run—nothing equals nothing, and nothing is the result. That is not the kind of currency the General deals in himself, by a long shot.—Boston Post.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

One hundred and twelve excursion tickets for the trip to Fabyan's and return were sold at the Eastern railroad depot in this city on Wednesday. On the same day ninety-five similar tickets were sold in Dover.

Schooner Eva C. Yates, bound from Baltimore for this port with coal, was towed into Edgartown Sept. 24th by the revenue cutter Gallatin, having been aground on Hawes shoal, from which she was towed off by the Gallatin.

The brick-laden schooner that grounded up the river, Wednesday, went on Landstaff rocks at or very near high water. On Thursday she was lying in a bad position, and it was supposed her bottom was crushed in and that she is damaged beyond repair.

The schooner Unison, of this port, which has been lying idle at her wharf for many months past, is now being fitted out for business. See will take a load of brick to Bangor, and load there for a southern port. She is to be commanded by Capt. Amee, of Kittery.

In a letter from Mayor E. G. Wall of Jackson, Miss., to Capt. W. Q. Lowd, now on a visit to this city, he announced the absolute freedom of that city from yellow fever up to the date of writing, while drawing a terrible picture of the suffering in other cities. He says: "The north and west have come nobly up to the assistance of our suffering people, and such acts of grand charity are building up in the heart of the south a monument of gratitude that will endure forever."

Some persons in this vicinity, among whom we are not and never have been included, have held to the belief that Louis Wagner was not guilty of the crime for which he was hung; and the firm belief of his counsel, Max Fischacher, Esq., of Boston, in his innocence, has been often advanced by them in support of the theory that Wagner not a brutal, cowardly wretch who murdered two poor women from whom he had received only kindness. Such persons will find in another place in this paper something that may interest them.

A canoe with two men aboard, and rigged with a jib, lug sail and three-cornered spanker, capsized off Newcastle Thursday afternoon when bound down the river, on the way to Boston it is said. The canoeists got astride their craft and shouted lustily, and a boat from the fishing schooner H. C. Baker of Gloucester picked up the men, Mr. Joseph Amazeen of Newcastle righting the cockle-shell and bailing her out. Boats enough put off from Newcastle and the fishing schooners to take off the crew of a line-of-battle ship, and two pleasure-boats from this city also bore down to lend a hand, but their aid was not required.

Col. Nat. Wiggin, of Greenland, on Thursday laid on our desk a bunch of Black Hamburg grapes weighing a pound, fair, smooth and sweet. We ate them, found them delicious, and then recollected that the Colonel is a candidate for Railroad Commissioner on the greenback ticket. People may draw their own inference, but we feel bound to say that in addition to the grapes, which we accepted and have disposed of, our greenback friend promised us that if we vote his ticket and he secures an election, he will see to it that we are allowed free passage over any railroad in the State for which we purchase a ticket. We have the offer under consideration.

GOOD FOR THE FORCE.

The Times of Tuesday evening says:

The night watchmen have seized, of late, a collection of boxes left out on the sidewalks and on the curbstones over night by merchants to the hazard of public travel, and have stored the same in the rear of the station house. Some storekeepers have expressed indignation at this action of the police, but as they act under orders and it is the intention of the authorities to break up this all too-common and needless practice, the public, we think, will sustain the force.

We have no doubt the public will sustain the force in doing their duty in this direction, for the custom of leaving boxes out at night to block up the sidewalks and impede public travel, as has long been the fashion with many storekeepers, is a nuisance. We have more than once called attention to this abuse, and have within a year published several communications from citizens complaining that the city authorities allowed the sidewalks to be thus converted into storehouses for rubbish, instead of maintaining them as public ways. It is bad enough to have them half-blocked-up all day, but it probably helps trade, and it is not difficult to thread one's way through the obstructions so long as daylight lasts; after dark that which is but annoyance during the day becomes a menace to life and limb, and it is a wonder that the city has not ere this had a round bill of damages to pay for some accident caused by those needless obstructions to travel. We well know one man who brought up all standing when going home one dark night, against a dry goods box that took up about two-fifths of the sidewalk; his raiment was torn and his knee scarred by a nail, and his temper ruffled; so he pitched the big box into the middle of the street, and then on reflecting that some unoffending horse might break his legs or neck over it, rolled it back into the gutter again; finally he saw a small Irish boy to whom he generously made a present of the box, also giving him three others that were ranged on the sidewalk, and none of those boxes ever bothered anybody any more. It is the plain duty of the police to keep the sidewalks clear, and they can easily keep them clear of boxes at night by confiscating any they may find exposed. Keep on in the good work, officers; you are certainly "acting under orders," for the municipal ordinances plainly prohibit such infringement on the rights of the citizens.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

Petition of John J. Pickering for sidewalk in front of his residence on Middle street was referred to committee on streets with power.

Thomas Murphy's request for leave to open Linden street for purpose of laying drain was referred to committee on drains with power.

Moses H. Goodrich's request for leave to encumber corner of Market and Hanover streets for purpose of repairing building was granted.

William H. Kennison's request for leave to encumber corner of Chestnut and Warren streets was granted.

Petition of Charles E. Boynton for sidewalk in front of his residence on Adams street was referred to committee on streets with power.

Fire Department pay roll ($1,485.55) was ordered to be paid.

Mayor Sise reported that he had consummated the bargain with Mr. Barnard for the purchase of south mill pond and had paid him one hundred dollars.

Committee on drains' recommendation that Cabot street drain be extended to culvert under railroad track was adopted.

Committee on city land and buildings recommended that the city pay $75 per annum for rent of room for volunteer City Missionary Loyne, and the same was adopted.

Same committee was empowered to make necessary repairs on Elm street ward room.

The subject of granite track in front of Dearborn engine house on Hanover street was referred to committee on streets with power.

The widening of the gate at Hanover street reservoir was referred to committee on city land and buildings with power.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Sept. 26; Batchelder, J.

George W. Brown, drunk, $9.90, fine and costs; Brentwood in default.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Hon. Frank Jones has received the following letter, which explains itself:

MEMPHIS, Sept. 19th.

Dear Sir: A light attack of the fever confining me to my bed for the past ten days has prevented an earlier acknowledgment of the receipt of your favor of the 12th inst. enclosing draft for $1000 for the relief of our yellow fever sufferers. For this generous contribution to aid us in our calamity, I tender my own and the grateful thanks of our afflicted people. Your friend, CASEY YOUNG.

THE VICINITY.

Dover's greenback club is oficered as follows: George F. Woodes, president; F. A. Lunt, secretary; H. F. Barnard, treasurer.

The dwelling of Henry Brooks, at Kennebunk, was burned with all its contents on the afternoon of Sept. 25th. Insurance $1000; loss not reported.

Sportsmen living at the upper part of Eliot have had some fine pigeon shooting lately. George Leighton, Jr., shot seventeen in one day, getting eight of them at one shot.

Rev. James DeNormandie will preach at Eliot next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 29th, at which time there will be a collection taken in aid of the suffering people at the south.

In the democratic county convention at Epping Andrew J. Hoyt of Exeter, editor of the late Greenback Lever, received eight votes for register of probate. For register of deeds Frank W. Rand of this city received forty-seven votes out of a total of fifty-five, and the nomination was made unanimous.

E. H. Gove of Biddeford, the greenback candidate for Congress in the 1st district of Maine during the recent campaign, is now spoken of as a candidate for Secretary of State before the Maine legislature.

The merchants of Biddeford and Saco gave their annual clam-bake at Fortune's rocks, near Old Orchard beach, Wednesday, Sept. 25th, on the grounds of Hon. Ferguson Haines. A large number of invited guests attended.

Josie E. Thompson and Gracie Seavey, two little girls of Dover, gave a parlor exhibition of tableaux in aid of the yellow fever sufferers, and as a result turned over ninety cents to the treasurer of the relief committee.

Mr. Ira C. Stevens, a graduate of the Portsmouth high school, class of '77, left this city Wednesday morning for San Antonio, Texas, where he will probably make his home. Mr. Stevens is a young man of good abilities and excellent character, and all who know him will hope that he may achieve success—as with his energy and readiness to work there is no doubt he will do, for in the new country to which he has gone such qualities are just what is needed in new settlers, the older ones not being overburthened with them. It will be remembered that Mr. Stevens lost a joint from one of his fingers some weeks ago, by getting it jammed while coupling cars on the Concord railroad, where he was then employed; that finished his railroading, and as soon as his hurt was healed he made ready for his start to the southwest.

George L. Wentworth, a lawyer of Salmon Falls, was brought before the Dover police court on Tuesday of this week, on the charge of stealing and destroying a warrant issued by E. S. Nowell, Esq., of Rollinsford, against one Timothy Collins, for drunkenness, sworn out by Lafayette Ricker. It appears that Collins had been arrested on the warrant referred to and was before Justice of the Peace Nowell for trial. Wentworth put in his appearance as counsel for Collins, and after the case was opened he took the warrant and put it in his pocket. At the close of the trial the justice wanted the warrant to make a record upon, and Wentwort denied that he had it. On being pressed for it he took it from his pocket and tore it in pieces before the eyes of the justice. He was taken to Dover to answer, and the police court ordered him to give $400 bonds for his appearance before the Supreme Court next February. We believe the penalty for this offence is from one to five years' imprisonment.

—A speech from the thrown—"I'll never ride horse-back again."

—"Fiat money," say the greenback schools. Fie at them! do they think us all fools?

Environed With Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely nullifies the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma-tainted water. This benign antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, besides effecting a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded.

It is very safe to say that the most fastidious guest never leaves the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., dissatisfied with his visit to that famous hostelry.

In the United States District Court at Portland, Sept. 24th, the suit of the widow of Joseph L. Clement of Brownfield against the Travellers Insurance Co., for $5000, the amount of an accident policy on his life, was brought to a sudden standstill by an affidavit from the mother and sister of Clement that he was not drowned in 1871 in Saco river as was alleged, but that he hid in the woods and then escaped to Blue Earth, Minn.; that his mother lived there with him until last year, when he went to the Black Hills. The wife never knew that he was not drowned as alleged, and brought suit in good faith. She had failed in a similar suit against the Economical Company, there being three policies of $5000.

Officers at Pittsfield, Mass., have captured a gang of thieves who have been preying on hen roosts and clothes lines all summer. The principal is George Fuller while three or four of his relatives, including his father, brother and one female are implicated. Monday night they were out on a raid, and stole chickens from three places, but were tracked next morning, and on searching the house a whole week's washing, just stolen, was found, besides goods that have been missing from several families for weeks, and turkeys and other fowl stolen in the past month. The parties are all under arrest, and are giving the officers full information, each trying to save himself by turning State's evidence.

Mrs. Lydia M. Upson, a well-known and hitherto respected dressmaker of Waterbury, Conn., has been detected in shop lifting, and an examination of her room has brought to light a large number of articles stolen from different stores in the city, some of the thefts dating back four years.

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in recognance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It sets on the food in the stomach, preventing its accumulation into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 5 to 10 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so delighted over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottle have reduced her weight from 185 pounds to 152 pounds, since she began the improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston says: "Without spending hours of fatiguing exercise, or adhering to any special diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." Mr. Velleman, of Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., writes as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWLE & PLAMPERIN, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I feel I never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a good remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while wholly relying for positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, adapted it as to the chance of crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who makes trial of one of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhea, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Intermittent, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Irritability, Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a science of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.25. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every known contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been walled upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, to considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me in valuable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have spoken to me in the highest estimate of its value and good effects with them
WM. BOWEN, 228 Pine St., St. Louis.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG,
159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly two years and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it caused to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Nasal Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. WORKING BOTH WAYS.

A TALE FROM REAL LIFE.

When Horatio Flipper and his bosom friend Josiah Clemmens, on the same day, in the same church, married Augusta Jones and her dearest friend, Anathusia Lawton, a contract was made between the two couples—a contract entirely independent of that which in the eye of the law they had made when each answered "I will," in reply to the somewhat inquisitive question put by the clergyman in regard to their future intentions as to supporting, loving and honoring each other. It was this: They bound themselves that if one family had a son and the other a daughter, that son and daughter, when they had arrived at a proper age, should become man and wife. The was nothing novel or original in such an agreement; if there had been, the parties to the contract would never have made it, for they were neither novel or original in any thing—they were simply maudlin with romance, and this covenant was merely the effect of which a strict attention to novels, love tales and plays was the cause.

So much by way of prologue. Now for our story.

Flipper and Clemmens had died full of years and gout and rheumatism, and left each a large fortune to his wife. They had each left, as well, a child—Flipper a daughter named Kitty, Clemmens a son named Richard, otherwise Dick. The old men had forgotten, long before their deaths, all about their agreement on their wedding-day, but not so much with the mothers. They had been in correspondence for the last five years about nothing else. The children had now reached their majority, and the mothers were anxious for the consummation of the plan.

"Mother," said Dick, at the breakfast-table "there is no use in urging that girl Kitty's suit, for I will never marry her."

"How do you know, my son? You have not seen her for twelve years, and you might be delighted with her," returned Mrs. Clemmens, coaxingly.

"I know I shouldn't," Dick said. "She was a red-headed abomination when she was a child, and I'm certain she's the same now."

"O, Richard!"

"Even if she was as handsome as Hebe, I wouldn't marry her. I'd feel disgusted the moment I met her, and so would she, if she had any sense. We'd be introduced, we'd look at each other, and say to ourselves, 'And this is the person I've got to marry,' and then we would hate each other."

"Well, it seems to me, Dick, that you might at least wait until you do see each other, before you make up your mind. This is too bad," whined Mrs. Clemmens, wiping her eyes with a napkin, and not discovering her mistake until she rubbed some mustard into her blue orbs, which occasioned the use of her handkerchief for a long space—"just when I thought I had such good news for you."

"What is the news?"

"She's coming here."

"Who, Kitty Flipper?"

"Yes. I received a letter this morning from her mother, saying Kitty would start in a day or two."

"O, my!" groaned Dick. "You must stop her," he said seriously. "If she comes, I go. I know my self, she'll be; a little stuck-up minx, full of the French airs she acquired by studying abroad for twelve years. She'll say, 'Mon Dieu,' and 'ma foi,' and she'll talk about her naïvete and her gaucherie and her chic; she'll speak bad French in the present tense, indicative mood, of the first conjugation, and she'll commence all her questions with 'Esker,' and then stick like the young man at the Venetianings' party. I shan't see her, that's settled. Write to Mrs. Flipper (mellifluous appellation!) and say we are going on a visit, and we don't know when we will return; or, better, go to town, see Mrs. Flipper, explain openly that I will never marry a Frenchified wax-doll, but that I want a wife who knows how to keep a house in order, can cook, preserve, sweep, bake, darn, sew, mend, dust, and as the advertisements say, make herself generally useful. In short, a woman like my respected ma; and, so that you may kill two birds with one stone, find a cook who can cook, and fetch her back with you."

An idea seemed to strike Mrs. Clemmens, and she answered gaily, "Well, Dick, every thing is for the best. If you won't marry her, you won't, so I'll do as you say."

After breakfast she made a hurried toilet, and took the first train for the city. Toward evening she returned with as pretty a little piece of femininity as Dick had ever seen withal. The dainty, curly-haired little woman straightway went to the kitchen, and then Mrs. Clemmens informed her son that she made matters all right with Mrs. Flippers, and that the pretty conglomeration of muslin, curls, pink and white was a new cook she had engaged.

"Ah!" cries the intelligent reader, "you can't deceive us; the pink and white little cook is Kitty Flipper, and the three women have formed a plan to catch Dick unawares." And the intelligent readers are correct, but we vow and declare that we never had any intention of shrouding the dear girl in mystery and practicing deception. If we had—but this is egotism, and we digress. With the advent of the new cook came luxuries such as had never been seen on the Clemmens' table before. The cuisine (as Dick's Kitty Flipper might say) was perfect. Richard's stockings were mended so neatly that an old pair of socks were better than a new pair. His shirts, too, were washed and ironed so perfectly that their whiteness and gloss caused envy in the bosoms of all his male friends.

But another change had been effected by the cook. The pink-and-white young lady, whom the hottest fire never made red and white, was accustomed to take a seat in the sitting-room in the evening and attend to her sewing—the kitchen being locked up—to save gas, Mrs. Clemmens said, and Dick remained home at nights, something unusual for him.

In fact, Dick was in love with the cook, and he found a hundred excuses a day to go to the kitchen and have a word or two with the curly-headed little woman.

At first she was very cool to him, but gradually, as she saw his respect increase with his love, the ice of her reserve began to melt under the warmth of his passion, and the young man was correspondingly happy.

Perhaps there were no conferences, with comparing notes, between the cook and her mistress when our gentleman took his afternoon walk! O, no—of course not—why should there be?

At length Dick found himself so entangled in the net of love that nothing but marriage would free him; so he entered the kitchen one afternoon, and, with a preamble proposed marriage.

And here is where we triumph over the intelligent reader, who says, "I knew how it would be—she accepted him, they were married, the fraud was exposed, and they lived happily evermore."

Wrong, O, intelligent reader!

"Will you marry me?" said he.

"No, I will not," she answered.

"Why?"

"I'm a cook and you're a gentleman."

"You're a lady as well as a cook, and fit to be a gentleman's wife."

"I dare say I am, but I don't want to be a cook all my life."

"Then marry me."

"And work to support you?"

"Why, my dear, I'm rich!"

"You mean your mother is."

"Well, she would deny me nothing."

"I don't know about that. You don't know how she'd act if you married her cook. Besides, I've no fancy for a man who can't support himself and his wife without help from his mother. I understand you, Dick, and I admit that I love you."

"My darling?" he cried, embracing her.

"There, now, stop. You wouldn't marry a wax doll of a girl who couldn't keep a house in order, cook, carve, preserve, darn, mend, sew, dust and sweep. I heard you say so."

"That is true," ruefully remarked Dick.

"Well, I will not marry a man who cannot support me by his own labor. I don't want a clubhouse swell or a lardy-tardy man of society for a husband; I want a real man, a hard-fisted workman, who can knock down a giant if he insults me. A good honest son of toil, one whom I'll be proud to point out as my husband, and on whose shoulder I can lean my head, and confident of his strong love, know no fear in the world."

"What do you want me to do, my darling?"

"Learn a trade; be a man, an independent man. When you have earned enough money to buy a set of furniture and can show me that you are able to support me, I'll say, 'Dick, my boy, I'm yours.'"

"I'll do it," cried Dick.

Next day, without a word of opposition from his mother, which he thought rather strange, he left home, went to the city, and made arrangements with a friend of his, a carpenter and builder, to learn a trade.

Dick was a natural mechanic. No workman was ever needed at home; he mended everything. There was no tool he couldn't use, and therefore at the end of six months there was not a journeyman in the shop that could compare with him for elegant work. Then he rented a little shop, and set up for himself.

Strange to say his first order came from the widow Flipper to thoroughly repair three of her houses. Of course little pink-and-white had nothing to with this.

Mrs. Flipper recommended him to all her property-owning friends. His business increased most wonderfully. Item: His work was always well done.

At the end of the year he had a really good business.

Then he went home one Saturday night, with a bank book and a plain gold ring in his pocket. He went in the kitchen way; there was no one there.

On his way up stairs he met his mother. Embraces followed, and he asked:

"Where's Kate?"

We have hitherto neglected to mention that the cook's name was Kate.

"Not in," answered Mrs. Clemmens; "but Kitty Flipper is up stairs; come up and be presented."

"Hang Kitty Flipper!"

"There need be no embarrassment, Dick; she's engaged."

"Oh, she is, eh? Well, come along."

"Miss Flipper, my son," said Mrs. Clemmens, presenting him.

Dick looked up.

"What he yelled, looking at the lady. "Kate, by Jupiter! what does this mean?"

"I'm Kitty Flipper and Kate the cook, too. I tried you, my dear, and you've proved yourself my ideal of a man. Take me, if you will, my darling."

And he did take her, while the mother discreetly looked out of the window and thought of her youth.

"And you were all in the plot against me eh?" asked he.

"Yes," exclaimed the ladies, half frightened now they were found out.

"Well, I'm glad of it. Kate, you've made a man of me. I insisted on my wife being a worker, and it's a poor rule that won't work both ways."

Three days after the little village church—but phaw! the intelligent reader can guess the rest.

The Passions of the Fishes.

That fishes manifest anger, fear, and other passions is insisted on by Rev. S. J. Whitmee in the Proceedings of the Zoological Society of London. His observations were made in Samoa, where he kept the native fishes in aquaria, and watched their quarrels, which are by no means infrequent among the individuals of the same species, and constantly occur between different species and genera, the signs of anger being obvious, especially as seen in the movements of the fins and spines. Under the influence of great anger or fear the dorsal fin is raised to its extreme height, and the spines both of the dorsal and anal fins are very prominent. Besides this the scales all over the body are raised, so that the fish looks larger than when its mind is unruffled. The spines are used for defense, and as they are pointed backward, predaceous fishes swimming after them less easily swallow them, and this is probably the chief if not sole use of the spines. The slow-swimming Diodon and Tetradon, covered with spines, are thus protected. These views are in the main confirmed by Dr. Day in the same Proceedings.—Harper's for October.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

Senatorial.

Portsmouth District — consisting of Wards One, Two and Four of the city of Portsmouth—at the Court House in Portsmouth, Tuesday, Oct. 1st, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

New York Conventions.

The Republican State Convention of New York nominated George F. Danforth for judge of the court of appeals. Senator Conking was chosen temporary chairman and permanent president of the convention, and made an able speech in which he earnestly counselled harmony in the party, which was heartily applauded. The platform was outspoken for honest money and the equal rights of all citizens, and on motion of George William Curtis was unanimously adopted with tremendous cheering. There is to be no "administration" or "anti-administration" party among the republicans of New York during this campaign.

The Democratic State Convention of New York nominated George B. Bradley for judge of the court of appeals. The platform adopted declared for "gold and silver coin, and paper convertible into coin at the will of the holder," as "the only currency of the country."

Political.

The greenbackers of the second district of New Hampshire on Thursday nominated C. A. Sulloway for Congress.

The republicans of the fourth district of Alabama have nominated Jere Haralson, colored, for Congress.

News and Notes.

A terrific hurricane is reported in the West Indies.

Edward Henry of South Hadley, Mass., a boy of twelve years, is dead from the effects of a blow from a base ball which struck him in the spine.

At Farmington, Me., Thursday, the jury in the case of Hannah Holly vs. George Manter, for breach of promise of marriage, returned a verdict of $1500 for the plaintiff.

William Leach of Newark, N. J., on Thursday assaulted his son-in-law, Chas. R. Rivers, and was fatally shot by the latter.

There was a remarkable scene in court at Johnstown, N. Y., Thursday. Frederick W. Stevens of Gloversville, who fled June 26th, 1876, having committed forgeries to an amount exceeding $100,000, returned and voluntarily delivered himself up, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to two years in prison. That is at the rate of $50,000 a year—very good pay. Had he stolen an old coat or a tendollar bill he might have been sentenced for ten years.

An entire family in Washington, D. C., consisting of the father and mother, two sons and three daughters, were brutally murdered at an early hour Thursday morning, and their bodies shockingly mutilated. The family were very poor, though temperate and industrious, and the motive for the atrocious crime is unknown.

Thomas Harland, of New York city, one of Samuel J. Tilden's attorneys in the income-tax suit, has been arrested for complicity in the forcible removal from Commissioner Maynard's court in Marquette, Mich., of the books of the iron mine company which showed that Tilden's income from the iron mine alone, during the time for which he refused to make any return of his income, was over $1,000,000.

In the town of Jamaica, Vt., where the population is all American except one family, there are 112 families that never attend church and fourteen families were found destitute of the Bible.

James A. Hamilton, son of Alexander Hamilton, died Sept. 24th at his country seat near Irvington, N. Y., in his 91st year.

Mrs. Henrietta Brown, colored, of Providence, R. I., died Sept. 22d, aged 107 years. Maria Little, who it is claimed is 116 years old, is still living in another part of the State.

The Lancaster house at Lancaster was burned Friday morning. Loss not stated; insurance $14,000.

—Wives should always sit up for their husbands, instead of getting their servants to do so. It makes two hours difference in their arrival.

—A wedding party at Evansville, Ky., was recently interrupted by the entrance of a bailiff, who came to levy an attachment on the goods of the bride, a dashing widow, who had lost a suit in which she was defendant. The officer didn't know that a wedding was in progress, but the bridegroom bade him proceed about his business, the bride helped him collect the goods—the family cow being even included in the levy—and he was then invited to take a glass of wine to the couple's health and happiness, which he did with an unruffled demeanor. Then he left and the festivities went on.

—Virginia City, Nevada, has an ice-cream peddler who drives his team about the street, and whenever he blows his horn half a dozen people rush out with bowls, only to find him driving off at a dead gallop a block away. The horse runs like a deer the instant the horn toots, and if the horn isn't tooted no customers come out. The play of expression on the man's face as he looks over his shoulder and sees a lot of women waving their hands, while his horse, regardless of his pulls and shrieks, is widening the distance by long leaps is described as extremely pleasant.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

Mr. Stephen W. Clarke will resume his duties as principal of the high school on Monday.

Auction sale of brick store and dwelling Nos. 14 and 16 Water street at noon to-day. See advertisement.

The U. S. S. Kearsarge was taken into the dry dock at the navy yard on Friday. She is to be thoroughly overhauled, and put in condition for sea service as soon as possible.

Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad stock sold in Boston on Friday at the brokers' board, at $88 per share; and Eastern railroad stock at $14. For Eastern railroad in New Hampshire, $65 was bid at auction.

Miss Helene Freeman, the little lady who walked in Franklin hall some weeks since, on Thursday evening last walked twenty-five miles in the Academy of Music at Fall River, Mass., in four hours, fifty-eight minutes and twenty-two seconds, which is said to be the quickest time ever made by any female pedestrian.

Hon. William P. Frye of Maine, an able and eloquent speaker, who has just been re-elected to Congress, will speak seven times in this State during the campaign, on the currency question. It was intended that he should have delivered one address in this city, on Thursday evening of next week, but a suitable hall could not be procured.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture in Music hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 8th, on "Unscrupulous women." Mrs. Livermore is one of the ablest and most fearless speakers on the American platform, and those who wish to make the acquaintance of "unscrupulous women" will find it safer and more pleasing to do so through the medium of Mrs. Livermore's lecture than in any other way.

Monday is "railroad day" on the Eastern railroad, when hundreds of Portsmouth people will go to Boston, and carry with them thousands of dollars with which to purchase goods that can be in almost every case as cheaply procured in this city, and of as good a quality. Only holders of certificates of the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts will be carried free—Eastern in New Hampshire won't answer. See advertisement.

A steamer arrived at Montevideo from Sandy Point, Straits of Magellan, Aug. 16th, had on board the entire crew of the British ship Kate Kellock with the exception of the captain and chief mate, the latter of whom was left aboard the ship at Sandy Point, both his legs having been broken when the ship was dismasted. No other person was seriously injured. Capt. Ricker and his wife and child also remained on board. Arrangements were being made with a German steamer to tow the ship to Valparaiso.

The U. S. S. Powhatan, flag-ship of Rear-Admiral John C. Howell, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, arrived in the lower harbor Friday. She left Brooklyn navy yard Tuesday morning, anchoring at Sandy Hook, where she remained until Wednesday morning, when she sailed for this port. The trip was made in about forty-eight hours, under steam alone. She took a pilot off White island light at half-past eight o'clock Friday morning, and came to anchor at about half-past nine. No incident worthy special mention occurred during the trip.

Col. John B. Clarke of the Manchester Mirror proposes to get up a new city directory and business index of Manchester. A good idea this. We have often thought as we have noticed the many omissions and blunders of the foreign canvasser for out-of-town publishers that this metropolitan process of publishing in Boston directories and business registers for our cities and the State of New Hampshire was a misfortune. One of these days in the far off sweet by-and-by accurate directories will be perhaps the only source of information for many seekers, while for present use an imperfectly prepared publication is worse than none. Let the State printer keep on in his good work. We endorse all that Ex-Gov. Straw and the leading citizens of Manchester say as to their preference for home enterprise, especially in a field where local publishers can best appreciate local wants and local matters that should appear in a publication like this. In olden times all the directories of Portsmouth were canvassed for, printed, published and sold by our people at home. This is the correct thing to repeat.

THE VICINITY.

The total receipts of the Eastern railroad in Hampton for the months of July and August footed up $3600.

Mr. Charles Bryant, of Great Falls, is about opening a store at York village, in the new building erected by Mr. John P. Grant.

A shark nine feet long was caught off Hampton beach on Wednesday afternoon by Henry French, and taken into Newburyport.

The Grand Army Post of Great Falls has sent $25 to one of the Posts in New Orleans, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers.

The First Congregational parish of York has purchased a new hearse manufactured by the convicts of Maine State prison, under Warden Rice, at a cost of $250.

There are one hundred and ninety-three persons and firms in Biddeford who pay $50 and upwards in taxes, the Pepperell manufactory being the largest, $24,747.39; Laconia company next, $19,305.

One night recently some thief or thieves entered the garden of Joseph A. Hall of Saco, and gathered all his grapes. Mr. Hall had three varieties, and a large quantity of each, but the thieves did not leave a single bunch for the owner.

Orrin Goodwin and James Stackpole, of Wells, Me., who were arrested in this city some months ago for breaking into and robbing Getchell's store and post-office at Wells, have been sent to the State prison in Maine for three years.

William Gillespie, of Biddeford, who has been at work in Canada for several weeks, was found murdered not far from Montreal on the night of Sept. 23d. He leaves a wife whom he married in Biddeford about a year ago, and who is now lying ill in that city.

The greenback club of Great Falls has permanently organized with Alonzo Davis as president, William H. Boyles as secretary, and Samuel S. Wentworth as treasurer. James A. Edgerly, the prominent prohibition lawyer of Great Falls, is one of the vice presidents.

The grand jury at Alfred, Me., reported Sept. 25th. The principal indictment is one against Benjamin Peirce of Wells for assault with intent to kill on his son-in-law, Samuel Houston of Wells, on the 20th of May. Several liquor sellers were indicted; also Nahum Bennett of Sanford, for an aggravated assault on Charles O. Emery of the same town.

John Philbrick, Esq., of Seabrook, now upwards of ninety years of age, has within a short time joined three couples in marriage; the license having been given them by his son, John T. Philbrick, who resides in the house with his father. The old gentleman can tie the wedding knot as securely as anybody, notwithstanding his advanced age.

A gentleman who delivered a temperance lecture in Great Falls on a recent Sunday evening, had the following described kind of an audience, according to the Journal of that town: "The audience was hardly as polite as it should have been, many persons leaving during the speaking and causing annoyance. The announcement of a collection at the close of the lecture started what was left of it, and it departed with more alacrity than dignity."

Burglars entered the clothing store of N. T. Boothby of Saco on the night of Sept. 24th, by bending the iron rods protecting a cellar window sufficiently to allow a man to get in, and then cutting a hole through a door leading to the store and pushing back the bolt which secured it. Several pairs of pants, a number of vests and a small amount of money were stolen, the thieves leaving the store through the back door, which they left open. The store was left brilliantly lighted all night by the proprietor. About a year ago the same store was raided upon, entrance being gained in the same manner as on this occasion.

OLIVIA.

After a semi-famine of first-class theatrical performances our citizens are next week to have a genuine treat in the presentation, by Miss Fanny Davenport and a full company, of Mr. Wills' great play "Olivia," the dramatic version of Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield" which had such an extended run in London and New York. Miss Davenport is one of the most powerful actresses of the modern stage, and her support is the same she had at the Union square theatre in New York. Even the merciless dramatic critic of the Tribune had only words of praise for this play and Miss Davenport's rendering of the title role, so we feel safe in promising more than satisfaction to all who visit Music hall next Friday evening.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Environed With Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely nullifies the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma tainted water. This benign antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, besides effecting a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded.

It is very safe to say that the most fastidious guest never leaves the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., dissatisfied with his visit to that famous hostelry.

ANTI-FAT
ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGGETTS & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman, in St. Louis, writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "THE PROPERTIES OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT? Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I did not never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes health, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive specialty for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon positive observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the agent for crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which it is recommended, that I offer and will it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Burning-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatening Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. It does not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S
RADICAL CURE
For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every obnoxious contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have on file letters written by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have a considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

"THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable." HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

"IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering." GEO. W. HOUGHTON, Waltham, Mass.

"I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure." D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

"I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them." WM. BOWEN, 225 Pine St., St. Louis.

"AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. It was used since receipt, recorded over one hundred bottles with the greatest success. WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 Harrison Ave., Boston.

"WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never did a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint." S. D. BALDWIN & CO., Washington, Ind.

"THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the nauseous nostrums that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to make it known to the public." Justice of the Peace, Boston. GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

BLUE ARMY BLOUSES.

WE have just received a few more of those BLUE ARMY BLOUSES, which have been in such demand for the last twelve months.

C. E. MYERS & CO.,
No. 3 BOW STREET.

Daily Chronicle.

News and Notes:

Dudley Ward of London, England, has sent a reply to the recent challenge issued by Captain Bogardus offering, to shoot a pigeon match at 100 single birds, thirty or thirty-five yards rise for £500 or £1000 a side. Ward desires the match to be shot at the Gun Club grounds at London, and offers to defray Bogardus' expenses.

The consumption of lumber in this country is much larger than is generally supposed. The annual demand for ties for one 90,000 miles of railway is 40,000,000 square feet; 300,000 trees are required for new telegraph poles; 300,000 cubic feet are made into matches; three million cords are used in baking brick; 100,000 cords go into shoe pegs; 500,000 cords into lasts and shoe trees; $12,000,000 worth of wood goes into packing boxes and $100,000,000 worth into wagons, agricultural implements, etc.

Pierre Ludovic Matillon, formerly an officer of French zouaves, held an office under the Paris Commune. He fled to Trieste, and became prosperous in mercantile business. In 1872 he was condemned to death by a court martial, in his absence, on a charge of pillage and arson. A few months ago, goaded by attacks on his reputation, he returned to Paris from his place of safety, presented himself before the president of the court martial then sitting, and demanded an examination. The president, admiring his boldness, and believing in his innocence, told him he was a lunatic, and gave him twenty-four hours to get out of Paris. Instead of doing so, he presented himself anew for trial. This was therefore granted him, and he was sent to prison for life.

—At St. Anne's Sunday school, in Lowell, last Sunday, in answer to the question, "Which is the greatest church festival?" a little orphan of six years promptly responded, "The strawberry festival."

Environed With Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely nullifies the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma tainted water. This benign antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, besides effecting a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side oh de hoss, wile in de chenia, on dat side oh de hoss. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

It is very safe to say that the most fastidious guest never leaves the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., dissatisfied with his visit to that famous hostelry.

Senatorial.

Portsmouth District — consisting of Wards One, Two and Four of the city of Portsmouth—at the Court House in Portsmouth, Tuesday, Oct. 1st, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The National Banks.

Nine of the National banks in Boston pass their October dividends. The banks in that city have reduced their capital eight hundred thousand dollars during the past six months, and on the first day of October another bank reduces a half a million of its capital stock. Of sixty-one banks in Boston one pays five per cent, seven four per cent, two 3 1-2 per cent, fourteen three per cent, one three per cent quarterly, five 2 1-2 per cent, seventeen two per cent, one 1 1-2 per cent, and four have not decided whether to make a dividend or pass it for Tuesday.

Referring to the losses by the National banks, the leading democratic paper of New York says: "The forthcoming report of the Comptroller of the Currency will show that in the last two years and a half the National banks of the country have lost more than fifty and a half millions of dollars. Their losses have been greater in proportion than that of any other business of the country, and consequently their earnings smaller. The ratio of earnings of the banks to capital and surplus for the year 1877 was 5.62 per cent, and it is estimated that the ratio for the year 1878 will not be greater. Yet these are the "bloated" corporations against which there is so much railing and abuse. It will strike the unprejudiced person who is able to understand the superiority of the National banks to the old State system of banking that the former, crippled as they are and held down by the oppressive taxes imposed by the government and State, are not able to threaten anybody or anything. These banks yield the government quite an income; they can defraud nobody, and are immeasurably better than anything yet proposed to replace them."

Steamboat Disaster.

The steamer Adelphi, a small paddle-boat plying between South Norwalk, Conn., and New York, during the summer months, blew up on Saturday morning when about a mile from her dock at South Norwalk, just after starting out. The explosion tore away a large part of the main deck and a portion of the saloon, and killed and wounded a number of the two hundred passengers she had on board. Among the dead are Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Lord of Newburyport, Mrs. Boole, sister of Mrs. Lord and wife of Rev. Mr. Boole of South Norwalk an unknown woman about twenty years of age, and three other men, all whose bodies were recovered; about twenty persons were wounded, and several of them will die.

The steamboat Armenia was engaged in New York to take the place of the Adelphi, and carry passengers and freight to South Norwalk, but she took fire at her dock in New York and was badly damaged.

Naval Matters.

Gunner Andrew Harmon is detached from the naval magazine at this navy yard, and placed on waiting orders.

The orders of Passed Assistant Engineer Charles E. Nagle to the U. S. S. Quinnebaug are revoked, and he is placed on waiting orders.

Carpenter Josiah P. Carter is ordered to the U. S. S. Richmond Oct. 21st.

Naval Constructor Thomas E. Webb has been appointed senior member, and Commander Henry Erben and Naval Constructor W. L. Mintoyne members of a board to survey the U. S. S. Lancaster, at this navy yard.

Boatswain Charles E. Hawkins is detached from the practice ship Constellation, and ordered to duty at the Naval Academy.

The U. S. S. Speedwell, now at Gloucester, will, on completion of her present duties in the service of the Fish Commission, proceed to the Washington navy yard.

News and Notes.

A notorious and successful confidence operator, an Italian named Andrew Bressant, has been arrested in New York, and will be brought to Boston to answer for a swindling operation there.

Col. Almon D. Hodges, a prominent citizen of Boston and President of the Washington National Bank, died at his summer residence at Portsmouth, R. I., Friday.

Capt. Tyson of the schooner Florence, of the Howgate Polar Expedition, reached St. John's, N. F., Friday, and will arrive at New London the latter part of this week. He has been absent fourteen months. All well.

The statement that an agreement has been entered into between France, England and the United States relative to the Newfoundland fisheries, is untrue, so far as concerns our Government.

John H. Mitchell, of Memphis, Tenn., a brother of Maggie Mitchell, died of yellow fever Sept. 25th. His wife and one daughter died of the same disease several years ago.

A Deadwood, D. T., despatch says the treasure coach of the Cheyenne and Black Hills stage line that left Thursday morning was stopped by five armed men at Canyon Springs, forty-five miles south of Deadwood. Two messengers, Capt. Smith and Gale Hill, were seriously injured, and one passenger, H. O. Campbell, a telegraph operator, was killed. The treasure taken amounted to between $25,000 and $30,000. Ten armed men started from Deadwood in pursuit of the robbers. Gale Hill, one of the messengers, was dangerously wounded and will probably die. Capt. Smith was slightly hurt, a ball grazing the top of his head, rendering him insensible. Two of the robbers were badly wounded. One was shot by Davis and the other by Gale Hill, who fired through the window in the back of a barn after being hurt. The coach was run into the timber and but a short time was occupied in opening the safe, which contained $25,000 in gold bullion, some gold jewelry and a small amount of currency. All was secured by the robbers.

Charges of corruption are stated to have been made against Solicitor of the Treasury Raynor, and an investigation has been ordered.

Miss Altma Kendall, daughter of William B. Kendall of Somerville, Mass., was drowned at Lyman, in York county, Me., on the evening of Sept. 25th, while bathing in a pond. She had spent the summer in Lyman. She was thirty years of age.

The sensational story telegraphed from Washington on Friday concerning the murder of an entire family of seven persons, was a silly hoax.

Edward Brombam of New Haven and an older brother were sailing on Long Island Sound Thursday evening, when the brother threw Edward overboard, and then returned to New Haven and told their mother that Edward had fallen overboard and was drowned. Edward is a good swimmer, and succeeded in reaching land after swimming for three hours. The cause of the attempt at murder is that some property owned by Edward, in case of his death goes to the would-be murderer.

Orson Pratt, the notorious Mormon, is now in Saybrook, Conn., tracing the genealogy of the Pratt family of Saybrook, of which he claims to be a descendant.

A woman in New Haven jail has $150, but refuses to pay her fine, because the State allowance of $7 a week is more than she can earn outside of the prison.

Farmer Atkins, of Camden Co., Missouri, has so violent a temper that his eleven-year-motherless daughter ran away to a neighbor's house. He brought her back, tied her to a post and whipped her with hickory and thorn switches till she fainted. She died two days later. Atkins was promptly arrested and—fined.

An interesting law point has just been decided by Judge Dillon of the United States Court at St. Louis in a case where an assignee of a bankrupt's estate had secured possession of a valuable diamond, which the bankrupt had presented to his wife when in solvent circumstances. The lady claimed the jewel as her individual property, and her right to it was sustained by the court.

Fortune telling is carried to an extent in San Francisco unknown in eastern cities. Some of the women engaged in the business charge from four dollars to ten dollars for an interview, and are visited by credulous stock speculators who seek to obtain supernatural "points" as to the market. One Spiritualist medium has a reputation for foretelling the discovery of valuable ore beds; another devotes herself to love affairs exclusively; another predicts the duration of any person's life. Several are notoriously given to blackmailing, to accomplish which they use information shrewdly gained from dupes.

The city of New Haven has voted by an overwhelming majority to restore the reading of the Bible in the public schools. The School Board in 1877 voted to discontinue the reading of the Bible and the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, which, from time out of mind, had been part of the exercises in the schools.

Political.

The democrats of Nebraska had a lively discussion in their State convention last Thursday, on the money question, but the greenbackers fixed the platform to suit themselves, and three of the most important candidates were taken from the greenback ticket. In the west, as in New England, the soft-money party is swallowing the democracy.

It is announced that Dan. Voorhees, the Tall Sycamore of the Wabash and democratic United States Senator from Indiana, will speak at Lowell, Mass., in favor of Gen. Butler, on the 7th of October.

Gov. Hampton of South Carolina, having requested that the State authorities be allowed to collect the United States internal revenue taxes in that State on account of the great difficulties experienced by United States revenue officers in the performance of that duty, Commissioner Raum, to whom the matter was referred, has replied that the proposition cannot be entertained.

The stealing of the books of the Marquette iron mine company, in the interest of reformer Samuel J. Tilden, has not yet been heard of by the majority of democratic editors. The only democratic paper to comment on that queer transaction is the Boston Post, which does it in a headline, "a transaction that looks black for Mr. Tilden."

There is considerable discussion going on in Maine as to whom the republicans in the Senate should support for governor, if the House sends in the names of Garcelon, the democratic candidate, and Smith, the greenback candidate, to choose from, Smith having always been a republican until the repudiation craze took possession of him. If, as is said, Garcelon is a hard-money man, no honest republican should hesitate a moment as to whom to vote for.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes than, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

Rev. J. W. Hubbell will preach at Faith Home this (Monday) evening at a quarter to eight o'clock.

The Colonel has done a good job on Islington street by an extensive repair of the sidewalk between Middle street and Parker street on the north side.

Hon. Daniel Marcy received a telegram from San Francisco Sunday evening informing him of the safe arrival of the ship William H. Marcy at that port.

Schooner Warren Sawyer, Capt. Crie, which recently sailed from this port, made the passage to Spencer's island, off Windsor, N. S., in forty-nine hours.

The brick building No. 14 Water street, at the head of Long wharf, was sold at auction, Saturday, by Morse & Ilsley, to C. Morris Tredick for $1040.

Mr. Charles Wallace of this city caught on a hand-line between the hours of ten o'clock Friday night and five o'clock Saturday morning, four thousand pounds of cod fish.

Messrs. J. H. Kent and Wm. E. Hadley, of the Republican State Committee, have arranged for a speech by Ex-Gov. Harriman in this city on the night before election, at Franklin hall.

We are glad to notice that either the janitor, the master, or the committee, or all, have made an improvement at the Jones school in having the sidewalks cleaned and swept—a much needed reform.

The following jurors have been drawn in ward two to serve at the Supreme Court which convenes on the third Tuesday of October: Thomas Martin, Geo. E. Burtt, Geo. E. Stackpole, Wm. H. Deverson.

Stockholders' train this morning leaves Portsmouth at 8:35 and Greenland at 8:45. Borrowers should be careful not to be caught with certificates of Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire. They will not avail to-day for a free passage to Boston.

The will of the late Mrs. Samuel M. DeMerritt of this city left $4000 to the Portsmouth Savings Bank, the interest to go to two scholarships for young men from this city at college. Joseph H. Foster is trustee under the will by decree of court, and Rev. James DeNormandie has been chosen President of the Board. The permanent fund has been increased to $5000 by an addition of the accumulated interest. The only names presented as candidates for beneficiaries were Arthur Edward Gage and Samuel Walter Foss, who are together just entering Brown University at Providence.—Times.

Mr. Stephen W. Clarke visited the high school on Saturday, and was presented by the senior class with a basket of very beautiful flowers. Mr. Clarke spoke some minutes to the school, thanking the pupils in befitting words for their welcome and their delicate gift, which has been entrusted to Mrs. Lamprey to preserve. The third class presented Mr. Perkins, who has filled the position of principal during Mr. Clarke's absence, with an elegant bouquet, Mr. Perkins eloquently thanking the scholars for their kindness while he had been with them, and for this last manifestation of it.

Shortly after one o'clock, Saturday, a horse belonging to an Eliot farmer ran away on Washington street, and attempted to turn a short corner to Pleasant street. In making the turn the frightened animal went through one of the windows of C. Wesley Rand's provision store, carrying sash, glass and wagon with him, and then kicked around inside the store until he broke a Fairbanks scale. The only damage done was to the window, scales, and provisions, neither horse nor wagon being harmed to an extent worth mentioning. The storekeeper, not being used to having his customers enter by the window, was considerably astonished, and requests that the door may be exclusively used in the future.

On Saturday evening as the steamer Emerald was about to leave the navy yard landing, at the foot of Daniel street, for the navy yard, on the 10 P. M. trip, a drunken marine was forbid by Capt. Marden from going to the yard on the boat, as his orders were imperative that no intoxicated person should be allowed on her. Efforts being made to remove him from the boat, he knocked Mr. Robert Anderson down and kicked him severely in the stomach, stabbed Capt. Marden in the shoulder and struck Mr. Harry Kiggins, who was a spectator, in the face, and made an effort to strike Lieutenant Randolph Dickens. We are informed that the rowdy's name is Lingard, and that on reaching the navy yard was put under arrest and placed in a cell at the barracks.

HOURS OF ENTERTAINMENT.

"Once in awhile," writes an out-of-town patron, "a manager of an entertainment informs us when the affair begins and ends, and we of the rural districts can then make our arrangements accordingly. But for persons driving from the country towns to be made to wait until eight o'clock and to have their pleasure interrupted by an occasional reminder between the acts that it will be at a late hour when we begin our homeward drive, in these approaching cooler evenings is not so agreeable. Why cannot the doors of your excellent Music hall swing open at seven o'clock these long evenings, and the entertainments begin at half-past seven?"

We are glad to call attention to this subject. There has been a tacit understanding that doors opened for all entertainments at a certain hour and that perfomances would begin at another fixed time, but they are seldom advertised. For the convenience of out-of-town people and strangers no less than for every one in the city all such occasions should be announced exactly. In cold weather patrons do not wish to be kept waiting for doors of a hall to open. Let there be an established hour, and let it be announced always for the benefit of our correspondent and the rest of mankind.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

A lady, a native of Portsmouth, who has spent much time in later years in Europe, sent here recently from England for photographs of the house in which she was born, one of the brick dwellings in State street; of the spacious mansion of her grandfather in the same locality, and of St. John's church, where in her early life she attended divine service, which were furnished by a local artist in his best style. What privileges do we of the present age enjoy in such and other ways beyond those who preceded us; when old familiar scenes and objects, loved for the associations connected with them in the past, and the dear ones who have passed away, can be so accurately reproduced through the beautiful art of photography; best of all in the stereoscopic pictures that adorn every home of taste and refinement. B.

THE VICINITY.

James L. Wiggin of Exeter, for many years foreman of the brass works there, died suddenly on Saturday, being sick only two hours.

The drug store of Barrows & Eastman of South Berwick was entered by thieves last Thursday night, and a large amount of fancy articles and cutlery taken.

George Bowden af York was arraigned before the Supreme Court at Alfred last week on three indictments, for assault and battery, perjury and arson; he pleaded not guilty.

The Blue Star base ball club of Rochester went to Epping on Saturday and played a game with the Stars of the latter town, the Rochester club winning by a score of seventeen to nothing.

Charles Abbottt of Kennebunk lost a valuable horse one day recently. He started for the country and when near the Eastern depot in Kennebunk the horse commenced to stagger, and in a very short time died. A post mortem examination showed the horse had been poisoned.

The Congregational church at Greenland has recently received considerable improvements; among other things done, the ground has been excavated beneath it and a furnace put in for heating the building, a tall chimney having been put up outside the church at the west end to carry off the smoke and gas.

The farmers of Greenland, Stratham, Epping and Durham complain much of the drought. The wells are very low, and many of the springs are entirely dried up; and unless there is a liberal fall of rain soon the scarcity of water will soon become a serious affair. The hay crop in the towns named was very good indeed; the potato crop is so small as to be accounted a failure, principally on account of the dry weather, though the bugs have been very troublesome; the rot has not appeared to any extent, probably thinking the crop not worth attacking. The apple crop is immense, and of remarkably fine quality, but the prices realized are very low; a very large quantity of the fruit is being turned into cider.

Kennebunk has a fire-bug. At about half-past ten o'clock Friday night an incendiary fire was discovered in a large barn at the residence of John Roberts, which, together with thirty-five tons of hay, a winter's supply of grain, farming tools and machines, carriage house and most of the contents; also a slaughter-house and large henery, woodshed and ell of the dwelling-house, were consumed. By the utmost exertion the house was saved, but was badly damaged by fire and water. The furniture was also damaged.

John L. Brackett and Simeon S. Brackett of Greenland have each a mill in operation turning a portion of the abundant apple crop into cider, the motive power of each being a horse; and the water mill of William L. and George E. Brackett, near the depot, is also utilized for the same purpose, the grinding apparatus being entirely wood, which does not discolor the apple juice. Teams loaded with barrels are about all that can be seen on the roads in Greenland and Stratham just now.

JOHNSON'S UNIVERSAL ENCYCLOPÆDIA.

We would call attention to the recommendation by the clergymen of Portsmouth of this work.

We the undersigned, having subscribed our orders for Johnson's Universal Cyclopædia, desire to recommend the careful examination of this valuable work to our fellow citizens.

Its thirty-nine editors and more than 2000 contributors aim to make it a most complete compendium of knowledge, and up to the date of its monthly publication, most accurate, as a biographical dictionary, a geographical gazetteer, a medical and legal manual and scientific repertory in its four volumes of 1700 pages each, treating 80,000 subjects.

It stands the test of comparison with any and all other Cyclopædias in condensation, and at the same time it treats a vast range of topics.

It is a table-book for the homes of the people, and for the use of professional and business men of every class, and we heartily wish that a set of this Cyclopædia might be placed in each home, and in the library of every young man in Portsmouth.

New Hampshire Items.

General order No. 4, headquarters G. A. R., New York city, announces the appointment of W. E. Stevens of Concord to be aide-de camp, and W. H. D. Cochran of Nashua, to be assistant inspector-general, on the staff of Gen. John C. Robinson, commander-in-chief.

Te annual meeting of the New Hampshire Unitarian association will be held in the Unitarian church in Concord Oct. 29th and 30th. Rev. William R. Alger of New York city, and Rev. J. M. Manning, D. D., of the Old South church in Boston are among the prominent men of this and other denominations who are expected to speak.

The feeling among the republicans in Dover over the nomination of Hon. Joshua G. Hall of that city for the Congressional standard bearer in the first district is one of great satisfaction. They consider Mr. Hall to be in every respect eminently qualified for the position. With so able and eminent a candidate there can be no doubt but that the republicans will rally around him to a man and give him a triumphant election. — Haverhill Gazette.

—New styles in silk hose are black with embroidery in white and colors. The latest fancy is for polka dots in white silk on the black stocking.

—An old granger, who came into town to purchase a piano for his daughter, asked the agent if he hadn't one with a handle in the end, "so we can all give it a turn once in a while."—Norristown Herald.

—A tutor of a college lecturing a young man on the irregularity of his conduct, added with great pathos: "The report of your vices will bring your father's gray hairs with sorrow to the grave." "I beg your pardon, sir," replied the pupil, "my father wears a wig."

—Says the Nation, speaking of the education of women:—"Part of the drill of every school ought to be the reception by a wife in an old gown, at a dinner of corned beef and cabbage, of an unlooked for guest, thoughtlessly brought home by a reckless husband."

—A skeptic, who was badgering a simple-minded old man about a miracle and Balaam's ass, finally said: "How is it possible for an ass to talk like a man?" "Well," replied the honest old believer, with meaning emphasis, "I don't see why it ain't as easy for an ass to talk like a man, as it is for a man to talk like an ass."

—A New York clergyman says "he doesn't know himself." He should get nominated and run for a political office if he wants to be told all about himself and more too. The newspapers and speakers on the other side would crowd more astonishing and awful things into his pedigree than he ever dreamed of.—Brooklyn Times.

—The good man slammeth the gate and bangeth the door and maketh a noise, for his heart is without guile and he feareth not the grievous words of his wife; but the naughty man shutteth the gate softly and stealeth up stairs in his stocking-feet, and stumbleth over the rocking-chair, and the last condition of that man is worse than the first.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Eruptions, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish specks on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and loss of vitality and appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and permanent cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and continues physicians to prescribe it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seed, being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping the beneficent impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or paste-board boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Proprietor, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling down the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the Improved DR. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and THOROUGHLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and HEALING, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28th.

If Capt. Eads has performed his contract at the mouth of the Mississippi as thorougly as it appears he has done from the almost uniform testimony of those deemed competent to judge, it would appear small business to withhold the money he has fairly earned on a technicality. There can be no doubt that he has come nearer accomplishing what he claimed to be able to do, than most government contractors who are paid liberally for what they do, and, in not a few cases, for what they fail to do. The matter of the permanency of his work can only be certainly tested by the lapse of time. He undertook the job against the advice of friends, and assailed by the jeers and taunts of many, made his enemies, undoubtedly, through jealousy lest he should succeed. Every producer and consumer using that great highway to the ocean has been directly benefitted by Eads' improvement of the Mississippi, as has the commerce of the whole country, more indirectly, perhaps; considering its magnitude and the vast area participating in the enhanced facilities to the navigation of our country's principal river, and as contrasted with the cost of most public improvements, the money paid Capt. Eads cannot be regarded as excessive. Few fair-minded people will therefore regret that Auditor Austin's decision against paying Eads the first monthly installment of $500,000 voted last winter, has been overruled by Attorney General Devens. Austin based his refusal on the allegation that, though the material was on the ground, it had not yet been actually used. Mr. Devens decides that Eads is entitled to money for the material on the ground, the amount to be determined by the estimates of the engineer in charge.

Cohen having secured $100 bail for his appearance at court at any time within the next thirty days, nightly harangues his followers. There are plenty of other volunteer orators in the crowd that usually goes to make up Cohen's audiences. The tone of the speeches is generally of the most intemperate and often incendiary character. This pot of "hell broth" is bubbling and hissing furiously, and there is a vague feeling prevalent that it is liable to boil over at any time, when we may be able to record a very startling local occurrence.

Mr. Hale's replies to an interviewer who sought him out at the republican headquarters in this city a few days since are, substantially, that neither the result in Maine, nor in in other States will swerve the party one hair's breadth from the position taken by it in Maine for sound money and a redeemable currency, and that he regards Butler's chances for capturing Massachusetts as first-class unless the hard money democrats unite with the republicans to defeat the combination. While Mr. Hale, as chairman of the republican Congressional committee, disavows all sympathy with Mr. Gorham's personal views, he takes occasion to generously compliment the latter for the invaluable services he has rendered the party, and, barring his financial views, vouches for his sturdy republicanism. It will be remembered that Hale is one of the two republican candidates for Congress defeated in the recent Maine election, Hale's opponent having commended himself to the convention of greenbackers and democrats that nominated him by a declaration of his illiteracy and impecuniosity. Those at all coversant with the causes contributing to the late surprise in Mr. Hale's State will coincide with the opinions he expresses relative to "hard times" having been an important factor in producing the untoward result, if by "hard times" he means the present as compared with the inflation era during and a few years subsequent to the war. As a matter of fact the present time is no harder than it was prior to the war. While it is true that the President's "policy" was not, ostensibly, in issue in the recent campaign, those familiar with Maine sentiment can hardly doubt that the dissatisfaction existing relative to some of the prominent measures of the administration, had something to do with the partial republican defeat in the Pine Tree State. Secretary McCrary, recently returned from Iowa, is quite guarded relative to the greenback strength in his State. He ventures to say that it is "considerable," there being a sprinkling of them all over over it, and that only an approximation can be reached until after election. He is represented as confident that there will be no loss of Congressmen by the republicans, which at present is the most important consideration.

Eastern Railroad Meeting.

The special meeting of the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts was held in Tremont Temple, Boston, on Monday, to see if the stockholders would approve the new lease of the E. R. R. in N. H., and the F., G. F. & C. R. R., and confer all necessary powers on the president and treasurer. Gen. Rockwell was in the chair. Mr. E. W. James opposed the report recommending the adoption of the new arrangement, and denounced the whole movement as being in the interest of Baring Brothers and the Boston & Maine railroad. The meeting delayed action till nearly one o'clock, in order to accommodate the twenty-three carloads of stockholders from the eastward—thirteen of which stockholders did finally arrive at the hall. A stock vote was taken on the ratification of the proposed new leases, and the meeting adjourned to four o'clock, to give the committee opportunity to make a report. On reconvening the committee announced the vote to be largely in favor of ratification.

The New Bondholders.

Few people have an idea of the change which has taken place in the ownership of the bonds of the United States. The following is the average number of bonds of each denomination, representing an issue of $10,000,000, at the different periods of issue:

Bonds—	1862. No.	1865. No.	1878. No.
$1000	7,500	7,400	6,250
500	3,466	3,179	3,146
100	5,679	5,220	10,000
50	2,200	2,600	3,866

The increase of the number of $50 and $100 bonds and the decrease of the bonds of a higher denomination indicates that the old bonds of the larger denominations as they are called in are replaced by those of a smaller denomination. The owners of these small bonds, numbering three or four million people, will be the best army to hold communism in check.

How Repudiation Works in the End.

The State treasury of Virginia is completely exhausted. There is no money even to pay the school teachers for their services last term, in consequence of which many of the schools are entirely without teachers. On Friday evening last Gov. Halliday called several of the bank presidents together at the office of the First National bank at Richmond, and asked them to loan the State $250,000, but the repudiation of last year has had the expected effect. Gov. Halliday has no substantial security to offer, and the bank presidents politely refused to lend their money to a State whose legislature deliberately votes to repudiate most of its solemn obligations.

News and Notes.

As a funeral procession in Brooklyn, Saturday, was crossing a railroad track, a train came along at thirty miles an hour and struck one of the carriages, instantly killing the driver and a young woman, mortally wounding a little boy and his mother, and badly hurting two little girls. The engineer and conductor of the train were put under arrest.

Mr. George Vandenhoff is playing Cardinal Woolsey in King Henry the VIII. at Booth's theatre.

Two Mexicans, who recently murdered ex-Sheriff Adams and ex-County Clerk Finley, of Santa Clara County, near Tucson, Arizona, were captured in Sonora, and shot by order of Gov. Marescal.

A shocking story comes from Bridgeport, Conn., as follows: On May 12th, John Rufus, alias Stuttering Jake, was murdered in an unoccupied East Bridgeport carriage factory by Frank E. Bassett, who put the body in a barrel and drove to Dr. Sanford of Yale Medical School, who refused to purchase without a certificate from the proper authorities. He then drove to Derby and down the west bank of the river three miles to an unfrequented spot, and rolled the barrel into the water. The woman with whom Bassett lived was conversant with the matter, and becoming dissatisfied with his actions, let drop some remarks which being followed up the whole story was brought out and the body recovered. Bassett is now in jail at Bridgeport awaiting trial for theft.

A small detachment of troops had a fight with Indians sixty miles south of Denver, Col., Sept. 27th. The Indians were driven, leaving one warrior and nineteen ponies dead, and sixty-two head of cattle. Lieut. Col. W. H. Lewis of the Nineteeth Infantry was mortally wounded, and two cavalry men severely. The Indians carried off a large number of their dead and wounded.

Last Thursday afternoon the room of Mrs. George R. Earl in the Mansion House, Providence, was entered and robbed of a watch and some jewelry valued at $250. A waiter at the hotel named Charles H. Bloomer was arrested as the thief. The stolen property was found hidden in the cellar. Bloomer was suspected of the theft from the first, and by shrewd detective work was finally cornered. He is about twenty-four years of age.

The band team of Bryant's minstrels ran over a nine-year-old boy in Middleton, Conn., Saturday, and broke his neck.

Charles Hoyt of Darien, Conn., attempted to drive across the track in front of a train, but was hit. The top of his head was knocked off, exposing his brain, yet it is thought he will recover.

The total of ascertained deaths by the Adelphi disaster up to Sunday night was twelve, and it was then thought there might be bodies yet in the water. An inspection of the exploded boiler shows that it was originally weak and had been patched until it was as unsafe as a powder mill.

Mrs. Louise H. Torrance has been granted a divorce from her husband, Alfred Torrance, who is a grandson of Commodore Vanderbilt, on a charge of desertion.

A New York Times special from New Orleans says that Congressman Acklen of Louisiana, who was the principal actor in the Washington scandal in which a lady's name and that of Gen. Rosser were mixed up, is charged with drugging and outraging a respectable young woman. The ruined girl died recently from yellow fever. Her affidavits were found among the effects of the late Harry L. Smith in New Orleans, and put under seal by a Justice of the Peace. Acklen says that the affair is an attempt at blackmail.

A vessel of 800 tons was seen bottom up eighty miles east of the Capes of Delaware, Sept. 26th. The wreck of a large vessel, with "Pillau" on the stern, and painted ports, was seen in lat. 43, lon. 51, by barque Alice Roy, arrived at Philadelphia Sept. 26th; many petroleum barrels were seen floating in the vicinity of the wreck.

British ship Indus, from New York Sept. 4th for London with 85,000 bushels of grain, has not been heard of since sailing, and is supposed lost with all hands. Barque Columbia, of New Haven, from Antigua for New York Aug. 17th with sugar and molasses, is supposed to have gone down in the hurricane which swept the West Indies early in September. British steamship Yoxford, a new iron vessel of over 2000 tons, from New York for England with grain, foundered Sept. 12th; all hands saved.

A policeman at Windsor, Canada, Friday, arrested a man named Gray, who, with another, was about throwing from the dock D. L. Howard, clerk of the Michigan Central Railroad. They had previously drugged, beaten and robbed Howard, who will die.

N. C. Martin has been arrested at Youngstown, O., for the forgery of a draft for $74,000 on the Trust Company of New York, on which $50,000 had been raised. He was an exhibitor of Edison's phonograph.

Advertising vs. Drumming.

The St. Louis Journal of Commerce relates the experiences of a well-known house in New York which had the choice of paying $5,000 for a store in a great thoroughfare or $500 for one in a quiet cross street, and chose the latter, devoting the $4,500 saved in rent exclusively to advertising. This was its first step to an enormous fortune, and, although it occurred many years ago, it gives point to the Journal's comments on the greater value of advertising compared with drumming. It says: "A Chicago wholesale grocery house, which a few years ago carried sixteen drummers, at an expense of $40,000 per annum, and did an almost profitless business, has abandoned the drummer system; spends one-fourth their cost annually in newspaper advertising, dividing the balance among customers. As a natural result, their trade has increased tenfold, and the net profits to the house in 1877 were $130,000. This year they will do still better. Their customers are better pleased, because they buy on orders from prices current from two to twenty per cent. cheaper than they ever could under the drummer system. Competitors don't like it much, but it is nevertheless a success—an immense success."

— An Augusta, Ga., dentist has invented a very ingenious and useful little turbine water wheel, to be used in dental work. It is hardly larger than a silver dollar, but when the water is turned on it will give a drill or other dental instrument 4600 revolutions a minute.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

There will be a meeting of the reform club this evening at Mercantile hall for the election of officers, etc.

Lieut. David Whipple, U. S. M. C., who has been on sick leave, has resumed his duties at the navy yard.

The republican convention of the Portsmouth senatorial district will be held at the Court House in this city to-day.

The Vicar of Wakefield is the book to read this week by those who intend to see how Fanny Davenport personates Olivia.

On Friday, 4th inst., tickets to Boston and return can be procured at the Eastern railroad station for $1.70 each—good to return on the 4th or 5th.

Four boys, named Geo. Albert Weeks, Edward Weeks, Austin Garbarraino and David Garbarraino, were arrested Monday forenoon for stealing fruit from the garden of Alfred W. Haven, Esq., and for invasions on other fruit-bearing premises.

Two of the prisoners confined in Portsmouth jail (Newell Hayes, awaiting trial on a charge of horse stealing, and William E. Dunbrack, under sentence for stealing goods from the freight cars of the Eastern railroad,) attempted to escape Saturday night by digging under the floor toward the chimney, which it was their intention to climb. They were heard by the Sheriff, who put a stop to their enterprise.

The free ride to Boston, Monday, on stock of the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts, called out a big crowd. The train consisted of twenty-one cars when it reached Boston. Six cars were packed with Portsmouth "stockholders" before the train got in from Portland, and still there were others waiting a chance to fill the vacant seats in the Portland cars. The Eastern railroad stock is evidently held in very small "blocks" now-a-days.

The subject of Mrs. Livermore's lecture in Music hall next Tuesday evening will be "Superfluous women," and not "Unscrupulous women" as first reported. Mrs. Livermore is one of the most entertaining lecturers on the platform; she goes directly to the heart of her subject, and makes every one in her audience feel her earnestness and power. She is a rare scholar, an eloquent speaker, and better than all a true woman. Tickets to all parts of the house, thirty-five cents; no extra charge for reserved seats. See advertisement.

Through the courtesy of Rear Admiral Howell the band of the flag-ship Powhatan, H. Schutte bandmaster, gave an open-air concert on Market square Monday afternoon, the programme being as follows: Overture, "Light Cavalry," Suppe; Waltz, "Fleur de Alsace," Steiner; Polka, "Cornet Solo," Arban; Capricio, Hagen; Waltz, "Sweethearts," D'Albert; Galop, "Trumpeter," Carl. The excellent music was listened to with pleasure by a large audience, which would have been much larger still had the public generally been aware that the concert was to be given.

The exhibition of Beckman & Co.'s automatic city commences at Franklin hall this evening at half-past seven o'clock, and will continue through the week, from nine o'clock A. M. to ten o'clock P. M. each day. This ingenious affair shows mills running, workmen engaged in their various occupations, a playing fountain, running stream, lake, trains of cars in motion, etc.; it has been exhibited for weeks together in the larger cities—Boston, Providence, Portland, Manchester, etc.,—and has been spoken of by the press everywhere as a remarkable triumph of mechanical skill, and well worth paying the price of admission to see. Admission, adults fifteen cents; children ten cents.

THE VICINITY.

John B. Merrill has been appointed postmaster at Old Orchard, York county, Me.

The house and barn of Joseph H. Hanson, near Mt. Pleasant, Dover, were burned Sunday morning, probably by an incendiary. A horse, cow and several tons of hay were destroyed. Loss about $4000; insured $2000.

HARD-MONEY MEETING.

The adjourned meeting of citizens favoring the formation of a hard-money club met in the Common Council room on Monday evening. Mayor Sise was in the chair, and Charles E. Batchelder, Esq., was secretary.

The committee appointed at the first meeting to draw up resolutions looking to the formation of a hard-money club reported the following, through their chairman, J. C. Butler:

1. The industrial interests of the country, and consequently the welfare and happiness of the people, require stability in the standard of value and uniformity in the circulating mediums of exchange.

2. The experience of all civilized and commercial nations proves that gold and silver possess stability of value in a greater degree than any other commodities, and are, therefore, the best standard of value, and in connection with paper representatives convertible into them on demand, the only safe and uniform circulating mediums.

3. It is the duty of the government to establish and maintain a sound and uniform currency system; the establishment and maintenance of such a system was one of the ends contemplated by the founders of our government in framing the constitution—to secure the advantages of such a system requires only a firm adherence to the principles and spirit of the constitution. The constitution contemplates only the use of the precious metals as a standard of value.

4. These principles were strictly observed by the government until a great national emergency compelled a temporary departure from them. That departure was solemnly and repeatedly declared to be only temporary, and only justifiable on the ground of extreme necessity in a time of national peril; and the most positive assurances have been given by the legislative and executive departments of the government, that when the exigency of the war should pass away the government would, as soon as practicable, return to the constitutional and stable metallic standard and measure of value.

5. The emergency that made it necessary for the government to enforce upon the people an irredeemable paper currency having passed away, to now perpetuate that system as a permanent financial policy would be a violation of the spirit of the constitution and the spirit of the laws and pledges under which our war currency was issued; and, as the experience of the world has proved, would necessarily be followed by still further depreciation to the great injury of all legitimate business; would add to the suffering of the laboring classes, upon whom the evils of depreciated currency inevitably falls most heavily.

6. National honor, and both national and individual prosperity, demand a return to the standards of value recognized in the constitution. With our present paper currency almost at par with coin, to delay such return and authorize new issues of irredeemable paper, would only lead to further depreciation, till, as in all past experiments of the kind, the paper will become worthless, leaving us without any reliable circulating medium, and entailing destruction on all industry, and misery and poverty on the masses of the people.

7. We have now an abundance of money to supply all the wants of trade; our paper currency is rapidly approaching the uniformity and stability of the coin standards; if left free from further legislative changes it will soon, by force of natural laws, go into general circulation, and general confidence and prosperity will be restored to to the country.

8. We invite all our fellow citizens who concur in these views of the nature of money and medium of exchange, and the functions of government in relation thereto, to unite with us in an effort to maintain the honor and welfare of our common country, and in a protest against the adoption of an irredeemable paper money policy, which would certainly, sooner or later, be followed by all the evils of fluctuation and depreciation, ending only in ultimate repudiation and general financial ruin.

The report was accepted and the platform adopted.

The meeting was then addressed by Mayor Sise, Judge Batchelder, Oliver M. Knight, Col. D. J. Vaughan and John Pender.

A committee of three was appointed by the chair to nominate officers for the permanent organization of the club, and reported the following names:

President, Jerome C. Butler.
Secretary, Charles E. Batchelder.
Treasurer, Charles A. Hazlett.
Executive Committee, William H. Sise, Lafayette Butler, Marcellus Bufford, Shirley B. Cunningham, John H. Slater.

Voted, That the platform be printed, and circulated for signatures.

Adjourned to Tuesday evening, Oct. 8th, at 7:30 o'clock, at same place.

At a meeting of Piscataqua Lodge, I. O. O. F., Monday evening, Charles E. Buzzell and D. Edwin Junkins were elected delegates to the Grand Lodge of New Hampshire.

OLIVIA.

The sale of reserved seat tickets to the Music hall performance next Friday evening commences at Dr. Preston's to-day. The play, Olivia, founded on an incident in the Vicar of Wakefield, is warmly commended by the metropolitan press, and has been endorsed by large and enthusiastic audiences in London and New York, for months together. The New York World says: "Olivia is a strong play. It is so healthy, poetical, refreshing, and, as placed on the stage, so beautiful to see, that it will doubtless have a long and prosperous life in America, as it has had already at the Court Theatre in London." The Tribune thus referred to the last representation of the play at the Union Square Theatre: "The last performance of Olivia presents an opportunity, well worthy of improvement, to the newly returned citizen and to the stranger within our gates. Here they will see at least one sweetly pathetic and highly dramatic scene—that, namely, of Olivia's flight from the sanctuary of her home; and, from this and its associate scenes, observers may gather something of that celestial grace which was in Goldsmith's genius, and something else of that gracious charity which is so needful to the lost, wandering and unregenerate play-goer of these hard and skeptical times. The buxom exuberance of the Junonian Miss Davenport rebels, perhaps, against the 'Puritanic stays' of such a nature as Olivia's; but—roses are roses, whether of the conservatory or the wild-wood; and it is always sad to see them drooping on their stems. These gentle and extraordinary influences, we say, ought not to be neglected. Life is short, and its pleasures are not too numerous."

SWINDLER CAUGHT.

A confidence man on Friday "took in" R. J. Shaw of Dover, shoe dealer, whom he induced to trust him with two pairs of ladies boots "for his wife to try on" before purchasing a pair. He then went to Charles E. Bacon's jewelry store and wanted to buy a valuable gold chain for his wife. Mr. Bacon was not in at the time, but the clerk, Mr. Chas. E. Hodgdon, showed him three chains worth about $50. He examined them and liked all of them very well, but he said he wanted his wife to see them before purchasing, to take her choice. For this purpose he asked permission of Mr. Hodgdon to take them away to his house. Mr. Hodgdon told him that he did not know who he was, as he never saw him before. The fellow then appeared to think very strange that there was anybody in Dover who did not know him. He said he had lived there over ten years on St. Thomas street, that he worked in Sawyer's mills all the time, and his name was Andrew J. Brown. He told such a plausible story and appeared so honest that Mr. Hodgdon allowed him to take away the three chains "to show his wife." No sooner had he left the store, however, than the clerk became suspicious of his customer, and proceeded to "shadow" him until he found that the old resident of Dover was enquiring the way to the Portsmouth & Dover railroad depot. An officer was at once called, and he and the clerk traced the swindler a piece toward Portsmouth, and then drove on across the railroad bridge into Newington to await his coming; they did not have to wait long, as the gold chain speculator soon appeared on the bridge, and was met about the middle of it by his watchers, arrested and taken back to Dover. On searching him Mr. Bacon's three chains were found, and four others, worth about $80, belonging to Stanley & Ayers of Concord. The fellow gave the name of Henry Burroughs, and on Saturday morning was committee to Dover jail in default of $400 bonds for his appearance at the February term of the Supreme Court.

Refusing His Inheritance.

Paterson, N. J., reports a peculiar case. In August last James Farker of that city died, leaving a will bequeathing his property to his only son, who was then somewhere in the west, and from whom he had become estranged. At the outbreak of the rebellion Mr. Parker, who had been a democrat, became a hearty admirer of President Lincoln. His son, who was in the army at the time of the controversy between the President and General McClellan, was as warm a partisan of McClellan. After the latter's nomination for the Presidency, the son announced to his father his determination to vote for McClellan. The old gentleman wrote back that if he did he would be disinherited. The son replied that if the old gentleman voted for Lincoln he would have nothing more to do with him. The senior Parker voted for Lincoln, and the son heard of it. At the close of the war, instead of coming home, he went to the west, and had no further communication with his parent. When James died, however, he devised all his property to his son. The son has accumulated considerable property; and since his father's death has refused to come east to claim his inheritance.

—President Lincoln possessed immense muscular strenth, of which General Viele gives this instance. One morning on board a ship, he saw an axe in a socket on the bulwarks, and taking it up, held it at arm's length at the extremity of the helve with his thumb and forefinger, continuing to hold it there for a number of minutes. The most powerful sailors on board tried in vain to imitate him. Judge Sweet, of Chicago, who was an intimate friend of Mr. Lincoln, says that he has seen him dash into a crowd where two powerful men were fighting, and taking each by the collar, hold them out at arm's length in the most helpless and ridiculous position.

The following is the tax assessed by the court on the railroads in the State: Ashuelot, $1756.66; Atlantic and St. Lawrence, $5627.83; Boston, Concord and Montreal, $16,692.07; Boston and Maine, $14,756.52; Cheshire, $9613.33; Concord, $28,519.27; Concord and Claremont, $1381.83; Concord & Portsmouth, $6946.01; Dover and Winnipiseogee, $7683.92; Eastern, $3990.92; Fitchburg, $17,050; Great Falls and Conway, $1605.34; Manchester and Lawrence, $29,550.17; Manchester & North Weare, $1093.95; Nashua and Lowell, $8293.94; Northern, $31,646.42; Sullivan, $2989.11; Wilton, $2896.07; Worcester and Nashua, $14414.47; total, $161,573.34.

—A Medford individual was sauntering home the other night, near the three church clocks of that classic village. Suddenly the voice of time sounded in his tympanum and went on with regular strokes until the three clocks had followed each other in succession. Bracing himself up defiantly, he ejaculated, "Thirty-six o'clock! Keep on. I've been out later than that."

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de house, wile in de evenin, on dat side ob de house. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhea are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

Environed With Danger.

The dweller or temporary sojourner in a malarious region of country is environed with danger. Besides inhaling at every breath an atmosphere saturated with an infectious poison, he also drinks water which is in most instances likewise impregnated with the fever and ague breeding miasmata. If a bilious subject, deficient in stamina, or irregular in habit of body or digestion, his peril is much increased, as these abnormal conditions are extremely favorable to the contraction of malarial disease. But this danger may be safely encountered with the assistance of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which completely nullifies the atmospheric virus, and neutralizes the constituents of miasma tainted water. This benign antidote to disease eradicates and prevents fevers of an intermittent and bilious remittent type, besides effecting a thorough and permanent reform of those enfeebled or irregular conditions of the system which invite not only malaria, but other diseases equally to be dreaded.

—Proposals for marriage in Nevada are written on postal cards and the answer comes by return mail: "Come on with your preacher."

—At Holyoke last week two little boys were arrested for stripping the leaves from the trees in the park. Soon after they had been locked up an officer heard their voices and peeped into the cell. Both of the children were down on their knees, their hands clasped and tears running down their cheeks. "O Lord, please let us out of this place, and we'll never do it again, never, never," prayed one sobbing culprit, while the other was repeating the Lord's prayer. "Pray harder," said one of them, "and speak your words plain, or God won't understand you." "I try to, Jimmy, but I'm crying so I can't," said the other, and then both redoubled their prayers. The officer slipped away, got the keys and compounded their felony. The effectual fervent prayer of a naughty boy availeth much.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrate the far-seeing liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed, a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever-Sores, Body or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ringworm, Itch, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy foreboding, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gives perfect and lasting cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical fraternity, and called plaudits from everywhere it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of clean, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seed. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate mildly and promptly on the constitution, diet, or occupation. Jaundice, Headache, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in regions of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is unusual, not a gland or tissue escapes their sensative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which liquids medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chronic sores or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently arise, and from which the continual discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy 50 cts. Douche $1. Sold by druggists.

—"Jumping sheets" are being introduced into the English fire brigades. They are of stout canvas, with sixteen loops or handles, to be held by as many men, and so break the fall of a person jumping into them from a burning house. Trials have resulted very satisfactorily.

—A Highlander was reading the other day Charles Dudley Warner's remarks on the camel, wherein he makes the ancient beast exclaim: "There are three of us; the date-palm, the pyramid and myself. Everything else is modern. Go to!" "Hoot, mon!" said the Celt, "joost as if nobody didn't know that afore. The Cawmels were a clan long afore the pyramids and that other thing were heard of!"

—Fashion has decreed that ladies' hats should have broader brims and much larger crowns this winter. Now, you don't know how glad we are to hear this. Our downcast eyes shall no longer be pained by the scandalous exhibitions on the theatre stage, glimpses of which we have heretofore been forced to take through chinks in the wall of feathers and flowers, birds, bugles and back hair, interposed between us and the footlights.—Boston Transcript.

The Difference.

The republican leaders in New Hampshire admit that the party in that State will have to be corralled to keep it from running away to greenbackism.—Boston Post.

Possibly the republican leaders in New Hampshire do admit that, but we don't believe they do, the Post's assertion notwithstanding, for the statement is false. And if "the party" should go to greenbackism it won't carry its leaders, who are all square for honest money, as was the republican State convention, and as all the minor conventions of the party so far held have been; and in this the republican leaders differ from the democratic ones, who are leading their party into the greenback camp, and were especially careful to fashion the platform of their State convention so that—as John H. George said—men of all sorts of financial principles, or none at all, could adopt it. If the mass of the republican party are bound for the greenback camp—which they are not—the democratic party, leaders and all, have already arrived there.

Another Democratic Surrender.

The democrats and greenbackers of Iowa have "pooled their issues" and made up a conglomerate ticket, the democrats getting half the nominations and the greenbackers the other half—the greenbackers, however, getting the leading places. Shupe, the editor of the New York Advocate, the leading greenback organ of the country, is evidently right when he asserts that the democratic party, as a party, has surrendered to the greenbackers, horse, boot and dregoons.

News and Notes.

Five convicts, including Bullard, the Boylston bank robber, broke out of the new State prison at Concord, Mass., Monday night.

A report from New Orleans says that shocking exhibition of inhumanity occurred at Handsborough, Miss., last week. An Italian laborer was taken down with yellow fellow; no one was allowed to visit or attend him, and he died. No one would bury him, and the body was allowed to remain in the house till it made the neighborhood unendurable. Finally, the house was purchased from the owner, set on fire, and the body of the unfortunate Italian consumed at the same time.

Amy Woodward of Waterbury, Conn., ninety-five years old, fell while walking across her room Sunday and broke her collar bone, and received other injuries. She is not expected to recover.

The public debt was decreased $3,196,534 in September.

Francis Daly, while returning home in a buggy from Coaticooke, Province Quebec, Saturday night, was waylaid and knocked senseless by two men, who then made a noose of his lines and tied him by the neck to a buggy, starting the horse on. When found he was quite dead. Two men named Bowen and Webster have been arrested.

The relief committee at Holly Springs, Miss., were advised the other day by telegraph, that they could draw at sight for the amount contributed by Pittsfield, Mass., and this answer was telegraphed back: "Send money by express. Bankers all dead, and banks closed. God bless your people."

The Brooklyn Eagle says that William Merritt, aged eighteen years, who was employed on the steamer Aelphi until a few days before the blow-up, when he left in consequence of a quarrel with a fellow-fireman, says the boiler was a constant source of terror to him and others. Repairs were frequently made during the summer, and the engineer, boiler maker and firemen as frequently said, "The boiler will soon go up."

New Hampshire Items.

The savings bank at Bristol was badly shattered Monday night by the explosion of a charge of powder put into the safe by burglars. The noise aroused the people in a neighboring hotel, and frightened away the thieves without any plunder.

Henry L. Robbins' barn at Milford, with hay, stock, etc., was burned Monday night, by a spark from a locomotive.

Mrs. Eunice Piper of Wolfeboro', eighty-one years old, died Monday night, from burns received a week ago by her clothing taking fire from a stove.

Abel Baker, a prominent citizen of Troy, died Sept. 26th, aged eighty-one years. He was years ago an influential member of the whig party, and latterly a republican. He represented his town in the State legislature for three consecutive years, was selectman for fourteen years, and for fifty-two years was deacon of the Trinitarian church of Troy.

Saturday evening the railroad employes of the roads centering at Fabyan's, White Mountains, presented Mr. William H. Stevens, the proprietor, with a beautiful diamond, as a token of the respect and esteem entertained for him by those who have made his house their home during the season now about closing. The presentation was very happily made in a neat little speech by George F. Thompson, passenger agent of the Eastern railroad, to which Mr. Stevens very feelingly responded.

Richard J. Low, formerly of Concord, son of the late Gen. Joseph Low, went to Concord Sunday night and registered at the Elm house. Monday forenoon, between eleven and twelve o'clock, he went to the residence of his brother, Frank Low, on Main street, and entering the yard shot himself through the head with a revolver, killing himself instantly. Insanity was undoubtedly the cause. He was about 44 years old.

The September term of the Grafton County Supreme Court closed at Haverhill Monday, after a very short session. Lewis Barter, the note swindler, of Concord, who was convicted at the March term, but appealed, his case going to the full bench, made application for reduction of bail from $2,500 to $2,000, which was granted. The latter amount his counsel, S. B. Page, says can be obtained. Upon his first arrest Barter was bailed, being given up by his bondsmen a short time afterwards, fearing that he intended to jump. Barton for many years controlled the flour trade of northern New Hampshire.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsepl16 79

THE CITY.

Miss Marian M. Ham of the Cabot street school has resigned. She has taught school for about forty years.

Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson has received orders to report at Chester, Penn., October 8th, for duty as a member of a board of survey.

Schooner Iowa, Capt. Rich, which arrived on Monday from Bangor, brought a cargo of lumber for the new Methodist church to be built at Spruce creek.

Mr. S. W. Cole announces in our advertising columns that he will form classes in vocal music at the Middle street chapel, —on Thursday evening for beginners, and next Monday evening for advanced scholars.

In tearing off the wall-paper in the CHRONICLE counting room, Tuesday, preparatory to renewing it, the workmen found in a hole drilled in the brick wall a MORNING CHRONICLE of May 22d, 1857, on the margin of which is written in pencil, in the well known chirography of the former editor, Hon. Frank W. Miller, "Building painted and papered by J. M. Locke and J. H. Gardiner, this date." The pencilling is distinct as though but a day old, and the writing far plainer than what the compositors on the Portsmouth Weekly now get in the shape of editorial "copy." The paper was stuck back in its hole, with another one for company, and again papered over.

On Tuesday two men, just drunk enough to know everything, but a little too drunk to be able to do anything properly, left one of the north end wharves on the flood tide in a sail boat for Dover point, having three decent appearing women as passengers. The women were advised not to entrust themselves with the tipsy navigators, but they were very anxious to get up river, so they did not heed the advice. The boat started off with the sail about half set, and after making a series of remarkable gyrations, heading for all points of the compass and causing the sail to slap about in a lively manner, reached the bank on the Kittery side below the bridge, to the gratified astonishment of all the old boatmen who saw the performance, not one of whom can tell how it was the boat got across without accident. The moment the boat touched the bank the three women scrambled ashore, having evidently had all the boating of that kind they wanted, for one day.

THE VICINITY.

It is with deep regret that we learn that Dr. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery is seriously ill.

A single-scull boat race at Dover point, Tuesday, between Mr. Arthur Walker of this city and Mr. Ansel C. Staples of Eliot, was won by the latter. A Dover oarsman, who was to have taken part in the race, did not appear.

Rev. C. F. Holbrook has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church in Saco, which he has held for over eight years. During this time more than one-third of the present membership of the church has been added; the society's benevolent contributions have increased three-fold, a parsonage and new house of worship have been secured at a cost of $20,000, while the current expenses have been largely in excess of any former pastorate of the church.

A barn belonging to E. S. Frost and located near his cottage in the grove at Old Orchard, Me., was destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon at about two o'clock. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. The premises were occupied by John Hobbs. Mr. Hobbs went out to the barn for some wood about half an hour before the fire, and thinks the origin of the fire was as above suggested. The barn was completely destroyed. Fortunately the wind blew away from the house, and the other buildings were not even scorched.

UNITED STATES COURTS.

Judge Clark held sessions of the District and Circuit Courts of the United States in this city on Tuesday, at which the ordinary routine of business was transacted.

The Circuit Court comes in at Exeter on Tuesday, the 8th inst., at twelve o'clock, noon, and will be held by Judge Clark.

John Collins and Charles Smith, both "simple drunks," were each assessed $9.90, fine and costs. Neither one having that amount to spare, both emigrated to Brentwood.

EASTERN R. R. in N. H. MEETING.

The stockholders of the Eastern railroad in New Hampshire held a special meeting in Congress hall Tuesday forenoon, to consider the position of affairs growing out of the settlement by negotiation, instead of by the courts, of the questions long in dispute between that company and the Eastern railroad company in Massachusetts. The meeting was called to order at half-past ten o'clock, Hon. Moody Currier in the chair. After routine business, the indentures agreed upon between the officers of the two roads were read and approved. The Massachusetts road relinquishes all claims on the New Hampshire road for expenditures in the past, for improvements and alterations, and any other claims it may have. The New Hampshire road relinquishes any claims for unpaid dividends heretofore or claims for any other cause. All suits are discontinued, and the New Hampshire road comes into an income of $22,500 annually, free from all taxes, from June 1st, 1877, until December 1st 1938. The meeting was characterized by absolute harmony. On the approval of the new lease, which question was taken by a stock vote, about fifty-five per cent. of the whole amount of stock voted "yea." There were no votes in the negative on this or any other question. The stockholders passed a resolution of thanks to the officers for their successful maintenance of the company's rights. The meeting then dissolved.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

The republican convention for the 24th senatorial district, comprising wards one, two and four in this city, was held at the Court House on Tuesday forenoon at eleven o'clock. John Knowlton was chosen temporary chairman, and Alfred C. Hoyt temporary secretary. A committee of three, consisting William E. Hadley, Henry F. Gerrish and George Humphries, was appointed to select officers for the permanent organization, and reported as follows: John H. Bailey, president; Alfred C. Hoyt, secretary; and the report was accepted and adopted. The president and secretary were appointed a committee on credentials, and reported eighteen delegates present. It was voted to proceed to ballot for a candidate for State Senator, and the first ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes	18
Necessary for a choice	10
John H. Broughton had	9
Titus S. Tredick	9

And there was no choice. Another ballot was taken, with the following result:

Whole number of votes	18
Necessary for a choice	10
Titus S. Tredick had	8
John H. Broughton	10

And John H. Broughton was declared the nominee of the convention, the nomination being made unanimous; after which the convention adjourned without day.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL CONVENT ON.

The democratic convention for the 1st Congressional district was held at Rochester on Tuesday, and Herbert F. Norris of Epping was nominated on the second ballot. Chesley, the greenback nominee, received twenty-eight votes. Resolutions were passed denouncing national banks, in favor of taxing the bonds, the issuing of greenbacks "sufficient for all purposes," and payment of the bonds in the currency in which they were contracted—in other words the platform adopted was a radical inflation-and-repudiation one, and the convention was a greenback affair sailing under the false colors of democracy.

THE PLATFORM.

The following is the platform adopted by the Hard Money Club at the meeting on Monday evening:

Opposition to all paper inflation and consequent depreciation. In favor of a currency of coin and paper of equal value and equal purchasing power—the paper convertible into coin at the will of the holder.

The following is the substance of the remarks made by Judge Batcheider at the hard money meeting Monday night:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: Lawyers have nothing to gain by opposing "fiat" money. Their pecuniary interests lie on the other side, for they would reap a rich harvest if the greenback theories were carried out. In the first place, if "absolute money" was determined upon, every lender who had the power would call for his money. No extensions of time would be granted. Every holder of an overdue mortgage would at once foreclose, and general bankruptcy, with its rich fees for lawyers and sheriffs, would be the result at the very threshold of the attempt to issue "fiat" money. But I do not consider that personal gain should be weighed against the ruin of hundreds, and, moreover, I regard national honor as of more importance than any man's gain. Five years ago every person admitted the expediency and even the necessity of doing away with legal tender paper and establishing our business on a gold and silver basis. And at that time any person who should have proposed to make a bit of paper with no promise to pay on it a legal tender would have been considered a lunatic. And since the laws of price are unquestionably dependent upon the law of demand and supply, which as old as our race, if the theory was absurd then it is absurd now. The attempt to make 0 = 100 by legislative enactment never has succeeded and never can. We have used the unmeaning phrase "paper money" so long that many of the greenbackers believe that the paper promises in use are money. Webster defines money to be "coin," "stamped-metal." Can you properly say "paper-coin" or "paper-metal?" As well say that a color is "white-black" or a figure "round-square." It is a contradiction of terms. There is not, there cannot be such a thing as "paper-money." What then is "money?" It is that product of labor which is used in measuring the value of other products. It is to a certain extent like the yardstick which measures your cloth or the pound which balances your sugar or the bushel which measures your potatoes and wheat. It is the representative of the amount of labor used in producing any article, as the amount of labor employed to produce the cloth is measured by its length in yards, and the number of pounds of sugar tells you much labor has been expended in its manufacture. A bushel of wheat costs a dollar because ordinarily the amount of labor expended in raising the bushel of wheat and bringing it to market is equal to the amount of labor spent in obtaining the amount of gold in a dollar. When you can get a satisfactory yardstick without length or a pound without weight or a bushel without capacity, then and not till then can you have a measure of value without intrinsic value. Every sale can be illustrated by a pair of balances. If you put the labor of producing the bushel of wheat in one pan and the labor of producing the gold dollar in the other they balance. But if you put the labor of producing your bushel of wheat in one pan, and try to balance it with the labor of producing so-called paper-dollars in the other, it will take an enormous amount of the paper to prevent that side from kicking the beam. Hence the depreciation of such a currency is certain. If the paper promises to pay gold on demand, and the trader has faith in its promise, it may be used instead of gold and at an equal value, otherwise it must circulate at a discount, which increases enormously as the difficulty of changing the paper into gold increases, and the paper becomes utterly worthless whenever it becomes certain it will never be redeemed. This is not theory, but history, and our own country furnishes a striking example in the old continental currency. Let us try to get a clearer idea of the use of money. In the spring the farmer manures an acre of ground, plows it, plant it with potatoes, cultivates it during the summer, digs his potatoes in the fall, stores them in his celler and then brings them to market. Each of these operations involves labor, and there is beside antecedent labor in producing the potatoes used for seed. Suppose he obtains one hundred bushels of potatoes. The quantity is measured by the number of bushels. The value depends upon the amount of labor spent on the fields. Suppose the whole labor amounts to fifty days, then every bushel of his potatoes represents half a day's labor. There may be a cotton factory in his neighborhood, with its large boarding house which needs all his potatoes. The manufacturer wishes him to take his pay in cotton cloth. The value of the cloth depends on the labor expended in planting, cultivating, picking, pressing, transporting the cotton and in carrying on the various processes requisite for converting the cotton into cloth. Suppose that on the average a day's labor produces ten yards of cloth, then five yards of cloth would represent as much labor as a bushel of potatoes, and would be of the same value, if we neglect the fact that labor is of different grades and is compensated at different rates. The farmer then would receive for his 100 bushels of potatoes five hundred yards of cloth. But perhaps he has no use for so much. What shall be done? The manufacturer wants all his potatoes and the farmer wants to sell, but he wants little or no cloth. Here comes in the function of money. The miner digs out the precious metals from the earth, separates them from the worthless soil or rock in which they lie, and brings them to the mint to be stamped. On the average his labor brings twenty-five and five-eighths grains of gold each day, or the amount of gold in a dollar. That gold is the result of his labor and the representative of his work. The government stamp attests its fineness and weight. By universal consent this product of labor has been chosen to measure the value of the farmer's potatoes and the manufacturer's cloth. So the farmer, knowing that the labor of producing all things is measured by gold, is willing to receive gold for his potatoes. He does not say that a bushel of his potatoes is worth five yards of cloth, but that they are worth half a dollar a bushel. And so, perhaps without thinking of it, offsets his labor in raising the potatoes with an equal amount of labor in producing gold. The manufacturer also does not say that a yard of his cloth is worth one-fifth of a bushel of potatoes, but that it is worth one-tenth of a dollar, likewise measuring labor with labor. Therefore the former is willing to receive money for his potatoes, for he knows that the shoemaker will receive money for his shoes, and the butcher will receive money for his meat, and in short that all persons will gladly take money for whatever they have to sell. Money then is the means by which two persons who do not deal together mutually as producers and consumers, are able to enter into transaction. All civilized communities have agreed to use gold or silver, or both, for money. Anything else which has labor expended in its production might be used for this purpose if the community agreed to receive it. Thus we are told that rock-salt is used in Abyssinia, hides in South America, cotton cloth in Eastern Africa, and a small univalve shell, the cowrie, in Bengal. None of these are obtained by "fiat" as you can readily see, but by labor. All civilized communities however prefer gold and silver to all other products for this use, because their value is practically unchangeable, they are durable, easily divisable, and have large value in little compass. There is another point concerning the precious metals which is of great practical importance. The farmer, who sells his potatoes for $50 and receives his pay in gold, knows that, if every government in the world should discard gold as a measure of value, and the government which coins the gold should fail, his money is still worth $50. There is no need of faith and confidence in the government while the farmer has that in his pocket. He has already "the substance of things hoped for." If the greenbacker will give an equally secure money to the farmer, one which cannot be affected by the variable breeze of governmental conduct any more than gold or silver, then I will gladly join with him in its adoption. Butler says "Gold is a coward, it always flies away in seasons of danger." Gentlemen, that is not true. It came boldly to our defence when the rebellion began, and had far more backbone than its paper representative could have. It bought us twice the supplies the same amount of paper would have done, and only let us because the government had to make heavy payments abroad for necessary supplies and the gold could not be collected again immediately. If you wish a money that is not a coward, counterfeit money is the best you can have, for it will never leave you. But suppose we grant that gold is a coward. What then shall we say of irredeemable paper? Is not a coward in your pocket better than a thief?

One point in regard to the government stamp of coin. This performs exactly the same service as the certificate of the sealer of weights and measures. The latter shows that the yardstick measures thirty-six inches, and the pound weighs sixteen ounces, but cannot add the thickness of a hair to the length of the stick or a single grain to the weight of the pound. The stamp of the government certifies that the gold is of a certain weight and fineness, but as it cannot add to the amount of gold, neither can it add to its value. Gentlemen, I thank you for your attention while I have been offering you a few old and well known truths on this subject. What we need to-day is to advance, and revivify by fresh examples, these old truths, and to learn by the universal experience of mankind how to avoid the shoals and hidden rocks in our future course, which if not avoided may wreck our republican form of government.

Fat Man Made Happy.--Loses 61 lbs.

PRATTVILLE, Ala., July, 20 1878.
Botanic Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.:
Gentlemen—About three months ago I commenced using your "Anti-Fat," at which time my weight was 219 pounds. By following your directions carefully, I have succeeded in reducing my weight to 158 pounds. This is all very satisfactory and pleasant; but just previous to my commencing the use of your medicine, I had purchased two suits of fine clothes at a high price, and find, to my dismay, that they are entirely useless to me now. When I put one of my coats on, my friends tell me it looks like a coffee sack on a bean-pole, and when I put the pants on,—well, description fails. My object in writing is to ascertain whether you have not, in connection with your medicine business, an establishment where your patrons, similarly situated, could exchange these useless garments for others that would fit. I think you ought to have something of the kind, as it would be an inducement for many to use the Anti-Fat, who now object to using it, in consequence of the loss they would sustain in throwing aside valuable garments. Just turn this matter over in your mind. A "Clothing Exchange" is what you want in connection with your Anti-Fat business.
Yours truly, GEORGE BOYD.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in refilling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietor) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

HOSTETTER & SMITH.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side of de house, wile in de ebenin, it shine on de hous. Now, of he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

—New colors abound this season, and most of them bear suggestive names. The grays are granite, iron-gray and a shade known as "ranur;" the rich purple of this year is "regina," the greens "Rembrandt" and bottle-green;" "chartreuse" is a light tint; "marjolaine" an olive; "heron" a dark grayish tint; and "fuchsia" is a rich crimson red.

—"Was not the other fellow that got away a tall-complected man, and did not the obscurity of the moon's pale beams preclude you from perceiving accurately the lineaments of the other fellow?" asked the counsel of the defence of a witness in a San Francisco robbery case, and when the witness answered he complained that the answer was elusive.

Mr. Thomas A. Hendricks was in town last night, and received here the news of Ben. Butler's nomination by the Massachusetts democrats. Mr. Hendricks expressed himself very strongly about it. Mr. Hendricks is not on the fence when it comes to the Butler question. He was so very decided and emphatic as to say that he looked upon Ben Butler as a "monstrosity." This is a hard and cruel word. Mr. Hendricks ought not to speak in this disrespectful way of the democratic nominee for Governor of the great State of Massachusetts. It may disturb the harmony of the party.—Terre Haute Express.

PENNSYLVANIA

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

Political.

Dennis Kearney, the Apostle of "the Chinese must go," bad language, and ruffianism generally, delivered his tirade at East Boston on the evening of the 1st inst., to an audience of about one thousand persons. He had hardly commenced to speak when an onion shied by some "lecherous bondholder" whizzed past his nose, and a potato thrown by some "slimy imp of hell" smashed a lantern alongside of the apostle's head. Kearney foamed at the mouth and fairly outdid himself with profanity and bluster, and then the small boys fired off powder and blue lights under the wagon in which he was standing. The usual collection in aid of the cause concluded the services. The whole affair was one very grand fizzle.

E. M. Boynton of Newburyport, a greenback orator, recently published a challenge to James G. Blaine to meet him in a public discussion of the financial question. As this challenge was not given until after the departure of Mr. Blaine for the west, of course it was not accepted, as it probably was not intended it should be, and as it probably would not have been under any circumstances, as Mr. Blaine has no interest in giving the greenback orator notoriety; but Mr. Gamaliel Bradford of Boston has publicly offered to meet Boynton at such time and place as he might select—an offer which the latter declines.

The democratic Congressional convention in the 1st district of New Hampshire was evidently regarded by the Boston papers as of very great importance. It was held on the 1st inst., and not one Boston paper of the next morning had any mention of it. [Since the foregoing was in type we notice that the Post has a four line item announcing Mr. Norris' nomination—but that wonderful democratic greenback platform is not mentioned.]

—A rocky place—the nursery.

—Some months ago the Lord Bishop of —— came to this country on a visit to Rev. Dr. ——, of the Episcopal church in New York. The doctor instructed a colored boy in his service to knocked at the bed-room door of the Lord Bishop early in the morning and say, "My Lord, the boy." Accordingly the next morning, the boy, somewhat dazed by so much grandeur, knocked at the Bishop's door. "Who is there!" The boy responded, "The Lord, my boy."

Colorado Election.

Colorado had an election Oct. 1st. The republican candidates ran on a hard money platform, the democrats and greenbackers acting together, the latter party having swallowed the former. The republicans swept the State.

Hon. James B. Belford, who was elected to Congress in 1876 by a thousand majority, but was unseated by the "democratic House," is re-elected by over 2000 majority; it is not believed that even a "democratic House" will dispute this majority. The State ticket shows a gain of 1000 to 1,500, and the Legislature is two-thirds republican. The railroad rings are utterly defeated, as they depended on the triumph of the demo-greenback combination.

The Democratic Party's Destination.

A reporter of the New York Evening Post has had an interview with Shupe, the editor of the central organ of the greenbackers, the New York Advocate, in the course of which Shupe said:

If the democratic party adopts hard money it goes over to the republicans, who inaugurated, developed and sustain hard money. If, on the other hand, it adopts, "soft" money—as it must—it goes over to the greenback party. The members of the greenback party are already democratic, four to one; for every republican that joins us we receive an accession of four democrats. The democratic party is tottering to its dissolution. Mark my words: in a few months it will be a thing of the past. There will be then two parties, the republican or hard-money party, and the greenback or soft-money party. The financial question is to-day the only living question in politics, and it will organize political parties. The people are already dividing on this question; the masses of the democrats are with us. On one side you will see the party of inflationists, borrowers, and laborers; on the other side the party of conservatives, lenders and capitalists.

Want to Borrow—But Can't.

The bankers of Virginia, to whom the Governor of that great and wealthy State applied for a small loan to keep the schools open, at a meeting Oct. 1st indicated their intention of declining to advance the money. They fear repudiation. That is how dishonesty "gets back" on those who practise it; refusing to pay a just debt may for the time be a very satisfactory way of paying it, but the once-swindled creditor will take good care that the swindler does not get in his debt again, no matter how badly the latter may stand in need of a loan, or how much the former may have to lend to honest men. New Hampshire pays her debts honestly, and if she wanted to borrow money to-day she could get it at the lowest rate of interest, from bankers who would be glad to become her creditors. It is the same with nations; Turkey can only get twelve or fourteen per cent. for her bonds, and her "fiat money" is refused even by the Musselmans.

News and Notes.

A Washington special states that there is a probability that the fishery award question will be reopened by England.

The continued warm weather has served to increase the death rate at both Memphis and New Orleans, fifty fatal cases being reported in the former city Oct. 1st, and seventy-one in the latter. The scourge at Vicksburg is on the increase. There is but little change at other places where the malady prevails. Major E. G. Wall, secretary of the Howard Association of Jackson, Miss., has notified Capt. W. Q. Lowd, now in this city, of the death by the fever of a young man employed in the office of the Jackson Clarion; this death took place Sept. 27th, and was the second in that city.

The boat race between Courtney and Hanlon, which was to have taken place at Lachine, Ont., Wednesday, was postponed on account of rain and wind.

Cyrille Dion, the celebrated billiard player, died at Montreal of congestion of the lungs, Oct. 2d, while on the way to the Hanlon-Courtney boat race.

In 1858, Capt. John A. Holmes was tried in the District Court of Bangor for the murder of a seaman under the most atrocious circumstances. The prisoner was sentenced to be hanged, but one of the last official acts of President Buchanan was to pardon him on the ground that he must be insane. Holmes disappeared and nothing was afterward heard of him, but it is now found that he recently died at Cardiff, Wales, where he was a merchant.

George Hoffman, of Syracuse county, N. Y., died Sept. 29th from the effects of arsenic administered in tea by his fourteen-year-old boy, the son of his second wife, who instigated him to the crime. The man and wife had been quarreling, and she had left the house after a severe beating. She and the boy are under arrest. The boy obtained the poison of a druggist, on the statement that it was to be used for killing rats.

The contractor for carrying the mails between Fort Worth, Texas, and Yuma, Arizona, reports that his mail coaches were attacked and robbed twenty-seven times the past six weeks by Mexican bandits. In one instance, where the coach contained 700 pounds of silver, robbers overpowered the passengers and driver, seized the vehicle and horses and drove away with their plunder. He has secured an order from the War Department for troops to accompany the mail coach, to prevent such lawless depredations.

At Ackron, Ohio, recently, two police officers went to an old forge outside the city to arrest two tramps suspected of robbing a post office. The officers found about thirty armed tramps at the forge, and were chased back to Ackron by them. A militia company was called out and arrested eighteen of the tramps; several shots were fired, but no person was seriously hurt.

Wesley W. Bishop, of Norwich, Conn., who with his paramour, Mrs. Kate M. Cobb, has for some time been in jail on suspicion of having poisoned his wife and Mrs. Cobb's husband, has confessed that he purchased poison to kill Cobb and that Mrs. Cobb administered it. He denies poisoning Mrs. Bishop, laying all the blame for the latter crime on Mrs. Cobb.

J. B. Calder, cashier of the Grocers and Producers' Bank of Providence, R. I., a State institution of $160,000 capital, is a defaulter, and the defalcation reaches $80,000 and possibly $100,000. Fully one-half the capital of the bank is gone. Calder is a young man and has always stood high in the community; he was arrested as soon as his stealing was found out. He has a wife and one child.

The farmers in some parts of Vermont complain strongly of the potato rot; many fields are being ploughed under, not being worth harvesting.

Gilmore and his band arrived home Saturday. Gilmore tells of wonderous success in Europe, declaring that his band encountered and vanquished thirteen of the crack bands, one after another; that in London they were awarded the palm over five British bands combined in one; that everywhere they were received with great enthusiasm, and that they more than cleared expenses.

In the Supreme Court at Providence, R. I., Monday, a hearing was had on the petition of certain tax-payers of Newport that the city treasurer of that city be restrained from paying the bills for the ball given by the city council to the officers of the British squadron. Chief Justice Durfee said there was no doubt in his mind that the council had exceeded its authority in the expenditure of the money. The only question was whether the petitioners, by their delay, had lost their redress. He thought it the duty of the court to grant an injunction for the present to give time for further investigation.

The Cleveland Leader says: "The enthusiastic public, which has paid two dollars for a berth on Pullman's sleeping cars during the past year, will be delighted to know that the revenue of the company during the past year was $2,160,829; expenses, $875,578. These figures appeared in the financial statement presented at the annual meeting of the company the other day. It is one of the beautiful peculiarities of a sleeping and drawing room car line that it can sometimes make more clear money in a year than the railroad over which its cars run. We are a sovereign people. If we want to pay two dollars for a berth and give the porter the price of a laborer's day's work in France for running a brush over our shoes, why shouldn't we all do it?"

The law officers of the Government have taken steps to eject parties from about 1000 acres of land in the Pennsylvania oil regions. The land was taken in part payment of a debt due the United States by the Venango county bank of about $60,000. It was held by the former owner in days of the oil fever at a fabulous sum, he having at one time refused $700,000 for the same.

The Secretary of the Treasury has promoted O. H. Irish of Nebraska, late Assistant Chief of the Bureau of Engraving, to be Chief of that Bureau, vice McPherson resigned. He has also appointed Daniel W. Wilson of Ohio to be Assistant Chief of the Bureau.

The annual parade of the Fire Department of Concord took place Tuesday afternoon, 1st inst. After inspection by the Mayor in front of the capitol the annual dinner occurred at the city hall.

Josiah M. Read, Esq., of Everett, Mass., attended the golden wedding of his eldest brother at Swanzey, N. H., on Monday, and on the same day his wife attended the golden wedding of her brother at Wakefield, Mass.

An Emery wheel at the Cole Manufacturing Company's shops at Lake Village burst while revolving at an immense speed the other day, and one fragment striking the floor, rebounded and struck George Sanborn in the abdomen with great force. He was taken up in an unconscious condition, and it was at first feared he was fatally injured, but he is now considered out of danger.

Political.

The republican convention of the 7th congressional district of Massachusetts—Ben. Butler's—was held at Lowell on the 2d inst., and William A. Russell of Lawrence was nominated. Resolutions were unanimously passed demanding Butler's resignation of his present seat in Congress, the preamble to the resolutions charging Butler with being a liar and a traitor—and proving it, too, by liberal extracts from his speeches and broken pledges.

The greenback convention of the seventh Congressional district of Massachusetts was held in Lowell Oct. 1st, and Mayor Richardson of Lowell was nominated. T. F. Byron, who was a candidate for the nomination, declared in the convention that he met Butler in Pemberton square, Boston, on the previous day, when Butler proposed that he (Byron) should be the nominee of the greenbackers of the district, and withdrew in favor of Tarbox, the democratic candidate, at the end of two or three weeks. Byron refused to trade, so Richardson was put forward for the purpose.

What a friend of the workingman Butler is. The Middlesex Mill, of which he is the largest stockholder, nas divided 427 per cent. in sixteen years, an average of 26 3-4 per cent. per annum, which makes four-per-cent. bonds look like rather poor property; while the "millhands" are said to be kept at the lowest wages.

The greenbackers of the third Congressional district of New Hampshire have nominated Hon. James W. Johnson of Enfield as their candidate. Mr. Johnson was State Senator from the old 11th district, in 1877, having been elected as a republican in a democratic district.

Somebody stole the medallion likeness of Gen. Ben. Butler from Phillips Exeter Academy the other night. Well, just mark the empty void "this is Butler," and let it pass, like fiat greenbacks, as his counterfeit presentment.—Portsmouth Weekly.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dsept1079

THE CITY.

Attention is called to the advertisement of setter pup lost.

A quartette choir has been formed for the Episcopal church, the soprano being Miss Edith Wendell.

The mechanical city on exhibition at Franklin hall is well worth a visit; the little folks are delighted with it, and it is a most ingenious piece of work. Its constructor must have been a man of wonderful patience.

Mayor Sise, on behalf the city, on Wednesday paid the purchase money for the south millpond, and the deeds were passed. In the afternoon the Mayor and the aldermanic committee having the matter in trust, were engaged in an examination of the bed of the pond, the gates having been lashed open to allow all the water to flow out.

It now seems that the schooner Samuel Knights was run ashore on Landstaff rocks by her master as a case of necessity. When off the railroad bridge it was discovered that the vessel had sprung a bad leak, and then had five feet of water in the hold and was fast settling. Capt. Ellwood headed her for the nearest shore, which was Pickering's cove, and she struck upon the rocks on the way in, they being then covered with the high tide. The bricks are being taken out, butit is not thought the vessel can be saved; she is not insured.

On Tuesday evening, at Music hall, Mrs. Mary A. Livermore is to lecture on "Superfluous Women." The Pittston (Penn.) Gazette says of her: "Mrs. Livermore is probably upwards of fifty years of age, tall in stature and well proportioned, black hair, and fair and regular features; has an elastic step, unusual to a woman of her age, which denotes a strong constitution and unimpaired health, while her face bears an aspect of decisiveness and determination which would do honor to a queen. In manner she is very simple and plain, which is very becoming to her nature and duties, and with that clear, distinct, and ringing voice, with which she holds her audiences spellbound, it is not to be wondered at that the name of Mrs. M. A. Livermore has become a household word wherever she has chanced to discourse upon her favorite and well-chosen topic."

THE VICINITY.

Mrs. Endora Foss died very suddenly at Saco of heart disease, Sept. 30th.

The greenbackers of the 22d senatorial district met in convention at Newmarket on the 1st inst., and nominated Josiah S. James of Epping for the State Senate.

The greenbackers of the Rockingham (21st) senatorial district held their convention in Exeter on the 1st inst., and nominated Samuel W. Leavitt of Exeter as their candidate.

The grocery store of George W. Wakefield in Saco was burglarized on the night of the 30th ult., and two or three dollars in coppers and nickels stolen. The thieves damaged the store and money drawer to more than that amount, in breaking into them.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 2; Batchelder, J.

Olive Austin was up just once more, for drunkenness, and paid the $9.90 charged.

A PLEASANT NOTE.

The following note from Rear Admiral John C. Howell, U. S. N., dated flag ship Powhatan, Oct. 2d, and addressed to Mayor Sise, explains itself:

Sir: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th ult., and to say, that it will give me much pleasure if I can in any way contribute to the enjoyment of the citizens of Portsmouth. Capt. Fillebrown will send the band up, in the evening, as you suggest. I have such pleasant memories of the two years I passed in command of the navy yard, and of my association with the citizens of Portsmouth, that I am very glad to be able to revisit the charming old town and to renew my acquaintance with its people.

TOO BIG PIES.

A young man residing in this city, who "has a specialty" for pies, recently made a wager that he could eat two pies at one sitting, without any more delay than occurs at an ordinary meal. A certain time was allowed him to prepare for the contest, and he put himself in training by going through various exercises and abstaining from all food for twenty-four hours before he was to commence his gastronomic exhibition. At the appointed time he he was astonished at being confronted by two mince pies each eighteen inches across and two and a half inches deep; but his courage held good, and he commenced the struggle by placing the pies on, above the other, halving them, and then taking a big bite off the corner of one of the halves. He disposed of the first half in four minutes, and the second one in five minutes more, which was considered real good time. The third half-pie took nine minutes to stow away; and the fourth one, after a few bites had been taken from it, was thrown on the floor by the eatist, who gave up the wager. The result was that he went home sick, and will probably be interviewing his ancestry for a week of nights.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Regular meeting of Board, Wednesday evening, 2d inst.; present the Mayor, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Wilson, and Messrs. May, Gardner, Knight, Pender, Locke, Hoyt, Vaughan, Wendell and Hackett.

Sundry bills were reported and ordered paid.

A committee of three was appointed to consider the present mode of heating the school rooms, and to enquire as to the relative cost of the heating with wood as compared with coal, to report at next meeting.

Resignation of Miss Marian F. Ham was received.

Several applications for positions to teach school were received and filed.

The proposed changes in the second district were explained by the chairman of the committee of that district.

A motion to add certain members to the several district committees failed to pass.

The committee on teachers' meetings received an extension of time in which to report.

The subject of revising the programme of studies was referred to a special committe.

Adjourned.

OLIVIA.

The sale of tickets to Music hall for Friday evening commenced at Preston's on Tuesday, and the number of seats already engaged indicates a large audience to greet the charming actress Fanny Davenport in the great play of "Olivia." Of her first appearance in this play at the Union square theatre the New York Times said: "In appearance she realized the proud and handsome daughter of the Vicar sufficiently well to satisfy the most imaginative reader of the book, as might have been expected. And in depicting the character of the misled girl, in all its many phases, she was eminently successful. The earlier scenes with Thornhill lacked nothing in the way of archness; her coquetry mingled the instinctive shrewdness of proud maidenhood with the tenderness of a loving woman; and in the later scenes, when hesitatingly listening to the tempter's words, and finally falling vanquished into his snares; when striving to hide her anguish on the eve of her departure, as she pressed little keepsakes upon all the loved ones at the Vicarage; and when, hearing the Squire's calm recital of his crime, the agonizing wail came to her lips, and the pallor of shame to her brow, the art of the actress failed nowhere. Miss Davenport has certainly chosen for her autumn and winter tour a character which suits her person and her talents well, and the play itself can have none but a wholesome effect in whatever community it is represented. Nothing remains to be said, except that the applause last night was loud, and was evidently substantial."

[Communicated.]

JOHN NEWLAND MAFFITT.

As I pass through State street, the Methodist church, in association with its early history, often brings to my memory the above eloquent preacher, who for so long a time held a prominent position in the American pulpit. He had been heard occasionally in his journeyings from place to place, in the old church which was afterwards known as the Camenæum, and when the new one was erected, he was appointed by the conference of his denomination as its pastor for the term of a year, but from some fancy of his own not wishing to accept it, he was allowed to travel for most of the period of his term instead of remaining in Portsmouth; in return he agreeing to give to the church to aid in liquidating its debt, a liberal share of the compensation he received for his services elsewhere.

John N. Maffitt, as his name was always expressed, was of the class of self-made men who often surpass others whose early beginnings are under far greater advantages. Of Irish birth, the city of Dublin being his place of origin, his occupation, which was that of a tailor, though an honorable one afforded him no advantages for intellectual growth; yet when quitting his useful if humble calling, he went forth to preach the gospel, his charm of voice and eloquence of language were as sweet and natural as the song of wild birds in their woodland home. Of moderate height, plain in person, a hair-lip somewhat damaging his facial expression, there was little about him of personal attraction to the eye, but there was a charm in his voice and in the words he uttered that entranced all who came within its influence. For most of the time during a period of thirty years, he journeyed from city to city, from town to town, attracting the same crowds wherever he went, filling every edifice, however spacious its dimensions, in which his voice was heard; his audiences were made up of the rich and the poor, the uneducated and the cultured, the refined and the unrefined, and he held equal sway over them all. The rich man forgot for the time his riches, and the poor man his poverty; each realized that they were of the same frail mortality, alike sinful and alike needing aid that no human power could give them. Few could keep back the tears that would often come unbidden to the eyes, even of those unwont to be thus affected. There were then no such conveniences as camp-stools, it was in the time, besides, ere platforms come in vogue, and when every seat was occupied to the most remote corner, below and above, and the pulpit stairs were filled, the aisles were packed to the last degree of endurance, and there the throng would stand, heedless alike of passing time and dicomfort of position, awaking as from a dream at the close of what had so absorbed them, and even wishing it might have had a longer continuance.

Passages there were in his sermons that fell upon the ear like strains of the sweetest music. A sweet-voiced singer as he was, besides, no one who heard him ever forgot his voice in the familiar melody, "Children of the Heavenly King," to the air of "Pleyel's Hymn," or in "Alas, and did my Savior bleed," to a tune still known among the Methodists of New York and elsewhere as Maffitt's tune. It is a great favorite with them at communion seasons in the same appropriate hymn, and were it known would be popular everywhere. The following conclusion to a discourse on the immortality of the soul, will give an idea of his peculiar gift in the use of language:

"The phœnix, fabled bird of antiquity, when it felt the chill advances of age, built its own funeral urn, and fired its own pyre, by means which nature's instinct taught. All of its plumage and its form of beauty became ashes; but ever would rise from its dust the young; beautiful from the urn of death and chambers of decay would the fledgeling come, with its eye turned to the blue vault above, and essaying its dark, velvet wings, sprinkled with gold and fringed with silver, on the balmy air, rising higher and higher, until, in the full confidence of strength, it gave a cry of joy, and soon became a glittering speck in the bosom of the aerial ocean! Lovely voyager of earth, bound on its heavenward journey to the sun! So rises the spirit-bird from the ruins of the body, the funeral urn which its Maker built and death fires. So towers away to its home in the pure elements of spirituality, the intellectual phœnix, to dip its wings in the fountain of eternal bliss. So shall dear, precious humanity survive from the ashes of a burning world; so, beautiful, shall the unchanged soul soar within the disc of Eternity's great luminary with undazzled eye and unscorched wings—the phœnix of immortality — taken to its rainbow home, and cradled in the bosom of Eternal Love!"

The culminating point of Maffitt's eminence as a preacher was the period when he was chosen chaplain to Congress, whose walls then echoed to the eloquence of Adams, Clay, Webster, and others of that brilliant galaxy of statesmen, not one of whom now survives. No one holding the same position ever before attracted so full an attendance at the daily morning prayers, or such large audiences on the Sabbath. On a bright morning in the spring-time he chose his text from that interesting portion of our Savior's history while on earth, his interview with the woman of Samaria at the well of Sychars, in the words following: "Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; for the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life." An audience gathered that morning to hear him of which any man on earth might have been proud. His discourse, extempore as was his custom, was listened to with the same breathless attention by all, and its effect was alike on all, from the man of giant intellect to the most simple-minded among the large concoure present; all felt that the message was to them—not to their neighbors. It was the theme of much comment in all circles of Washington society, and was remembered as an eloquent and touching effort of pulpit oratory but rarely equalled. His last, great demonstration was at Brooklyn, N. Y., where the Centenary Methodist church was filled nightly to overflowing, as well as at the Sabbath services, for months together, to listen to him; throngs surrounding the building for hours beforehand, and filling it to overflowing when the doors were opened. From thence he went on a tour southward, and died a few months subsequently at Toulminville, Alabama. No man ever had warmer or more devoted friends — friendships at times, like that which clustered around Clay and Webster in their latter days, amounting almost to idolatry; he had enemies, too, but for what not one of them could have told; enemies, not seldom, who when they came to know him, were afterwards among the most ardent of his friends.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Oct. 1st.

On Wednesday evening last there was an exhibition of some kind of a panorama at the town hall; a fair audience was present, and the views were said to be very good.

On Thursday the Congregational society picnicked at Fox point, Newington, a large number of people attending, and all getting abundance to eat. Remarks were made by the pastor, Rev. Willis E. Hadley, and others; and the time was very pleasantly passed.

A valuable cow belonging to Uri H. Jenness was choked to death Thursday with an apple which she picked up under a tree in the pasture.

Mrs. Emma Moulton, wife of Jacob Moulton, accidentally stepped off the platform in front of J. Ira Marden's bathing house at the beach Thursday evening, and broke her leg above the ankle. The place should be built over, as it is very dangerous at night.

Rev. John A. Goss, of Portsmouth, preached very acceptably at the Christian church on Sunday, in exchange with Rev. Ira S. Jones. The church was crowded, there being no service at the Congregational, on account of the pastor's illness.

For a trifling misdemeanor a boy fourteen years old was recently severely punished by the teacher of one of the public schools with an oak ferule two feet long. It is about time that corporal punishment in schools was done away with.

I hear that the reform club is to be reorganized; it is high time it awoke from its lethargy.

SCRIBE.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All flitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

A Quick Beverage.

Two dozen boats full of Greek sponge fishers were getting water on Mr. Madrouka, when a party of Arabs tried to make them pay tribute of money and food for the privilege. They were driven off after a bloody fray, with their ammunition gone; but just then a contraband seller of powder came on the scene with his vessel. The fishermen hurried to him and got his promise not to sell powder to the Arabs till after their own departure next morning. He gave the pledge, but then reflecting what a good thing he had lost, broke his word and landed a few barrels at midnight. The fishermen rushed aboard his vessel, voluble with reproaches, and it is said, struck him. The enraged trader drew his revolver and fired into his powder barrels, when a terrible explosion tore into shreds the vessel and all on board. Of the seventy Greek fishermen that so perished fifty-five were from the Isle of Halkis; the others were mostly Rhodians and sailors from Calymnos.

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Dyspepsia, Sallowness, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially have it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Itch, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow blotches or spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternating with hot flashes, low spirits, sick gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, tongue coated, you may give notice that Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it corrects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has proved a most powerful, efficacious, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CAUTION.

☞ The great popularity of "ASTRAL" OIL has induced some unprincipled persons to sell worthless and dangerous imitations for "ASTRAL," while others palm off inferior oils, representing them as good as "ASTRAL." To prevent this fraud, purchasers should demand "ASTRAL" and take no other.

Daily Chronicle.

Political.

The republican convention of the 8th district of Massachusetts on Thursday nominated Hon. William Claflin for Congress by acclamation.

The stories of bull-dozing in Louisiana are well-known to be merely radical lies, and to have no foundation; but Gov. Nicholls of Louisiana has issued a proclamation offering rewards for the arrest and conviction of parties who hanged a colored man named Broadhenrt on the 7th of September in West Feliciana parish until he was nearly dead, and then beat him, and also beat his wife and two children. Also for the arrest of the murderers of Thomas Dalton, colored, Sept. 21st, in West Feliciana parish, Dalton having been bull-dozed to death by a gang of masked white men.

"Removing the books" is the quiet and inoffensive phrase with which the Tilden organs speak of the bold robbery of the court records up in Michigan the other day. When Tilden or his agents steal anything for the purpose of covering up his criminal tracks they simply "remove it," you see; but when he is legally deprived of an office to which he was never elected, it is stolen from him.—Wash. Repub.

The republican victory in Colorado is especially gratifying in a good many particulars, but in none more than in the emphatic rebuke thereby administered to Mr. Patterson, and to the democratic majority in the House which gave him a place to which the people elected a better man. The republican majority at the last State election was about 800. Now the republicans have vanquished the democrats, the wampum party and the railroad monopolists by a majority estimated to be three times as large as it was two years ago. A republican Senator will be chosen, a republican Representative is gained, and the State is prepared to cast a republican vote for President if the contest goes to the House. It is a victory for sound principles, sound money and sound, enduring prosperity.—Providence Journal.

—A London firm advertised recently for a collector, work hard and wages low, and received over eighteen hundred replies, nearly all from men of apparently good education and character, many of them from gentlemen.

—One of the rich men of Memphis, who is now absent, as a matter of course, left a white and colored woman in charge of his private house. The white woman got sick, and when this rich man of Memphis heard of that fact, he sent a letter to the colored woman as follows: "Send the white woman to the hospital. Don't use any of the sweet milk; don't use any of the eggs or chickens, but help yourself outside." That last expression undoubtedly means "go to the Howards or the relief committee."

—A mob of thirty men, called the "Red Men," visited the residence of Joe Eakin, at Burion, W. Va., and took him to the outskirts of the town, and there told him to choose between death and being ridden on a rail. Eakin did not choose, and upon a vote being taken it was decided to tar and feather him and ride him on a rail, which was done. The "Red Men" claimed that Eakin was living in a state of adultery with a woman. The vigilants visited another man the same night, near the town, and told him that he must show his authority for marrying his second wife while the first remains alive.

The Yellow Fever.

The reports from the fever districts on the 2d inst. show an alarming increase of the plague in Louisiana, and no abatement in Mississippi and Tennessee. At Baton Rouge, La., there were 88 new cases and six deaths on the 1st inst., and 82 new cases and five deaths on the 2d. The disease was increasing terribly at Plaquemine, Delta and Port Hickey. New Orleans reports new cases reported, 186; deaths, 86; total cases to date, 9802; total deaths, 2955. There are 45,000 persons—men out of work, and their families—suffering for food in New Orleans, many thousands being absolutely dependent upon charity. At Holly Springs, Miss., 17 new cases and 11 deaths; at Haynes Bluff, over 100 cases, and the disease spreading rapidly; at Gretna, total cases 230, deaths 20, disease spreading, much suffering among the poor; at Holly Springs, 15 new cases and 10 deaths, every store in the place closed; at Canton, disease taken a fresh start and very malignant in type. At Memphis, Tenn., 82 new cases and 42 deaths. One case in Columbus, Ohio. The fever has also appeared in several other places previously spared.

The Hanlan-Courtney Boat Race.

A despatch to New York from Auburn, N. Y., Courtney's native place, Thursday afternoon, said there was great excitement there "over a statement that Courtney has sold the race to the Canadians. It is claimed that Courtney is to have $4000 of the $6000 put up by Montreal people; that Courtney then bet the $4000 on Hanlan, and has made other bets through his relatives which, by his allowing Hanlan to win, will aggregate to Courtney a small fortune. All of Courtney's friends are betting on Hanlan."

A dispatch from Montreal in the evening announced the winning of the race by Hanlan, by two boat's lengths—a close shave in a five-mile pull.

A Murderer Who Needs Hanging.

A brief account has already been published of the murder of Frank Weinbecker by Frank Bassett at Bridgeport, Conn., and his attempted sale of the body to the Yale Medical School. The details show the crime to have been an unusually cold blooded affair. Bassett, the murderer, is a young fellow of twenty-five, and of good appearance. He has been living for some time with Mrs. Lorina Elizabeth Alexander, a well-preserved woman of forty-five, in an unoccupied carriage shop at East Bridgeport. Weinbecker was an inoffensive and half-witted sailor, considerably addicted to liquor. On the day that he was murdered he approached the carriage shop in a half-tipsy state, and was invited in to supper by Bassett. After supper he lay down on a lounge and fell asleep, and then Bassett placed a sponge wet with chloroform against his nostrils and held it there till he died. The motive for the murder was the money which Bassett hoped to get for the dead body at the Yale Medical School. Mrs. Alexander says she remonstrated with Bassett while he was killing Weinbecker, and he threatened to do the same to her if she did not shut up. She was afterward compelled to help in putting the body in a barrel, and was delegated to make a bargain with Prof. Sanford of the Medical School at New Haven for the dissecting-room specimen. Dr. Sanford declined to take the body, however, and then an attempt was made to conceal it in a deep and dark ravine at Derby. The crime might never have become known had not Bassett had a falling out with his mistress, who betrayed him. He appropriated a pocket-book which a man carelessly left lying on a fence, and then, when he was arrested for the theft, sold some of Mrs. Alexander's furniture to get out of the scrape. This irritated her and she told the story of the murder. Weinbecker's badly decomposed body was found where she said it had been put.

News and Notes.

The liabilities of the suspended City of Glasgow Bank, at Glasgow, Scotland, and now said to be $50,000,000, instead of $5,000,000, as first reported. It had a paid up capital of $5,000,000; its shares sold the day before it suspended at over one hundred per cent. premium; it had nearly sixty branches; and the liability of shareholders is unlimited. It needs no words to show how wide-spread and injurious must be the unexpected closing of an institution of this character with a large proportion of unconvertible assets.

During a celebration of the Mexican independence day, September 15th, in the National theatre in the city of Mexico, at which Minister Foster was present, an actor made discourteous remarks about the United States, which were applauded by part of the audience. In consequence a sensational report was circulated that Mr. Foster would demand his passports, but the report is now declared preposterous. The leading Mexican organs condemn the speech as foolish.

This is the way in which the Washington Republican endorses a newspaper man: "Howard Carroll, Esq., the capable and sometimes reliable traveling correspondent of the New York Times, passed through Washington yesterday on his way south."

The Russian army is to be reorganized, increased to 2,000,000, and be provided with improved arms and equipments. The term of service in the active army is reduced to three years, and the annual levy of new recruits will be increased by 70,000 men.

Joseph Johnson was assaulted in his own house at Hartland, Me., by a robber, who hit him in the forehead with a sharp stone, which cut to the skull. Johnson was also stabbed in the left arm. He became unconscious, but came to after the robber had taken a watch and $250, and escaped.

Trinity church, New York, the richest church corporation in the country, gave the yellow fever sufferers $6,900, while "the little church 'round the corner" in the same city contributed $7,400.

John O. Winship, a lawyer, of Portland, and George W. Sweet of Gorham, were held to bail in $3000 in the United States Circuit Court at Portland on Wednesday, on the charge of conspiring with others to defraud the creditors of Thomas A. Holland of Windham, Me., in 1876, by fraudulently mortaging his property and pretending a fictitious loss of $8000 by robbery of Holland on Boston Common, July 4th, of that year, in contemplation of his subsequent bankruptcy.

The land office at Jackson, Miss., closed Sept. 27th on account of the re-appearance of yellow fever.

The public schools of the District of Columbia have contributed $1047 for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers.

A singular case of poisoning from Paris green occurred in Rutland, Vt., recently. Mr. Stitt piled up the potato tops in his garden, on which had been used Paris green pretty freely, and set them on fire. His boy thought it was great sport to run through and stand in the smoke of the fire, and the consequence was that he got poison enough by means of the dust and smoke to produce all the characteristic effects of arsenic poisoning. Suitable antidotes were administered and the child recovered.

John Lovejoy, eighty years of age, who has been clerk in the Treasury Department at Washington for forty-six years, has been discharged because the District of Columbia has more than its quota of clerks.

F. G. Minor, one of the Cleveland, Ohio, grave robbers, has been sentenced to a fine of $100, and to pay costs and be confined in the workhouse for four months.

At Newark, Ohio, on the night of Oct. 2d, two tramps called at the house of a widow named McMillen, and finding her alone brutally outraged her, leaving her insensible. Ohio is not cursed with such an "infamous tramp law" as that of New Hampshire, which has so aroused the indignation of the New Hampshire greenbackers.

Mrs. Daniel Sullivan, of Rockland, Me., aged fifty-five years, was knocked down and fatally beaten on the evening of Oct. 2d by a notoriously drunken and disreputable woman named Hannah Thorndike. Mrs. Sullivan, who was a very worthy, hard-working woman, died soon after being rescued from her assailant. The Thorndike woman was lodged in jail.

Advices from Piedras Negras, Mexico, state that the officers of Mexican troops recently sent to Jiminiz and Los Macas are in good relations with American officers in the neighborhood, with whom they cordially co-operate for the protection of the border.

New Hampshire Items.

The Concord Patriot of October 2d announces that Col. E. C. Bailey has disposed of his ownership thereof to Frank D. Woodbury, "for an association of gentlemen from different parts of the State, who will assume the control of the same on and after October 1st." which means, it is understood, that the Patriot is to be merged in the Concord People.

C. F. Hobbs' house at Wolfeboro' was entered on the night of the 1st inst. by a window. The robbers found the way to the sleeping chamber, where they took Mr. Hobbs' clothes, carried them under a window outside and robbed them of $175 in money, between $100 and $200 in notes, other valuable papers, and the keys belonging to his house, store, safe and storehouse. An attempt was also made to enter the dwelling of James Seward, who keeps a grocery store. A hole was drilled through the glass of the sitting-room window and the window clasps unfastened, but the noise awakened the family and the burglars were frightened away. No arrests. The thieves are supposed to be a gang of sharpers who have been following up the fairs and cattle shows.

—Out at Denver Alexander Kyte was taking liberties with a nitro-glycerine can, when all at once the folks discovered that "higher than A Kyte" must be pretty far up.—Lowell Courier.

—Once all the locomotives constructed in this country were jacketed with Russia sheet iron, of which from 20,000 to 25,000 packages were imported annually; but now the tables have been turned. The locomotives shipped to Russia from Philadelphia were jacketed with the American article.

—A man was arrested on Broadway, New York, the other day, carrying two signs strapped over his shoulders and a torn umbrella over his head. On the signs was a notice informing the public that the umbrella had been bought of a firm in Broadway, and calling attention to its condition after six weeks' wear. The firm caused the arrest of the man, alleging that he interfered with their customers. At the police court it came out that the umbrella had been purchased by C. M. Seymour of Chicago, who, because the firm would not give him another in exchange, took this method of revenge. The man was discharged, as it could not be shown that he had committed any breach of the peace.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

The boilers of the U. S. S. Ticonderaga are to be tested at the navy yard to-day.

The fall arrangement of running trains will go into effect on the Eastern railroad on Monday.

There will be a hop on board the U. S. S. Powhatan, at anchor in the lower harbor, this afternoon.

U. S. S. Plymouth, now at Portland, is ordered to this naval station for coal and provisions, and will probably arrive to-day.

A despatch was received in this city from Concord on Thursday, announcing the death of Mr. Elihu Dennett of this city.

Rev. B. M. Tillotson, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., will preach at the Universalist church Sunday forenoon, exchanging with Rev. E. M. Grant.

Mr. John Caswell caught between four and five hundred mackerel at the Shoals on Wednesday, with hand lines. This is the best fare of the season.

Mr. Norman W. Lord is about to open an eating house and saloon in Stavers' block, Vaughan street, in the store formerly occupied by Carter Bros.

Rev. E. M. Grant, of this city, delivered the occassional sermon before the Universalist State Convention at Concord, on the evening of the 2d inst.

T. F. Stackpole has fitted up a special sale-room for the display and sale of ladies' cloaks, of which he has a large consignment at Nos. 7 & 9 Market street. He advertises them in another column.

Mr. Morris C. Foye, formerly with Staples, Stackpole & Marston, is to conduct the dry and fancy goods business at the store No. 23 Market street, soon to be vacated by Mr. David H. Montgomery.

Mr. William Jenkins lost on Tuesday night, 1st inst., three mackerel nets; they broke away from where they were moored, to the eastward of the harbor, owing to the unusual strength of the tidal currents.

This evening, at Music hall, our citizens will have an opportunity to see one of the most charming of actresses, Miss Fanny Davenport, supported by a superior company, in a play that has won the almost extravagant praises of the metropolitan papers as being at once extremely interesting and morally wholesome. We expect to see the hall filled.

City Marshal Entwistle and Assistant Marshal Cole on Thursday had a number of truants before the police court; some of them were sent to school, but one or two of the most inveterate of these street-rangers will probably find their way to the reform school pretty soon. It is time; the sooner they are sent where they will have to submit to some wholesome authority, the less likelihood there will be of their fetching up in State prison at an early day.

The item which has been going the rounds, stating that Brown's Band was the first musical organization to ascend Mount Washington, is incorrect. In October, 1874, the reunion of the Third Brigade (9th Army Corps) Band was holden at the foot of Mount Washington, and the party ascended to the top, where they played a number of tunes, leading off with the "Star Spangled Banner." Mr. William Critchley, Jr., of this city was leader, and among the members were Messrs. Nathan Walley, John A. Haraden, Thomas Critchley and John Parshley, also of this city. The "honors" for playing the first tune "above the clouds" on Mount Washington belong to the old Third Brigade (9th Army Corps) Band, in 1874, as above stated.—Times.

The Boston Post says: "The meeting of the Eastern railroad stockholders will probably be hereafter held at some town or city on the line of the road—perhaps Salem or Ipswich. The mania for a free ride to Boston is so great that stockholders have recently asked to have their certificates of stock exchanged and new ones issued for each single share." The change suggested in the place of holding the meeting, if made, will deprive some hundreds of Portsmouth ladies of the delights of an annual shopping-day in Boston; but on the other hand it will keep in Portsmouth some thousands of dollars, now taken to Boston and left with Boston merchants each "railroad day." The Portsmouth ladies won't like it, but the Portsmouth merchants will.

The gates of the south mill-pond being now kept closed, the pond remains full of water at all times of the tide, and the eel grass and unsightly flats are constantly submerged. The improvement in its appearance is of course very great.

Schooner Ximena, Capt. Thompson, which recently took a load of coal to Dover, stopped at Eliot on the way down river to take in a cargo of apples for Machias, Me. We are informed that the schooner A. J. Williams, Capt. Murch, also took away a cargo of apples for an eastern port, loading at Durham, where she stopped on her way down the river from South Newmarket, to which place she took a load of coal.

THE VICINITY.

We have great pleasure in announcing that Dr. M. F. Wentworth of Kittery, who has been dangerously ill from blood poisoning, is decidedly better.

Nearly fifty thousand dollars in bonds of the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad have signified their acquiescence in the adjustment and agreement for taking new 4 1-2 per cent bonds. The holders of the remaining forty thousand dollars will probably come forward when the railroad advertises for them.

The republican convention for Strafford county was held at Dover on Thursday and nominated Frank S. Tompkins, of Dover, for Register of Deeds; John E. Varney, of Dover, Register of Probate; Henry H. Hough, of Dover, Treasurer; John Greenfield, of Rochester, Sheriff; C. B. Shackford, of Dover, Solicitor; Cyrus Littlefield, of Dover, Samuel A. Seavey, of Somersworth, George Lyman, of Milton, Commissioners.

Saco is having an epidemic of burglary, hardly a night passing that some store is not broken into. The store of George T. Owen, tailor, was entered on the night of Tuesday, the 1st, inst., and the largest part of his stock of clothes stolen. Some of the goods were found Wednesday in the lumber yard of the Saco Water Power company. David Munday and Garside Littlefield were arrested on suspicion, and some of the goods were found at Munday's house.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Oct. 3; Batchelder, J.

Albert Chamberlain, who had but recently returned from the county farm, having been sent there for drunkenness, or rather for not having money enough left after getting drunk to pay the police court charges, was again arraigned for a similar offence, and again "went up" in default of $9.90, fine and costs.

CITY COUNCILS.

Jacob Tilley asked leave to occupy South ward room for the purpose of having a dance.

David B. Macomb petitioned for relay of cross walk in front of his residence on Middle street, which was granted.

Request to open Pickering street for the purpose of laying a drain was referred to committee on drains with power.

Request of Mrs. Hampti Kenney for removal of tree in front of her residence on Pleasant street was referred to the mayor with power.

Frederick Rogers' account with the city was referred to city solicitor.

Mr. Harriman appeared before the board in behalf of the petitioners for the widening of the corner of Hanover and Market streets, and presented petition for the same. Voted that the petitioners be granted a hearing Thursday, the 31st day of October.

The committee on burying grounds recommended that the head-stones at the Point of Graves cemetery be reset and the same be properly graded. Referred back to the same committee to estimate cost and report.

An additional section to the ordinance relating to street lights was passed under suspension of the rules by both boards, increasing the pay of lamplighters of naphtha lights from five to six dollars per year for each light.

The committee on abatement of nuisance at south mill pond asked leave to recommend as follows: That the mill and machinery be sold to the highest bidder, to be removed at once, and that the gates and middle pier of the present bridge be removed, new gates put in, and a new bridge be built.

CONCORD & PORTSMOUTH R. R.

The annual meeting of the Concord & Portsmouth railroad stockholders was held in City hall, Manchester, Thursday. A large number of shareholders and their friends were in attendance upon the train, but few of whom were at the meeting. Stephen Kenrick, Esq., presided. The treasurer's report was read by the clerk, and accepted. Col. B. P. Cilley of Manchester, Thos. H. Odion of Portsmouth, and Seth Eastman of Concord were appointed a committee to receive the votes for directors. The report of the committee shew that the whole number of votes cast was 1705, all of which were for Stephen Kenrick, of Franklin; Samuel N. Bell, Benjamin F. Martin, Nathan Parker, of Manchester; Joseph B. Walker of Concord; John J. Pickering of Portsmouth, and John J. Bell of Exeter, who were declared elected directors. The meeting then dissolved.

The board of directors organized by the election of Stephen Kenrick as president, and William H. Hackett, clerk.

BAND CONCERT.

An open-air concert was given on Market square Thursday evening by the band of the U. S. S. Powhatan, flagship of Rear Admiral Howell. The band, which consists of eighteen performers led by Mr. H. Schutte, went through the following programme:

Overture, "Light Cavalry," Suppe; Fantasia, "In the Camp," Hasse; Waltz, "Fleur de St. Petersburg," Rosch; Selections from "Martha," Flotow; Song, "Nancy Lee," Adams; Galop, "Rollicking," Piefke.

There was a very large audience assembled on the square, and the superior execution of the musicians was the subject of much favorable comment. The evening seemed made for the occasion, and the ladies were out in force to enjoy the delightful weather and excellent music.

Before the concert the band serenaded Commodore Pickering and Rear Admiral Murray, at their residences.

—Why is it people boot a dog and shoo a hen?

—"These Mongolians is improvis'," as the Gold Hill miner thoughtfully remarked the other day, when a Chinaman quietly blew a hole through a white loafer who had just spit in his face.

—"Never write a book," said Talleyrand to Prince Kollosky, "if you do we shall all know that our brains are only worth as many francs as your book will cost. No man of sense writes books. Socrates never wrote a book."

—An art critic, going into a gallery in a state of mild inebriation to criticize some pictures, sees himself in a glass, and, taking out his note-book, writes as follows: "First room; head of a drunkard, no signature; has a great deal of character; red nose remarkably truthful. Must be a portrait from life; think I've seen that face somewhere."

—"Tim," said the parson severely, "suppose that the Lord should call you just as an oath was on your lips?" "I shouldn't go," said Tim. "Ah! my friend," rejoined the preacher, "you could not escape. We must all submit to His will. We cannot escape the laws of nature." "Then, parson," said Timothy, "what made you put up those lightning rods?"

—A woman appeared before an Ithaca police justice the other day and wanted her father punished for some alleged unkindness shown her. The justice inquired into the matter, found that the man was ninety years of age and that he had been married four times. "Go home, young woman, go home," he said, "the old man has already been punished enough."

—She was a Boston girl. She was visiting her Whitehall country cousin. While walking out several butterflies passed her. "Oh dear me, what charming little birds. They are perfectly exquisite." "They are not birds, my dear," replied her country cousin, "they are butterflies." "Oh, you don't say so. Then these are the dead little creatures, that fly from flower to flower and gather the sweet yellow butter that we use? They are too lovely for anything."—Whitehall Times.

—In Southborough, two generations ago, there lived a poor half-witted fellow named Tim, who had a bad habit of swearing. One day he indulged in a volley of profanity, which the village minister overheard. "Tim," said the good man reproachfully, "I am sorry to hear you use such language. I fear that I shall be a swift witness against you on the day of judgment." "No doubt of it," answered Tim, adding quick as thought, "folks that want to clear themselves are always ready to turn State's evidence."

—At a happy spot where a number of negroes reside, an old negro was heard calling out to his wife: "Manda, is you got dem chickens shut up in the smokehouse, like I told yer?" "No; an' I like to know what's de matter wid you dat you's so mighty tickler 'bout dem chickens all at once?" she replied. "Nebber you mind; I know what's the matter, and that's nuff till them chickens is housed. When I hears dat dem niggers ober dar in the next yard gwin to hab a party to-morrow night I wants to be shore dat my chickens doesn't tend it; you hear me?" The chickens were at once locked up.

—This is the season when the pumpkin grows in demand for interior decorations.

—Ex-Lieutenant-Governor F. A. Hoffman, of Wisconsin, now a farmer, took the first prize for wheat at the State fair.

—There is a fortune awaiting the man who invents a boomerang bootjack which you can throw at a cat and have it sail back to the window if it misses its mark.

—Summer is reluctant to depart. She clings like a young girl who is positive that the clock has not yet struck ten, and who does not care if it has.—Rochester Democrat.

—A beautiful example of "force of habit" is to see a disciple of Murphy fill his glass at the hydrant and dreamily blow the froth off the innocent water before drinking.

—A patent street sweeper is not a pleasant thing to meet, but it is not quite so bad as to pass a hallway containing a determined woman and a broom.—New Haven Register.

—Christopher Mann of Independence, Mo., has just celebrated his one hundredth and fifth birthday. He has a son only eight years old, and is the father of twenty-eight children.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

HOSTETTER & SMITH.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

If you have a cold take ADAMSON'S BOTANIC BALSAM. A sure cure for Coughs, Sore Throat and all Pulmonary Complaints. To the afflicted we recommend a trial of this superior remedy.—Boston Saturday Evening Express.

The popular verdict of the travelling public is that the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, cannot be excelled by any other house in the Quaker City.

—Good advice is like brown bread. It is very nourishing, but not always the most welcome kind of food.

—Patience and gentleness are potent and powerful, but they cannot turn a mill-wheel or break up a setting hen.

—The Confederate Major-General Stockton, a West Point graduate, has, it is reported, joined the federal army as a private.

—"Ink can be preserved from mould by putting a clove in the bottle." When Mrs. Sprigggins, wife of Sprigging of the Morning Lamplighter, read the above, she cried excitedly, "There! now I know what Mr. Sprigggins always carries cloves in his vest pocket for!" And the good old soul looked as pleased as if she just heard of a new way of putting up barberries.

—Gen. Grant, while at Moscow, attended a fete in a park where some acrobats performed some extraordinary feats. One of them placed four bottles on a high table, and on top of these a chair, which he balanced sideways while he stood on his head on one corner of it. He kept repeating this, adding one chair at a time, until he got five on top of each other, and still showed no signs of stopping; but General Grant got up and walked away, saying he would rather read the death in the paper than to witness it.

—At a recent trial of a liquor case the witness on the stand was under examination as to what he had seen in the defendant's domicile, which he said he had visited "a number of times." "Did you ever see any spirits there, or anything you regarded as spirits?" asked the presiding justice. "Why, yes,—I don't know but I have," was the reply of the witness. "Do you know what kind of spirits?" "Yes." "How do you know?" "I kinder smelt it." "Well, now," said the judge, straightening himself for the convicting answer which he supposed would be given, "will you please tell me what kind of spirits it was?" "Spirits o' turpentine!"

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, jaundice, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and coated tongue, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it a genuine medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, regulative, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Sudden, Severe Attacks of Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations, Sick Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the special power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair their efficacy, they are put up in glass bottles, their virtues being thoroughly preserved enclosed for any length of time, in any climate, and they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with any other pill in the market, they soon become worthless. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, mucous secretions, which if allowed to accumulate, impaired hearing, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid or powder may be used, or both alternately, by the use of DR. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and quickly learned from the directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche, $1 in druggists.

Edgar A. Poe.

A San Franciscoan adds the following story to the innumerable number about the author of the "Raven":

"You say that Edgar Allen Poe did not die from the effects of deliberate dissipation?" asked a San Francisco reporter of a Bohemian of the press.

"That is just what I mean, and I say further, that he died from the effects of deliberate murder."

This was a strange assertion; strange in being a flat contradiction of a fact, or otherwise, a theory, recorded in detail in the history of American literature. The author of the assertion was a well-known member of San Francisco's advanced and inveterate Bohemia; a gentleman who has long since retired from the active pursuits of his profession, and spends his days in dreamy meditation—frequenting one of the popular resorts of the craft, but mingling little with the idle babble of the throng. When drawn into conversation, it is generally to correct some error from his inexhaustible mine of reminiscence, and on such occasions his words are few and precise.

"Then you know something of the poet and his history, Doctor?"

"With a few others. I was one of his intimate associates for years. Much that has been written of him and regarding his death is false. Poe was not what is called a periodical drunkard, holding himself to spells of total sobriety and then giving way to violent bouts of intemperance; but he was a steady drinker, and when his means permitted he would drink to excess. His habitual resort in Baltimore was the widow Meagher's place. This was an oyster and liquor bar on the city front, corresponding in some respects with the coffee shops in San Francisco. It was frequented by the printers and men engaged in the shipping offices, and ranked as a respectable place, were parties could read the papers, enjoy a game of cards, or engage in social conversation. Poe was a great favorite with the old woman. You would always see him sitting just behind the oyster hand, and about as quiet and sociable as an oyster itself. He went by the name of the Bard, and when the parties came into the shop it was 'Bard, come up and take a nip,' or, 'Bard, take a hand in this game.' He was a sort of pensioner on his acquaintances, as far as drinks were concerned. When the old woman met any incident or idea that tickled her fancy she would ask Bard to versify it. Poe always complied, writing many a witty couplet, and at times poems of considerable length. Much of his poetical work, quite as meritorious as some by which his name was immortalized, was thus frittered into obscurity. It was in this little shop that Poe's attention was called to an advertisement in a Philadelphia paper of a prize for a meritorious story, and it was here that he composed his famous 'Gold Bug,' which took the prize. I heard him read it before he sent it on to Philadelphia, and when it was announced that the story was successful, the widow Meagher gave him the money to go on and obtain the prize."

"But how about his death?"

"Poe had been shifting about Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York for several years. He had been away from Baltimore about three months, and turned up one evening at the widow's. I was there when he came in. Bard had been making a raise north, and it was drinks all round with repeat, until the crowd were down jolly. It was the night before an election, and the party started uptown. There were four of us, and we had not gone a half a dozen squares before we were nabbed by policemen looking up voters to 'coop.' It was the practice in those days to seize people, whether drunk or sober, lock them up until the polls were opened, and then march them to every precinct in control of the party having the 'coop.' This 'coop' was in the rear of an engine house on Calvert street. It was part of the game to stupefy the prisoners with drugged liquor. The next day we were voted at thirty different places, and over and over, it being as much as a man's life was worth to rebel. Poe was so badly drugged that he was carried on two or three rounds, and then the gang said it was no use trying to vote a dead man any longer, so they shoved him into a cab and sent him to the hospital to get him out of the way."

"Well, he died from dissipation."

"Nothing of the kind. He died from laudanum or some other poison that was forced on him in the coop. He was in a dying condition while he was being voted twenty or thirty times in Baltimore. The story told by Griswold of his having been on a week's spree and being picked up on the street is a lie. I saw him shoved into the cab myself."

Chronicle Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3d, '78.

The result of the Colorado election is largely due to the outrageous act of the democratic House of Representatives in unseating the regularly elected republican member, who is re-elected by over 2000 majority. Colorado offsets Oregon, and should there be no choice in the next Presidential contest by the people, a majority of the States will be called on to elect. If the republicans lose no more States they will have a majority. There is an excellent prospect of making a net gain of four republican Congressmen in New York State.

Bold Ben. Butler seems to be an instrument in politics for disintegrating the democratic party. The growth of the greenback party throughout the country is rapid. The democrat of the age tends more naturally to the new party than do republicans. The Maine election shows it, and as the average democrat cares more for success than principle, he will be found eager to embrace the candidacy of Gen. Butler for President, if greater opportunity for success lies that way. It is within the range of probabilities that the two leading candidates for the Presidency in 1880 will be Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler; in which case the democratic minority of hard money advocates will find less danger in "Cæsarism" and the "third term," while the noble democratic war-cry of "spoons," as applied to the only man who dared hang a rebel during the "unpleasantness," will subside. Your true democrat is ingrained with the idea that he who votes the democratic ticket must of necessity be "a high-minded, honorable gentleman, sir," as the former Sandown member of the Marston family was wont to express it. And don't you bet any money yet that Benj. Butler will not be the next President! He is coming to the front more rapidly than any statesman now before the people. It may be a few months too early, however, and the "undecided element" in American politics had best preserve an attitude of watchfulness until after "the cows come home" in November.

Tammany and anti-Tammany will contest New York city this fall. Prophecies as to the result are not plenteous.

In the correspondence in the Kimpton case, between the Governors of Massachusetts and South Carolina, Gov. Rice of the former State has decidedly the best of it. Said the Governor of South Carolina to the Governor of Massachusetts, "Isn't it a deuced long while between drinks?" In the words of W. J. Florence, s. h. r.—served him right. Hamp. was too fresh!

O'Leary and Hughes, pedestrians, are wearing out shoe-leather, just now, at Gilmore's Garden, and thousands of people pay fifty cents each to take a look at these "professional" bog-trotters. Hughes is reported to have a gait like an eagle, feeds like an ostrich, and is very liable to get "lift."

Heating cities by steam is the coming innovation, being economical and comfortable to consumers, as well as profitable to the corporation which lay the pipes through the streets in the same manner as gas companies do. Lockport, N. Y., is trying the new system successfully, at a profit of 2500 per cent. to the original projectors of the enterprise. Electric light seems likely to supersede gas, too, ere many years.

The new Sixth Avenue Elevated Railroad Company has been indicted as a nuisance by a grand jury, being too noisy for comfort. Edison has been trying to invent something to decrease the noise, but Billy Birch's plan is the better one. Billy says he can stop the noise on Sixth avenue, by moving the railroad over to Seventh avenue.

That popular family hotel, the St. Cloud, corner of Broadway and 42d street, under the management of the Rand Bros. is filling rapidly with old guests, whose annual reappearance speaks volumes for the popularity of the worthy hosts. A more quiet hostelry and more conveniently arranged establishment cannot be found in the city. Under the constant supervision of the three brothers Rand, everything moves like clock-work, and its fame extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast. Theodore Thomas is one of the guests just now, and probably will be until New York loses him. Theodore's non-success at Gilmore's Garden arose from the fact that he dwells too much among the realms of "high-toned music," and wouldn't give the people what the people desire and appreciate best, music that stirs the soul—also the heel-tap—likewise the natural mirthfulness of mankind. Cincinnati, with its fun-loving musicians and fondness for lager, may tone down Theo's too exquisite taste to something like that of the masses of the people.

What will the democracy of the old First District do next with Herb. Norris? It's too bad to spoil such a good newspaper man by running him for Congress. Hon. John T. Hulme, editor of the Concord Patriot, promised to take better care of the boy than that—when last we parted! And Robinson gave out the impression that he would act as a sort of Assistant Guardian to H. A. B. Betrayal of trust is one of the increasing wickednesses of the age we breathe in!

By the way, again, the republican ticket throughout, as published at the head of your leading column, is a most excellent one. Natt Head ought to lead the republican forces to an easy victory if he has any of the old clan about him.

What is the matter with your Baltimore-Rye-Andover correspondent "Nat?" He has been "out of sorts" ever since the wooden Indian princess on Sixth avenue wouldn't shake hands with him during the eventful evening which was the last he passed in Gotham. Why his present pensivity and ancientness of forthbringing of "buys" so long ago purchased at second-hand. It is entirely unconstitutional! He should improve his mind by the perusal of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," or "The Rise and Fall of the Dutch Republic." G.

Another Indian War.

There is fighting going on in Colorado between the militia and the Indians. One officer was wounded and six privates killed in a fight on Thursday. A Denver special says it is reported there that the Cheyennes are committing horrible outrages east of Denver and north of the Kansas Pacific railroad, killing ranchmen, burning shanties, etc. Thirty-seven men are reported killed at Buffalo Station. The Sheridan post office is destroyed and three ranches broken up. The entire State militia will be called out.

News and Notes.

Edward Freeman, colored, of Ansonia, Conn., on Thursday outraged a seven-years-old girl named McCrindle. He was caught and lodged in the lock-up, from which he was taken Friday forenoon by a crowd of four hundred men, who tied a rope around his neck, dragged him a quarter of a mile and were about to hang him when he was rescued by officers who took him to New Haven. Freeman has served one term in State prison for a similar crime.

The American Consul at Rio Janeiro reports the small-pox almost epidemic there. There were 108 deaths from that disease during one night. Yellow fever is also feared there.

Three tramps named Daniel Manchester, James Haley and William Brown were arrested at Mansfield, Mass., Thursday morning, for committing a murderous assault on Jean Petit, a discharged soldier from the Seventh Connecticut Volunteers. He was badly bruised with stones about the head, neck and body, and left for dead, about half a mile from Mansfield depot.

Sitting Bull is reported mortally wounded in a quarrel with some of his people.

The yellow fever has broken out in Madrid, Spain. The disease is supposed to have been carried from Cuba by the returning soldiers.

Wesley W. Bishop, of Norwich, Conn., has made a short supplementary confession in which he asserts that the night before his wife died Mrs. Cobb went to his house to see his wife in his absence, and when she (Mrs. Cobb) subsequently met him at the Good Templar's hall the same evening she told him that she had given Mrs. Bishop a dose of morphine instead of her regular medicine. Bishop deserves hanging for his cowardly meanness, irrespective of his guilt as the murderer of his wife and his paramour's husband.

John Delmer of Bridgeport, Conn., has been fined $20 and costs for putting powder in John Sullivan's pipe, which exploded and injured one of the latter's eyes badly.

The Methodist church at South Madison, Conn., where Rev. H. H. Hayden is now preaching, have passed resolutions declaring their love and unqualified respect for him; that his arrest was an outrage and made on frivolous grounds; that they rejoice and give thanks for his acquittal without a stain, notwithstanding the evil designs of wicked men and the unscrupulous and inhuman course of the prosecuting attorney; that they will support him morally and financially. Mr. Hayden it will be remembered was arrested on suspicion for the murder of Mary A. Stannard.

William W. Browham of New Haven, Conn., who, as alleged by his brother Henry, threw the latter overboard from a boat in the Sound on September 17th, with the intent to drown him, was arrested Thursday, on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The alleged motive was to obtain a large amount of money which was coming to Henry. The latter swam five miles to the shore, according to his own story.

The coroner's jury in the Weinbecker case at Bridgeport, Conn., returned a verdict that Weinbecker came to his death by the administration of chloroform at the hands of Frank E. Bassett or Mrs. Lorena E. Alexander, or both. It is said that the police are on the track of clues connecting the woman Alexander with other murders, and startling developments are expected.

—A suit is on trial at Louisville which involves the liability of a husband for morphine furnished his wife against his directions.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. THE CITY.

The wrecked schooner Samuel Knight, lying on the rocks near the Dover point bridge, was bought at private sale Thursday by Messrs. Rider & Cotton.

The ship Chocorua, Capt. Matthews, with 36,544 cases of Frazer river salmon on board, valued at $194,178, sailed from Victoria, Vancouver's island, for London, Sept. 23d.

It will be seen by the advertisement that Mr. S. W. Cole postponed the opening of his school at the chapel of the Middle street church from Thursday evening, 3d inst., to Wednesday evening, the 9th.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, who is to lecture on "Superfluous women" in Music hall on Tuesday evening next, is one of the most eloquent orators of the day. Reserved seat tickets at Preston's, at 35 cts. each.

To-day is the last chance to see that wonderful piece of mechanism, the automatic city, at Franklin hall. Call and see it, and by all means take the children, for while it is a great curiosity to adults it is an absolute delight to the young folks.

Hon. E. H. Rollins, United States Senator from New Hampshire, will spend a week in Rockingham county during the campaign, commencing Oct. 14th. He will speak at Newcastle, Seabrook and other places, probably including this city.

Volunteer City Missionary Loyne has made arrangements for a service on board the U. S. S. Powhatan, at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Several friends from this city will take part; also a quartette. The seamen will be supplied with useful and interesting reading matter.

The Universalist State convention finished its session at Concord on Thursday. Rev. E. M. Grant of this city was chosen president. Hon. T. E. O. Marvin of this city was chosen trustee, and also as one of the two lay delegates to the general convention.

Hon. O. C. Moore of the Nashua Telegraph, and a very able man, will address the citizens of Portsmouth at Franklin hall on the evening of Friday, Oct. 11th, on the financial issues of the day. Mr. Moore is a close reasoner, and all persons infected with the delusion that government can create untold wealth by "fiat" should make a point to hear him.

We are informed that a quartette choir has been organized at St. John's church, consisting of Miss Edith Wendell, soprano, Miss Nora Bartlett, contralto, Mr. Wm. L. Sabine, tenor, and Mr. John Hayes of Kittery, basso. The children's choir under the management of Mr. L. V. Newell, is to still continue and act as a chorus to the quartette. The new choir will sing for the first time on Sunday, Nov. 3d.

The officers of the flagship Powhatan tendered a complimentary hop to their friends in this city and on the navy yard, Friday afternoon. The quarter deck was handsomely dressed with bunting and flags, and if the large party of distinguished guests did not enjoy the occasion it was not for any lack of hospitality and courteous attention on the part of the ship's officers. It is said that Rear Adm. Howell intends remaining here until about the 15th inst.

A young woman representing that she has a mother dangerously sick and that she lives on Deer street has recently called on a number of persons soliciting aid, and has collected quite a large sum of money from them. We are informed by Volunteer Missionary Loyne that he has made search for the alleged sick woman; the party begging gave the name of Gill, but Mr. Loyne can find no person of that name living on Deer street nor anywhere else in the city.

THE VICINITY.

The picker room of the mill of the Great Falls Woollen Company was damaged to the amount of $400 by fire, Thursday afternoon.

Seven thousand five hundred and ninety apples was the number gathered from a tree measuring ten inches in diameter, situated upon the farm of Capt. William Lester in Stratham. A stalk of millet from the same farm shows three hundred and twenty-six fully developed heads.

A collection was taken in the Congregational church at North Hampton on Sunday, Sept. 29th, in aid of the yellow fever sufferers, and amounted to $20.

Messrs. Luther Bryant and Rishworth Jordon now own all the hotels in Biddeford and Saco, save those located at the seashore, having purchased the Meeds house within a few days.

A race from Stratham post-office to Wardwell's store in this city and return, is being arranged between James W. Kelley's mare Bessie Bisby and Edward B. Chapman's horse Rye Boy; forfeit, fifty dollars.

Mr. Gardner Benson, a resident of Oak Ridge, Biddeford, died suddenly Tuesday morning, the 1st inst. He went to Biddeford with a load of wood for his son, who resides on Oak street. He drove up to the house, alighted from his load, and shortly after dropped down and died in a few minutes.

The highest price paid for "number one hand-picked" apples in North Hampton this year is one dollar a barrel; as the barrels costs twenty-five cents each, the demand for them being very great on account of a big apple crop all around, the producer receives seventy-five cents a barrel for his fruit and the labor of getting it ready for market. As a consequence, apples that in ordinary years would be worth from three to five dollars a barrel are being carted in bulk to the cider mills.

"OLIVIA."

A large audience, and an excellent one as to quality, assembled in Music hall Friday evening to witness Miss Fanny Davenport's impersonation of "Olivia;" and in her performance of that part, and Mr. Mackay's of the part of Dr. Primrose, they saw as good acting as has ever been offered a Music hall audience. The other characters, which with the exception of the rakish rascal of a squire are of no particular importance except to fill in, were satisfactorily taken. The play and the acting deserve all the praise they have received, and we are pleased that a really first-class entertainment was so well patronized in this city. Miss Davenport was called before the curtain once; she is accustomed to be called before the curtain a number of times in an evening, in other places, but the once in this city, by such an audience as was in Music hall Friday night, is the same as a dozen times in Boston or New York.

Joseph S. Dearborn, et als., of Fremont, to John L. Martin, of Epping, land and buildings, $1000.

THE SOUTH MILLPOND.

The report presented to the City Councils on Thursday evening by the committee on the abatement of the millpond nuisances, recommending the sale of the south mill and machinery, to be removed, was adopted after due consideration on their part, they regarding that as the most economical method of disposing of it. The repairs required would be costly, and the loss of rental during the hot weather, when the pond must be kept full of water, would cut the yearly returns down too low to warrant the city in incurring the expense.

The committee this week tried the experiment of lashing the tide-gates open, so that the pond might be flooded and drained; this experiment was tried under favorable circumstances, the tides running very high and of course correspondingly low; but the residents near the pond complained that the stench was intolerable, and there was no perceptible removal of foul matter by the outward flow of water. After such trial and careful investigation the committee concluded that the sediment at the pond's bottom must be removed by dredging, and the matter has been referred back to them to report estimate of cost.

Mayor Sise and the committee have devoted much time to investigating the matter so as to determine what is the best and cheapest method of obviating the nuisance; and they have also consulted many practical men on the subject, and it is their opinion that there is not space enough at the mill gates to carry off the scum that arises to the surface of the pond, not to mention any other foul matter. Under the bridge there is a stone pier twenty-four feet long and sixteen feet wide, with a nine-foot sluice-way on each side; and they propose after taking away the mill to remove the stone pier, which will give a clear run thirty-four feet wide for the water. Tide-gates will be constructed to hold the pond full of water at will; and the water-way will be spanned by an iron truss bridge, easily removed by floating a scow under each end of it, so as to allow the entrance of a dredging machine to the pond whenever needed.

From the energy displayed by the committee and the Mayor we are led to believe that the south pond nuisance has got in its last season's work on the public. So mote it be—and then for the north pond.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de evenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

Political.

Selwyn Z. Bowman of Somerville received the republican nomination for Congressman from the fifth Massachusetts district, Thursday, after fifteen ballots, in fourteen of which Gen. Banks, the present incumbent, had a plurality.

Mr. George W. Drew, a prominent business man of Concord who has been extensively advertised as a greenbacker, in a letter to the Monitor in which he acknowledges that he has "honestly entertained financial predelictions somewhat different from those held by the average republican," says: "I had an opportunity to know something of the greenback party and have found it a democratic camp, a shrewd trick, a mere subterfuge, and a web of the sheerest insincerity in which to entrap disappointed and disaffected republicans, and especially the laboring classes, who are now suffering from a depression of business. I deem it not only a privilege but a duty to caution my fellow republicans not to connect themselves with this party inconsiderately. I have discovered in it dangerous elements, which threaten us and this Union with communism, rupture and ruin; its whole tendency and sole purpose are to throw the country into the hands of the south, and of such reckless persons as Butler and Kearney. If men would stop to think, before joining such an organization, they would see the drift of affairs, and the perils that await us in the ascendency, even temporarily, of this new party, which is fast swallowing the old democratic party with all its innate cussedness."

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or
$2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Blotch, or Eruption, Mercurial Disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you may be suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Bad Breathe, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotched Face, Foul Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In conjunction of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age and strength are not impaired by their use, and they are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass tubes, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Pierce's Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried into all the nasal passages. APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every known contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has sped its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have not waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

"THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me invaluable." HENRY WELLS, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

"I has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering." GEO. W. HOUGHTON, Waltham, Mass.

"FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure." D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

"I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them." WM. BOWEN, 22 Pine St., St. Louis.

"AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success." WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 Harrison Ave., Boston.

"WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never had a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint." S. D. BALDWIN & CO., Washington, Ind.

"THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual nostrums that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston." GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and all directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Daily Chronicle.

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2d.

John G. Thompson, chairman of the Ohio democratic State central committee, is much exercised because the republicans of Hamilton Co., Ohio, have asked for the enforcement of the election law with reference to the appointment of supervisors of election, known as "the Jehnny Davenport law." The democrats claim that while the law is on the statute book, yet it is unconstitutional, and refuse to appoint the supervisors provided for in its provisions. Meanwhile Banning believes the liberties of the country to be imperilled.

Demagogue and loafer Cohen still exhibits symptoms of eruption; but the importation here of a few U. S. troops had a wholesome effect in discouraging the riotous tendencies of his lawlessly-disposed followers.

Washington is inexpressibly fair and beautiful in these golden autumn days. Houses closed for the "heated term" last June, are being gradually re-occupied by those who voluntarily expatriated themselves at summer's opening until the return of cooler weather. Preparations for the opening of "the season" of fashionable folly and society dissipation are evident on every hand, but the shadow of death that has fallen so heavily on southern cities since the dispersion of last winter, must extend to many heretofore prominent as promoters of both here.

What with campaign speeches and alleged management by Secretaries Sherman in Ohio, McCrary in Iowa, and by numerous other federal officials in those and other States, the President's famous civil service order seems likely to become moribund long before the close of the campaign, and seems far more honored in its breach than in its observance. McCrary, recently returned from Iowa, is carefully guarded in his estimate of the greenback strength in that State. He thinks there is a good sprinkling of that persuasion throughout its borders, but hazards the opinion that there will be no loss of republican Congressmen. It would seem that either Secretary Sherman's newspaper interviewers are wickedly bent upon misrepresenting him, or that he finds great difficulty in making his financial views clearly understood. Certainly many of his reported conversations have tended to impair confidence in his loyalty to his party's position on the absorbing topic of finance. His action recalling the very important order whereby silver dollars were made receivable for our paper currency, begat the impression of fickleness or that conclusions were prematurely jumped at in a department controlling our destines for weal or woe, at a time of all others when no action should be taken that would need be repented of. From the forcible language in which he couches his repudiation of sentiment attributed to him in the Sherman-Walker interview, and declares that his sentiments relative to resumption, the substitution of legal tenders for national bank circulation, and other nefarious notions advocated by greenbackers and helping to make them a distinctive party, have undergone no change since assuming his present position, indicates that this latest effort to absorb him into the new party, nolens volens, has aroused the Sherman pugnacity. Not a few republicans who have incurred the grandmotherly displeasure of the New York Times because they have resented that paper's lofty assumptions of a right to dictate the course of every prominent republican, will heartily coincide with Mr. Sherman's strictures on that journal. KNOX.

—A Belgian bridegroom, being about to start for Paris on his honeymoon tour, was informed by his bride that she thought of concealing several thousand francs worth of lace about her, hoping by its sale to pay the cost of their journey. The birdegroom was not smitten with this frugal project, and pointed out that there were custom-house officers and a female searcher at Ercquelines, who were sometimes struck with an unaccountable fancy for examining passengers' pockets. This he said, being a timid man, and his bride to humor him promised to give up her plan; but of course she secreted the lace all the same without telling him about it. Now as the train approached the French frontier the husband reflected that if his wife were not searched his fears would be mocked at as having been groundless, and he would start on his married career with prestige impaired. This was not desirable. The rather was it essential that he should from the very outset assert his infallibility. So, when the train stopped at Ercquelines, and the passengers alighted, the bridegroom left the bride's arm for a moment, and sliding up to the douanier, whispered, "I think if you search that lady yonder you may find some lace." The douanier winked; the happy bride was accosted with an invitation to walk into the female searcher's room; she turned pale, tottered, but was led away, and five minutes later dismal sounds of hysterics were heard. Then the dounaier reappeared and said to the horrified husband, "Thank you, sir; it's a good capture. The lady will be taken to prison, and half the fine will go to you."

The Latest Sell.

The people of Auburn, N. Y., the native place of Courtney, the oarsman, are greatly incensed at him, being fully persuaded that he sold the international boat-race with Hanlan, the Canadian champion. The sporting men of New York city coincide in this opinion, and the Spirit of the Times publishes telegrams seen by the editor before the race, sent by New York betting men in Montreal to their partners in New York, telling them to bet heavily on Hanlan at any odds, as the race was all fixed beforehand. Edward B. Rankin, a prominent boating man who was judge for Courtney in the race, has published a letter in which he says:

I venture the judgment now that Courtney is the better and more enduring sculler of the two; that, despite the roughness of the water, he succeeded, whenever he made the effort, in closing with Hanlan, and that at the finish he outrowed the Toronto man, and lost the race by ceasing to pull at a critical moment when nearing the goal. Had he continued rowing and hauled out into the course, instead of resting on his oars, the race was his own. It seems incredible that a man of Courtney's intelligence should be so far lost to pride of country and the interest of his friends as to lose the race intentionally; and until something definite in the nature of fairness is developed, it is only just to hope and believe that the race was lost through an error of judgment.

The Yellow Fever.

Friday night's fever reports were bad as ever. New Orleans reported a total of 10,218 cases and 3060 deaths to that date. The Relief Committee make an urgent appeal for further aid, as famine threatens the plague-smitten city.

The disease is spreading with alarming rapidity in the lower Mississippi valley.

The fever has got a hold in Jackson, Miss.

By a census of Greenville, Miss., finished Thursday of last week, it seems that of a total population of 1350 the number dead to date is 260; number now sick, 112; number of convalescent, 657; number still to have it, 328. New cases that day, 25; deaths in previous twenty-four hours, six.

News and Notes.

Charles E. Quimby, aged twenty-seven years, son of Rev. Dr. Quimby of Augusta, Me., editor of the Gospel Banner, was found dead in a camp near Mount Batty in Camden, Me., Friday morning, with a bottle of morphine and another of laudanum on a table. He was a young man of exemplary character and an able writer, and once edited a paper in Portland. Unrequited love was the cause of his suicide.

Leave of absence is granted Lieut. D. G. McRitchie, commanding the Tallapoosa, for one month.

Twenty-six of a gang of counterfeiters in Kentucky and Tennessee were arrested on Thursday, and more were arrested Friday by United States officials. A large amount of machinery was also captured.

The Austrians announce the collapse of the "insurrection" against them in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and that peace now reigns in those districts.

Work upon the thirteen new life-saving stations on the coasts of Virginia and North Carolina is being pushed forward rapidly, and they will be completed by the middle of next month. Three other new stations on the Delaware and Maryland coasts will be completed soon afterwards. All the old ones on the coasts are now manned and in full operation. Keepers for the new stations will be appointed next month, and in the meantime the department is purchasing surf boats, guns for throwing life-line hawsers, life-cars, etc., to properly equip the stations.

Dr. August Heinrich Petermann, the geographer, who was reported to have died of apoplexy, committed suicide by hanging. It is maintained that there is an hereditary taint of insanity in the family, for the father and brother of the deceased commited suicide by hanging. It is also maintained that estrangement has existed between him and several relatives for many years.

Says the London correspondent of the Liverpool Post: "America is now proposing to purchase a naval station in the Mediterranean. A report comes from Vienna that the United States Government, since the cession of Cyprus to England, have been seeking to acquire a maritime station on the Syrian coast, as near the Suez canal as might be obtainable. The rumor has been brought under the notice of the American Embassy in London, but no such project is officially known."

As a Kansas City lawyer was going to his office the other day he noticed a red suspender lying on the top of some freshly caved earth. He stooped to pick the suspender up, but it stretched and refused to come. Digging down with his hand he soon found the dead body of a boy. Much alarmed, he began to dig with a spade, and to his horror unearthed the bodies of two more, who had been buried alive by the caving in of an embankment on which they had been playing the night before.

Frank Polk rode down into Wortham, Texas, the other day, and in a spirit of jocularity, attempted to drive his horse through a store. The minions of the law, however, came down upon him, and he was arrested and fined for the offence. No Texan gentleman, of course, could brook such an insult as this, and the next day he returned, loaded down with firearms, and killed the city marshal with great gallantry. The mayor was "well heeled," however, and in turn slew Frank, whereupon the latter's friends made preparations to raid the town, and at last accounts the citizens were all under arms awaiting an attack.

Prof. W. G. Sumner's paper on "Socialism," in Scribner's Monthly for October, is attracting wide attention. The New York Post, reviewing the article at great length, under the title "The Soul of Socialism," says: "Professor Sumner's article is not a long one, but so compact is it, and so directly does the author go to the heart of his subject, that it is without exception the most notable, and is likely to be the most effective exposition of the real nature of the prevalent political disease which has been printed in any of the magazines or reviews since socialism first seriously threatened the life of society in this country." And again, in an editorial based upon Prof. Sumner's paper: "He tells the hundreds of thousands of persons who read Scribner's Monthly certain truths which, if they can be brought to the knowledge of the great body of the American people, will speedily make an end of the career of socialistic philosophy in this country." A paper by Prof. Sumner on "greenbacks" will appear in an early issue of Scribner.

C. C. Moore, a native of Manhester, was killed on the Long Island railroad, N. Y., Friday.

Belden D. Bingham, of Nashua, died Oct. 4th, aged 66 years. He was the founder of the Nashua Watch Company, now the Waltham Watch Company, and one of the founders, in New Hampshire, of Odd Fellowship, being a charter member of Granite Lodge, No. 1, of Nashua. He was a native of Sharon, Vt., and unquestionably one of the most skilled and inventive mechanics in this State.

Political.

The democracy in Ohio and Indiana having made great complaint about the demonetization of the trade dollar, it has been shown that the bill depriving it of legal tender power was reported in the House January 10, 1876, by Sunset Cox, and was prepared by Speaker Randall.

John K. Tarbox made a speech in favor of Ben. Butler at Lowell, Mass., Friday evening.

—The study of politics is to be introduced into the Providence high school by compulsory extemporaneous debates once a week on subjects of State and national government.

—The popular number with the holders of lottery tickets—The number won.

—An inch of rain falling on a square mile of land amounts to 60,000 tons of water.

—General Sheridan's famous black horse, Old Winchester, on which he made his twenty mile ride to save the day in the Shenandoah Valley, died Tuesday at the General's stables in Chicago. He had not been used for some time.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1 79

THE CITY.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore lectures in Music hall to-morrow evening.

Bryant's minstrels are to appear in this city on Wednesday next, 9th inst.

Mr. Dennis Shea of this city was awarded a diploma for his cement pipe at the Strafford County Fair in Dover last week.

The Odd Fellows Rockingham County Relief Association has a membership of 931, and only four assessments have been made during the present year.

The schooner Parallel, Capt. Rice, arrived at this port from Boston on Saturday to load apples for Machias, under charter by Mr. Dixon of Eliot, Me.

Grand Patriarch John H. Locke of this city paid an official visit to Wononalanset Encampment, No. 2, I. O. O. F., of Manchester, Friday evening, by invitation.

The contract for erecting Mr. Jones' new block on the corner of Congress and Fleet streets has been awarded to Foster & Dutton of Waterville, Me., who offered to do everything from the foundation up for $19,800, their bid being $1400 under the next higher one.

We notice by the police court reports in the Dover Democrat that the usual police court price for "simple drunks" in that city is two dollars and costs each. Judge Batchelder's tariff is higher; he charges occasionals three dollars and costs for one drunk, and regular customers five dollars.

Stockholders in the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts, and borrowers of such stock who have proposed taking a free ride to Boston to-day to "attend the stockholders' meeting," (?) are hereby informed that they can't go without paying $1.70 each for a ticket, and a similar sum to get back. No "free ride" to-day.

Schooner S. Rockhill, of Bangor, Booker master, bound from Weehawken for this port with a cargo of coal, was run down off Cape Cod about one o'clock Thursday morning by schooner N. H. Skinner. The Rockhill had her bowsprit and head gear carried away, and her bow cut down to the water's edge from the knight-heads to the fore-rigging. The other schooner attempted to tow her in, but she filled and sank. No life lost.

In conversation with one of the petty officers of the U. S. S. Enterprise, recently returned from South America, where she has been engaged in surveying the river Amazon, our reporter made special enquiries regarding her qualities as a sea-boat, and if she strained or leaked badly in heavy weather, and was informed that she encountered several severe gales and proved herself a splendid vessel in every way. It will be remembered that when she was built (she was put together by contract at this navy yard, by Mr. Griffiths,) many naval men thought she would be a failure in everything but sailing qualities, and the papers irreverently called her a "sieve," and predicted that she would be transformed into a mass of floating timbers by the first heavy gale she got caught out in. The first test to which she was put was the gale in which the Huron was lost, which she weathered in good style; and it now seems that she is not a floating coffin after all.

The city government of Portsmouth, has periodical fits of indecision as to whether the laws of the State shall be enforced or not. Some years ago a town meeting was held, by order of the city fathers, to see if the State law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors should be regarded in this city, and if our memory is not at fault the vote "by a large majority" was that it shouldn't be! And at the last week's meeting of the city councils a resolution passed the Common Council directing the City Marshal and police force "to enforce the State law relating to peddlers," the Board of Aldermen referring the resolution to the committee on police. If the New Hampshire legislators were not all gross blunderers they would provide for the ratification or rejection by the city of Portsmouth of all laws passed at Concord, so that the people of the State at large could tell just what State laws are to be obeyed and what ones broken. Some such form as the following would be about the thing: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened, (subject of course to the approval of the city of Portsmouth,) that" certain things shall be done, etc.

Mr. John D. Philbrick, director of the section of education in the United States department of the Paris Exposition, writes to Mr. Stephen W. Clarke, principal of Portsmouth high school, that "requests have been made by the educational commissioners of various countries for such portions of the articles comprising our exhibition of education as can be spared by their owners, to be placed in the pedagogical libraries and museums which have been established by their respective governments," and that in his opinion "France has the best claim for these gifts, Japan and England coming next in order." Mr. Philbrick also informs Mr. Clarke that the Portsmouth high school has been awarded a silver medal.

Eastern railroad trains are now running on the fall and winter arrangement; the changes, which are many, are noted in our advertising columns.

THE VICINITY.

We are gratified to know that Dr. Wentworth is improving, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Unitarian society and congregation of Kennebunk contributed $71 for the yellow fever sufferers.

The appointment of a special police for the Spruce Creek district of Kittery is talked of, on account of the recent fires there and for other good reasons.

Rev. David B. Sewell, pastor of the Congregational church in York, has collected $67 for the yellow fever sufferers from members of his church and congregation.

There are at present in the almshouse of York thirteen persons—a small number for so large a town as York. Mr. William Grant is keeper of the institution.

William C. Fernald, for many years a prominent merchant of Rochester, died on Friday at the age of seventy-one years. He was father of Edwin Fernald, Esq., of the Great Falls Journal.

Mackerel were plenty in the vicinity of Boon island the latter part of last week, and were taken by the small boats in fair numbers. There were no mackerel at all at the Shoals at the same time.

Daniel Mundy, charged with breaking into the store of G. F. Owens in Saco and stealing therefrom a lot of clothing, has been bound over in $1000 for trial before a higher court. He furnished bail.

The York County Musical Convention will be held in City hall, Saco, commencing Oct. 15th and ending on the 18th. Prof. W. O. Perkins of Boston will direct, assisted by Charles W. Shannon of Saco.

Mr. John B. Trefethen, of Kittery, was thrown out of his buggy on Saturday by the running away of his colt, and was somewhat cut about the head, but not seriously. The buggy was shattered, and the colt very badly injured.

Mrs. Greenleaf Clark of Dover last week secured a verdict against the town of Somersworth for $2,254.50, at the close of a two day's trial of an action for damages, resulting from an accident caused by an alleged defect in the highway.

Fire got into a large swamp in Ogunquit, Wells, on Thursday of last week, and created considerable excitement among the people of the village, who turned out in force, and by ploughing, setting back-fires, etc., confined it to the swamp. No great damage was done.

Andrew Goodrich of Biddeford made two attempts to commit suicide last week. First he attempted to cut his throat with a pocket knife, but an officer took the knife from him and locked him up. A few hours later he was found hanging by a suspender to the grating of his cell, but was cut down in time to save his life.

The lack of rain is becoming a serious matter to the farmers in York. Many wells have dried up entirely; not a few of them have been deepened, and a number of new ones have been put down. Cattle have in some instances to be driven a long distance to get water, and the drought has completely superceded the potato bug as a topic of conversation.

The schooner Gazelle, of Gloucester, Mass., Davis master, was last week lying at George Marshall's wharf, near the lower bridge across York river, engaged in collecting one hundred barrels of apples, which were stowed in bulk, costing the skipper at the rate of from forty-five to fifty cents a barrel. The Gazelle sailed Friday morning for Frenchman's Bay, where Capt. Davis expects to exchange his apples for potatoes, and make a good thing on the trade.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Oct. 5; Batchelder, J.

John Hanscom, for drunkenness, was fined $5, costs taxed at $6.90. Phebe A. Hanscom, John's wife, for a similar offence received a similar sentence.

THE U. S. S. PLYMOUTH.

The U. S. S. Plymouth, Capt. Harmany, arrived at this navy yard from Portland at half-past eight o'clock Saturday morning, and immediately commenced to take in coal and provisions, the flag-ship furnishing a portion of the latter. The Plymouth has received orders to proceed without delay to Santa Cruz, W. I., where the negroes have risen in insurrection and are committing great atrocities; and having completed her coaling Sunday morning she sailed at high water. She was fitted out at this navy yard four years ago for a one year's cruise, and has been in commission and on active service ever since, this being the fourth time she has been ordered on similar service to that on which she has now gone. The Plymouth is officered as follows:

Capt. David B. Harmony, commanding.

Lieut. Comdr. Francis A. Cook, executive officer.

Lieut. Charles H. Stockton, navigating officer.

Watch officers—Lieut. Willie Swift, Masters Samuel L. Graham, Boynton Leach and William H. H. Southerland, Ensign Thomas B. Howard.

Surgeon, Theoron Wolverton; Asst. Surgeon, James C. Byrnes.

Paymaster, Frank H. Arms; Paymaster's Clerk, Thomas Arms.

Chief Engineer, William G. Buehler; Passed Asst. Engr., William A. Windsor; Assistant Engineers, Horace E. Frick, Frank J. Hoffman.

First Lieut. of Marines, Samuel K. Allen.

Midshipmen, Stephen Jenkins, Stevenson B. Mallory, Anthony W. Rollins; Cadet Midshipman, Harry W. Dombaugh.

Boatswain, William Manning.

Carpenter, William Carter.

Sailmaker, Samuel H. Boutwell.

She carries a crew of 200 seamen and twenty marines, and her armament consists of twelve guns.

It is reported that on the ship's return to the United States from her present mission she will be ordered to this navy yard.

Mr. Cook, the executive officer of the Plymouth, was a few years ago attached in the same capacity to the United States ship Sabine at this station, then used as a receiving and school ship for boys, and his gentlemanly bearing won for him the esteem of all who met him in business or social life, while his kindly interest in the young recruits under his care, and his courteous consideration for all his inferiors in position, caused them to regard him rather as a friend than as the strict disciplinarian he certainly was. Our reporter visited the Plymouth on Saturday, and was struck with the general appearance of the ship and men, the ship being neat as a fiddle and the men seeming perfectly contented,—trimness and content not always going together on board ship. The crew were working cheerily at coaling ship, the officers hastening the work all that was possible, but during the half-hour our reporter was on board he did not hear one word of growling or notice a sullen look. He was inquisitive enough to ask one old sea-dog, evidently one of the kind who can growl magnificently on occasion, what induced so much apparent good feeling, to which the old fellow replied, "Oh, Mr. Cook, the executive, is the best man there is; we have to work, and obey orders, but he's a regular father to us and you couldn't drive a man to desert from this ship." In conversation with several of the officers, also, he was informed that Mr. Cook, while a thorough disciplinarian, possesses the happy faculty of maintaining discipline without requiring to use harshness. Harmony rules in the Plymouth.

—Mrs. Corbin, of Elizabeth, N. J., sister of President Grant, has taken the prize for the best home-made bread in that State at the State Fair.

—The popular feeling against "fancy studies" in St. Louis has taken shape in a petition for an injunction restraining the directors of the public schools from having any language but English taught in the schools, and also requiring the board to abolish all branches of study outside of the common English course.

—Dean Stanley makes no gestures when preaching, and stands quite still. The story goes that one Sunday after returning from church, he asking his wife why the people looked so intently at him during the service, she replied: "How could they help it, dear, when one of your gloves was on the top of your head all the time?" It had dropped from his hat.

—A young man who might have seemed green but for his sharp nose and the manner in which he handled a big wallet, entered a Griswold street bank, and handing out a ten-dollar bill asked for trade dollars in exchange at the usual discount. As they were passed over to him, the teller asked: "Going to speculating?" "Kinder that," was the reply. "I'm going to get married to-morrow; hinted to the preacher he might expect ten dollars." "Ah! I see." "Yes, and so do I!" remarked the young man, as he rolled ten of the dollars up together and slipped the other one into his vest. "If I can discount him a little with these, I'll do it."—Detroit Free Press.

—What next? A novel round hat is called the Mephistopholes. It has two sharp wing-like feathers standing out from the front of the brim on the crown, to represent the horns of the individual whose name it bears.

—It is undoubtedly true, as Dr. Carver says, that a life on the plains makes a man a better shot than a course of practice at Creedmoor; but does it better fit a man for crawling under the woodshed floor in search of a mouse trap—that is the practical question.

—Another instance of Yankee inventive genius:—Two men of Bowling Green, Ky., wished to secure some chimney swallows to be used at a shooting match the next day, and that evening they had captured 3576. The process was simple enough—simply to put an empty bedtick over the top of the chimney and start a fire below.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk, BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

HOSTETTER & SMITH.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "De sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. Whon Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

If you have a cold take ADAMSON'S BOTANIC BALSAM. A sure cure for Coughs, Sore Throat and all Pulmonary Complaints. To the afflicted we recommend a trial of this superior remedy.—Boston Saturday Evening Express.

The popular verdict of the travelling public is that the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, cannot be excelled by any other house in the Quaker City.

Read advertisement in another column of principal triumphs of the Mason & Hamlin Organ Co., all over the world. It certainly amounts to demonstration, as they say, of the superiority of their organs. The record is unparalleled among makers of instruments.

—A darkey was boasting to a grocer of the cheapness of ten pounds of sugar he had purchased at a rival shop. "Let me weigh the package," said the grocer. The darkey assented, and it was found two pounds short. The colored gentleman looked perplexed for a moment, and then said: "Guess he didn't cheat dis chile much. While he was gittin' de sugar I stole two pair ob shoes."

—China is waking up to fight against opium, and in some districts the authorities have begun effective work to suppress the vice of opium-eating. In Nankin and Soochow, proclamation has recently been made that every house let for opium-smoking purposes shall be confiscated. Punishing the tenants, who are mainly irresponsible, has proved a failure, so this method of going to headquarters and punishing the landlord is adopted.

—The Adjutant General of the army will, in a few days, issue an order further explaining the posse comitatus clause in the army bill. It will state that officers can detail the troops under their command to protect United States property whenever it is in jeopardy, or there is any danger of its destruction. Another case in which troops can be used will be for the purpose of putting down an expedition formed in the United States for the purpose of visiting with hostile intent any foreign country, and in arresting the leaders of such expedition.

—Roch, the French headsman, was reported by a Parisian paper to have been made ill by the horrible scenes at a recent double execution. Another paper thereupon looked into the matter and found that he had spent the day following the execution in feeding the birds at the Tuileries, and adds that he is a quiet, calm, inoffensive man, whose last act before he brings out his victim is to light a cigar; that he has made the head-basket unusually large, so that if necessary it will hold four heads, and that he sent this dispatch recently to his wife: "In spite of a threatening rain, large attendance. Work went off well. Home to-morrow morning. Wait breakfast."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that to travel by the Pennsylvania Railroad must be

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 4 to 8 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another lady, upon writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-half pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I lost twenty pounds. She says: 'I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., Prop'rs, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical careers, in the hope that it may be a potent, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint, but meet and surpass expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Dispepsia, sent. Tormented Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exhibit this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a treatise of over 300 pages, sent, postpaid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every germ of contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. In one short year it has won its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have received testimonials from gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have expended considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of great merit, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me of the highest value.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 224 FIFTH ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. W. ARMSTRONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made it my duty to inform Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5th.

If Wade Hampton was capable of crawling outside the shell of egotism and self-conceit in which he lives, moves and has a being, and could see himself as small and unconsequential as he appears to the balance of the world that wastes its time by thinking of him at all, it isn't likely he would ever invite another such rebuke as that just administered by Gov. Rice of Massachusetts. Any intelligent citizen of South Carolina more sensative to the discreditable light in which that State must always appear in any review of her past history, would seek to divert rather than to call public attention to her disloyal and mischief-making antecedents as Hampton did in his impertinent and gratuitously insulting letter to Governor Rice, criticising that official's refusal to turn over Kimpton to the tender mercies of the rifle-club chivalry of that propagating hot-bed of secession. It seems to be the conclusion of a vast majority here that Mr. Hampton has very little occasion to feel proud of the outcome of his challenge to Gov. Rice, and that the latter has made the public his debtor in his successful effort to partially, at least, suppress a public nuisance.

Mr. Kenneth Raynor, Solicitor of the Treasury, feels aggrieved at a late publication in the New York Times, that he construed as reflecting on his competency, his honesty, or both; and it is rumored he will go into the courts for redress. The Times, it must be admitted, has made a good many enemies within the past few years, by what appeared to the average reader, its unfounded assumptions of infallibility, its dictatorial manners towards leading republicans, and by its attacks upon those who failed to acknowledge its right to prescribe their course upon matters of public importance. But it is nevertheless admitted to be an influential paper; its loyalty to the great principles of human freedom for which the party has always contended, is not questioned; and its reliability is generally acknowledged. Without assuming to know anything as to the foundation of its strictures on Mr. Raynor, the publication in question seemed only the reflection of suspicions entertained by not a few intelligent observers here familiar with the often remarkable decisions of the Solicitor. That relative to the claim of the Richmond & Danville (I believe it was) railroad was among the number which at the time it was given amazed many and brought out not a few indignant protests. As re-stated a few weeks ago it was substantially as follows: The road had been confiscated, and was restored (under protest) by order of President Johnson to its owners some months after the close of the war, by the Treasury Department, its custodian. After receiving the price allowed by the government to other roads for the transportation of Federal soldiers (about two cents per mile) it filed a claim for additional compensation, amounting to over four cents per mile. After the Secretary of War and Quartermaster General Meigs had refused to entertain the claim, it reached Mr. Raynor and was approved by him. Great stress was laid by his critics on the alleged fact that his decision was directly in the line of establishing a precedent that would require above $50,000,000 to satisfy; besides, corporations that had remained loyal throughout the war, not unreasonably felt that it was a discrimination in favor of one that was notoriously disloyal.

Among other things shown by the Colorado election, is the fact that any party allying itself with railroad monopolies that fatten off the necessities of communities forced to patronize them in order to find a market for their products, will ultimately go the wall. The democratic candidates were recognized as the champions of railroads, and they seem about the most signally defeated candidates that ever aspired to official position through the ruin of their constituents. Nor can it be doubted that democrats of the 45th Congress whose hides are not thicker than that of a rhiconeros, and who earned the contempt and detestation of every honest man by awarding Belford's seat to Patterson, will feel the sting of the rebuke implied in the overwhelming re-election of the former. The result in Colorado seems also to prove conclusively that the greenback tidal wave, if not already spent when it reached the Rocky mountains, has not sufficient momentum and depth to sweep over that barrier.

The inability of our small army to do more than follow up the Indians and thus limit their time so that they have only been partially successful in their design to lay waste and force back the frontier line of civilization from end to end, becomes more and more apparent; and the ghastly fate, whether intentional or not, that must inevitably have overtaken the pioneers in the west and southwest, had not the democratic programme miscarried to practically legislate our army out of existence, is now admitted by candid men. Latest advices from points along the Pacific railroad and from many points in Kansas, Nebraska and Wyoming, represent the hostiles as swarming through those regions, putting to death every white man they can lay their hands on, and laying waste every inch of territory that they temporarily occupy. The reflection that this economic and characteristic democratic move was only defeated through the strenuous opposition of the republican minority, reinforced by a few Texas members in fear of Mexican marauders among their own constituents, is not calculated to add to the weight of gratitude due the "democratic House." It was one of the many happy escapes we made from real calamities instigated by malice or resulting from the grossest incapacity and demagogry, and only defeated by tireless vigilance. This is so self-evident as to need no additional proof. The Mexican muddle may also be cited in this connection. For years democratic organs were at their wit's ends for terms sufficiently approbrious wherewith to characterize the governments' failure to punish Mexican raiders; this changed to denunciation of its attempts "to brow-beat and bully a weak but chivalrous people who were scrupulously striving to observe to their spirit and letter every international obligation," when the administration took a decided stand in about the only way by which the marauding from both sides could be effectually broken up. In the face of the many evidences Diaz has given of his desire to live up to his pledges, it is notorious that a lobby has been supported here, largely composed of democrats—many of them ex-confederate officials, civil and military—with the avowed object of so complicating existing misunderstandings that there should be no way out except through war. Everybody familiar with Washington life knows the unenviable reputation that most of these mischief-makers bear, and how near they have come to involving us in a war that would be as repugnant as it would be deemed unnecessary by nine-tenths of our intelligent readers.

Of course the craze over the Hanlan-Courtney gambling race reached us, as we have our share of sporting men and sharpers. But very little sympathy is expressed for those trying to assuage their feelings of disappointment over the loss of their stakes, by blackguarding Courtney and accusing him of selling the race.

Every hope of the abatement before a frost of the scourge now depopulating city and country along the Mississippi, has been pretty generally abandoned. Its alarming increase within the past week, when those who had escaped were congratulating themselves that they had seen the worst, has brought despair to many families here who have one or more representatives in the infected districts. The fate that has overtaken the Washington nurses that went to Memphis shows the utter folly of sending unacclimated persons to fight the plague. Of above a dozen, five are already in their graves, and only one out of the lot had up to last advices, escaped contamination.

KNOX.

CONWAY CENTRE, Oct. 5th.

Hon. Joel Eastman has just finished harvesting the corn grown on three measured acres of his river meadow at Conway Centre, husking out 521 large bushel baskets of ears. No better corn has been grown anywhere this year, and there is no doubt that the 521 bushels will yield 260 1-3 bushels shelled corn after it is thoroughly dried, which amounts to 86 bushels per acre, a pretty good yield for 1878.

L. O.

—A scene to be made light of—kerosene.

—The mosquito employs no collector to present his bill.

—Pharmacy is the art of pouring from one bottle to another without spilling.

—The latest plaything for French children is a mechanical Newfoundland dog, destined for the saving of dolls that fall into the water. He takes them in his mouth and paddles across a tank or very considerable pond, keeping his head and his precious freight above water until he has reached shore, his ample tail being used as a rudder.

—John Evans dropped into Tyringham, Mass., two years ago, from nobody knows where. He would never explain who or what he was; but he soon became popular, and married the daughter of a resident. A few days ago he quit the table in the midst of dinner, went out of Tyringham, and has not been there since. Why he disappeared is as much a mystery as where he came from. Even his wife only knows that while he remained he was a kind husband.

—A Palmer, Mass., youth took a minister to the house of his expected bride the other day to have the ceremony performed, but the fickle girl preferred one of the guests to the bridegroom, and wanted to marry said guest. The guest procured a team to take the girl to ride, and think it over. He concluded he was not ready for matrimony, and proceeded to get drunk. The girl did not get a husband, the bridegroom did not get a wife, the guest lost his reason in a drunken stupor, and the minister lost his fee. The least loss of all was sustained by the intended bridegroom.

The Yellow Fever.

New Orleans reported 182 new cases and 59 deaths for the twenty-four hours ending Sunday noon; total cases, 10,485; total deaths, 3171. At Jackson, Miss., there had been fifty cases to date, and nine deaths, all white persons. At Morgan City, 140 cases total, 20 new. At Thibadeaux, La., 30 new cases; one death—a five-year-old daughter of Gov. Nicholls. Vicksburg reports confirmed the accounts of the spread of the fever in the country districts. Surgeon-General Woodworth of the Marine Hospital service at Washington received a telegram from Holly Springs, Miss., stating the total number of deaths there from yellow fever to date at 245, and that there was only one citizen who had not had the fever; great destitution prevails among the people. Memphis had 57 new cases reported; reports only partial. Hickman, Ky., had ten new cases and four deaths; Canton, Miss., eight new cases and three deaths. At Grand Junction, Tenn., the disease is spreading, and there are now fifty cases. Many other places report new cases and deaths, in lesser numbers than those given above.

News and Notes.

Surgeon-General Grier of the navy has been retired. Surgeon Parker, the Assistant Surgeon-General will act as Surgeon-General and Chief of the Bureau of Medicine until the return of Secretary Thompson.

A six-year-old daughter of William Rogers of Warwick, Ont., who was bitten by a cat which had been bitten by a dog died Friday with all the symptoms of hydrophobia.

A discussion between Robert Craig, pound-keeper in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Charles Sims, a dog-catcher, Saturday afternoon, resulted in Craig shooting Sims fatally, to prevent Sims from stabbing him.

John Thomas, colored, was lynched at Nashville, Tenn., Sunday, for outraging a girl five years old. Thomas confessed his guilt.

A fiendish attempt was made to burn the town of North Adams Sunday morning.

Officer Mitchell of Methuen, Mass., undertook to arrest a young man named John Desmond, Sunday, who was stealing apples, when the prisoner offered resistance. A crowd of roughs collected and rescued the prisoner, getting the officer into close quarters, when Mitchell drew his revolver and fired into the crowd, the ball striking Desmond in the thigh. He was then taken to the lockup, where the ball was extracted. The wound is not considered dangerous.

The cotton waste factory of Robert Bishop in South Boston was burned Saturday evening, involving a loss of $40,000.

Red Cloud and Spotted Tail, with 1200 to 1500 warriors, are reported on the war path, and on the way to the Black Hills. Twenty-five dead bodies have arrived at Buffalo Station, Kansas, and seventeen men are known to have been killed near Sydney and North Platte, Kansas; the utmost terror prevails in the threatened districts. The troops, wherever a corporal's guard can be gathered, are chasing the Indians.

The woman Alexander, who "peached" on her accomplice in regard to the murder of Weinbecker, in Connecticut, has placed herself in a bad position. The State Attorney expects to prove her complicity in at least two murders besides the one she confessed to.

Mrs. Jacob Kunz, of Woodbridge, Conn., had her clothing set on fire Saturday morning while putting wood in the stove. The poor woman ran to the barn and tried to put out the fire by rolling on the hay, but failed, and then threw herself into the well and was drowned. The barn was burned.

John Carpenter, of New York city, thirty-three years old, while half drunk entered a Catholic church in that city, Sunday, and stabbed Mrs. Mary Logan severely. The drunken ruffian, who was arrested, mistook Mrs. Logan for his wife, who is separated from him.

Richard Ellwood, of Methuen, Mass., accidentally shot himself on Sunday while duck hunting, and died in a few hours. Michael Wall was accidentally shot at Fall River by James Simmons, who was gunning, on Saturday; Wall's wound is dangerous, but he may recover.

Margaret Mooney of Princeton, N. Y., has been arrested for the murder of her husband by poison; and John Sexton, her paramour, is held as an accomplice.

James Stone, colored, of Washington, D. C., made a murderous attack with a razor on his wife and sister-in-law, Sunday, killing his wife and dangerously injuring the other woman.

Henry Greenbaum, ex-president of the German savings bank in Chicago, has been arrested for the embezzlement of $225,000. He was held for trial in the sum of $25,000.

Capt. Charles S. McGregor of Baring, Me., committed suicide Saturday night by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. He has been master of the barque Seaward of St. John, N. B., for nine years, and was home on a vacation. Depression of the mind on account of business is stated as being the cause of his rash act. He was thirty-four years of age, and leaves a wife and child.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept1079

THE CITY.

Capt. Henry Libby, master of the ship Triumphant, arrived at his home in this city on Saturday afternoon.

A running match to Portsmouth Plains and a mile walk on time, which was made in 8.45 was the street excitement for Monday evening.

Mr. Edward C. Moody of York has been invited to address the greenback club of this city Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Mercantile hall.

The body of young Fellows of Boston, who was drowned at Sagamore creek about two weeks ago while bathing, was found Sunday near where he went down.

The sermon of Rev. James DeNormandie of the Unitarian church on Sunday contained a sketch of the purposes and results of the recent Unitarian Convention at Saratoga.

We have received a hand-bill from a town in Michigan announcing that "Howe Call, of New Hampshire, will review the speech of Hon. Z. Chandler at the Court House this evening." Poor Zach!

A special excursion train will be run from this city to Fabyan's and return on Thursday, 10th inst., leaving this city at 8:30 o'clock A. M., and arriving back at about 8:30 in the evening. The fare for the round trip is put at $2.50.

Brig Sally Brown, formerly of this port, which was abandoned Sept. 8th on the voyage from Pensacola to Santos, has been washed ashore on the Florida coast, about twelve miles south of Mosquito inlet. Some papers belonging to the captain, Pressey, were picked up.

Mr. Joseph A. Moloon of this city has accepted the position of private secretary to Hon. E. H. Rollins. During the present campaign he will also act in the same capacity for Hon. Henry Huse, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, with headquarters in Concord.

An amateur walking match will take place in Franklin hall Thursday evening, 20th inst. A silver medal will be given as first prize, and a gold ring as second prize, with a special prize of a pair of vases to the person walking a mile in nine minutes or less. Six contestants are already entered.

Bryant's Minstrels will appear at Music hall Wednesday evening, when they will present one of their excellent entertainments. Their appearance here a few months since was the signal for a very large house, and everybody who attended will remember that they gave one of the best of minstrel performances.

This evening Mrs. Livermore will lecture in Music Hall on "Superfluous Woman." Of her recent appearance in that place, the Canonsburg (Penn.) Herald said: "Though the lecturer occupied two hours she held the attention of her hearers as if spell-bound throughout the entire discourse. Her manner is free and graceful, her voice clear, her enunciation distinct. Her subject was treated in that calm, logical manner, and in a style both elegant and forcible, which at once makes a deep and lasting impression upon the minds of her audience such as can only be exerted by a well-trained and cultivated intellect." Mrs. Livermore's lectures in Boston drew crowded audiences last week. Seats can be secured at Preston's.

THE VICINITY.

Schooner Patriot, of Newcastle, is loading at that place with apples for an eastern port.

Henry McCulloch has been appointed postmaster at Kennebunk Landing, and William Shaw at Kingman, York county, Maine.

A fire in Marble block, Biddeford, Saturday morning, damaged the building and contents to the amount of $3000, which was fully covered by insurance.

In the Strafford county Supreme Court, on Friday last, the case Jenness vs. town of Somersworth for damages for injuries from a defective highway, resulted in a verdict against the town of $1,202.50. Mrs. Clark of Dover had previously secured a verdict of $2,254.50 against the town of Somersworth in a similar case, making $3,457 the town is ordered to pay for defective roads. It would have been cheaper to have kept them in good repair.

John Jones died a few days ago at Great Falls, at the age of seventy-three. He had for over fifty years been in the employ of the manufacturing company as watchman.

SCHOOL MATTERS.

In school district number two, since the resignation of Miss Ham at the Cabot street school, several changes have been made by the sub-committee whereby the expenditure for the salary of one teacher has been saved to the city. Miss Ida L. Marston has been promoted to the position heretofore held by Miss Ham, and the position heretofore held by Miss Clara Barri as assistant to Mr. Kidder has been abolished and Miss Barri transferred to the Peabody school.

In the Jones grammar school, a portion of the pupils have been transferred from Miss Hill's room to that of Mr. J. Marshall Hawkes, while from Miss Wood's room some of the scholars have been sent to Miss Hill's room, to give places to boys and girls sent from Mr. Kidder's department in the Cabot street school.

These changes make a great saving, will add to the efficiency of the classes, and will no doubt have a beneficial effect upon the scholars of this district, who are now distributed more equally than before and are in better order of classification.

The percentage of attendance during the past month at the schools of this district shows an increase over the previous month.

SEASIDE RECREATION.

The picnics, always so popular here, and for which Portsmouth has become noted by visitors from elsewhere, were never more enjoyed than during the late season of warmer weather and in the bright days of early autumn, when, as the poet has it,

"September strews the woodland o'er
With many a brilliant color," and adds

"The world is brighter than before,—
Why should our hearts be duller?"

Such happy seasons are scarcely less enjoyed in retrospect in after time, than at their occurrence. Pleasant it especially is to recall them at the winter hearthstone, when "household fires burn warm and bright," and look forward to their re-enjoyment when nature resumes her mantle of green, and "the time of the singing of birds" has come again. Most happily will be remembered a series of such festive events by a party of friends, in a beautiful region on the far Newcastle shore, with its picturesque rocks, its noble beach, the green fields adjoining, and the overhanging willows that afforded such grateful shade; and not less will be remembered the generous kindness that invited others to participate in them. Each hour of the day brought something of added interest to these happy reunions, not least among them the arrival of expected guests; some by land, others by water, and others who, when cooler days incited them to do so, preferred a walk by the old bridges and through the picturesque scenery all along the antique village and its rural outskirts, or by the newer route to the Hotel Wentworth. Each who came had their chosen sources of pleasure amid the scenes of beauty around them; sometimes rambling over the grounds, upon the sandy beach, or by the rocky shore; at others resting beneath the willows, while chatting of all pleasant things and places, on land and sea, at home and abroad; at times looking out upon the broad ocean scene before them, the sails that dotted it here and there, the Isles of Shoals, and the breakers that dashed in foam over rocky points or reefs hid from sight beneath the sea; looking on at the game of "grummets," (the name of which smacks of salt water,) and the sometimes amusingly varied degrees of success in those engaged in it; or as the young of both sexes tried their skill at the oar; or, in the newly awakened fancy for archery, with the bow and arrow. When the sumptuous repast that accompanied each occasion had been fully enjoyed, the various pastimes were renewed until the declining sun gave warning that the time for departure had come. The day was never long enough, and was often lengthened out by a portion of the party, who, while others went on their way homeward amid the glories of the setting sun, preferred to return by boat or on foot in the moonlight.

Picnics, or what resembled them, were always in favor in our city. Scores there are who love to tell of the good times they had in their youth, when, taking with them the needed materials, they had at some rural dwelling in the outskirts, suppers in which drop-cakes were a prominent attraction. A letter of 1807, written by a young lady of Portsmouth to a friend absent from home, tells her of such a gathering at the old Piscataqua bridge, then the most popular resort. A small public house was there, and a stairway led to a room beneath the bridge, where dancing was enjoyed. Four of the party of eight survived after half a century had fled, and one, a late much esteemed citizen, survived when nearly seventy years were gone. J. H. B.

PRESENTATION.

One of the pleasant incidents for which our fire department is noted took place Monday evening, in the presentation of a fire hat and belt to Assistant Engineer J. Frank Shannon, who until chosen to a position on the Board of Engineers was foreman of S. F. E. Moses H. Goodrich, No. 4. The presentation was made by John S. Banks, foreman of No. 4, on behalf of the company, in a neat address as follows:

Mr. Shannon: In behalf of the members of Moses H. Goodrich steamer I take pleasure in presenting to you this hat and belt as a token of our friendship for you, and regard for the services of a long series of years. In the new and higher position to which you have been appointed you may rest assured that you will have no truer friends than the members of this company, who one and all wish you happiness and prosperity.

Mr. Shannon in response said:

Mr. Foreman, and Gentlemen of Moses H. Goodrich Company, No. Four: Please accept my sincere thanks for your valuable present tendered to me this evening, and rest assured that it will be preserved by me as a memento of the many happy hours in which it has been my good fortune to be associated with you as member and foreman of this company. And it will be with pleasure, when it is worn by me either on duty or other occasions, that I shall endeavor to merit a continuance of your confidence in the future as in former years. Again, gentlemen, I thank you for this present and the kind expression of your regards.

The fire hat is a very handsome one, with gilt trimming, and "Assistant Engineer, Portsmouth, N. H.," on the shield in front. The belt is white, to correspond with the hat, with black filling and raised letters the same as on the hat.

THE DOVER FAIR.

The Union Fair at Granite State park, Dover, last week, was a success financially, the attendance exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its projectors; it was estimated that ten thousand people were on the grounds on Wednesday. The principal drawback was the dust, which enveloped everything. The Dover Democrat says: "The only thing which prevented all the people of Dover from attending was the distance over the road to the grounds. Notwithstanding the great effort of all sorts of teams to convey the people, there was, after all, very serious lack of accommodations. And in the effort to accommodate the people some of the owners or drivers of teams resorted to unjustifiable and unlawful means. They were guilty of cruelty to animals, for which they deserve and should receive the punishment of the law. We have heard that five horses were killed by the heat and overwork during the fair. There is no doubt that three animals were disposed of in that way, and we do not hesitate to say that they were three plain cases of outrageous cruelty admitting of no excuse or palliation." On Friday James F. Burns of Dover ran a mile on the race-track, hauling a sulky, in six minutes and twenty seconds. The "agricultural horse-trotting" during the fair was very successful, all the races being won by the horses that fairly came in ahead.

E. R. R. IN MASSACHUSETTS.

The adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern railroad in Massachusetts was held Monday morning at the office of the treasurer in Boston, to hear the report of the committee appointed at the meeting last week to count the vote taken of the ratification of certain new agreements with the Eastern railroad of New Hampshire, and the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad. The President, Gen. Alfred T. Rockwell occupied the chair, and the polls having been kept open for ten minutes additional, the committee reported that 27,144 votes had been cast in favor of the ratification, fifty-four against and eight blank. The leases were declared ratified, and the meeting adjourned sine die.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

The Court comes in at Exeter this morning. The term is to be held by Hon. Daniel Clark, U. S. District Judge.

In the equity suit brought by Gedney K. Richardson and others, stockholders of the Nashua & Lowell railroad, vs. the Nashua & Lowell railroad and some of its directors, upon which a hearing as to injunction was to be heard to-day, an agreement has been reached to extend the injunction to Nov. 11th, when if not adjusted a hearing will be had before Judge Clark.

The following is the list of the Grand Jurors summoned: Charles Kelly and Joseph W. Cilley, Weare; James G. Bassett, Atkinson; Horace C. Silver, Nathan Griffin, Deerfield; Daniel Smith, Brentwood; George C. Kimball, Hookselt; George E. Burtt, George O. Fisher, Nashua; Samuel H. Hunting, Auburn; James Sanborn, Seabrook; Charles E. Avery, Dunbarton; Joshua B. Pickering, Jr., Newington; Wm. D. Watson, Northwood; Clarence O. Morse, Hiram L. Pollard, Chester; Charles A. Blanchard, George A. Carlisle, Exeter.

The traverse jurors are: Hiram Bushwell, Weare; Wm. C. Noyes, Atkinson; George H. Stevens, Deerfield; John H. Fellows, Brentwood; Josiah V. Wright, Geo. G. Hale, Nashua; George P. Clark, Auburn; Frank Brown, Seabrook; Isaac P. Clifford, Dunbarton; John A. Pickering, Newington; Henry Hilliard, Northwood; Chas. F. True, Chester; and Geo. W. Green, Exeter.

—There have already been 8,000 folios of testimony taken in the Billings murder trial at Ballston, N. Y. The legal cap paper on which is recorded the declarations of the 110 witnesses who have appeared in this famous case, when heaped together, makes a pile as tall as any of the lawyers in the case.

Does the World Move?

The Rev. John Jasper, of Virginia, says: "Do sun do move, for in de mornin' it shines on dis side ob de hous, wile in de ebenin, on dat side ob de hous. Now, ef he don't move, how com he dar?" Notwithstanding Mr. Jasper's logic, we yet believe the world moves. When Mr. Jasper's ideas constituted the popular belief, people thought that to die of small-pox or cholera was simply fulfilling one of nature's laws. Now, through vaccination, small-pox is averted, while cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery (flux), and diarrhœa are readily cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed. Does not such evidence tend to prove that "the world moves?" As an external remedy for cuts, bruises, sprains, swellings, bites and stings of insects, the Compound Extract of Smart-Weed has no equal. Veterinary surgeons have also employed it with marked success.

A Word of Warning to Counterfeiters.

The wide-spread fame of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters causes a necessity on our part to remind, from time to time, whom it may concern, of the fact that imitating said article is a punishable offence, and we now give this word of caution, that we will most assuredly have all those persons engaged in re-filling our second-hand bottles, selling by the gallon or barrel, or in any manner whatsoever palming off on the public a spurious article purporting to be our preparation, punished to the full extent of the law. Penalty for counterfeiting, or dealing in counterfeit trade mark goods, as set forth in a law recently passed by Congress: "Fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment." We never fail to convict.

NOTICE TO DEALERS AND PURCHASERS.—Hostetter's Bitters are never, under any circumstances, sold in bulk; BUT ALWAYS IN BOTTLES, with a finely engraved U. S. Internal Revenue (special proprietary) Stamp covering the cork of each bottle, fastened to both sides of the neck of the same. All Bitters purporting to be Hostetter's, without this stamp, are counterfeit.

The popular verdict of the travelling public is that the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, cannot be excelled by any other house in the Quaker City.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the traveling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In
Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by thousands of testimonials in which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 142 pounds, and she is perfectly improved in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without injuring my digestion or stomach, I took bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. COWDEN & PLUMMER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. If (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-six pounds, I will never or regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, creates a healthy appetite, and is a perfect remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of these diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this unerring specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while attending its curative results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, implied it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficient remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down, Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it eliminates, fulfils a definite end or purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of women. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information, and have subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

SANFORD'S

RADICAL CURE

For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of plants, erbs and barks in their essential form, free from every ibrous contamination, and in this respect differs from very other known remedy. In one short year it has ound its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy or the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have ven wasted space by gentlemen of national reputation ho have been cured by this remedy, and who have ccasionally expense and personal trouble, spread he good news throughout the circles in which they ove. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may feel assured that it is an article of genuine merit, and worthy to be classed among the tandard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me co calculable. HENRY WELLS, OF WELLS, FARGO & CO.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering. GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure. D. W. GRAY, M. D., MUSCATINE, IOWA.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its wonderful effects with them. WM. BOWEN, 228 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success. WM. W. VARNEYHONG, 159 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we novel old a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint. S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true. I therefore made affidavit to it before Seth J. Thomas, Esq., Justice of the Peace, Boston. GEORGE F. DINSMORE, DRUGGIST, BOSTON.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. WORTH'S TOILETTES.

A costume recently devised by Worth for Mme. Marie Roze, is of pale lavender silk. The corsage is low, and strictly speaking there are no sleeves. A slight fringing of lace falls over the arm, and this, by courtesy, we will call a sleeve. It is made tight fitting, round basque, having a row of point lace around the neck; the skirt is without trimming except a narrow row of knife plaiting around the lower edge, and falls plainly in heavy court train at the back. But the chief beauty of this toilette is in the exquisite lace overdress which is draped in truly artistic stye, and carelessly caught on either side by a bouquet of pink roses and leaves, one of which is placed high up, the other quite low upon the train. Another lovely toilette is pink satin combined with the new corduroy velvet of similar shade. The dress is cut in one throughout, the corsage low, sleeves extremely short, and full court train. Over all is spread what seems a fairy frost work of white jet set in lace-like pattern. A third handsome toilette is composed of wine colored moire antique combined with black velvet and fringe. As you will see by this moire antique has come up again, so if you have any of such fabric stowed away, now is the time to bring it out. Possibly however the color (if it be colored) may not be a fashionable shade. This indeed would be a serious drawback, so if you doubt, enclose me a sample, and I will give you my opinion. Old brocades, rather new brocades resembling old ones, are now brought out, and here also you may find something which can be utilized.

SHORT COSTUMES.

The inevitable kilt skirt is inevitable no longer, for now we sometimes see short costumes made with plain skirt, overskirt above, and only a narrow gather or plaited flounce on the lower edge. The reason for such innovation is, the heavy winter materials do not always admit of prolonged plaitings. They would be too heavy, and besides we have seen so much of kilt plaited skirts that may be we are getting a little tired of them. A pretty model, the Leonora, is partly kilt plaited, and partly not, the back being devised in such style, while the front is ornamented with bows, showing only a narrow plaiting around the lower edge. No overskirt of course is worn, but the Cecilia basque is pretty in combination. The Isonde Visite is a stylish out-door garment for early fall or winter, and as horseback riding is now very fashionable owing to the present rage for fox hunting, the Park Riding Habit may be mentioned as having been recently introduced. The Muriel overskirt is pretty when worn with a demi-trained skirt.

SHOES AND GLOVES.

For the reason that short costumes are in reality what they profess to be—that is to say really short, the foot becomes an object of special consideration, and this apart from the fact that hosiery is now, as indeed it has been for some time past, so very pretty that it would seem quite wicked to hide it. So far in doors, we find the changes rung on all manner of open styles, showing straps across, although quite recently, such beautiful boots have been brought out in brocaded silk that if they are worn, the stocking becomes a minor consideration. For out door wear, plain high buttoned kid or cloth top boots are appropriate, but kid stamped in imitation of basket or annure cloth are the latest idea.

Gloves are long on the wrist, and are either heavy stitched, bouquet embroidered, or delicately stiched in self color; one style is as fashionable as the other. Colors are either dark, approaching the invisible, very pale, or in medium shades of wood color or gray, but bright or positive colors of any kind are studiously avoided. For evening or full dress, the Harris Prevost side buttoned glove continues to be the leading style, while for visiting and many dress occasions the Harris Seamless is most elegant. Costing somewhat less, we find the Victoria and Donna Maria which are much liked by judicious purchasers.

TRIMMINGS.

Combinations of two or more materials are fashionable, and this affords much variety in trimmings, but as hitherto, the plain material is often laid in fine knife plaitings. Then we have fringes of all degrees. Choice fringes are united with finely cut jet, and are composed of silk twist, chenille, and crimped silk tape. Showy fringes are laden more or less heavily with gilt, Caminee fringes are curiously pressed by means of hot irons, so as to produce a glittering effect.

and not unfrequently the different styles are interwoven with each other so as to give additional variety. Passementerie is as differently wrought as fringes, and is used as headings, or laid in perpendicular rows down the seams of handsome out door garments. As for buttons, their name is legion, and I could not tell you half the styles shown. Crocheted buttons are seen, but choice is also given among buffalo horn tinted and in the natural-color pearl, imitation and real tortoise shell, jet, steel, gilt, silver, and Chinese and Japanese lacquer work.

New ribbons are so beautiful and so novel in design that they are in great favor not only because a graceful finish, but because by reason of their varied colors, they give opportunity for introducing some fine effects in the way of color. For we must remember that ribbons are often not only double but quadruple faced, to say nothing of the many hued brocade, embossed, and gaily flowered ribbons. LUCY CARTER.

Facts for the People.

Ever since the close of the war the democratic party has persistently filled the ears of the people with charges against the republican government of official fraud, robbery and theft. Familiar with the fact that while the democracy was in power the government was constantly being plundered, that party, judging from its own practices, concluded that their successors were equally guilty of official dishonesty, and must be so charged before the public. The cry went out from the press, the platform, and Congress of republican defalcations, robbery, and fraud. Speakers and writers were loud in their denunciations of the party in power. Investigating committees were called for and granted, and every facility was afforded in sifting to the bottom the records of the Departments. And what was the result? Honest democrats have themselves admitted that the total losses discovered did not amount in dollars to what it cost to make the investigations.

The Secretary of the Treasury was subsequently called upon by Senator Boutwell for a statement of all defalcations since the organization of the government, including and showing all losses on receipts and disbursements down to the date of the call. The statement was prepared with great care, and the follow- is the result.

Losses on receipts and disbursements from Washington to Grant.

Average loss on $1000 during Washington's administration, $2.22; administration of John Adams, $2.59; Jefferson, $2.75; Madison, $4.16; Monroe, $8.58; John Quincy Adams, $4.39; Jackson, $7.52; Van Buren, $11.71; Harrison and Tyler, $6.40; Polk, $4.08; Taylor and Fillmore, $4.19; Pierce, $3.56; Buchanan, $3.81; Lincoln, seventy-six cents; Johnson, fifty-seven cents; Grant (for six years of his eight years' term, the table having been made up when Grant still had two years to serve,) thirty-four cents. This includes post office and all other amounts collected or disbursed, and the losses thereon; and the result, as stated, is the average on each one thousand dollars. The figures in detail are accessible to all who may desire to examine them, and can be obtained on application in person or by letter to the Republican Congressional Committee, Washington, D. C.

The recapitulation, as given above, reveals the remarkable fact that while the average loss on each $1000 prior to June 30th, 1861, was $5.17, after that period, under republican administration, the average loss was only fifty-seven cents on each $1000. Under Buchanan the loss per $1000 was $3.81; under James K. Polk, $4.08; under John Tyler, $6.40; and under Martin Van Buren, $11.71. We leave the reader to make his own comments. The figures are official.

A Democratic Reformer.

Acklen, the democratic Congressman from the third district of Louisiana, is having a hard time of it. The Rosser-Godfrey scandal in a Washington eating-house he was able to skim over—rather a "thin" skimming, certainly, but it answered; but no sooner had the memory of that disgraceful affair begun to die out than a prominent democrat of Louisiana demanded that he (Acklen) should withdraw from the ticket, (his little escapade in Washington not having seemed to the democrats of Louisiana sufficient reason to prevent his being renominated,) for the reason that proof was at hand to show that he had drugged and outraged a girl of fifteen, and when he found her about to become a mother forced her to marry one of his political strikers, who received $300 for making her his wife. Acklen demanded a committee of investigation, which the democratic State committee granted him, allowing him to name its members; and that committee, appointed by himself, have now advised him to retire from the ticket as a candidate for Congress, which he has refused to do, and he has gone in search of further affidavits, but the committee have notified him that they will no longer serve. The democratic State central committe have notified him that they will not support his nomination. Mr. Acklen has been noted for his zeal in the cause of reform, and his hatred of republican fraud and corruption, since he has been in Congress. He was one of the candidates who, having been beaten in his district on the popular vote, was "elected" by the "democratic reform House," the same as Patterson of Colorado and Dean of Massachusetts.

News and Notes.

The people of Westfield, Mass., think they have a Lucretia Borgia among them. An autopsy on the body of Etta Drake, who died on Friday under the suspicion of having been poisoned, was performed on Saturday, but no natural cause of death was found. The intestines will be subjected to chemical analysis, and it is expected that traces of arsenical poison will be discovered. It is rumored that the step mother, who is suspected of having administered poison, has had three husbands, and that the first two died under somewhat suspicious circumstances Some years ago, when she was a widow for the first time, her son died in bed one night, though he had not previously been ill, and it was said that the man about to marry her objected to the boy.

A great scandal and no end of gossip has been caused at West Worthington, Mass., by the elopement of Edward Crosier a well-to-do young farmer, who leaves a wife and child, with a Miss Thayer. Crosier, was converted and joined the church something over a year ago. At the rehearsals of the Moody and Sankey hymns he became acquainted with Miss Thayer, who was a school-teacher. The officers say that Crosier has managed to get together about $3000, and his father, who has a claim on his farm, is now in charge of it. His wife and child will be left in destitute circumstances.

Three hundred and twenty-eight national banks, with a united capital of $48,797,900, passed their dividends last March; and 356, with a capital of $58,736,950, did likewise last month.

The insurrection in Santa Cruz is quelled and the ringleaders captured. The cause of the insurrection is said to have been a disagreement between the negroes and planters regarding labor contracts.

Steamship Georgia, of the Pacific Mail line, has been wrecked at Punta Arenas, on the trip from San Francisco for Panama. She was an iron screw steamer of 2000 tons, and cost $400,000 a short time ago. She struck a rock in the Straits of Magellan eighteen months ago, on her way to California when new, but was floated off at heavy cost. Passengers, crew and mails saved.

The Portland Press says that last week the man in charge of the planing machine at Doten's mill, on Fore street, Portland, went into the engine room on some business. As he entered he saw that the boilers were red hot and the new engineer—the old one having recently been discharged—was about to turn a faucet and let water into the red hot iron. The planer made a jump and caught the man's hand just in time to prevent a fearful catastrophe. If the water had been let on the boilers would have exploded, and the result, in that locality, with all the hands about and the partners in the office, would have been terrible to contemplate. The fires were drawn, but it is thought the tubing was so burned that new boilers will be needed.

Mason Rhodes of Sheffield, Mass., who recently captured several large rattlesnakes and exhibited them at the cattle show, thought some little ones, only two weeks old, were harmless, but in putting his finger into the box to remove a piece of paper, one of them fastened its fangs upon it. He quickly threw the reptile back into the box, tying a cord about his finger and drinking a pint of whisky. Subsequently he drank a gallon of liquor and two ounces of morphine without producing intoxication, and escaped serious injury.

J. D. Kremelberg, a leading Baltimore merchant and formerly purchasing agent for the French government in America, has sued for a divorce from his wife, nee Miss Jenkins, a woman of extraordinary beauty and brilliancy in society circles, on the ground of improper relations on her part with Baron Albert Von Brunig, whom she met while travelling abroad a few years go. Mrs. Kremelberg is still a leader in Baltimore society circles, her relatives refusing to believe her guilty.

O'Leary, the pedestrian, beat Hughes in a six days' match last week for $1000 a side and Sir John Astley's champion belt, at Gilmore's Garden in New York. Leary walked 403 miles, and was in excellent condition at the close; Hughes was in a pitiable state.

Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector Phillips has returned from a raid through Overton, Jackson, Fentress and Putnam counties, Tenn., several illicit distilleries being destroyed. On the 3d inst. the party reached Crawford's Mills, a few miles from Livingston, and when about to cross the ford, several armed men were noticed on a bluff on the opposite side, evidently meaning fight. A detachment of the revenue force was sent farther up the river, crossed and approached the enemy from the rear. They found a force estimated at fifty men, armed with long-range rifles, awaiting them. The firing began immediately and continued until the ammunition of the revenue force was nearly exhausted, compelling them to retreat. It is reported that four of the distillers were killed and several wounded.

Hart, the murderer of Mrs. Meservey at Rockland, Me., was on Monday found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to State prison for life.

Klebur White, colored, on Monday shot and killed another colored man named Harry Coleman near Richmond, Va., for the alleged seduction of White's fourteen years-old sister.

A negro named Wade, of Greenville, Ohio, having been warned to leave town and refused to do so, was mobbed in his house Monday night and was shot dead while endeavoring to escape. Mob murders are getting altogether too common in the north.
